In his little "tiff" with the United States Senate, over treaty propositions, in which the august Senate stands on its "dignity" and strenuously maintains its "prerogatives," President Roosevelt has lost none of his prestige with the people of the United States, who have as yet seen nothing in his acts or words to condemn, but everything to commend.

The Senate is not so much worried over the possibility of losing its "prerogatives" as it is about the probability that its stand on the railroad rate bill, which will soon confront it, will not meet with the people's approval. The average Senator is not inclined to meddle much with a power which has largely to do with his own making or unmaking, and he is seeking a breach with the Chief Executive in order that he may have an excuse for turning down the railroad bill when it confronts the Senate.

President Roosevelt has made no mistakes up to this hour, much as some people would desire to see him do so. His every move has been for the betterment of the condition of the whole country and the improvement and aid of the common people in particular, and they are with him to a man in his fight for their rights.

The President has said that every man shall have a "square deal," and so far as he is able to bring it about, every man is going to get just that. The people are with Theodore Roosevelt, and the Senators will learn this truth if they have not already caught on.

To Regulate Borough Affairs.

Willis Cowan, writes his paper, the Warren Mail, concerning a new proposition that is now before the legislature at Harrisburg, making some important changes in the affairs of boroughs of the Commonwealth, as follows:

It is proposed to remodel the Pennsylvania laws regarding boroughs by providing for legislation on a basis of classification by population. Senator White, of Beaver, has presented a bill to this effect in the Senate at the request of the authorities of Washington, Pa. The bill is intended to enlarge the powers of boroughs under State laws and provides that there shall be two classes of boroughs as there are now two classes of townships.

Boroughs of the first class shall consist of those having a census population of 5,000 or more. The act makes no change in the qualifications, powers or manner of election of Burgesses. The office of borough Treasurer becomes an elective one under the act, the term being three years, the officer to draw an annual salary to be fixed by the Council. He is to collect all taxes. He is also empowered to collect delinquent taxes, through district collectors.

The office of Borough Controller is also created, to be filled at general election, for the term of three years, and to bear a salary to be fixed by each borough Council. This officer also countersigns all warrants for any or all warrants for any or all purposes. The office of High Constable in boroughs of the first class is given additional prestige by making that officer the Chief of Police at a salary to be fixed by Councils. He is empowered to appoint additional officers when Council shall so direct, but the Burgess is given the right to veto any of his appointments.

Startling But True.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of the Chicago theatre in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have ward off by the prompt use of this remedy.
