Concerning Scotch Pawkiness.
A "positively true tale" of Scotch pawkiness is sent us by a naval correspondent. He traveled up to Inverness-shire with a Scotsman, on whose factuality he failed, after many efforts, to imagine. The Scotsman still stared dully, fixedly from the train. At last intelligence began to show in his face and grow to ecstasy, and he shouted in his excitement, "Look here, look here, that's whaur it was." His companion rushed to the window. "In yon wee town," continued the Scotsman, "I was charged sumpence for yin cup of coffee."—London Globe.

Why He Retreated.
Kilmore—After all, Steadman isn't so bad a fellow. He came to me, man fashion, and took back all the things he had said against my people. Burman—Did it voluntarily? Kilmore—Practically that. It is true I threatened to shoot him on sight if he didn't retract, but that was only a matter of detail.—Boston Transcript.

A Queer Marriage Ceremony.
Among the Kherrias of India the marriage ceremony is very funny. Taking a small portion of the hair of the bride and groom in turn from the center of the forehead, the priest draws it down on to the bridge of the nose. Then, pouring oil on the head, he watches it carefully as it trickles down the portion of hair. If the oil runs straight on to the tip of the nose their future will be fortunate, but if it spreads over the forehead or trickles off on either side of the nose, bad luck is sure to follow. Their fortunes told, generally to their own satisfaction, the essential and irrevocable part of the ceremony takes place. Standing up side by side, but with faces strictly averted, the bride and groom mark each other's forehead with "sindur" (vermillion).

Marriage Forbidden the Deformed.
Deformed persons, who are very rare among the Sakals, or those attacked by dangerous disease must make a vow of celibacy.—Singapore Straits Budget.

Woman Killed a Neighbor.
Passaic, N. J., March 6.—Antoinette Tollo shot and instantly killed Joseph Santo at Kingsland, seven miles from here. The Tollo and Santo families were neighbors and apparently always had been on the most friendly terms. Santo was married and had three children and Mrs. Tollo was the mother of a boy aged 4 and a girl aged 2. After being taken to jail Mrs. Tollo said she killed Santo in defense of her honor.

Scared to Death by Bolting Horses.
Fairmont, W. Va., March 4.—Abs Pethel, a justice of the peace, died from fright while driving with his daughter, Miss Mollie. The wagon was on the edge of a precipice, near Glover Gap, when the horses bolted. The daughter succeeded in controlling the animals, and upon turning to her father, she found him dead in the wagon-bed.

Hunting Missing Mail Pouch.
Connellsville, Pa., March 4.—Secret service men came here from Washington to institute a search for a mail pouch which disappeared from a mail crane at Bear Run the night of Jan. 27. The pouch contained registered letters, and it is said that about $200 in addition to valuable packages was lost.

New Brighton Hear Rumors.
New Brighton, Pa., March 4.—A report is in circulation here that Jones & Laughlin have purchased the farm of the late George Hostetter, opposite Merrill dam, on the Ohio river, and that the Jones & Laughlin iron works will be moved or a big plant put up; also that a branch of the Wabash will Wolcott, who died at Monte Carlo on March 1, took place yesterday at the mortuary chapel of Pere Lachaise cemetery in the presence of Ambassador Porter, Henry Wolcott and some intimate friends. The Rev. Dr. Goodrich officiated. The body subsequently was cremated. The ashes will be taken to the United States.

Injured in a Coasting Accident.
Jamestown, N. Y., March 7.—Seven persons were injured, two perhaps fatally, in a coasting accident last night. The party was coasting down Washington street and collided with a team and heavy wagon. Mrs. Richard Henning and Richard Fisher were the most seriously injured. Their condition is critical.

Shakespeare's Cats.
Shakespeare makes frequent references to the cat in his plays. Lady Macbeth taunts her husband when he hangs back from the murder with "Letting I dare not wait upon I would, like the poor cat I' the adage, alluding to that animal's fondness for fish—"What cat's avers to fish?"—but its unwillingness to wet its feet in catching them.
Falstaff seizes upon another feature of the animal's character, so detested by all wakeful sleepers in towns: "Shlood! I am as melancholy as a gib cat!" When Mercutio longs for a fray with Tybalt, he accosts him: "Good king of cats, I would have nothing but one of your nine lives. That I mean to make bold withal, and, as you shall use me hereafter, dry beat the rest of the eight," and thereupon receives that celebrated "scratch" which was "not so deep as a well nor so wide as a church door."

Her Retort.
"My ancestors came over in the Mayflower," said the young woman who boasts.
"Yes," answered Mrs. Packingham of Chelengo, "I understand that travel was very cheap on that boat."—Washington Star.

Holding His Own.
"Stoney, isn't he?"
"You've said it! Why, he holds fast to everything he gets his clutches on and even bolts down his dinner!"

Sure, Safe, Quick.
For Live and Kidneys, Thompson's Barosma.

The test of time is the surest test. Common sense is the collective opinion of the majority of the people. Hence when the test of time and public opinion agree on a state of things, you may feel safe in following that opinion. The principle obtains in medicine as well as in everything else. That which the majority of the people says is right must be right. Therefore the certitude of the verdict on Thompson's Barosma, Kidney and Liver Cure. It has been used for many years by people all over the world. It has stood the test of time, and has the approbation of every one who has ever used it. Not in one solitary instance has Thompson's Barosma failed to accomplish what is claimed for it—the absolute cure for any affection of the liver and kidneys. Most of human physical ills spring from derangement of those organs. The heart, the stomach, the bladder, the nervous system, the mind, all answer the danger token which they sound. Why do you suffer or endanger life with neglect, then, when a slight expenditure for a time-tried remedy will put the blood of youth in your veins again? Rheumatism? That is but one result of kidney ailment. You can and will make kindling wood of your crutches after a short course with Thompson's Barosma. At all druggists. 50c and $1.

'Po' 'LT' Ram!
A ram, famous in a West Virginia village for its propensity to butt, was engaged one morning, says the Philadelphia Press, to discover Uncle Billy, an aged dorky, asleep in the pasture. Uncle Billy sat with his head bowed low and his bald spot shining in the sun. The ram eyed it from a distance. Uncle Billy nodded, and the bald top of his head made defiance.
The ram stood up and waved a challenge with its horns. Uncle Billy nodded in acceptance. With a sharp "Ba-a-a-a!" the ram charged and launched itself like a catapult at the offending pate.
A little later it packed itself up from the ground and wandered away to the farthest side of the pasture to ruminate over the collision. Uncle Billy looked up drowsily.
"Po' 'LT' ram!" he murmured. "He done wandered 'rom do fold and four' sorrow and tribulation!"

RHEUMATISM CURED.
A Pennsylvania Man has no more use for Canes.
"I am 75 years of age. For 25 years I suffered from a lame back and rheumatism. Last summer (in 1903) it settled in the muscles of my limbs, so I had to use two canes to get up or down, or to walk a step. I have doctored all the time, but to no avail. I began the faithful use of Cal-cura Solvent, Dr. David Kennedy's new medicine, and the results are wonderful. I have no backache now, and I feel first class. I can't praise Cal-cura Solvent, Dr. Kennedy's new medicine, too much." All druggists. $1.00.
