—Oil market closed at $1.39.

—Oil and gas leases at this office.

—Some new announcements this week.

—All goods go at cost, and many things below cost, at F. R. Lanson's. Don't wait too long.

—The subject of Rev. W. O. Callison's sermon at the M. E. church next Sabbath evening will be "A Compromise with the Devil."

—Many new things in the vegetable line will be found at the White Star Grocery these days. Always fresh and palatable.

—Rev. Dr. Sionaker's subjects for next Sabbath at the Presbyterian church are: Morning, "The Hope of Glory." Evening, "Ambition."

—In white goods our stock was never more complete. Fresh from the city marts, and they are far above the average this season. Hopkins.

—Don't miss the opening show at the new opera house next Friday evening. It will be a good one. Reserved seats on sale at Davis' drug store.

—F. C. Ingraham will be in Tionesta, March 21st, to organize his class on piano. Those desiring to take instruction will address him at Oil City, Pa.

—The best methods of study for teachers are practiced in Edinboro Normal. Spring Term opens March 29th. Catalogue free. JOHN F. BLOUER, Prin.

—At the services in the M. E. church of Nebraska last Sabbath morning two persons were taken into the church. Another class will be taken in next Sabbath morning.

—Win. S. Rose, prothonotary of Crawford county, and one of its most prominent citizens, died of paralysis at his home in Meadville last week. His successor has not yet been named.

—Write me about Shenandoah Valley of Colorado. Our land will pay cost in one year. Sure crops; water plenty; rich, deep soil; small capital required; easy terms; Co. helps you; employment for first 50 settlers. Grand climate. E. D. Austin, Vice Pres., Erie, Pa.

—The sleighing is getting quite thin in spots, although the snow and ice on the roads is often found to be a foot or two in depth in places where the sun has not been able to penetrate. There is good skating on the river and creek, but there are many dangerous places, and the boys should have a care.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold a market at the home of Mr. Robinson next Saturday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, at which they will have on sale all the good things for the table. A good place to stock up for the Sunday dinner. The proceeds of this sale will be added to the church building fund.

—Although we have had, and are still having, some zero weather these nights, the danger from a bad break-up in the river is lessening daily, and the ice is getting weaker with every hour of sunshine. And so the chances are that there will scarcely be enough trouble from that source to make fun for the boys. Let us hope so.

—The Clarion State Normal School offers exceptional educational advantages at a very small cost. If you have a son or daughter to educate it will pay you to write to the Principal for catalogue and descriptive circulars. Teachers who attend the Clarion State Normal School have a splendid opportunity to observe the work done in the Model school and the Kindergarten.

—Alderman Canfield lately added another fine driver to his already large livery outfit, this one being secured out near Johnstown. "Shelt" claims he has more good horses than he knows what to do with, and says if any one has a mind to stocking up or making a change, he's his man. Bargains in horse flesh always to be had at his stables. Call early and avoid the rush.

—The ladies of the Tionesta W. C. T. U. were royally entertained by Mrs. Joseph Landers at her pleasant home last evening, the regular meeting night of the Union. Aside from the transaction of the routine business of the Union the meeting was largely one of social intercourse. Delicious refreshments were served.

—It is reported that the H. S. Oil Company, of Marienville, has just completed a 70-barrel well on the Bridget McDonald farm near Wainokel. This location is 1,400 feet north of the well which started operations in this pool—the Pinegrove Oil Company's No. 1 on the James Wray farm, drilled in November 7, and which is holding up remarkably well.

—The borough school board has set April 23rd, the last day of the term, as the time for the commencement exercises. There are 10 in the graduating class this year, as follows: Edward Joyce, President, Fern O. Bowman, Secretary, Colyn J. Clark, Treasurer, Ethel J. Clark, Genevieve A. Dunt, Thomas D. Fulton, Glenn E. Henry, Isabelle A. Joyce, Olive R. Lanson, and Bertha A. Lawrence.

—Jacob Salsgiver, whose home is on Clark's Summit, was so unfortunate as to have his left hand caught in a stone crusher this morning, and as a result Drs. McCarthy and Siggins, who attended him at the hospital, found it necessary to amputate the greater portion of the member, but were able to save the thumb and index finger.—Oil City Blizzard, 11th. Salsgiver is a native of this community.

—At a meeting of the creditors of the Gale Company, held at Warren last Saturday, L. H. Gibson, of Tionesta, was named as the trustee in the bankrupt proceedings now pending. Joseph Landers, of Tionesta, and J. A. Hart and another Oil City gentleman, whose name we did not learn, were named as appraisers of the company's property located here, consisting of the veneer works, stock, machinery, etc.

—The Lady Macabees of Nebraska have very agreeably surprised their Record Keeper, Lady Annie Thomson, Saturday evening last, when about fifteen of their number assembled at her home, taking complete possession. A very delightful evening was spent in fitch, etc. Elegant refreshments were served by the Ladies. At 11 o'clock they departed to their homes, leaving three beautiful pieces of silverware as a token of their regard.

—If you are intending to do papering this spring it will more than pay you to consult George I. Davis, the artistic painter and paper-hanger. He has rented the room formerly occupied by F. E. Dick as a tailor shop, and has in stock a line of wall and ceiling papers the like of which has never been seen in Tionesta. Look over his stock, or ask him to call at your house and submit his fine line of samples. His phone is No. 36. See his ad. in this issue.

—Governor Pennypacker has vetoed the Lewis and Clark exposition junket resolution, passed by the legislature, and carrying an appropriation of $60,000 for personal expenses of members attending. This seems like an enormous bill of expenses, but as the exposition takes place "way out in Oregon, and the "railroad fare" for members of the legislature would be heavy it was perhaps necessary to make the appropriation extra large, as the tired legislators could not be expected to walk the whole distance.

—Mr. George Walton, who lived near Gilfoyle, died very suddenly last Sunday night, about 10 o'clock, of brain fever and inflammation of the lungs. He was about 35 years of age. The deceased had been to Marienville on Friday night and after reaching home was taken sick, going to bed and did not recover. He leaves a wife and one child. His funeral occurred on Tuesday at Rose's cemetery. Mr. Walton was an honorable and upright citizen, a good husband and a kind father.—Marienville Express.

—"Black Tom" Hughes, a notorious crook and safe-cracker, was shot by a Bradford policeman Sunday night and fatally wounded, dying the following day. He had been detected in the robbery of a store at Limestone, near Bradford. Hughes' nefarious operations cover a period from the early oil excitement on Oil Creek down to the present day. He was sent to the penitentiary from Clarion county in 1878 for robbing the store of Nicholas Gilfert of Lickingville, in which he was assisted by a pal named Gates.

—Looking backward just 20 years next Friday, St. Patrick's Day, we find the following item in the REPUBLICAN: "Note it down—St. Patrick's Day in the morning, 1885, thermometer fourteen degrees below zero. Ice in the river anywhere from one and a half to six feet thick." And one week later in the same year this one: "The coldest night of this winter was last Friday night, 20th, or first day of spring, the thermometer registering 22 degrees below zero." In that year, 1885, the ice in the river went out on the second day of April. This bit of history is not so ancient but that it might repeat itself without much effort.

—The "Joshua Simpkins" company, carrying their own special scenery, a band of music and fine orchestra, will produce the great pastoral comedy drama of that name at the Tionesta Opera House next Friday evening. The piece deals with country life and people, three acts of the play being laid in one of the many quaint villages of Vermont. The second act portrays Uncle Josh's first visit to Washington City. In the third act a sensational saw mill effect is shown, being nothing more or less than a complete saw mill in full operation, cutting up genuine timber. The saw is a genuine circular saw, and cuts through timber at lightning speed.

—A circular from J. H. Maddy, press agent for the Erie railroad, says hereafter newspapers shall have all information they desire. The circular says: "The management of this property realizes that wrecks are news, that while a railroad does not want to have them and does all it can to prevent them, they will happen, and then the proper procedure is to give the facts. As a semi-public institution, this railroad's doings are semi-public in character, it's officers and employees are well known and its services to the public a subject of comment. It is proposed to keep the newspapers fully posted as to matters of interest, and this office will handle such news as may be of interest to the public." And some other railroads that we know of might do well to follow this example.

—An exchange makes the following explanation: Somebody who wants to explain what the editorial "we" signifies, says its meaning varies to suit the circumstances. For instance when you read that "we expect our wife home to-day" we refer to the editor and chief, when it's "we are a little late with our work" it includes the whole office even the devil and towel, if "we are having a boom," the town is meant; "we received over 700,000 emigrants last year," it embraces the nation, but "we have bog cholera in our midst" only refers to the illness of the man who takes the paper two or three years then orders it stopped without paying for it.

—The "Forest County Agricultural Society and Driving Park Association of Marienville" was organized at that place last week, with a full set of officers. The object of the new organization is the stimulating of the agricultural interests of the county and the holding of an annual county fair, together with its attendant attractions, such as a trotting park, buildings for the display of the products of the farm, live stock, etc. The project is in the hands of the wide-awake citizens of the town, which is equivalent to saying that its success is assured. It is proposed to capitalize the association to the extent of $5,000, divided into 500 shares of the par value of ten dollars per share, most of which has already been subscribed. Abundant success to the enterprise, and may our neighbors have the best fair in the State next summer. We'll all go up to see it, taking our wives, sweethearts, sisters, cousins and aunts.

New Railroad Seems assured.

A special dispatch from Warren, Pa., under date of March 8, throws considerable light on the railroad survey along the Allegheny river, and would indicate that Tionesta is destined to be one of the trunk line towns. The dispatch is as follows:

The surveyors who recently made Warren their headquarters for several days are now working below Tionesta and have about completed their portion of the work. The survey is said to commence at Youngstown, O., and run east to Salamanca, where the main line of the Erie railroad is once more joined. The survey has been a most thorough one and grades have been made that are easy and thoroughly practical.

From authority that is undoubted, it is learned that the road surveyed is not a branch of the Erie system, but the main line itself. The survey is over a route outlined a number of years ago by the heads of the road and at that time given much thought. By the line from Youngstown through to Salamanca via Oil City and Warren, about 75 miles is saved on the run from Chicago to New York and the time can be lessened about two hours. This and the competition that is resulting between the Erie and other lines from New York west is the cause of the move on the part of the Erie.

The authority that gives the above is also quoted when it is said that the gang of engineers will return to Warren about June 1st for the purpose of staking and grading the road, which will be built during the coming summer. It is expected that trains will be running by next fall on a regular schedule. Warren will then gain another trunk line that will do much to help the town.

A Franklin dispatch under date of 10th inst., says: "A director of the Erie railroad to-day stated it is proposed to eliminate all bad grades and curves between Salamanca, N. Y., and Greenville, Pa. Beginning at a point five miles west of Salamanca, the road will cross the Allegheny river to the south side and follow the river to Warren, Irvineton, Oil City and Franklin. From Franklin the road will take the route of the present branch to Shaw's Landing, below Meadville, and then connect with the present main line west of Meadville."

So it looks like pretty nearly a sure thing for the new railroad. The surveying party is yet making Tionesta its headquarters and on Tuesday had extended its survey below Eagle Rock.

Winners of the Normal Scholarships.

The competitive examination for scholarships in the Clarion Normal School was held last Saturday. Principal J. G. Becht, of Clarion, examined a class of 24 at Marienville, and Supt. E. E. Stitzinger examined a class of 41 in Tionesta. Nine pupils of the borough schools entered the class.

The questions were a very fair test in their respective subjects, but the pupils manifested that nervousness which is very common in older persons in similar circumstances. Taken altogether, the examination will prove very helpful to all concerned, and it will be gratifying to the donor to know the great amount of interest taken therein. We understand he has concluded to make a similar offer for the next year, and we would advise our young people to redouble their efforts and be prepared for the examinations which will come in a year from this time.

Following is the list of successful competitors:

Harry Coon, Clarion.
Grace McCrea, Tionesta.
Evelyn Grove, Tionesta.
Howard Zuendel, Starr.
Edna Zuendel, Ross Run.
Joseph E. Murphy, Marienville.
Charles Kendall, Marienville.
Ethel Douglas, Endeavor.
Evelyn Hunter, Nebraska.
Gertrude Black, Pigeon.
Olive Childs, Tionesta township.
John Baxter, Gilfoyle.

County Home Products.

Following is the amount of produce raised on the County Farm for the year 1904: Hay, 60 tons; oats, 296 bushels; straw, 8 tons; corn, 750 bushels; corn fodder, 800 shocks; potatoes, 300 bushels; apples, hand picked, 100 bushels; pork, 250 lbs.; beef, 350 lbs.; sauer kraut, 3 barrels; sweet cabbage, 400 heads; pickles, 2 barrels; butter, 450 lbs.; apple butter, 25 gallons; cider for vinegar, 1 barrel; beets, 6 bushels; turnips, 5 bushels; tomatoes, 10 bushels; onions, 4 bushels; peppers, 2 bushels.

Live stock on the farm: Two work horses, 1 thoroughbred Durham bull, 5 cows, 7 head of young cattle, 2 brood sows, 5 hogs, and 50 chickens.

—Muslin underwear, the most varied and beautiful stock ever shown in Tionesta, at the Hopkins store. Don't wait until the assortment is too much broken.

PERSONAL.

—Hon. J. H. Robertson was home from Harrisburg over Sunday.

—Henry Kaman of German Hill, was a pleasant caller Friday afternoon.

—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hood, of the township, Saturday.

—John Shunk, of Whig Hill, paid the REPUBLICAN office a social visit Saturday.

—George Lehner of Pittsburg was snaking hands with Tionesta friends yesterday.

—Mrs. G. E. Gerow went to Youngsville Tuesday afternoon for a visit with her sister, Mrs. A. H. Gallup.

—Mrs. J. W. Dewalt, of Tidouche, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Zahniser during the past week.

—J. E. Hagerly and son Bruce, operating in the oil field near Steubenville, Ohio, are home for a short visit.

—Miss Cloe Green, of West Hickory, visited her grandmother, Mrs. R. H. Barr, last week.—Seneca Kicker.

—Mrs. John Bush expects to go to the Mercer hospital for a course of treatment for a tumor on her breast, this week.

—Lew Mensch and Leo Amster, two of Marienville's wide-awake young business men, were county seat visitors Wednesday of last week.

—Miss Charlotte McLean and Miss Iva Carpenter, of the Tionesta high school faculty, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of the latter, at Endeavor.

—Miss Catherine Cori, of Tidouche, who has been the guest of Miss Blanche Posse and other friends in this vicinity for the past two weeks, returned home Monday.

—Lester Holeman left for Erie Monday where he will take the spring course in stenography at the Davis school. Lester is already quite expert in this accomplishment.

—Mrs. Long, for the past year a resident of this place, occupying rooms in the Dale building, has shipped her household goods and will remove to Erie, her former home.

—On the last day of Congress Hon. J. C. Sibley was named by Speaker Cannon as one of the committee of fifteen to attend the opening of the Lewis and Clark Exposition at Portland, Ore., on June 1st.

—J. D. Davis, of Tionesta, was in the city to-day.—George Wilson, of Tionesta, was a business visitor in the city to-day.—R. L. Haslet, of Tionesta, was in the city a short while to-day, being en route to Poria, Ill.—Oil City Times.

—The REPUBLICAN acknowledges a pleasant visit Monday afternoon from W. T. Hart, of Marienville. Mr. Hart and his partners have two shingle mills in operation at present, and expect to start three others as soon as the weather will permit.

—Among the REPUBLICAN's valued friends and subscribers who called Thursday of last week were W. B. Ishman and little son, of Delight, this county; Harry Rudolph, of Newtown Mills, and J. L. Klinefitter and son Benjamin, of Church Hill.

—Rev. D. W. Thompson, of Salem, a supernumerary minister of the Erie Conference of the Methodist church, suffered a paralytic stroke of apoplexy Friday that left his right arm in a helpless state and reduced him to an unconscious condition. Rev. Thompson, who is 60 years of age, is very well known throughout this section.

—The Misses Siggins and Mrs. Orion Siggins, of West Hickory, entertained their friends at a noon luncheon Thursday. Among the Tionesta ladies present were Mesdames G. F. Watson, A. B. Kelly, C. A. Randall, B. M. Dewees, J. E. Wenk, Wm. Smearbaugh, M. E. Abbott, F. C. Proper, S. D. Irwin, L. J. Hopkins, A. C. Brown, J. F. Proper.

—Many Tionesta friends will be interested to learn that Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Heath will leave Wilkesburg this week for Los Angeles, California, where they expect to make their future home, at least for a time. They go to that climate for the benefit of Mrs. Heath's health, and friends will sincerely hope that the land of perpetual sunshine may have the desired effect.

—On the fourth page of the REPUBLICAN to-day will be found a sketch and portrait of the late Albert W. Haight, whose death at the home of his son, Capt. J. J. Haight, of Cooper Tract, occurred the 8th inst. Mr. Haight was doubtless the oldest man in northwestern Pennsylvania, when he died, having completed his ninety-seventh year two days prior to his demise.

—Fred. O. Duffield, for several years past city editor of the Franklin News, died at his home in that city last Sabbath morning, after an illness extending over a year. Fred. was one of the best known and best beloved newspaper men in this section, and the News people are not the only ones that will deeply mourn his demise. He was aged 33 years, and leaves a wife and one child.

—Prof. Fred. C. Ingraham, of Oil City, the well-known piano virtuoso and composer, whose playing has delighted many Tionesta dancing parties, was united in marriage with Miss Mabel Jaue Sleeman, also of Oil City, on Wednesday of last week. Rev. Dr. Thomas R. Tholburn of the M. E. church performing the ceremony. Many young Tionesta friends wish Mr. Ingraham and his estimable wife great happiness on this occasion.

—The Presbyterian congregation tendered their popular new pastor, Rev. Dr. Paul J. Slomaker, and his estimable wife a pleasing reception at the church last Friday evening. There were upward of a hundred and forty present to extend a greeting to the eloquent divine, and they received him warmly. Elders A. B. Kelly and G. W. Robinson assisted in the hand-shaking, and a very pleasant hour was spent in a social way. Light refreshments were served during the evening.

—While returning home from a western business trip last Friday Judge Kreidler, of Nebraska, got mixed up in a wreck that occurred on the P. & E. railroad near Pittsfield, Warren county, but fortunately he escaped with only a few bruises that were somewhat painful though not serious. The train on which he was a passenger collided with a "wild" engine, causing a bad smash-up, and about a dozen people were more or less severely injured, but all will recover, it is thought. The engineer of the passenger train, Martin McLaughlin, had his left arm broken and was otherwise badly bruised.

Mayburg.

The Gladly R. R. problem has caused the wildest confusion and excitement in our quiet little town. The once peaceable, law abiding citizens have become uncontrollable, howling mob. It is Gladly R. R. at their homes, Gladly R. R. at the hotel, Gladly R. R. at the mill, Gladly R. R. at the store; in fact, it is Gladly R. R. everywhere and at all times, until the writer fears, unless something is done, and done promptly, to allay their feverish and excited brains, our entire town will go "bug-house."

Foster Meabon says a be cigar is none too good. It is a boy.

Ed. Ranson, formerly of our town, but who for the past year lived at Fisher, has again moved his family to this place.

Mike Cryan, of this place, who was in the Pittsfield wreck, came out unharmed.

Mr. Bradley, representing the Root & McBride Co., of Cleveland, O., was in our town last week.

Irvin Kusnelman attended the examination for "free scholarship" at Tionesta on Saturday last. SNOW BALL.

Leaper Items.

Dr. S. G. Beatty was called to Rimersburg last week to attend the funeral of Dr. Mohuey.

Yonue Schwab and family moved to Venus last week. We wish them success in their new home.

Henry Foy and Fred Harmon are on the sick list.

Misses Mayme McLaughlin and Belle Brothers were callers in town Sunday.

Annie Gilmore is the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. V. Phillips.

Guy Carson, of Clarion, spent Sunday with relatives in town.

Mrs. Joseph Weiser is visiting her son, Win. Weiser, at Lamont.

Elliot Reynor and daughter Belle, of East Hickory, were welcome visitors in town Thursday and Friday.

Miss Mary Thomas returned home Friday after several weeks' visit in Allegheny. DOROTHY.

Some Spring Bouquets.

J. E. Wenk of Tionesta has conducted the FOREST REPUBLICAN for 29 years, and the paper just celebrated its 37th birthday. Both the sheet and editor are hale and hearty, and will doubtless survive the forthcoming flood and live to enjoy several more square meals.—Warren Mirror.

This week's issue of the Tionesta REPUBLICAN is the last of Volume 37, and the genial editor and publisher, J. E. Wenk, admits that he is growing old. He has managed the REPUBLICAN twenty-six years very successfully, and we hope he will remain at the helm another twenty-six years.—Warren Mail.

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN, with Br'er "Jake" Wenk at the helm, has just celebrated its 37th anniversary. Why "Jake" was an old newspaper man when we started in the business, and yet he seems to grow younger with the passing years. Certainly his paper retains all the vim and freshness of youth, and we could no more get along without it than we could keep house without a cook stove. Long may it continue to wave o'er the land of the bark-peeler and wood-sawyer!—Franklin News.

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN has just celebrated the 37th anniversary of its birth. Twenty-six years of this stretch of time its fortunes have been under the able and successful guidance of its present editor, Bro. Jacob Wenk, whose ability to smoothly wield the pen is only equalled by his light and unerring touch of the trigger when joyously he sets forth afield, where paths are old, yet ever new. Likewise it may be remarked that Bro. Wenk is a standing refutation of Dr. Osler's ridiculous assertion—this, of course, with reference to the latter's "40-year" limitation, the chloroform period being yet far in the perspective. Congratulations to the REPUBLICAN and felicitations to Editor Wenk.

To both our best wishes,
May they ever fly high,
And may ink well or powder horn
Never run dry.—Oil City Blizzard.

Letter to John Saylor,

Tionesta, Pa.

DEAR SIR:—You want a cheap job of paint for a cheap house, don't you?

It's Devoe. It's the regular thing in Devoe; there's nothing, in all paint, so cheap as Devoe.

Oh, yes, you can paint with mud; but that isn't paint; you want it to look about right for a month or two.

Paint Devoe can't do for less; there's nothing so cheap; say nothing of wear, there's nothing so cheap as Devoe.

It goes so far; save gallons; no matter about the price, save gallons. A gallon of paint, put-on, costs $4 or $5; save gallons.

Devoe is your paint; save gallons; Devoe is your paint.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.,
New York.

P. S.—James D. Davis sells our paint.
