WORK OF TERRORISTS.

Chief of Police and Six Men Injured at Warsaw.

Peace Negotiations — Ambassador Azpiroz Dead—Arrest of a Promoter. Whiteman Acquitted — Cody Loses Divorce Suit—More Chadwick Aspects Found.

A bomb was thrown into the carriage of Baron Von Nolken, chief of police of Warsaw, Sunday. Shortly before 8 o'clock an elegantly dressed man went to the police station at Praga, a suburb of Warsaw on the other side of the Vistula and threw a bomb into a room of the station where the men assembled before fog on duty. Six policemen were wounded and all the furniture as well as one wall were destroyed. The bomb thrower in trying to escape met a policeman and shot twice, wounding the officer in the stomach. The prisoner himself was wounded and has been placed in the hospital.

A telephone message was immediately sent to Baron Von Nolken at the City hall informing him of the outrage. Baron Von Nolken, accompanied by a police official, took a carriage and started immediately for Praga.

When passing the castle, where the governor general resides, a man standing on the pavement threw a bomb at the carriage.

Baron Von Nolken, who was sitting on the side nearest the assailant, received the full charge of the bomb, while his companion escaped unhurt. The coachman was thrown from the box and the carriage was smashed.

Baron Nolken was removed to the City hall and doctors were summoned, who found he had received injuries on the head, neck, arm and leg which are believed to be serious.

According to the theory of the police the revolutionists calculated upon Baron Von Nolken going to Praga on learning of the explosion of the bomb at the station there and knew he must pass the castle, that being the only bridge by which he could reach the city bridge across the Vistula.

Limiting Russian Armament.

It was stated recently in diplomatic quarters at Paris that among the conditions of peace which Japan might ask would be that Russia give a pledge to build no more warships for a term of years. A diplomatic official said that such a condition would be the most effective means of assuring Japan against Russia's carrying out her cherished project of naval rearmament for the repeal of hostilities under better conditions than those at present existing.

Negotiations For Peace.

A dispatch from Paris says that the prospects of peace have assumed a more definite and almost a tangible aspect as the result of the announcement of the resumption of negotiations for a Russian loan.

Coupled with the announcement of resumption of the loan negotiations came a strong intimation from official and diplomatic quarters that steps looking toward peace had been definitely taken by Russia.

The foreign office declined to confirm a report that France was likely to be the intermediary, but diplomats who are actively interested for the first time gave credit to the statement that Russia had decided to seek peace.

Russia's chief preoccupation is said to be avoidance of having peace plans arouse the animosity of the powerful war element at home.

The receipt of an official dispatch at St. Petersburg on March 20 saying that the Japanese were approaching Vladivostok is said to have induced the determination to seek a pacific solution.

On the other hand, it is insisted that Japanese proximity to Vladivostok promises to be a chief obstacle in the way of peace, as diplomats conversant with the situation say that Japan will seek to avert peace until she possesses Russia's only outlet to the Pacific coast.

A Promoter Arrested.

Stanley Francis, alias Arthur S. Foster, a promoter of many companies, was arrested in Philadelphia by the United States postal inspectors on the charge of using the mails for fraudulent purposes, and after a hearing before United States Commissioner Craig he was held in $100,000 bail, in default of which he was committed to jail.

The postal authorities charge that Francis is one of the leading figures in the Storey Cotton company and the Provident Investment company, which they allege are fraudulent "get rich quick" concerns.

Both companies have gone into the hands of receivers, and most of the men who were actively identified with the management of the concerns have disappeared.

Both companies did an extensive mail business in all parts of the United States, Canada and Europe. Hundreds of creditors have visited the offices of the companies, but they could get neither the money they invested nor promises of returns.

Mexican Ambassador Dead.

Senator Don Manuel de Azpiroz, Mexico's first ambassador to the United States, died Friday at Washington from the results of exposure on inauguration day.

He was born at Puebla, Mex., June 9, 1826, and rendered gallant service in the uprising of his country against the French intervention, rising from second lieutenant to colonel.

After the fall of Queretaro he was appointed prosecuting attorney in the court martial of Maximilian, Miramon and Mexia.

When the revolution of Taxtepo, under General Porfirio Diaz, overthrew the existing government, Colonel Azpiroz retired to private life. In May, 1890, he became assistant secretary of foreign relations in the cabinet of General Diaz and held that position until his appointment as the first ambassador of Mexico to the United States.

Collision of Ocean Liners.

The two ocean steamers, the Parisian and the Albano, whose 1,800 passengers were saved from possible death at sea after the collision between the two vessels off the harbor's mouth at Halifax, N. S., Saturday by a thrilling 15 mile race for shallow water, showed plainly how serious was the accident, the Parisian resting on bottom at her dock and the Albano's forepeak being full of water.

Captain Johnson of the Parisian said: "The captain of the Albano signalled that he would pass astern of the Parisian, but the signal was apparently misunderstood by the Albano's bridge, as the German steamer came directly on and would have struck the Parisian abreast of the engine room had not our speed been increased in an endeavor to escape."

Alonzo J. Whiteman Acquitted.

Alonzo J. Whiteman of Dansville, N. Y., former member of the Minnesota legislature, was acquitted at Buffalo on a charge of grand larceny. The jury returned the verdict "Not Guilty" after being out 28 hours.

There are still five indictments against Whiteman and he was remanded to jail at the request of District Attorney Costworth. The remaining indictments are on charges of grand larceny (three counts), forgery and attempted larceny.

All these charges are based upon the transactions involved in the trial just ended, and Whiteman's attorneys expressed the utmost confidence in final release of their client.

Sold Oleomargarine as Butter.

The first important result in the crusade by state department of agriculture against violations of the pure food laws was when Andrew Walsh of Newark, N. J., in the court of special sessions in Brooklyn was sent to jail for three months for selling oleomargarine for butter. This was the first jail sentence imposed for violation of the agricultural law in more than two years and he first conviction for violation of the oleomargarine act since the passage of the federal statute imposing a tax of 10 cents a pound. Walsh was convicted twice on similar charges in 1901 but got off each time with a fine.

Return of Confederate Flags.

Under a special act of congress General Alnsworth, the military secretary, began delivery to the governors of all the Southern states affected of all Confederate battle flags captured by the Union forces during the war of the rebellion. At the same time the military secretary addressed a letter to each of the governors informing him of the action of congress. Since their capture these flags have been stored in the war department and most of them are in a fair state of preservation. There are about 540 of them, but some cannot be returned from lack of identification.

TO OHIO PENITENTIARY.

Mrs. Chadwick Sentenced in United States Court.

Convicted on Seven Counts and Sentenced Upon Six—For Four of the Counts a Sentence of Two Years Each Was Imposed and Upon Two Counts One Year Each.

Cleveland, March 28.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick was sentenced to 10 years in the Ohio state penitentiary by Judge Robert W. Taylor in the United States district court. The sentence came at the close of a busy day for the court in hearing arguments on a motion for a new trial. The motion was overruled.

Mrs. Chadwick was not particularly affected by the action of the court. When ordered to stand up and receive the sentence Mrs. Chadwick did not bear and was assisted to her feet by a deputy United States marshal. The court asked her if she had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced. "I have something to say," she said, "but I would like to consult with my attorneys first."

"You may do so, but it must be immediately," the court enjoined her. "If you have anything to say you must say it now."

Mrs. Chadwick said there was nothing she cared to say herself. Her attorneys made no appeal to the court and the sentence was immediately imposed.

After the sentence was imposed court adjourned, but it was over a half hour later before Mrs. Chadwick was taken back to the county jail. She had been talking with her attorneys.

Mrs. Chadwick was convicted on seven counts and sentenced upon six counts. For four of these counts a sentence of two years each was imposed. Upon two counts a sentence of one year each was imposed, making a total sentence of 10 years.

Attorney J. P. Dawley of counsel for Mrs. Chadwick took exceptions to the sentence upon each count, except the first count. The defense will claim that the court cannot impose a separate sentence for each count.

Judge Francis J. Wing or Mr. Dawley will go to Cincinnati to make arrangements for a review of the case before the United States circuit court of appeals. There was an understanding with United States Marshal Chandler, United States Attorney Sullivan and the court to the effect that there would be no attempt to execute the sentence until the defense had an opportunity to carry the case to the higher court and there obtain a suspension of the sentence.

No action will be taken by United States Attorney Sullivan regarding the other six indictments against Mrs. Chadwick in the federal court until the present case is finally disposed of.

The action of the court finally closed the Chadwick case so far as the Cleveland case is concerned, unless the higher court discharges the woman or orders a new trial. By good behavior Mrs. Chadwick can reduce her term of imprisonment to eight years and four months.

When sent immediately after sentence had been pronounced Mrs. Chadwick replied to a question: "What more can the world want to know about me now?"

FRANK ROGERS' DISAPPEARANCE.

Story of His Wanderings as Told by His Father.

Chicago, March 28.—The first explanation of the mysterious disappearance of Frank Ely Rogers and his aunt, Miss Florence Ely, four years ago at Evanston was made by James C. Rogers, father of the boy, who said: "At the time of the disappearance Frank was fired with a desire to run away from home and see life for himself. His aunt, a sufferer from melancholia, was about to be placed by us in a sanitarium, a proceeding to which she strongly objected. As a result of these circumstances the two left home together and went to Buffalo.

"There they separated, Miss Ely entering a large store apparently to do some shopping and leaving Frank outside. She had previously given him a small sum of money. From that time on Frank has not been seen Miss Ely and neither he nor we know her whereabouts.

"Frank, following out his ideas of seeing life made a living as best he could and has finally returned home after many vicissitudes. This is the explanation of the mystery as learned by me from my son, and is apparently the whole truth."

Only 100 Marines on the Isthmus.

Washington, March 28.—The cruiser Dixie has left Monticristi for Colon to take a battalion of marines now stationed on the Isthmus to Guantanamo. After the departure of this battalion the total strength of the marine battalion left on the Isthmus will not number more than 100. This action was taken on account of the unhealthy climate that prevails on the Isthmus.

Inspected Site For Steel Plant.

Port Colborne, Ont., March 28.—James Gagsley, first vice president of the United States Steel corporation, inspected a site for a steel plant. He was accompanied by two officials of the corporation. They express themselves as favorably impressed with the advantages offered.

Kansas to Be Christened With Oil.

The battleship Kansas will be christened by breaking a bottle of Kansas crude oil over its prow instead of a bottle of champagne. This is the idea of Governor Hoch, who said lately: "The Kansas will not be christened with champagne. The Kansas will be christened with a bottle of oil—not Standard oil or Independent oil, but just Kansas oil—Kansas crude oil."

Cheaper Rates on Flour.

The railroads have announced the lake and rail rates from Minneapolis on mill products for the season. These rates will go into effect as soon as navigation opens on the lakes, and will enable Minnesota millers to ship their flour to the Atlantic coast four or five cents a barrel cheaper than they can at present. Mill feed will go forty cents a ton cheaper.

AGAINST A CONSTITUTION.

Meeting of Nobility Says Western Institutions Are Unsuitable For Russia.

Moscow, March 28.—A meeting of the nobility of the government of Moscow, in which there were participating also representatives of the nobility from various sections of Russia, has pronounced against constitutional government of the kind enjoyed by the nations of Western Europe, considering such institutions unsuitable to this country on account of geographical and ethnological condition of Russia and the political development of the Russian people.

The nobles are of the opinion that some degree of popular representation should be introduced, but that there should be no limitation of autocracy but of administrative arbitrariness, and that the ruler and the people should be brought into closer touch.

The bar of Moscow has adopted a resolution calling for a popular assembly to formulate a constitutional act defining and limiting the governmental system. The meeting also advocated the formation of a civic militia for the protection of citizens and control by municipalities or zemstvos to which control of the police should also be transferred.

Japan's New $150,000,000 Loan.

New York, March 28.—Japan's new $150,000,000 loan will probably be formally offered in this city on Wednesday. The underwriting syndicate which has now been completed will rank as the largest ever formed in connection with the flotation of a foreign loan in the United States. There are altogether 300 members representing prominent financial interests throughout the country. Of the American subscription to the loan the life insurance companies will take a fifth of the New York portion of the issue or $15,000,000. On the curb market the asking price when issued was 93 and 90 bid.

DYNAMITER CONVICTED.

Gessler Rosseau Sold Infernal Machines to Cuban Agents.

New York, March 28.—Gessler Rosseau, also known as Gessler Rosseau, was convicted before Recorder Goff of having sent with malicious intent an infernal machine to the Cunard steamer Umbria in this city on May 5, 1903. The prisoner received the verdict calmly and without comment and was remanded to the Tombs for sentence on Friday.

The maximum penalty for the offense is five years imprisonment. On the stand Rosseau said the infernal machine placed on the Umbria was harmless and the act was but an effort to prove that it would be an easy matter to destroy an ocean liner. He also admitted the machine contained nearly 100 pounds of dynamite.

Regarding his connection with the attempted blowing up of the steamer of Frederick the Great in Washington, Rosseau would answer no questions on the ground that it would tend to incriminate him.

He further said: "I have made many infernal machines during my life and during the Cuban rebellion I sold a number of them to agents for Cuba in this country. They were for blowing up Spanish ships and I gave full instructions to agents as to their use."

He said he always made enough money to go on with his work and that during the Boer war he offered infernal machines to Boer agents in this country but that his offer had been refused, the Boers saying they did not care to fight that way.

German Claims in Morocco.

Paris, March 28.—The situation in Morocco causes serious apprehensions in official quarters and it is understood that the French minister at Fez has been requested to bring to a speedy conclusion the negotiations whereby he seeks to secure the sultan's approval of France's policy in administering the country. In the meantime Emperor William's proposed visit to Morocco promises to cause the sultan to delay arriving at a decision and to encourage a demonstration against the French policy. There is a growing belief in high quarters that the German emperor's visit is coincident with Germany's asserting strong claims relative to Morocco.

Oreans Talks For Monarchy.

Paris, March 28.—The debate on the bill providing for the separation of church and state was renewed in the chamber of deputies. Count Boni de Castellano (Republican), who was among the speakers, maintained that the measure did not mean the separation of church and state but the extinction of the church by the state. A manifesto issued by the Duke of Orleans is attracting much attention. It says the restoration of the monarchy is necessary to restore an orderly administration of the country and to ensure religious liberty. The manifesto is regarded as an appeal to the clerical element.

Philippine Census Completed.

Washington, March 28.—Secretary Taft has notified President Roosevelt that the census of the Philippines islands had been completed and published, and under the law of July 1, 1902, two years from this date, the president shall direct the Philippine commission to call a general election for the choice of delegates to a popular assembly. The popular election is not to extend to the Moro tribes. Two resident commissioners to the United States will be elected when a legislature is chosen.

Million Safe With Woman.

Sophia Beck Goes Abroad With Money of Storey Cotton Company.

Philadelphia, March 27.—Nearly $1,000,000 in cash and negotiable bonds, mostly the proceeds of the business conducted by the Storey Cotton company, are said to have slipped from under the noses of the authorities into the possession of Sophia Beck and out of the country with her a week ago. Sophia Beck was the stenographer of the Storey Cotton company and as such was the personal representative of Frank Marrin, the backer of the concern.

The money was obtained by transfers of property in the name of Frank Marrin and Ewart Storey. The Beck woman slipped aboard an ocean liner with the wealth and was upon the high seas before anyone had realized what had happened.

Postal Inspector Myer of Chicago is now close upon the trail of Marrin, alias Judge Franklin Stone. On the Brooklyn pier from which an ocean liner to Liverpool was to sail the Inspector was patiently waiting for his quarry. Myer has positive information that Marrin is going to attempt to leave the country.

It is believed that the man expects to meet the Beck woman at some rendezvous in London, where they will find Storey. They all consider the $1,000,000 to be their legitimate profits from the Storey Cotton company. Warrants are out for the arrest of Marrin and the woman. The London police were notified to watch for them.

CANT PAY BEQUESTS.

Bennett Executors Win in Suit Brought by Laura Biggar.

Freehold, N. J., March 27.—Judge Foster denied the petition of Laura Biggar to have Peter J. McNulty and James Platt removed as executors of the estate of the late Henry M. Bennett. McNulty testified that the executors were unable to pay in full from the estate the bequests left by Mr. Bennett, and, although under the provisions of the will Laura Biggar should receive an annuity of $1,800, there had never been enough cash on hand to pay it.

McNulty testified that he had not mixed the banking accounts of his individual funds and the executors' funds. He said he had purchased $360,000 worth of property in Pittsboro and that "not a cent of the Bennett estate had been used to pay for it."

HIS LIFE FOR ANOTHER.

Towboat Deckhand Dies in Heroic Attempt to Rescue Workman.

Charleroi, Pa., March 27.—William Gilmore, aged 21, was drowned in the Monongahela river at Lock No. 3 Thursday while trying to save another man from death. His body has not been recovered.
