The first installment of a well written historical sketch of Oldtown, on Tionesta creek, two miles above here, by S. D. Irwin, Esq., will be found on the fourth page of this issue. Read it and then lay it away among your archives.

Fire caught from a defective flue in the dwelling of Frank Jones, at West Hickory, Sunday, and before it was brought under control caused a damage of $50. With a high wind blowing at the time the citizens did well in controlling the flames.

Tionesta sustained a very serious loss in the burning of the extensive Queen City tannery at that place last Saturday night. The loss is placed at over $600,000, but is said to be covered by insurance. The tannery will be immediately rebuilt.

Matthew Elliot, son of James Elliott, of Stewart Run, got the first finger of his right hand caught in the cogs of a cutting box Tuesday evening, badly injuring the finger. He came to town and Dr. Dunn dressed his injuries, finding it necessary to amputate the finger at the first joint.

In one family at least prunes are a popular dish, but they are never cooked. Fine, large prunes are selected and are soaked in water to cover them for three days. They are tenderer treated in this way, says the woman who recommends the method, than when they are cooked.

D. W. Morrison announces a five-weeks' summer school here in review of all studies of the common school course beginning Wednesday, May 3, 1905. Those wishing a thorough and rapid review, and all who have to take the teachers' examinations, will find this work suited to their wants.

Rev. J. M. Critchlow of the Free Methodist church, and well known to many of our readers, is said to have struck it rich in the oil fields of Indiana recently. The company of which he is the head has opened a well that is reported good for 75 barrels or better, and they have a good block of territory under lease.

James Landers completed his well on the Frazee lease, Hickory township, Monday, and struck a good gusher but no oil to speak of. James is as well satisfied for he needed the gas more than the oil and will have sufficient to run the lease in good shape. He feels confident of opening two or three paying wells before stopping the drill, and will proceed to go after them at once.

A number of the friends of Miss Bertha Fogie, of Pineville, Forest county, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Meiz, of Washington avenue, and will return home to-day, gave her a surprise farewell reception at the Metz residence Tuesday evening. Parlor games, music and a splendid luncheon were some of the attractive features of the function.

Derrick of Thursday.

Rooms No. 1 and No. 2 of the public schools are to have a place in the Commencement exercises of next week. Miss Pease and Miss Carpenter have arranged for a reception in their school rooms next Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock. At this time school work and the industrial work, including baskets and the raphia work, will be exhibited. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

"Lost we might forget" the snow storms of the past few days have come to remind us that the weather man could still "make it snow" when he felt so inclined, and to serve notice that self-appointed weather prophets must keep in bounds and not get too "kerflop" with their prognostications. Likewise giving the "I told you so" guy an airing. We'd all rather see it now than in June, anyway.

The Epworth League of West Hickory, Pa., will hold an Easter bazaar, at Green's Hall, Thursday afternoon and evening, April 29, beginning at 4 p. m. Everybody cordially invited to come, look and buy. There will be useful as well as ornamental articles for sale. Meals at all hours at the New England kitchen. Bring your dull shears and have them sharpened at the hardware booth.

If the Governor approves a bill which is now in his hands the District Attorney of Forest county will in future receive $400 per annum for his services. The act grades the salaries according to population of county, and abolishes all fees. This will be quite a raise for Forest county's district attorney, whose fees have often heretofore amounted to little above $50 a year, and sometimes been as low as $25.

Carrie, the little 5-year-old daughter of Bert Wiles, who lives near the Lanson flouring mill, was severely burned about the limbs last Thursday. She was playing about the yard where some rubbish was being burned when her clothing caught fire, and before she could be rescued was severely burned, but is recovering nicely. Her mother was considerably burned about the arms in her efforts to extinguish the flames.

The offices of the Penn Tanning Company, now located at Sheffield, are to be moved to Ridgway about the first of May, where all the business of operating the 7 tanneries is controlled by this company will in future be transacted. The removal from Sheffield of this large concern's offices will be quite keenly felt by the business interests of the place, yet there will be other interests to take the place and the loss will doubtless soon be made good.

The Monarch Clothing Co., of Oil City, who have always had an immense clothing trade, have recently added a new department for ladies. At present they are having a great sale in ladies' coats and skirts and waists. They have four ladies constantly kept busy in this department and the general opinion of the public is that they are selling goods less than city prices. A visit to their department is a treat to those seeking good city values.

When a fellow takes off his coat and goes after the onion patch, radish bed, and spades them up and takes them down and sows the seed, and mops his brow as his mow waters at the prospect of the crop, and then comes home in the evening and finds that his neighbor's chickens have made the whole business look like the dickens and scattered the seeds to the four winds he feels like sending his wife around to tell the neighbors what to do with the pecky fowls.—Ex.

The Ridgway Advocate says of Capt. Jack Austin, the popular postmaster at Corry, Pa., that he is a good-hearted, liberal gentleman, but he knows when to put a limit on things that should not go too far. For instance, we find the following in the Corry Journal: "The girls of Corry are only allowed to loiter in the post office for one half hour after receiving their mail. If they do not succeed in catching a bean by that time they are requested to try the streets."

The act passed by the recent legislature fixing the salaries of County Commissioners has been signed by Governor Pennypacker, and is now a law. The salaries range according to population. In counties under 10,000 population the pay is $300 per year; over 10,000 and under 30,000, the salary is $500; over 30,000 and under 50,000, it is $700, and so on. This will have the effect to stop much of the talk that is heard now-a-days about expense bills in the offices of county commissioners.

A bullet has been removed from the end of the great toe of the left foot of Charles Fiesler, of Harrisburg, 23 years old, a railroad worker, who had been shot in the right arm ten years ago by a negro boy. Fiesler went to the hospital at Harrisburg, Thursday afternoon, complaining of an itchy feeling in his right arm, which he thought came from being shot there many years ago. Surgeons made a thorough search of the right arm, and continuing found the bullet lodged in the end of the great toe of his left foot. It is thought the bullet traveled through the man's entire body.

The imposing of a fine $100, on the Oil City man found guilty of dynamiting fish in the Allegheny river, may serve a good purpose in discouraging this contemptible practice. The indiscriminate killing of big and little fish, by the use of explosives, is most reprehensible, and it is to be hoped the prosecution of the law breakers may be continued vigorously until it is stopped.—Blizzard.

The good work of bringing these miscreants to justice might profitably be extended on up the river, where reports and evidence go for anything there is a heap of this despicable work done.

Amos Limberg was lodged in jail here Saturday night, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill on the person of Theodore Johnson, at Minister Run, on Saturday. Limberg was arrested by constable Jas. Grove and at a hearing before Justice Shaw, of Kellettville, was bound over to court in the sum of $300 bail. Later it was learned that the offense was committed over the Warren County line, in Cherry Grove Twp., and on Monday night constable J. G. Brown of Warren County, came here to claim the prisoner. Limberg was removed to the Warren jail Tuesday morning.

With the advance of Spring and prosperity, the movement of freight on the railroads is reaching enormous proportions. The volume of traffic is now equal to the largest ever known, if it does not actually exceed it, and is expected to swell to greater proportions next week. There is no serious congestion, now, thanks to the energetic work of the railroads in enlargement of their terminals, track facilities and motive power. The lake trade, however, is just opening and when it is in full swing it may readily be seen the facilities of railroads, in the Pittsburgh region at least, will be taxed to the utmost to keep the vast tonnage moving.—Pittsburg Gazette.

The Drorak-Davidson stock company is putting some extra fine shows on the bills at the opera house this week, and if you are not attending you are missing something of the best the town has ever had in the show line. "The Derby Winner" was played Monday evening and the audience was greatly taken with the pretty drama, which abounds in some heavy tragedy as well as many affecting parts, while the "specialties" introduced were by real artists in their line. Last evening they gave a farce comedy that was "side-splitting" from beginning to end, and a more delighted audience could not have been imagined. Go this evening, and every evening this week, and you will enjoy your money's worth in a ten-fold degree.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morgan were notified by letter last week of a serious accident which befell their son Frank, at McKeesport, Pa., where he resides, on Monday last week, in which he received a broken leg and other severe injuries. Frank was employed in a large yard and was engaged with others in repairing a steamboat. They were bending a heavy steel plate 4x11 1/2 feet in diameter and a quarter inch thick and weighing about 800 pounds in place on the hull of the boat, when the top fastenings gave way and Frank was caught under the falling plate. One of his legs was broken in two places near the ankle and the back of his head and his back were also injured. Mrs. Morgan left here Monday morning for McKeesport to assist in caring for him.

Result of License Court.

Court for the hearing of license petitions in Forest county was held yesterday by Judge Lindsey and Associates Dotterer and Kreidler, resulting in the granting of two and refusing of three of the applications, as follows:

GRANTED.
C. F. Weaver, hotel, Tionesta. Gerow & Gerow, hotel, Tionesta.

REFUSED.
Geo. W. Buhl, hotel, Marienville. Jos. J. Young, hotel, Marienville. John H. Olson, hotel, Clarington.

The Clarington license was refused mainly on the ground that the renunciation against outweighed the petitions for the applicant. In the cases of the Marienville applications, a large number of witnesses were heard on both sides, at the conclusion of which the applications were refused by the court.

High School Commencement.

The commencement exercises of the class of '05, Tionesta high school will take place in the court house next Tuesday evening, 25th inst. A nice program is in store for those who attend, and no doubt the exercises will be enjoyed by all. The program is as follows:
Invocation, Rev. Paul J. Slonaker. Salutatory, Fern Opal Bowman. Literary and Professional Women, Ethel J. Clark.

A Big Mistake, Bertha A. Lawrence. Singleness of Aim, Thomas D. Fulton. True Magnanimity, Edward Glenn Henry. Value of Pleasing Manners, Olive I. Lanson.

Class Prophecy, Anna Isabel Joyce. Class History, Celyn J. Clark. Address to Class, Dr. John Ballentine, Clarion, Pa.

Presentation of Diplomas, T. F. Ritchey, Esq.

Benediction, Rev. B. F. Fell. The Troubadour Orchestra of Warren, will furnish the musical inspiration. Turn out.

The baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class will be delivered in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening, April 23d, at 8 o'clock, by Rev. W. O. Calhoun of the M. E. church.

Leeper Items.

R. J. Sigworth, who has lived near Shipperville for the past two years, have moved back to our town.

F. C. Sharrow spent a few days last week in our town.

Messrs. G. W. Kuhns, F. X. Gatesman, W. F. Willis and Mrs. Scott Agnew and Mrs. H. Steiner were Clarion visitors Thursday of last week.

Pete McLaughlin of Crown, visited her mother, Mrs. Leicht, Friday.

James Cosgrove and Albert Fitzgerald, of Clarington, were business callers in town Friday.

Lawrence Zeutz, of North Pine Grove, was the guest of his cousin, Blanche Gordon, last week.

Mrs. R. Gordon and Mrs. A. Snyder attended the funeral of Mrs. Wm. Maze at Cooksburg Friday. The deceased was aged upward of 75 years, and was well known to many of your Forest county readers.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Harmon, of Arthurs, are visiting at Fred. Harmon's.

Messrs. Wray and Cramer, of Clarion, spent Thursday in town.

Mr. McClure, clothing agent of Kane, called on our merchants Wednesday.

Clei Agnew has moved his family to Leeper Town.

A. L. Demings has moved from Eagle Rock to his residence, a short distance from our town.

Misses Lola and Clara Kuhns and Blanche Gordon spent Sunday with friends at Parrish.

An Easter Supper.

The Ladies of the Aid Society of the M. E. church will give an Easter supper in Bovard's Hall, Friday evening, April 21, supper to begin at 5:30. Supper, 25 cents. Everybody cordially invited. The following menu is being prepared:

Ham and Eggs, Creamed Potatoes, Fruit Salad, Cabbage Salad, Olives, Pickles, Deviled Eggs, Pickled Eggs, Brown and White Bread, Jelly, Lemon Sponge, Cake, Coffee.

—Think not so much about what you have not, as of what you have.

PERSONAL.

—Ex-Sheriff Osgood came home from Oil City to vote Saturday.

—A. B. Kelly was a business visitor in Pittsburg during the past week.

—Clarence Landis, of Titusville, was the guest of J. J. Landers Monday.

—E. B. Catin and P. J. Klabbatz, of Eagle Rock, were Tionesta visitors last Sabbath.

—G. C. Miller is moving into a part of the Randall house, corner of Elm and Hilland streets.

—Joseph Hall, of Redelfe, was a pleasant caller at the REPUBLICAN office Wednesday morning.

—Mrs. Cecil Groce and Mrs. B. F. Kendall, of Marienville, were guests of Mrs. J. E. Wagon Tuesday.

—Mrs. J. B. Muse and her mother, Mrs. P. K. George, were visitors in Franklin Monday and Tuesday.

—Mrs. Wallace, of East Brady, and Mrs. Neill, of Bradford, are guests of their sister, Mrs. J. H. Derickson.

—J. S. Gildersleeve, return judge from Brookston yesterday, gave the REPUBLICAN a pleasant call during his stay in town.

—Wm. Smearbaugh is in Pittsburg looking after the boat and barge business with which he is connected at Hickory and Grunderville.

—G. F. Watson, of Kellettville, Pa., passed through the city last night en route for Pittsburg, on business.—Monday Oil City Times.

—Word reaches here that Dr. McCormick, one of Tylersburg's oldest and best known citizens, died last night. He was aged about 70 years.

—Karl Wenk came home Friday from Philadelphia for a few days' visit and rest from his dental studies at the University of Pennsylvania.

—J. M. McCullough, of Nebraska, went to Harrisburg Tuesday evening to represent Forest county at a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee on Wednesday.

—S. W. Fitzgerald, of Clarion, and E. W. Maza, of Cooksburg, were welcome callers last evening, and enrolled their names on the REPUBLICAN'S fast growing subscription list.

—James Campbell, postmaster at Lynch, Howe township, who brought the returns of the Republican primaries from his precinct yesterday, gave the REPUBLICAN a pleasant call during his stay in town.

—State Deputy Wyckoff, of Harrisburg, visited East Hickory Camp, 5837, M. W. of A., during the past week, and last evening assisted in the initiation of a class of five new members into the flourishing camp.

—Quite a number of the Grunderville voters came home to attend the primaries Saturday—William, Hart, Albert and John Lawrence, Joseph Morgan, S. P. Whitman, A. J. Fleming, Jas. Morrow and Will Ball.

—Representative Robertson returned from his legislative duties at Harrisburg Friday evening, final adjournment of the legislature having taken place on Thursday. Mrs. Robertson, who spent the winter in Pottsville and Harrisburg, came home with her husband.

—The Sheffield Observer states that R. T. Buzard of that place is in Philadelphia with his mother, who is to submit to a serious operation at a hospital in that city. Mrs. Buzard is well known to many of our people who will hope for the best results from her ordeal.

—M. A. Carringer, of Tionesta, was in town Wednesday night on his way home from Marienville. Mr. Carringer recently passed the examination for admission to the bar of Forest county, and has formed a partnership for the practice of law with his preceptor, Attorney T. F. Ritchey.—Sheffield Observer.

—Robert Rice, aged about 35 years, died of cerebro-spinal meningitis, at his home at Shotts' lumbering camp, on Coon creek, Green township, on Friday last. He had been sick less than a week. He leaves a wife, one brother and three sisters. The funeral was held Sunday, the interment being at the Walters cemetery, near Newmansville.

—Attorney A. C. Brown received word of the death last Saturday of his uncle, C. W. Brown, of Curlewsville, Clarion county, with whom he had made his home for many years. Mr. and Mrs. Brown had intended driving over on Sunday to attend the funeral, which was held Monday, but the very inclement weather made such a trip out of the question.

Big Lumber Deal.

A deal was consummated on Tuesday by which the Grayson Lumber Company, composed of Williamsport gentlemen, disposed of their extensive interests in the southern part of Virginia. The consideration was $800,000.

The property transferred consisted of two saw mills, forty-four houses, a store and large warehouse, 15 miles of standard gauge railroad and 17,000 acres of timber land. It is estimated there are 300,000,000 feet of standing timber on the tract. It is composed of one-half spruce, and the balance in chestnut, walnut, poplar and cherry trees. It will require seventeen or eighteen years to clear the land.

In addition to the timber estimated above, there is an enormous amount of chestnut, which will be converted into extract to be used in the preparation of leather, and tanneries are creating a big demand for it.

The purchasers are capitalists and lumbermen residing in Forest, Elk and Warren counties, this state. They are J. C. Campbell, C. W. Ansler, E. M. Campbell, C. A. Dickey, William E. and Francis E. Henderson.

The land in Virginia was purchased about three and a half years ago. The tract was then in an undeveloped state. Mr. Moltz took charge of the enterprise and since then has given it his personal attention.

The negotiations for the sale of the timber tract have been in progress during the past two months. The land is considered to be the most valuable, together with its standing timber, in the state of Virginia.

The purchasers are experienced lumbermen. It is expected a majority of them will move to Virginia.—Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin.

Will Not Affect Jamestown.

Since the publication of an interview with F. L. Stuart, chief engineer of the Erie Railroad, in the Oil City Derrick, Tuesday, there has been considerable speculation among the people of this city as to whether the proposed new line on the Erie will remove Jamestown from the main line of that railroad. According to Mr. Stuart's statement to the Derrick's representative, a new line will run along the Allegheny river, through Oil City and Warren to Salamanca, where the main line will be reached again.

Fred H. Garfield, division passenger agent of the Erie, was seen by a Journal reporter to-day. In reply to a question about the new line, he stated that he understood that such a line would be built. Being further questioned, Mr. Garfield stated very emphatically that the change will not interfere with Jamestown in the slightest degree. The main passenger line will continue to run through Jamestown, as at present, while the new line will be devoted to the freight business.

In fact, with the erection of a new line, the road between Salamanca and Meadville will be relieved of a large amount of freight business, thus enabling the Erie officials to give more attention to passenger traffic.—Jamestown Journal.

A number of expert engineers have recently been sent over the survey of the new Erie line from Youngstown to Salamanca. All have been unanimous in their report that the line could be built very cheaply. One engineer, in talking at Oil City, stated that the line could be built almost as cheaply as one on the level prairie in the west. There are only three bad cuts to be made on the whole line and these could be made very cheaply. The Erie's officials will inspect the line as surveyed in a short time and as they have all surveys, etc., in consideration, their report will very likely recommend the building of the road. It is stated on excellent authority that the gangs will soon start staking out the new road.—Warren Times.

Lumber Selling Lively.

Chas. E. Lockhart, the Ridgway selling agent for the allied lumber firms of W. H. Hyde & Co., Hyde & Thayer, and Hall, Gardner & Co., declares that if the lumber business is any criterion to judge of the condition of business the country over, then times must be very good this year. He says they are running about six weeks behind with their orders all the time, and besides that they are actually turning down constantly enough orders to keep a good big mill running night and day. He says lumber is being put into buildings green from the saw because there is no time to season it. People send their orders by mail one day and a day or two later will follow the order up with a telegram asking them to give the car No. that the lumber has been shipped in, as though they had all sizes of lumber sawed and had men waiting to load it. And when they reply to the telegram that they are six weeks behind their orders and cannot ship at once, the customer thinks he is getting a lot of "hot air." The lumber business is very fine just now, but considerable of the famine, according to Mr. Lockhart is due to the fact that dealers with big yards have not been stocking up with popular sizes when they had a chance, but depended upon the mills to carry everything they wanted and furnish it at a moment's notice. Now that mills are sold away ahead, the dealers are shouting in vain for quick lumber. Perhaps they will learn enough by their experience this year to carry staple sizes in stock hereafter and not depend entirely on the mills to furnish the capital to run their wholesale lumber yards.—Ridgway Advocate.

Letter to Orion Siggins.

West Hickory, Pa.

DEAR SIR:—But few of the men who sell the hundred different paints in the market know much about the same. All Devore agents have a state chemist's certificate telling just what it's made of; they know a good deal, not only about Devore but the rest; we see that they do. We buy every paint, that has any sale, and analyze it. Our agent finds out all about it.

When we know what a paint is made of, we know how it will act; we know how far it goes, and how long it wears.

Devore is the standard; call it 100. The best of the rest is about 75; the worst about 25; the rest are between.

But the men, who sell them, don't know any better. They know what the maker tells them. That is; they know that he tells them. They don't know whether he tells them the truth or not.

The business is not conducted on knowledge; the less they know, the more comfortable they are.

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVORE & Co.,
New York.
