"I remember," said an old naval officer, "hearing of an incident on board of a ship which was commanded by a | the amount of energy expended by a religious captain who would not allow slowly. The men did not jump to the of the ship was slow.

"While at anchor one day in the harbor of Rio two of the sailors, leaning over the rail, were watching work going on on board of another ship anchored close to them, where the opposite system prevailed. The air on that ship was lurid with the language of the mate, and the men were treated with a violence that was far from necessary, but the work went on quickly. The sails were furled and the yards braced in a smart and seamanlike manner. As they listened to the sulphurous orders of the mate one of the sailors on the good ship remarked sententiously to the other:

"Bill, d'ye see now what it is we want aboard here? We want a little encouragement?"

Cupid and the Recruits.

"Cupid is one of the best recruiting officers that Uncle Sam has," confided one of the sergeants attached to the reeruiting headquarters. "Back of nearly every enlistment there is a woman in the case. Lovers' quarrels chase a lot of tine lads into the service. Your romantic youth gravitates to the recruiting officer after a serious break with his sweetheart as naturally as a duck takes to water. It seems to him the most fitting way in which to sacrifice himself when love's young dream is apparently dispelled. Way down in his heart he nursed the idea of making his erstwhile inamorata and, and it's the army or mayy, with the possibility of death in battle, for him. Again, other first class material is recruited by the desire of young fellows to sport a uniform before their girls. In such cases Cupid does his recruiting through lamity. But in both ways he manages to fill up big gaps in the ranks of Uncle Sam's fighters,"-Philadelphia Rec-

Coughing is thus seen with the result that things went very to be an expensive luxury. The reason for the waste in force entailed by braces or ropes, and the general work , it, or one reason at least, lies in the fact that, while in normal respiration the air is expelled from the chest at the rate of four feet a second, in violent coughing it may attain a velocity lead your horse for you. The symptoms gre those of habitual drunkenness. All the limbs shiver, and in the bloodless face the eyes have that extraordinary look of insanity which is, I think, caused by an inability to focus them. The speech comes with difficulty, and in one case that I saw the mental coherence was as obviously at fault as the physical. - Landor's "Lhassa."

A Test of Love.

Among the Arabs of upper Egypt the youth who proposes for a girl must submit to a whipping at the hands of all her male relatives. "And," says a dry narrator, "if he wishes to be considered worth having he must receive the chastisement, which is sometimes exceedingly severe, with an expression of enjoyment." Not infrequently it is the maiden herself who imposes the

A HANDY DISH-WASHER.

A New Idea in This Line Which Should Do Its Work Well. There are countless of dan-washg muchines on the market. Most of them are large tubs or tanks in which the dishes are placed and roiated by mechanical means until they are supposed to have been cleansed. The new idea is constructed on a different principle. At the extremity of a hollow handle are two brushes, each circular in form, and one contained within the other. To the handle is attached a tube leading from a water faucet. A dish is held in one hand by the person doing the washing and the brushes are pressed against the several surfaces to be cleansed. A spring pressed by the thumb allows a stream of water to be thrown against the dish through the brush and the washing process thus becomes simple and effective.

About the Dish Cloth.

The dishcloth in many homes is a breeding place for microbes and contains more disease germs than almost anything else of the same size. Cheesecloth bags, in which sait and sugar come, make good dishcloths. It is a good plan to have two sets for constant use. They should be thoroughly washed every morning in hot water, to which has been added ammonia soda or washing powder, then rinsed and hung in the air to dry. Use them on alternate days. Besides it is well

Reading for Children.

Children should be first taught to read, how to read, what to read and to love reading as a means of enriching their minds. School work should center in reading. It is the key of all learning, since human thought is concentrated therein. A great variety of reading should be provided, even for the little children, since the day of one reader in the lower grades is past. Inasmuch as the great majority of pupils never reach the higher grades it is necessary to inculcate the reading habit in the lower ones.

Buttons on Wrong Side.

Attention was drawn by Dr. James Shaw at the Ambidextral Culture society to the singular fact that the buttons of feminine clothes are on the wrong side-or, rather, since women may maintain that it is men's outtons which are wrong, that men's buttons ore on the right side of the wearer and women's on the left. This rity Dr. Shaw ascribed not to feminine perversity but to the fact that those who set women's fashions were supposed to have maids to dress them, for whom this position was more convenient.

Time For Fitting Shoes. It is well to remember that the feet are apt to spread a little after the exertions of the day and so are a little larger at night than in the morning. If new shoes bought early in the day feel uncomfortable when they are put on at home that is the trouble. This spreading of the feet should always be taken into consideration when trying on new shoes. Also the feet are larger in summer than in winter, as they expand when much heated.

The Matchmaker

It is a common thing to deprecate a woman for being what is called in common parlance "a matchmaker," but if she possesses the necessary qualifications of discretion and tact she is an almost indispensable adfunct to social intercourse and may prove the greatest be to lovers who lack time and opportunity to bring their affections to a successful issue.

Earning Their "Dot."

The manager of a large dressmaking establishment in New York says: "I suppose that the most un-American immigrants we get in this country are not the Chinese or the Poles or the Hungarians, but the Parisian seamstresses, milliners and lingerie workers. These women come here to save the price of a 'dot' out of our high American wages. It takes from two to five years to do that. In all that time they never mix with Americans, never visit a theater, never make the first attempt to learn the language. Some of them go to the French church on Sundays; otherwise they never leave their rooms except to shop. This prenuptial period in New York is just a time dropped out of their lives. They talk of nothing day after day but what they'll do when they get back to Paris and begin to live again."

What Our Eyes Do Not See. Suppose that our eyes were attuned to the vibrations revealed to us by the bolometer. Instead of seeing the stars that we now see we should perceive those whose light has long been extinguished, whose existence the methods of modern physics have enabled us to prove. The sun would appear surroundno longer be obliged to wait for total eclipses to study this phenomenon. Currents of hot air would become visible like snow squalls, and the science of heat would have no more secrets.

The Rod of Auron.

The "divining rod," also known as is a forked branch, usually of hazel, sometimes of iron or brass and copper. by which minerals and water are supposed to be discovered beneath the surface of the earth. Suspended by the two prongs or between the balls of the thumbs it is thought to show by a clear inclination the spot where a mine or spring is hidden under ground,

Ringing Bells to Swarm Bees It is a foolish notion to suppose that the ringing of belis or "tanging" of tin pans will cause a swarm of bees to settle, says Country Life In America. The real origin of this custom dates back to the reign of Alfred the Great, who, in order to prevent disputes regarding the ownership of a swarm, ordered that the owner should always ring a bell when his bees swarmed, and ever since then the good farmer's wife has been rushing out with ringing bells
