Republican Ticket.

STATE. State Treasurer, J. LEE PLUMMER. Superior Court Judges, CHARLES E. RICE, JAMES A. BEAVER, GEORGE H. ORLADY.

COUNTY. Associate Judge, DAVID B. SHIELDS. Prothonotary, J. C. GEIST.

Sheriff, A. W. STROUP. County Commissioners, ANDREW WOLF, LEONARD AGNEW.

Auditors, W. H. STILLES, CHAS. F. KLINESTIVER. Jury Commissioner, J. B. EDEN.

THE case of the Kansas man who never told a lie is offset by that of several of his fellow-statemens who never told the truth.

THE Ohio Republican convention last week sounded a note on protection calculated to dampen the applause of the Democratic party.

AN echo of the Spanish-American war comes in the announcement that the cruiser Reina Mercedes has just graduated from Uncle Sam's repair shop.

IT is a queer system of government that ties up the people of a city in leases for seventy-five years in spite of their unanimous and emphatic objections.

A CALIFORNIA inventor has a device which he claims will enable people to travel 200 miles an hour. It will be handy for beef trust magnates to go to Canada in when a hurry call is issued for the grand jury.

"ANY reason why the men's straw hats have a much narrower brim than last year?" asks a correspondent. Sure. The sole object of the designer is to make the possessor of a last year's hat look as silly as possible.

"BLUEBEARD" Hoch has been found guilty of wife murder, and has asked that he be hanged as once. Hoch has been having a good deal of trouble lately, and there should be no hesitancy about granting this modest request of his.

COLONEL GUFFEY not only made his State convention do what he wanted, but it was obedient enough to do it in the somewhat roundabout way he had planned in order to let a few candidates outside the breastworks get a pleasant salve of complimentary votes. Colonel Guffey is an easy boss of the easiest kind.

IN departing to his farm for the summer Vice President Fairbanks remarked: "I like farming, and have gone through it from top to bottom. It is the life, after all, that makes the blood flow and gives a real charm to life. One gets nurtured when he is engaged in cultivating the soil and harvesting its products." That view is widely held, and makes the United States the greatest agricultural nation on earth.

THE Democratic convention which met at Harrisburg Wednesday nominated William H. Berry, of Chester, for state treasurer, and J. B. Head, of Greensburg, for judge of the superior court. There is not the remotest possibility of the election of the first named candidate, in the face of the immense Republican majority of the state, but the candidate for the superior bench is practically assured of an election, because of the fact that there are four places to fill and by the provisions of the law each voter can vote for but three of the candidates. The Democrats of the state are entitled to vote for three candidates, but it is certain that only one could be elected Col. Guffey relieved the voters from the work of discrimination at the election by confining the nomination to one candidate.—Kane Republican.

HON. JOHN DEAN, justice of the supreme court of this state, died of paralysis and pneumonia at his home in Hollidaysburg Thursday. He was one of the ablest members of the supreme bench, and his death is a material loss in the strength of that tribunal. The death of Justice Dean makes a vacancy on the bench which for the present will be filled by an appointment by the Governor, and it is altogether likely that the appointee will be nominated by the Republicans and elected this fall. Whether or not the State convention delegates will be re-convened has not yet been decided upon. The vacancy caused by this death has renewed the talk once before rife when a vacancy occurred, to the effect that Governor Pennypacker will resign and permit Lieut. Governor Wm. M. Brown to become his successor, and in turn that the new Governor will appoint Pennypacker to the vacancy. But it is scarcely any more likely that this will happen than when talked of before. However, we could see no very great objection to it in case it did.

THE death of Mrs. Mary Ashton Livermore, at her home in Melrose, Mass., on the 23d inst., removes one of America's most illustrious women, having achieved world-wide fame as a lecturer on slavery, temperance and universal suffrage, and as a writer of great merit. She was celebrated both in this country and abroad. She was born in Boston, Dec. 19, 1820. After her graduation she taught school for some years, and in 1845 was married to the Rev. D. P. Livermore, a Universalist minister, who died July 5, 1889.

WHAT a lamentable state of affairs is indicated by the threat of the Philadelphia "organization" to have a special session of the Legislature called to assist in stealing the gas works from the citizens. By implication this is one of the most humiliating references ever made to the venality of the band of law-makers who recently adjourned at Harrisburg. The calling of a special session for the purpose indicated would be proof positive that the members of the gang feel sure of their men, and that they would aid and abet them in perpetrating the proposed steal. Only think of it! The calm assurance of a gang of plunderers who would rely on a Legislature and a Governor to assist them in robbing a municipality of one of its most valuable assets. As we move along, from year to year, our form of government occasionally snubs up against some pretty tough propositions.—Blizzard.

—There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

GAS LEASE DEFEATED.

Proposed Extension For 75 Years Withdrawn by Company.

Philadelphia, May 29.—The end of the bitter struggle, so far as the gas deal is concerned, which has convulsed this steady, slow-going city, has nothing for a quarter of a century, came tamely enough. With dawn Saturday the belief had come to something like a certainty that Durham, with all his power, and the company, with all its inducements, would never be able to hold in line enough councilmen to pass the gas lease ordinance over the mayor's veto.

Threats, entreaty, contempt, wive's tears, the unanswerable arguments of trade, had done their work with the weakest kneed of the men who helped pass the ordinance. They were flocking to Weaver and respectability. By noon it was figured that Mayor Weaver needed only seven votes in the select council and ten more in the common council to protect his veto. Six councilmen, three of whom had boasted that they would never go back on Durham so long as there was a sun in the heavens, ate their words and called on the mayor before noon.

The men most interested in the salvation of the gas lease ordinance met at 9 o'clock in the office of Israel Durham. President Dolan was there. So were State Senator McNichol, Durham's right hand man, and Councilman Charles Seger, Chairman De Haven and others were there. The conference was short.

Presently all went to the office of Senator Boles Penrose. The discussion was sharp. Thomas Dolan, backed up by the majority of those present, insisted on Durham going ahead and making good his promise to place the gas ordinance high and dry in spite of Mayor Weaver, public opinion, or anything else.

Durham, in a speech of less than five minutes, brought Dolan and the others to his way of thinking and secured from the president of the United Gas Improvement Company his promise to write and at once dispatch to the president of council the withdrawal of the proposition.

Mr. Dolan's letter to council stated that the modifications to the original lease bill, reducing the price of gas, were not in accord with the offer of the company, but that they would have been accepted. Owing to the opposition on part of the people, however, Mr. Dolan's letter stated, the company was unwilling to enter into any contract with the city looking to any variation of its present lease.

PROTEST AT NAN PATTERSON.

Wilkesbarre Folk Try to Prevent Her Theatrical Appearance There.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 29.—Many protests followed the announcement that Nan Patterson will appear at the Nesbit theater here next Tuesday as the star in a musical comedy called "A Romance of Panama." Ministers, prominent women and laymen called Mayor Kirkendall by telephone or waited upon him personally to decry the proposed performance as in disgrace to the city and ask him to do all in his power to prevent it.

The arguments were that Nan Patterson is appearing merely because of the notoriety she achieved in the trials for murder; that her past life as revealed by the trials is such that she should not be paraded and exploited, and that it would be a lasting shame if the performance is allowed here.

Mayor Kirkendall said that he agreed with those who protest, but that he did not see how he was legally empowered to prevent the production of the play. He presented the protests in general form to the managers of the theater, however, and will have a conference with them today.

Something In Danger.

"Does the captain say whether we shall break the record or not?" "Yes. He says either the record or the boiler must go."

"How lovely!"

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Very Best.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Chubb, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.
