WORLD OF WHITE

Come to the Great World of White

The Most Unique and Fascinating Merchandise Display and Price Demonstration in the History of White Goods Retailing in Oil City.

A simple sale of white goods and white wear in Oil City is no novelty. You have seen them over and over again, but this store believes in doing things differently—to the same degree that it has gained a commanding position in the city for the super style, the better quality, the more attractive coloring and design of its merchandise—so shall the "World of White" present you with the most interesting display and the greatest intrinsic white wear values you have ever seen.

Store is a Vista of Snowy White.

We don't believe you have ever seen so attractive a display—or quite so great an array of tempting values in high class goods. The muslin underwear leads off with the choicest garments that the best makers in America can give us. The sheer wash fabrics follow closely with crisp white fabrics that it is a real pleasure to look at. The linens fall in line with a superb display of the best brands that Britain, Germany, France or Belgium send to these shores. The embroideries in the daintiest of patterns, and a showing of white waists and suits that is simply wonderful. Remember, everything in white will be price reduced during this great sale. If it's white you may know that it's underpriced.

The Confusion of Wives.

Occasionally the excess of wives in Utah leads to amusing consequences, as when one of the apostles invited a visiting gentle to dinner. The guest lost the address and looked up the apostle in the directory. He observed that his hostess, though she answered to the proper name, seemed unprepared for him, and presently he heard her at the telephone.

"Oh, Emma! Is John living at your house this week? Is he expecting somebody to dinner today? Very well. The gentleman will be there in a few minutes."

Then returning to the stranger she handed him a paper slip.

"You came to the wrong house, sir. This is the address you want."

On another occasion a little girl came running into the parlor while a visitor was calling.

"Mamma, mamma! Papa wants his suit case packed. He is going to live with Aunt Emma this week."—Leslie's Monthly.

pulling out your eyeteeth.

A good many ladies who wear ostrich feathers do so in the belief that they are thereby serving the cause of humanity. As a matter of fact, they are encouraging the most cruel and barbarous torture which man can inflict upon a bird.—Sporting and Dramatic News.

Colored in Bedlam.

The phrase "to shun Abraham" was coined in Bedlam, or Bethlehem hospital, where there was at one time an Abraham ward, the inmates of which upon certain days were permitted to go out as licensed beggars on behalf of the hospital. These mendicant inmates were known as "Abraham men," and their success in invoking the pity of the charitable was such that they had many unlicensed imitators, who, when discovered, were said "to have shunned Abraham."

The Ideal Saddle Horse.

The ideal saddle horse is from fifteen to sixteen hands high, short backed and well compiled. It has thin, high withers, a long, well arched neck and a long, keen ear well set on the head. The tail should be set high on the rump, and the rump itself should be somewhat sloping. The horse should have besides flat, sinewy bones in its legs and a medium sized foot.—Country Life in America.

Plumbers.

Mother—Tommy, I don't like to have you play with boys who are bad, Tommy.—But the good boys are no good, mamma.—Chicago News.

Chronic Cwe.

"Has your wife complained very long?" asked the doctor. "Ever since we were married," replied Meekly sadly.

—So sure are we that Thompson's Barosma will cure any disease of the kidneys, liver and bladder, also backache, sidesache, lumbago, sciatic rheumatism, dropsy, non-retention, palpitation of the heart and nervousness that we will guarantee it to do so. If after taking a bottle of Thompson's Barosma you are not perfectly satisfied with the results, return to us the bottle and we will refund your money as cheerfully as we took it. Thompson's Barosma 50c and $1.00. Ask for a free sample bottle.

When You Lose Your Taste.

"When people lose their taste," said a physician, "they retain their old likes and dislikes just the same. Miss Smith, for instance, can't tell a slice of roast beef from a fried onion, but she disliked onions before her taste went, and therefore she won't eat them now. People lose their taste through severe illnesses, and with the loss of taste the loss of smell nearly always goes; hence queer, cruel practical jokes. I know a woman without smell to whom a pint of onion juice was sent in a cologne bottle. She deluged herself with this onion juice and appeared in a crowded heated ballroom.

"To a man without taste or smell all dresses must be alike, yet old Brownlow won't touch linens. He says it would make him ill, and probably it would. It is very odd to hear these deluded people praising and condemning food and drink. They do it, though. They do it as heartily as you or I. I have seen old Brownlow send away in disgust a glass of white wine, claiming it was corked, while at the same time he ate calmly an added egg."—Baltimore Herald.

GRUSADE AGAINST DIVORCE.

Social Ostracism Planned by Catholic Society Women.

New York, June 20.—Roman Catholic women of high degree in New York have publicly announced a crusade against divorce. Their weapon will be social ostracism. They have banded together to snub offending women, to shut their doors in the faces of divorces who remain.

Their organization is known as "The Daughters of the Faith (Filia Fidei)." When the society was formed the proposition to use social ostracism as a weapon against the divorcee aroused opposition. It threatened to disrupt the organization, and it did delay the adoption of its program.

Now the die is cast and the "Daughters" are committed to the plan of campaign. Their manual is in print and will be published this week. It declares unequivocally: "The Catholic divorcee who remarries must be so daily ostracized."

Although the crusade threatens to split society and cause much bitterness among old friends, it has the special indorsement of the pope.

Habeas Corpus For Mrs. Rogers.

Windsor, Vt., June 20.—It is reported here that a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of Mrs. Mary M. Rogers whose execution for the murder of her husband is fixed for Friday next, has been granted at Brattleboro by Judge Wheeler of the United States district court. According to the report the prison officials will be required to produce the woman in court here at 10 o'clock on Wednesday, 48 hours before the time set for her execution. It is said that the state will be required to show cause why Mrs. Rogers is not illegally restrained of her liberty.
