ONCE let the plenipotentiaries get to Washington and peace is assured.

Now that he has been threatened with assassination by a crank, Mr. Fairbanks thinks that the public can no longer doubt his presidential qualifications.

The periwink feather in the Prince of Wales' coronet is said to be valued at $50,000, but if they ever get popular, the millinery stores will have them at $2.50.

MAYOR DUNNE of Chicago declares that the next Democratic platform will advocate ownership of railroads, but Col. Bryan has thus far neglected to turn in any passes.

The talk of Senator Bailey of Texas as a Democratic candidate for the presidency has evidently been started without consultation with the Honorable James Hogg of the same state.

The Norwegians are trying to embarrass President Roosevelt by appealing to him for recognition. All of the nations seem to take delight in casting their burdens at Uncle Sam's door.

KANSAS is again advertising for 25,000 harvest hands just as the college commencements are about over, but wants it understood that men who are looking for ice cutting need not apply.

EVEN a man who has done as much for his country and the world as Wm. H. Taft has, cannot hope to entirely escape adverse criticism. Just to think, somebody says the Secretary looks like Grover Cleveland.

THE Metropolitan Life Insurance Company will erect a building in New York City 500 feet high, the tallest in the world. It is only proper that insurance buildings should correspond in height with the salaries of the officials.—Blizzard.

If the legislature is to be convened in extra session to pass a personal registration law, arrangements should also be made to repeal the Philadelphia rippers, pass a reapportionment bill and amend the ballot law.—Tittusville Herald. And why not include the game and fish laws while you're at it. Amendments to these are always in order.

THE accident to the twentieth century flyer of the New York Central railroad, near Mentor, Ohio, on Wednesday last, when a dozen or more passengers were killed, and twice as many seriously injured, has not deterred the Pennsylvania railroad from continuing its 18-hour flyer, the word having been given out that it will be continued on the schedule. Nevertheless sixty to a hundred miles an hour seems too dangerous a gait for any mundane travel. Better wait till aerial flyers are perfected before attempting such fearful momentum. There's not half the danger of encountering obstacles when flying through space.

County Fair Dates. County and local agricultural fairs will be held in nearly every county next fall, according to a bulletin issued by the State Department of Agriculture.

A GUARANTEED CURE FOR PILES. Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles. Druggists refund money if Pazo Ointment fails to cure any case, no matter how long standing, in 6 to 14 days.

Any person desiring a complete course in shorthand at a cost of only $15.00, can receive full information by writing Forest F. Shoup, 108 Bush St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Nebraska Items.

Two new houses are almost completed in the upper end of town and two more will be built immediately.

Mrs. Lyman Cook and Mrs. A. J. Small were called to Butler on account of the serious illness of their sister, Mrs. Chas. Whiteman.

Miss Anna Blausner and Miss Evadua Hunter, who have attended school at the Clarion Normal for the past three months, returned home the last of the week.

Miss Emma New, of New Rochelle, N. Y., is visiting at the home of her uncle, Judge Kreidler.

A number of our young people attended a social held at Fox Creek on Friday evening. They report a fine time and a success financially.

Miss Chloe Smith, who has spent the last two months in Ohio, returned on Saturday.

Miss Edith Gayley is visiting her friend, Miss Emma Thompson, for a short time before starting for West Virginia.

Ray A. Cole spent Sabbath with friends on Church Hill.

Miss Lula Crouch, of East Hickory, is visiting at the home of Eugene Holmes.

Wm. Myers was called to Pittsburg to attend the funeral of his father, who died last Wednesday.

Mrs. Secor, mother of Sanford Secor, is spending the summer with her son.

Neiltown Cemetery Association Picnic. The ninth annual meeting of the Neiltown Cemetery Association was held in the grove at the Neiltown church Friday.

There was an attendance of about 150, representing different sections of the county for a radius of fifteen or twenty miles.

From this city the following were present: Hon. and Mrs. Joseph J. McCrum, W. M. Dame, Mrs. Frank L. Nuse, Mrs. L. W. Brown, Mrs. L. L. Shattuck and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shreve.

At noon the old fashioned dinner was spread in the grove and the assemblage was seated at one of the most delightful repasts that ever tempted hungry humanity.

The business meeting was held in the afternoon and J. J. McCrum presided. He made an interesting address, greeting his old friends and neighbors and bidding them a hearty welcome.

The minutes of the meeting of 1904 were read and adopted. The report of the treasurer showed a nice balance and was very satisfactory.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, J. J. McCrum; vice president, J. H. Bowman; treasurer, R. O. Carson; secretary, J. O. Carson; directors, Eli Berlin, Joseph Dunham, Mack Vincent, Benjamin F. Fogle and Daniel Carson.

The meeting next year will be held a year from yesterday.—Tittusville Herald, 24th.

Children's Day at Kelleitville. Kelleitville was favored by a treat on Sunday evening, June 25th, when the children of the M. E. Sunday school with their happy faces met among a profusion of flowers and ferns to observe Children's Day exercises.

Considering the children only had one week in which to prepare they did remarkably well, each exercise being rendered with credit to themselves and those who had charge of the work.

Among the exercises deserving special mention was a solo by little Ruth Wilson, the Christian Conquest flag drill by the boys, also the two exercises, the Upward Way, and the Archway of Love.

W. F. M. S. of Clarion Presbytery.

One of the most helpful and delightful conventions in the history of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of Clarion Presbytery was held at Penfield last Wednesday and Thursday.

The meetings were addressed by Dr. Bertha T. Caldwell, of India, Mrs. Fannie Jessup Swain, of Philadelphia, daughter of Dr. Samuel Jessup, of Sidon, Syria, who spent over twenty years herself in Syria, and by Rev. Robert Morrison, pastor of the Penfield Presbyterian church, who, for a number of years, was a missionary in India.

The treasurer's receipts, not including the contingent fund, were over $2000, an increase of $700 over the amount of any former year.

The Thank Offering amounted to $333, which was also an increase.

For the past three years the society has increased financially and spiritually under the efficient leadership of Mrs. N. P. Wheeler, of Endeavor, and it was with deep regret that the ladies of the Presbytery learned of her inability to serve as president during the coming year.

Mrs. S. A. Cornelius, of Oil City, takes Mrs. Wheeler's place as president of the society, while Mrs. Wheeler is retained on the executive committee as Fourth Vice President.

Other officers being: Mrs. E. J. Mateer, New Bethlehem, Mrs. Calbertson Orr, Limestone, and Mrs. James Conway, Brookville, as 1st, 2d and 3d Vice Presidents; Mrs. Elizabeth Reed, Corsica, Rec. Secretary; Mrs. Craig Lucas, Brookville, Cor. Secretary; Mrs. F. R. Hindman, Clarion, Treasurer; Mrs. F. R. Scherer, Nickleville, Treasurer Contingent Fund; Mrs. Belle K. Richards, Oil City, Secretary Young People's Work and Mrs. Bradshaw, Brookville, Secretary of Literature.

Mrs. A. B. Kelly, of Tionesta, was also made a member of the executive committee. The next annual meeting will be held at Brookville.

Those who attended the convention from this vicinity were Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Guy Hillard, Miss Laura McKean, of Endeavor, and Miss Nancy Morrow of Tionesta.
