Government's New Explosive.

That a twelve-inch shell loaded with only a very small charge of dunnite, the world's most effective explosive, will crumple in the side of the heaviest armor-clad vessel, though the shell fall short of its mark by 20 feet, has just been demonstrated at the beginning of a series of tests at the government proving grounds at Sandy

The great value of this explosive hes in the fact that the shell will tierce armor plate and explode in the interior of a vessel.

The explosive substance is named after its inventor, Major Beverly W. Dunn, U. S. A., and is a closely guarded government secret. Foreign nations have sought in vain to learn of its composition. Meantime a large supply of armor-piercing shells has been placed in arsenals, all the ships of the navy and the seacoast fortifications, ready for any emergency.

Invents Cotton Picker.

After five years of patient labor Charles B. Shreaves of Dennison Texas, has perfected a cotton picker which he says will revolutionize cotton picking. A blue print device is being prepared at Dallas. The machine is attached to a wagon and can pick one, two, or four rows at a time. and can reach tall or small stalks. Shreaves is a poor man. Ample capttal will back up the invention. The inventor claims the device can do the work of 50 pickers per day, Panama Canal Administration. It is probable the administration of affairs connected with the construction of the Panama canal may be transferred from the war to the state de partment. Since Elihu Root indicated his acceptance of the president's tender of the secretaryship of state, the president has had the matter of the ransfer under consideration. It is known that Secretary Taft would be quite willing to be relieved of the responsibility attached upon the direction of the canal affairs.

HOOKER TRIAL BEGINS

First Day's Session Had But Little Practical Result.

Disagreement Between Houses as to Procedure-Senate Restricted Receipt of Evidence to the "Legal and Usual Rules Prevailing In Courts of Record In This State."

Albany, July 11.-The proceedings of the two houses of the state legis lature in their extra session to acl gron the charges against Supreme Court Justice Warren B. Hooker not only were almost without practical result, so far as actual progress in set tlement of the case is concerned, but developed into something very suggestive of a misunderstanding, not to say a possible deadlock, between the two houses, which is anything but encouraging to those who hoped for and prophesied a disposal of the case with in the present week, The only thing actually accomplish ed in the very brief joint session held was the personal appearance of Justice Hooker before the session and the filing of his formal reply to the charges adopted a fortnight ago.

The joint session then adjourned, but later in the afternoon the two ject matter of the principal speech houses convened saparately, and passed at once into a tedious and wordy wrangle over a single technical point.

The point upon which the two houses are divided is whether a rule shall be adopted restricting the joint session to receipt of evidence under the "legal and usual rules" prevailing in courts of record of this state, whether no such rule governing the evidence shall be adopted, or whether it shall be adopted in some modified form.

The senate finally adopted the proposed rule in the first form. This was bitterly opposed by Senator Grady who also demanded that action be deferred until some of the absent Democratic senators would be present. He made a vain effort to have the vote reconsidered and upon being out-voted declared that until what he considered a fair vote could be obtained, "not much business would be transacted in the joint session. "Such a rule makes this a trial," said he, "instead of a hearing as contemplated by the constitution. It will result in covering Justice Hooker up by technical rules of evidence."

The minority leader's desire was to leave the legislature unbound by rules, thus enabling it to receive what-Several Republicans sided with him. Senator Hinman remarking that he be and something to be covered up."

This intimation was denied by Ma jority Leader Raines in a heated argu ment, during which he declared that the legislature would not want to con demn Justice Hooker "upon evidence that would not be received in a dog

The attempt last evening of the Re publican leaders in the assembly to get concurrence in the senate action falled, chiefly through the maneuver of Minority Leader Palmer.

The assembly spent considerable time depating the proposition to allow representatives of the state. New York, Brooklyn and Jamestown bars to participate in the hearing and finally adopted such a rule. The senate concurred and both houses decided to have the proceedings of the assembly at which final action shall be taken, after a hearing, open instead of secret as was recommended by the sub-committee on procedure.

Preparing Cotton Reports. Washington, July 11. - Secretary Wilson will adhere to the practice now in vogue at the department of agriculture in having only the statisticians, himself or the assistant secretery present when the monthly cotton ctop reports are being prepared for publication. He made this plain in a dispatch to President R. M. Miller, Jr., of the American Cotton Manufacturers' association now at Charlotte, N. C., who telegraphed the secretary that if the representative of any ors ganization interested in cotton is to appear before the department when the August cotton report is being prepared his organization also desired representation.

Haltered 17 Prisoners With One Rope Orange, N. J., July 11,-Constable James Smith of Phillipsburg believes that the dignity of Jersey justice should be upheld at any cost. Last week he went to Alpha to arrest a foreigner on a trivial charge and was beaten and disarmed. Yesterday he took four deputies to Alpha and arrested 17 persons, including one woman, all charged with interfering with an officer. The constables tied the prisoners together with a long rope and marched them to Phillipsburg.

mmous Woman Spy Drowns.

Santa Cruz, Cal., July 11. - Mrs. Charles Gray of Boulder Creek, who was formerly Mrs. Amanda Monks, a Confederate spy during the civil war, was drowned while she and her husband were driving. Their horse took fright at an automobile and backed off a bridge. Mr. Gray got out to hold the horse while the automobile passed. The horse became unmanageable and backed into the stream falling on top of Mrs. Gray. She was drowned before her husband's eyes.

BRISTOW'S PANAMA REPORT.

Commissioner Makes a Number of In portant Recommendations.

Washington, July 11.-The report of Joseph L. Bristow, who was appointed a special commissioner to investigate trade conditions and other matters af fecting the Panama Railroad and Steamship company, was made public

The report discusses what policy should be pursued by the government in the management of the railroad and makes a number of important recommendations

Among these are the continuance o the railroad as a commercial line with improved facilities for handling com merce, including double tracking and re-equipping the line with modern roll ing stock and the enlargement of its port facilities; the retention of the steamship line between New York and Colon; the cancellation of the con tracts with the Pacific Mail Steamship company and the South American lines and the opening of the ports of Colon and Panama to all steamship lines on equal terms; and in certain contingencies the establishment by the railroad of steamship lines between Colon and Gulf ports and Panama and Important United States Pacific coas

It is also recommended that in traffic connections American steam ship lines be favored as far as con siztent with the treaty obligations o the United States.

Mr. Bristow spent several month on the isthmus in his investigation His report reviews the entire history of the railroad and discusses allega tions that its local freight and passen ger charges were excessive and its traffic contracts with steamship lines monopolistic. The report was made to Secretary Taft, who transmitted it to the president with a letter commending its thoroughness.

EFFORTS TO RAISE SUBMARINE

Last Message From Imprisoned Crew Believed All Are Dead.

Paris, July 1 .- Dispatches reach ing the ministry of marine show that the authorities at Bizerta, Tunis, continue their tedious efforts to raise the submarine boat Farfadet with the ex pectation of taking out the corpses of the imprisoned crew.

Cables were again passed under the boat yesterday but the rescuers were unable to bring her to the surface The futile efforts to rescue the im prisoned men shook up the boat, loos ening the cap and permitting water to enter the interior orifice for the ad mission of air. One of the last mes sages from the interior of the Far fadet was: "Hurry Water gaining."

Since then complete silence has prevailed within, the divers' raps bringing no response. Therefore it is believed that those who escaped being smothered were drowned. The min istry of marine still withholds a defi nite announcement that the crew are resignation will take effect at once. Director Potter, in his letter detannding Chief Pierie's resignation. states that he has examined the 16 bills for work done upon city property, Words as Possible For the Benefit all of which are marked "correct" by Mr. Pierie. Several of these are said to be impositions upon the city and should have been investigated before being approved. Continuing the lecter states:

"In view of all that I have said about the loose methods pursued by your bureau and the warnings that I have repeatedly given you respecting this class of bills. I feel that the approval of these bills in the shape they were, and with the certificates of the rolice for your guidance, indicates a great deal of negligence, calculated to tring this administration into disrerute and to make my work in this department not only a burden, but of less value than it ought to be to the public. I must therefore usk your resignation."

Pennsylvania Alderman Orders the Division of a Horse In Dispute.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 10.-Unable to decide which of two contending parties had the best title to a horse which they claimed, Alderman Donohue of this city had the horse brought to his office and continued the hearing on the sidewalk, where the horse could be seen. He told the defendant and prosecutor to select which part of the horse they liked best. One chose the fore, the other the aft.

"I'll take the hoofs and shoes for costs," said Donohue and, calling a constable, ordered him to shoot the horse and divide it. Instantly the prosecutor and defendant were pleading for its life, and he gave them four days to come to an agreement.

State Entomologist's Work.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 10.-Professor Surface, the state economic zoologist, is conducting a series of experiments for the extermination of vermin especially the flour moth, which of late has been causing loss to millers throughout the state. This pest increases so rapidly that before preventive measures can be undertaken it clogs the machinery of :nflls and ruins great quantities of flour. At Lewisburg last week Professor Surface filled an infested mill with the deadly gas of prussle acid. Inhalation of this will kill, and from the Lewisburg mill were taken all kinds of vermin, including a bushel of rats and a number of sparrows that had nests in Mules Need Profanity.

Newcastle, Pa., July 10.- Local Welsh folks who have just returned from visiting their native land say the great religious revival that has been sweeping over that country renders it almost impossible to work the coal mines, for the mules refuse to haul the coal from the pits. Formerly the miners and drivers urged the mules to their best efforts by liberal use of profanity, the mules bending to their tasks to the tune of blood curdling oaths. Since the revival in Wales the miners refuse to swear at the mules and the animals are so bewildered they don't know what's expected of them. So they stand still and when the lash is laid on merely hump their backs.
