West Hickory. Last Sunday, July 30th, was a day of happiness and rejoicing for the congregation of the Methodist Episcopal church of West Hickory, for it witnessed the dedleation and final turning over to them of the beautiful new church building presented through the noble generosity of Messrs, Orion Siggins, of West Hickory and T. D. Collins, of Nebraska, The dedicatory services were conducted by Bishop C. C. McCabe, and he was assisted by the pastor, Rev. E. D. Mowrey, K. Whippo, of Stockton, N. Y., Rev. S. B. Torrey, of Erie, Pa., and Rev. H. K. Steele, of Townville, Pa., the last three being former pastors of that charge.

The inclement weather of the morning no doubt deterred many from attending, vet the hour set for the service, 10:30 a. m., found the church filled to overflowing nonneed last week was -ubstantially carried out. Prior to the dedicatory services 'he rite of baptism was administered by Bishop McCabe to a class of ten adults and thirteen children. The sermon was delivered by Bishop McCabe, from the text as found in Exodus 25:8: "And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them." It was an eloquent discourse suited to the occasion and it was evident that this grand old servant of the Master has lost none of his power to sway the minds of men, for at times his hearers were moved to tears and again to smiles. A the conclusion of the sermon the trustees, Messra, Orion Siggins, T. D. Collins and J. G. Carson, were called to the chancel rail and the edifice was formally dedicated by the Bishop to the service and worship of Almighty God. The services were made more enjoyable by two finely rendered solos by Mrs. J. F. Sheasley, o Kittanning, who gave as the voluntary "Open the Gates of the Temple," and Mr. F. A. Shaw, of Tidioute, who gave the solo "Alone With Thee." The congregational singing was led by Dr. Wm. G. Morrow, Mrs. Sheasley, and Mr. F. A. Wheeler, with Mrs. W. G. Wilkins presiding at the organ, and was entered into with spirit by all.

At three o'clock in the afternoon a platform meeting was held in the new church at which reminiscences were given by Bishop McCabe, and Revs. Mr. Mowrey. Mr. Whippo, who was the first pastor atter the organization of the West Hickory class a little more than ten years ago, Mr. Torrey and Mr. Steele, Mr. Siggins was called on, but being too modest to appear, the audience gave him the Chautauqua salute. Mr. Collins was then called on and in a brief speech gave the history of the old church and the circumstances which led them to build the new church. The audience was again highly favored by solos by the Bishop, Mrs. Sheasley, Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Shaw, In the evening at 7:30 Bishop McCabe preached again to an audience that filled every seat in the house, taking his text from Isaiah 60:22: "A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation : I the Lord will hasten it in his time." Services will be held every evening this week, except Saturday.

> We have not sufficient data to give a technical description of the church building, but it is of modern architecture, convenient and comfortable in all its appointments, and is a credit to the community as well as a lasting memorial to the generous donors. It stands in the center of the town, on South Main street,
