Just one of the examples we are constantly offering of how it is we can undersell all competition. Through the buying syndicate, of which we are members, we buy in immense quantities direct, from first hands; oftentimes saving considerable thereby. This is one of the times. The Flannellettes we are offering at 6 3-4 cents are every bit as good as "Teazle Downs," or any other line; they are the best---or as good as the best the market affords, and the regular price at any other store would be 10 cents.

High Esteem In Which Candidate Plummer Is Held By Neighbors.

NSURGENT FLINGS RESENTED

From the Pulpit and Bench, In the Business World and Among the Wage Earners, Republican Nominee

Nothing has occurred in the history of local politics in this section during recent years to create such a thorough storm of indignation among the people of this locality, says a special from Altoona to the Philadelphia Inquirer, as did the unjust attack made in a speech delivered by O. H. Hewit, of Hollidaysburg, before the meeting of the Lincoln Party committee, held in Philadelphia and aimed directly against his fellow-townsman, J. Lee Plummer, the Republican nominee for state treasurer of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Hewit's remarks reflecting upon Mr. Plummer's standing in the community were promptly resented by some of the most prominent men in Blair county, irrespective of their political affiliations.

Citizens of Hollidaysburg were par ticularly incensed at the attack made upon Mr. Plummer and were quick to speak their minds on the subject, Mr. Hewit declares that he was misquoted, but whether he was correctly reported or not, citizens generally hereabouts have taken occasion to vent their indignation at the wrong done Mr. Plummer, about whose standing in the community there is but one opinion. It is of the very highest.

The esteem in which Mr. Plummer is held may be gathered from a few public statements made to a representative of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

From Judge and Pastor. President Judge Martin Bell says: "I have known J. Lee Plummer intimately for 25 years. He is a model husband and father, and his private character has been pure and free from all taint of wrong-doing. His honesty and integrity, both as a citizen and lawyer, are unquestioned in this community.

Rev. George S. Woomer, pastor of the First M. E. Church of Hollidaysburg, where Mr. Plummer attends, is quoted: "For more than two years I have been a resident of Hollidaysburg and the pastor of the First Methodist church located in this town. Hon. J. Lee Plummer is a member of the church and a regular attendant at the church services. He is one of the trustees of the church, and for nine years has been the secretary and treasurer of the board. He has the confidence and esteem of the church membership and of the community at large. His private life and character are above reproach and his family life is ideal. He holds my confidence and esteem as a man and as a Christian

John D. Blair, a prominent lawyer, says: "Mr. Plummer is one of our best citizens. He has always been industrious, upright, honest and honorable. A man of the very highest morals, I know of no one to whom I would trust my private affairs more implicitly than to Mr. Plummer. Acquainted with the trials of one who has never lost his close sympathy with the struggling masses, the people of Blair county by repeated ballot have borne testimony of their estimate of his worth. His this community and their ardent support of him is the evidence of their 8.75; medium to good, $8.00@8.50.

W. I. Woodcock, a prominent member of the bar, states: "I have been intimately acquainted with Mr. Plummer. He read law in my office. He is a man of unimpeachable integrity and unassallable moral character. He is strictly temperate, being an active member of the Methodist church."

Rev. P. Verliker, of St. Mark's Catholic church, frankly said: "He is a gentleman from first to last. He is a good neighbor, a good citizen and considered so by all with whom I have come in contact. Both-Republicans and Democrats here hold him in high esteem. The local citizens generally are willing to give him their support and anxious to see his election to the high office of the state treasurer. He is first among the first gentlemen of this borough and morally as well as otherwise a most respected resident."

J. A. B. Melvin, president of the Altoona Trust company, has this frank interview: "I have intimately known J. Lee Plummer about 22 years. I have lived a neighbor with him 18 years, nine of which have been on the same lawn, therefore have knowledge of his daily life during all these years. He has been uniformly kind and obliging and in every possible way has been to me a desirable neighbor. He is today and always has been a respected citizen of the town. He has been careful in his daily life. He is a member and official of the Methodist church, and won his way to present position of prominence through native ability, aided by such good qualities as named above." J. King McLanaghan, Sr., president of the McLanaghan Stone Machine company, has this to say: "I have never heard anything derogatory to Mr. Plum; mer, and always found him to be an honest, upright citizen. I believe he will make an efficient state treasurer. and in my opinion the people of Hollidaysburg, irrespective of politics, intend to vote for him."

"The People Like Him." P. W. Snyder, a well-known druggist, says: "Mr. Plummer is an honest, un right citizen, and has the respect of the residents of Hollidaysburg. He is a man among men, and socially he is the -Thompson's Barosma has positively made wonderful cures in Bright's Disease, Sciatic Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver diseases, Lumbago and Female equal of any person known here to my STANDS WELL AT HOME equal of any person known here to my acquaintance. The people of Hollidays-burg like him, but, like other men in burg like him, but, like other men in public life, he has some political enemies. I believe he will receive a magnificent vote in this town and county."

From Wage Earner and Merchant. John A. Filtz, a well-known wageearner of Hollidaysburg, candidly says: "I believe I am only voicing the sentiment of the working people when stating that no man is better liked or more popular here than J. Lee Plummer. He is friendly and courteous, and well thought of by all."

Frank Glessner, a leading merchant, says: "Mr. Plummer is a man of good moral character, an excellent citizen and in my opinion the people here can only speak of him in highest terms and respect."

Charles Hartsock, an aged engineer, who is past 72 years, says: "I have known Mr. Plummer for 32 years, and in my estimation there is not a more honest or popular man in Blair coun-

John H. Law, a leading merchant and Democrat, is quoted: "I consider J. Lee Plummer to be one of the fairest men in the county. His dealings with the people are characterized by truth and honesty. Morally he is one of the cleanest men I ever knew. 1 am a Democrat, but will vote for him because I know he is honest."

These expressions come virtually spontaneously from the people of Holidaysburg, where J. Lee Plummer the candidate for state treasurer, resides. They form a tribute which emphasizes his true worth and character

As to the rather subtle question "gentleman," "lady," "man" and 'woman," there is a difference (writes a correspondent) between the sexes. A duke must always be a man, unless he be, for the purpose of the conversa-tion, a "gentleman," with great emphasis of voice. Without emphasis every man of gentleman's rank is a "man" always and in every social circumstance. But with women it is entirely a matter of the adjective. Without an adjective a woman is a "lady." Who ever asked, on hearing that a friend was to marry, "Who is the woman?" Nor do we say that we met a woman at dinner who told us soand-so. But introduce the adjective and the "lady" is at opce a pretty woman, a well dressed woman, rather a dull woman.-London Chronicle.
