SIR HENRY IRVING DEAD

Passes Away Suddenly at Bradford, England.

Funeral of Speaker Nixon—Captain Taggart Secures Divorce.—French Car Wins International Automobile Race.—W. J. Bryan in Japan.—Mae C. Wood Loses Her Suit.

The English-speaking world has suffered an irreparable loss by the sudden death Friday night at Bradford of Sir Henry Irving, who was universally regarded as the most representative English actor of contemporary times. Sir Henry died literally in harness. He was giving a series of farewell performances in the English provinces in several favorite roles. Thursday he presented "King Rene's Daughter" and "The Bells," and appeared to be in excellent health, taking the exhausting part of Mathias in the latter play with all the vigor of youth. Friday night before an enthusiastic audience at Bradford he portrayed one of his most characteristically intellectual parts, the title role in his own stage adaptation of Lord Tennyson's "Becket," with marked success. After the performance Sir Henry returned to his hotel, reaching his room at 11:30 o'clock, when it was observed that he was in great pain. Physicians were immediately summoned, but before they could arrive Sir Henry was seized by an attack of syncope and expired within a few minutes, without having uttered a word.

Funeral of Speaker Nixon.

At the family plot in Westfield cemetery, beside the grave of his mother, S. Fred Nixon, late speaker of the assembly, was buried Friday. All Chattanooga county was dressed in mourning. In Westfield all business was suspended and flags were at half mast. The day which dawned cold and grey was warmed by the sun which shortly after noon brushed the clouds away and bathed the funeral cortege in a burst of sunlight. The governor and former Governor Odell led the march from the train to the church. Following the governor came former Lieutenant Governor Woodruff. Then came the respective state officers led by Secretary of State O'Brien. At the church the funeral services were simple and impressive. Rev. McClelland spoke briefly of the life and public services of Mr. Nixon. There was music by the choir. At the conclusion of the services in the church, which consumed but a few minutes, the casket was carried by the bearers to the hearse and the funeral cortege was formed in the same order as in the march from the station to the church. The members of the assembly acted as honorary pall bearers. Immediately following the members of the assembly came Mrs. Nixon and her children and other relatives in caskets. The services at the grave were brief and simple.

Captain Taggart Secures Divorce.

Judge Eason, who heard the divorce case at Wooster, O., of Captain Elmore F. Taggart against his wife, has rendered his decision granting Captain Taggart a divorce and the custody of the two children, Culver, aged 11, and Charles, aged 7. Mrs. Taggart is permitted to see the children. Captain Taggart was in court during the reading of the decision. Mrs. Taggart is ill and was not present. Judge Eason before giving his decision reviewed the case, saying the testimony was deeply touching. The charge of drunkenness against Captain Taggart, the court said, was not sustained. The trial lasted seven weeks. The case went to the court a month ago.

French Car Wins.

A French machine driven by Henry won the international automobile race for the W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., cup on the Mineola, L. I., course Saturday. Henry covered the distance, 282 miles, in 4 hours, 26 minutes and 8 seconds, or 7 minutes better than a mile a minute speed. Heath, who won last year's race in an American car, drove a French one this year and was second. Tracy, in an American machine, was third and Lancia, in an Italian car, was fourth.

Exposition That Paid.

Saturday was the last day of the Lewis and Clark Centennial exposition. Monday the wrecking of the immense exhibit palaces and state buildings commenced and soon all that will remain of the splendid exposition will be a memory of its success—success as expositions go, for President Goode has made public announcement that the stockholders will receive a dividend of from 30 to 40 per cent on their stock, a record that excels any exposition of like character ever held in the world.

Patience in France is rapidly becoming exhausted over the delay of the government in proceeding against Venezuela. This government will give France every possible assistance toward a diplomatic adjustment.

No Further Light on Olney Murders.

Efforts to locate the man who disappeared from Middletown, N. Y. on the day of the Olney tragedy and who is suspected of the crime have so far proved fruitless. The condition of Mrs. Ingerick, who was found unconscious in the Olney barn, has greatly improved. Her wounds are almost healed and she is able to talk rationally. She has not yet been informed of the death of her daughter and the Olney brothers and she expressed surprise that the latter had not called to see her, as she said they owed her some money. The physicians hope that with the full restoration of her mental faculties she will be able to throw light on the identity of her assailant.

Extensive Consumption Hospital.

One of the most extensive works in behalf of the poor of the city of New York ever undertaken is about to be started by the department of charities in the form of a sanitarium for the exclusive treatment and care of persons suffering from tuberculosis. Situated on the highest hill on Staten island, overlooking New York harbor and with accommodations in its wards for 800 patients, the sanitarium is planned to be the finest of its kind in the world. For its construction alone $2,000,000 will be necessary. The plan was prepared after a careful study of consumption hospitals.

Platt and the United States Express company, in which Miss Wood asked $25,000 for services rendered and for a garnishment against the senator. The court decided that Senator Platt had no money in the possession of the express company.

Ramsey Completely Beaten.

Joseph Ramsey, Jr., failed completely in his effort at Toledo to wrest control of the Wabash system from George J. Gould. Not only was he utterly defeated in all he undertook but was forced from the directory of the road, and now has nothing whatever to do with its management. He put up a hard fight and struggled gamely to the last, but was so hopelessly in the minority that he never had a chance.

William Mills Ivins For Mayor.

William Mills Ivins, who acted as counsel for the Fassett legislative committee in 1892 and was city chamberlain under Mayors Hewitt and Grace, has accepted the Republican nomination for mayor of New York.

N. Y. Champions of the World.

The New York giants Saturday afternoon won their fourth game out of the five played with the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of the American league, and with it the title of champions of the world. The game was the finest contest of the series, a little wildness by Bender turning the tide in favor of New York. The score of the final game was: New Yorks, 2; Athletics, 0.
