Smart & Silberberg
STORES.

In all Departments, But in None More so Than in Cloaks & Costumes
Each Season Sets a Higher Standard.

The achievements of yesterday fall short of the requirements of to-day. A loftier ideal always confronts the progressive merchant. This is strikingly exemplified in our Cloak and Suit section, wherein each season sets a higher standard.

In THIS store it is not sufficient that a garment be well made, of good quality and right style. It must be distinctive and exclusive. Such are the productions which elicited unstated praise from the throngs who attended our opening.

A Joke on the "Propheet."
Some time in the thirties of the century Joseph Smith, an Mormon, and a party of his followers were proselyting in Muskingum county, O. He appointed a certain day when he would show the people his wonderful powers and that he was a second Christ by walking on the waters of Mad creek. The water was always muddy. A day or two before the time set grandmother's brother Robert and a couple of neighbor boys were accidentally attracted to the Mormons working at the creek and, concealing themselves, watched the Mormons put down stakes and put planks on them from bank to bank, the plank resting about six inches under water. After the Mormons left the boys went down and took out the center plank, where the water was about ten feet deep. The next day Balaam Smith came down to the creek and, after a long exhortation, started across the creek. He was all right and on top till he came to the center, "here his 'powers' seemed to leave him, and he went to the bottom. This was the end of Mormonism in that county.

All the News.
A wise editor says: "A man told us the other day that we did not publish all the things that happened. We should say not. In the first place, there is somebody else depending on us for a living. If we printed all that happens we would soon be with the angels. In order to please the people we must print only the nice things said of them and leave the rest to gossip. Yet it's a fact we don't publish all the news. If we did wouldn't it make spying reading? But it would be for one week only; the next week you would read our obituary. All the news is all right when it's about the other fellow."

Japanese "Silent" Music.
A curious ceremony is performed in Japan by the court musicians at certain Shinto festivals. Both stringed and wind instruments are used, but it is held that no sound should be allowed to fall upon unworthy ears, and, as some of the ears present might be unworthy, all the motions of playing are gone through by the musicians, but not a single sound is heard. This strange custom dates back many generations, but since the advent of civilization has rapidly lost favor.

"Well, I suppose we shouldn't be surprised. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

MILLER'S BODY FOUND.

Discovered by Two Small Boys Floating in the River.

Undoubtedly Took His Life While Temporarily Insane.—Was Member of a Wholesale Paper House of Binghamton.—Leaves a Wife and Two Children.

Binghamton, Oct. 17.—Two small boys in a boat at the foot of Murray street in this city at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon discovered the body of Frederick A. Miller, floating in the river.

Mr. Miller who was a member of the firm and a traveling salesman for a wholesale paper house in this city mysteriously disappeared on the night of Oct. 5. It was feared that he was deranged from overwork and ill-health. It was thought that while in that condition he might have wandered away. A reward was offered for information in regard to him and all of his customers in New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio and the authorities in those states have been looking for him for 10 days. It is thought that while temporarily insane Mr. Miller jumped into the river at some place above the city. A friend of his who was the last person to see him alive met him on the street on the night that he disappeared. He appeared strange and said, "Well, Ben, it's all up with me now."

Mr. Miller was 39 years old, married and had two children.

SHAKE UP IN VICE SQUAD.

New York's Police Commissioner Determined to Enforce the Law.

New York, Oct. 17.—Police Commissioner McAdoo has relieved Acting Captain Eggers from command of the police headquarters vice squad. Mr. McAdoo in announcing this order, called the vice squad one of the most powerful engines on the New York police force for enforcing the law.

Three weeks ago several raids on pool rooms were made through orders issued over the head of Captain Eggers. In transferring this captain the police commissioner gave his ground for this action in a statement in which he declared he had determined to reorganize and strengthen the vice squad.

"The men on it," he said, "are subjected to great temptations and need a vigilant supervision which will be quick to punish and equally willing to reward and encourage. Under reasonable suspicion, a man's usefulness is ended. Weak men must be weeded out at once. It is a powerful engine and needs constant inspection."

Acting Captain Eggers has commanded the headquarters vice squad for over a year. His place was taken by Roundsman Daniel E. Costigan, who was promoted to a detective sergeant. The squad numbers between 30 and 40 members.

Explosion on Submarine Boat.

Portsmouth, Eng., Oct. 17.—The crew of 16 men on board submarine boat No. 4 had a remarkably narrow escape. The boat was engaged in diving practice off Splethhead and was submerged, when water leaked through the exhaust pipe and caused an accumulation of gas. A slight explosion followed, damaging the machinery. The crew, however, managed to raise the vessel which came up stern first. A government gunboat nearby went to her assistance and saved all the crew. The submarine was towed in here for repairs.

TWO ROTTED GUNS FOUND.

Supposed to Have Been Carried by Ferguson's Murderer.

Washington, Pa., Oct. 17.—The Ferguson murder, which occurred at West Middletown two years ago, was recalled Monday when two single-barrel shotguns, which it is thought were used by the men concerned in the crime, were found in separate clumps of bushes within a few yards of where the satchel which contained the money stolen from Ferguson was discovered. The gun stocks were almost rotted away.

The theory is that confederates of the men who touched off the dynamite mine in the road were hiding with the weapons ready to shoot anyone who might try to intercept him. The men, when they saw their confederate safe, are supposed to have followed, leaving their guns behind. It is supposed they later joined the man with the money. Four men are under arrest in Croatia, accused as accomplices.
