THE COUNTY TICKET.

If any exceptions can be taken to the Republican ticket of Forest county it would be interesting to know what those exceptions would be. The fact is there are none to offer. Men of all shades of political opinion readily concede that the exceptional strength and signal ability. The candidates are all men who are peculiarly fitted to perform the duties of the offices for which their party has named them. All are men of sound judgment, good intelligence, large experience in business affairs, exercising rare discretion in the conduct of their private business, and are not rattleheaded or visionary in any matter. They are men of sobriety, good moral character, sterling honesty, and selected from the best and most conservative citizenship of Forest county. These are facts which every honest voter in the county will concede, and which no fee can deny.

David B. Shields, the candidate for Associate Judge, is one of our county's best citizens, every inch a man, whose character is without spot or blemish, and who would adorn the honorable position to which he aspires. A better selection for this office could scarcely be made, and those best acquainted with Mr. Shields all recognize this fact.

J. C. Geist, the unanimous nominee for the important office of Prothonotary, &c., has more than proved his fitness for the place. Forest county has never had a more competent official in that capacity, and that is saving a good deal for it has had some very capable men in that office. Mr. Geist is more than competent. He is obliging and pleasant with all who have occasion to transact business in the Prothonotary's office, which is no small item in the account, A. W. Stroup, the party's choice for Sheriff, is one of the honest, deserving home-grown boys of Forest county. A man of good intelligence, self-made, and who knows what it is to earn his bread by the sweat of his face. Thoroughly competent in every respect to perform the duties of the office of Sheriff, Mr. Stroup will prove an honor to the county which has been his home from birth, and he deserves the vote and earnest support of every Republican in the county, because he has been loyal to his party eversince he has had a vote.

Andrew Wolf and Leonard Agnew are the Republican nominees for County Commissioner, A better pair of conservative, capable and business-like men could scarcely be found in the county. Both are men of ripe experience, mature judgment, strictest honesty, just what is needed in the office of County Commissioner. They will administer the affairs of the county in an economical, safe manner, with due care for the welfare of the taxpavers, because they are men who cannot be swerved an jota from what they believe to be right and for the best interest of all concerned. With the business end of the county's affairs in such hands the people need have no fear of the outcome. A vote for Wolf and Agnew is a vote for sensible, economical and business-like government.

For County Auditors the Republicans have as their nominees two excellent men, W. H. Stiles and Chas. F. Klinestiver. The former has had experience in this office, and a better official in that capacity could not be found. Mr. Klinestiver will also be found a capable and painstaking official, and with these men to go over the county's accounts each year the taxpayer may rest assured that the auditing will be properly done, and that every dollar must be accounted for before transactions will pass inspection.

Then there is J. B. Eden for Jury Commissioner, who will prove a good odicial, With his extensive acquaintance over the fellows, county, and his thorough manner of doing things well, there should be no question about the jury list containing the one of the cleanest, most capable and names of the best and most competent least objectionable of any the party has men for this service.

THE SAME OLD TACTICS.

Unsuccessful Efforts to Discredit Republican State Leaders.

[Special Correspondence.]

Pittsburg, Oct. 24. In the closing days of what has been tide in favor of William H. Berry, the Prohibition-Democratic-Lincolnite candidate for state treasurer.

Everything has been going against Berry since the day he was nominated, and his defeat by an overwhelming majority is inevitable. They know this, but they still hope to cut down the Republican vote by continuing their schemes of misrepresentation and deliberate falsehood.

The failure of the Enterprise Bank was at once selzed upon as furnishing a new field for activity in their peculiar and unenviable methods of campaigning. They have been striving to have it appear that some of the Republican state leaders are, in some inexplicable way, responsible for the closing of the bank, but they have not been able to produce a scintilla of evidence to substantiate their vague intimations.

A Young Man's Statements.

Homer Castle, one of the Prohibition nominees for the Superior court, who has been going up and down the state making wild and irresponsible allegations regarding the management of the state finances, has been one of the most conspicuous of those who have been trying to use the failure of the Enterprise Bank to advance political inter-

Up to the time of his nomination, Castle was not known outside of the small circle of acquaintances near his home, and among them he had little standing as a lawyer, as it has not been long since he was an office boy in a law firm here. Nevertheless he has assumed to speak of matters of which he could not possibly have personal knowledge, as though he were fully and authoritatively informed as to facts and circumstances The despicable attempt to connect Senator Penrose with the affairs of this bank was met with a prompt and emphatic denial from the senior sena-Republicans have nominated a ticket of tor, as well as with a public statement from John R. Cunningham, the United States bank examiner.

Penrose's Prompt Denial.

This is Senator Penrose's signed statement which effectually nailed the lie, circulated for political purposes, that he had a note in the Enterprise

"I have no obligations of any kind in the Enterprise National Bank. I am not connected in any way, directly or indirectly, with the notes of W. H. Andrews, If there are any such in the Enterprise National Bank. I have no interest whatever in the Pennsylvania Development Company or with any other project in New Mexico. Any intimations to the malinious false for political effect.

(Signed) "BOIES PENROSE." Following this statement from Senator Penrose, Bank Examiner Cunningham made public this announce-

"An examination of the papers in the bank shows that there is no paper there with the name of Senator Penrose upon it, either as maker, indorser or guarantor."

Despite these positive statements showing that Senator Penrose's name was used in this connection without authority or justification of any kind. the Democrats have continued to distort the facts in trying to win votes for their candidate for state treasurer. But there is no reason to believe that they will be successful in that Berry Not Taken Seriously.

There is no Berry sentiment in this part of the state, and from what is heard from other sections the same condition of affairs exists everywhere throughout the commonwealth.

The Berry candidacy has been more or less of a joke. It has not been taken seriously even by many Democrats who, when they heard that their party had put up a Prohibitionist to head their state ticket, at once reached the conclusion that the Democratic ticket was doomed to defeat by even more than the usual majority.

J. Lee Plummer, the Republican nominee for state treasurer, will get an unprecedented majority for an offyear in Allegheny county. His name

The Republican leaders here look for Plummer's total majority in the state to reach nearly 200,000.

OREGON'S exposition is over, and - it can now devote its time to finding a better grade of congressmen.

HAVE you ever heard a reason given why any Republican should not vote the straight Republican teket at the coming election? It so, what is it?

THE retirement of Jeff Davis from high position in the public life of Arkansas ought to be worth at least $5 more on every acre of land in that great state.

Climatic Cures.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liber-ally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer clime, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup.
