-G. W. Osgood will please accept the thanks of the editor and family for a good supply of the nicest wild honey we've tasted for many a day. George is an expert bee hunter and finds much pleasure in coursing the busy bee. Thus far this season he has put his private mark on nine trees, a number of which he has not yet taken up. In one tree he found over 50 pounds last week. Wild honey has the domestic article beaten a mile in deliciousness of flavor.

-Fred, Carson made a trip from West Bickory to Tionesta Friday in his new boat which he has rigged up with gasoline engine, propeller, etc., and which skims along at a lively speed over swift rifiles as well as dead eddies. The boat is one of Fred's own manufacture, and the little horse-and-a-half engine was set up by him and attached to the screw propeller, all of which works like a charm and sends the craft along as smoothly as the finest lake launches.
