An exchange remarks: "In arranging for a turkey for Thanksgiving Day if you will also arrange for one for some family that in all probability will not enjoy a good dinner unless it is provided by someone on the outside, your own Thanksgiving dinner will be all the more enjoyable." Try it on the editor and see how nicely it will work.

Wolf Rosen, a former Marienville merchant, had his entire stock of merchandise and household goods, at St. Marys, Pa., burned on Wednesday night of last week. He had an insurance of $4,000 on the goods. On the building which he occupied both as a store and dwelling there was an insurance of $2,000. It was owned by I. Horwitz.

Gerald, the young son of John McMahon, of Cloughs Mills, Howe township, was accidentally shot and fatally wounded with an old revolver in the hands of a companion, on the 6th inst. The lads had found the revolver in a woodshed and were examining it, not knowing it was loaded, when it was discharged, the ball entering the unfortunate boy's head near the temple. He lived a couple of hours after the accident.

The Christian Endeavor Society will serve a chicken and hot biscuit supper in Bovard's hall, Friday evening, Nov. 17, beginning at half past five o'clock. The amount realized will be equally divided between the society and the church furnishing fund. A most cordial invitation is extended to the members of the church and congregation, and to all who desire a delicious chicken supper for the small price of 25 cents. Tickets on sale at the door.

Word has been received here of an accident which befell H. W. Horner, who has been hunting in the big woods of Wisconsin for some weeks past, in which he received a broken rib. The exact nature of the accident was not given but it occurred on Nov. 3d as he was traveling by horse and buggy from the woods to the city of Merrill, Wis. He was making preparations to come home for election and is now with relatives in Merrill.

The lecture in the Court House on Friday evening, Nov. 3d, by Dr. Geo. F. Bible, was greatly appreciated by all present. The audience was not as large as it should have been. Those who remained at home missed an opportunity which seldom comes to a village of this size. The Epworth League, under whose auspices Mr. Bible came, were able to place a nice sum in their treasury, thanks to Prof. D. W. Morrison, who paid a generous share of the expense himself.

In noting the death of George Hartman, of Mayburg, the REPUBLICAN stated last week that the funeral was conducted by Rev. Mr. Rohr, of Shippenville. This was an error. Rev. F. W. Parks, the Free Methodist minister at Mayburg, officiated at the services which were held at the late home of the deceased, and at the Presbyterian church in Tionesta, on Wednesday at 11 o'clock, where many of the friends of the deceased assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to a well beloved neighbor and citizen.

A private letter from our old friend and former Forest county citizen, Hon. Oliver Byerly, now of Ostrander, Washington State, conveys the pleasing news that he and all the other Forest county people located in that country are getting along well. Mr. Byerly is now a member of the legislature of his State, representing Cowlitz county, having at last fall's election received a very flattering endorsement as the nominee of the Republican party, his majority being larger than his opponent's entire vote. He wishes to be remembered to all his old friends in Forest county.

The rule of "speaking only good of the dead," while an admirable one, might, we think, successfully be carried a little further, and an occasional good word spoken of those who are struggling to do the best they can while journeying through this alleged "vale of tears." We need more "tasty and less epitaphy" or, as the originator of the phrase has so well expressed it, "We live and move and have our being; we stumble on without much seeing; few praise us for the good we've done 'till after we are dead and gone. O why, I wonder is this thus, and why are things in such a muss? In life we need more taffy, at death less epitaphy." Why not try it?

The Lickingville correspondent of the Clarion Democrat says: "A pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Sigworth Wednesday, November 1, 1905, when Mrs. Sigworth's oldest daughter, Maud E. Paup, and Earl Everhart were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in the presence of their near relatives. Rev. Mr. Shindler performed the ceremony which was followed by tender and impressive congratulations. A most beautiful wedding supper was served after which the newly wedded couple started away amidst showers of rice and best wishes." The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Everhart, and he and his fair bride are well known to many of our readers, who will wish them a long and happy wedded life.

A thoroughly practical, helpful, useful, entertaining Christmas gift to any member of a farmer's family will be a subscription for the year 1906 for the FOREST REPUBLICAN, Tionesta, Pa., your favorite home weekly newspaper, and a subscription for the year 1906 for the New York Tribune Farmer, a twenty-page high-class illustrated agricultural family weekly, thoroughly up to date in everything which advances the interests of the whole household. The two papers coming regularly every week in 1906 will be a constant reminder of the giver and a Christmas gift of the most substantial character continuously throughout the year. Both papers for only $1.25, but if subscribed for separately the regular price is $2.25. Now is the time to subscribe.

The minister should be paid a living wage, should earn it, and maintain himself and his family out of it, without asking rebates on purchases and half fare rates in traveling. Donations should not be solicited for him. Such offerings should, in fact, be considered an impertinence. There is no reason why he and his wife should have their supplies selected and purchased for them. Those who object to placing the services of a minister on a commercial basis should recollect that this is much better and more satisfactory in every way than are the popular donations, rebates on supplies and demands for half fares on public conveyances. It is the system, not the minister, that is to blame for thus persistently cheapening the gospel and making those who would follow preaching as a vocation semi-mendicants, subject alike to criticism for wearing good clothes and for going shabby.

Following the course of President Roosevelt, Governor Pennypacker has named Thursday, Nov. 30, as Thanksgiving day, and in his proclamation uses these words: "In pursuance of a usage established in the days of the fathers and long observed in the moral and spiritual elevation of the people, I, Samuel Whitaker Pennypacker, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby set apart Thursday, Nov. 30, as a day to render thanks unto the Lord for the great benefits we have received at His hands, and to set forth His praise. He hath blessed our heritage; He hath preserved for our use the kindly fruits of the earth; His eyes have considered the poor; it hath pleased him to give peace and concord to all nations; he hath not taken vengeance of our sins; he hath exalted the humble and the meek; he hath enabled us to amend our lives. Let us then come together in our homes, churches and places of worship and offer up prayers for the continuance of His mercies; let us both by our lives and doctrine set forth His glory and let us further remember the wants of the desolate, the needy and the oppressed."

H. H. Stow Dead.
Friends here received a telegram last evening apprising them of the death yesterday of Hobart H. Stow, at his home in Toledo, Ohio. Particulars are wanting, except that it is known that the deceased had been ill for a long time. The name of Mr. Stow is one that is honorably and inseparably linked with the early lumbering operations of this county, and many a heart in the community will be saddened to learn of his demise.

—Mrs. L. H. Gibson of Tionesta is the guest of her father, E. J. Lessor, South Ferry street.—Titusville Herald.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunter and their two bright little boys, of Green township, were Tionesta visitors yesterday.

—W. N. Zahnsier and Carl Range of Hickory township, were pleasant callers at the REPUBLICAN office, Saturday.

—Miss Edna Agnew left Monday for Washington, D. C., where she will spend the winter with her sister, Miss Christine Agnew.

—Mrs. M. E. Abbott and daughter Marie went to East Brady, Pa., last Saturday, for a week's visit with Rev. and Mrs. Paul D. Schilling.

—John Noble has moved from the Barnett building into Sam Farmer's house on Hilands street, vacated a short time ago by C. E. Jewell.

—H. W. Roberts, of Titusville, master carpenter of the Buffalo division of the P. R. R., was a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Jamieson, over Monday night.

—Wm. Albaugh, of East Hickory, D. E. Carson, of Stewart Run, and James Grove, of Kellettsville, were pleasant callers at the REPUBLICAN office last Wednesday.

—Miss Ruth Cook, of Nebraska, left Monday and will join Mr. and Mrs. George W. Matha in their trip to California and the Pacific coast states, expecting to be gone all winter.

—Misses Lila and Sara Cori, of Tidouste, who were attending the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Catherine Mealy, at Newmansville, were guests of Miss Blanche Pease on Sunday.

—Clyde Foreman, who recently graduated in shorthand and typewriting from Duff's College, Pittsburgh, was home a few days last week. He returned to Pittsburgh Saturday, where he has a good position awaiting him.

—Aldrich Chase, of Titusville, goes this morning to Cleveland, O., to visit his daughter, Mrs. Frank Roberts. He will return in two weeks to his work at Tionesta, Forest county, where he is employed in a sawmill.—Titusville Herald.

—J. W. DeWalt and son Homer, of West Freedom, Pa., were in town Saturday on their way to visit the former's brother, Homer, at West Hickory. Mr. DeWalt was a resident of Tionesta thirty years ago and found many changes here.

—Mrs. W. J. Campbell was operated upon at the Oil City hospital for appendicitis on Thursday last, since which she has been doing well and is making rapid progress toward recovery, her friends will be glad to learn. Dr. Siggins performed the operation.

—T. E. Armstrong, of Avalon, Allegheny county, spent several days of the past week as the welcome guest of Tionesta friends, returning to his home Monday evening. Time makes no changes on Prof. Armstrong, a fact which his many friends were pleased to note.

—Joseph Adamson, one of Philadelphia's prominent business men, and a frequent and welcome visitor in this county, was shaking hands with Tionesta friends last Thursday, being called here by business interests. He was accompanied by his grandson, Arthur Adamson. The REPUBLICAN acknowledges a pleasant call from them.

—Harry Shields, of Leola, Elk county, accompanied by Mrs. Shields, stopped in Tionesta over Monday night on his way home from the Oil City hospital where the latter had been operated upon for appendicitis by Dr. Siggins two weeks ago. She was recovering nicely from the trying ordeal. They were guests while here of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Siggins, the ladies being sisters.

—Arlie R. Hillard arrived in Ridgeway Wednesday to accept his appointment in the clerical force of the Ridgeway post office. He began his duties as a regular clerk this morning.—Ridgeway Advocate. As a Forest county production we all note Archie's advancement and progress with pleasure, especially since the extension of such favors are based on merit and ability.

—Weld Higgins, son of Geo. H. Higgins, Esq., was summoned to Erie Sunday by a telephone message stating that his father was in a much more serious condition. Mr. Higgins is not recovering from the very delicate operation for cancer performed in Chicago several weeks ago and the chances are that he will not survive more than a few days at most.—Warren Mirror.

—Frank Coleman was up from West Virginia a few days of the past week to visit his mother, and to bid her good-bye before leaving on a long journey abroad. With a party of ten, including himself, experienced drillers he will sail from New York on Saturday morning for the great oil fields of Roumania, where they will be in the employ of the South Penn. or Standard Oil company. They expect to be gone at least three years.

—Friends in this section have received intelligence of the death, on the 16th of October, of Isaac Siggins, at his home at Phoenix, Arizona, after a six days' illness. He was 72 years of age, and was related to the Siggins family of this county. He was in every sense a western man, having gone to California in 1854. He located in New Mexico 25 years ago, where he engaged in the cattle business and lived the typical ranch life.

—Joseph Joyce was taken to the Oil City hospital last Thursday and the same day was operated upon for appendicitis by Dr. Siggins of Oil City and Dr. Dunn of this place. They found a very serious state of affairs in Joe's condition, but he rallied nicely from the shock, and has been doing so well that his physician considers him practically out of danger. The same day Dr. Siggins performed three other operations of the same nature.

Matha-Cook Wedding.

NEBRASKA, PA., Nov. 9, 1905.

The event of the season took place today, being the marriage of Miss Phoebe Elizabeth Cook to Mr. George Wallace Matha.

The ceremony was performed in our pretty little church, witnessed by about 150 guests. The church was tastefully decorated in green and white; above the altar was suspended an arch of green, from which hung a beautiful large cluster of white chrysanthemums. In the pulpit were palms and ferns forming a very pretty background. The aisles were festooned with white ribbon and smilax.

At promptly one o'clock, with Miss Winifred Noyes of Pleasantville, as organist, the ceremony began. To the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the bridal party entered as follows: The ushers, William McCullough and Lewis Cook, a brother of the bride, were followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Alice Arner, of Tionesta, who was accompanied by Earl Small; both young people were cousins of the bride. Then entered the maid of honor, Miss Augusta Cook, a sister of the bride. Both ladies wore gowns of dainty white, the former carrying bridesmaid's roses and the latter a bouquet of asparagus green.

Next came the little people of the bridal party, Miss Martha Brown, of Tionesta, as flower girl, and Master Alon Sherman, of Kellettsville, as page, who both did their parts in their own sweet little ways. Both were dressed in white with blue ribbon accessories and looked very dainty and pretty.

Then entered the bride, on the arm of her father, Mr. Lyman Cook. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk chiffon over white taffeta and carried a shower bouquet of swansonia. At the altar they were met by the groom with his best man, Ralph Cook, also a brother of the bride, thus completing a semi-circle about the altar.

While the soft strains of music continued the impressive Methodist Episcopal ring service was performed by Rev. C. C. Rumberger, of Big Run, Pa., after which the bridal party left the church in the usual manner.

All proceeded to the pleasant home of the bride, where a most delightful afternoon was spent.

The home was also most tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and smilax, the prevailing flower being the lemon chrysanthemum. To the left of the entrance, under a festoon of ribbon and smilax, stood the bride and groom for congratulations which were most numerous and hearty, they being two of our model young people. In the dining room, decorated in green and yellow, was the bride's table, at which were laid covers for twelve. After all the guests could be seated a sumptuous luncheon of three courses was served under the able direction of Mrs. Bickner, of Oil City. The guests were served by eight girls; members of the choir of which the bride was leader and organist, and the bridal party by Misses Florence Hagerty and Marie Matha, cousin and sister of the bride and groom.

The gifts were most numerous and beautiful, consisting of linen, silver, cut glass, furniture, rugs, bedding, paintings, hand painted china, fancy work, etc., and showed that the bride was held in very high esteem.

Guests were present from Pleasantville, Tionesta, Randolph, N. Y., Jamestown, N. Y., Golliza, Kellettsville, Big Run, German Hill, West Virginia, Washington, and Nebraska.

The bride and groom left on the evening train with plenty of rice and good wishes for Kittanning, where they will spend a few days with friends, and on Monday will leave for the Pacific coast, where they will spend the winter.

And winter is almost here. Mrs. Mack is the guest of Miss Helen Long.

Miss Weldon's mother visited with friends in Mayburg over Sabbath.

W. E. Smith and wife called on L. D. Smith on Sunday last.

B. C. Campbell is able to be around again.

Albert Hartman and Roy Berlin, of Edinboro Normal school, were home the past week attending the funeral of their uncle, George Hartman.

M. N. Harriger and wife are visiting their daughter, who resides in Kane. Al. Richards spent Sabbath in town.

A number of nitrods from a distance spent some time in our vicinity. Whether or not they found game we do not know, but one thing is sure, they came loaded for bear.

Dr. Detar is with us quite frequently. Buck Mills school is in operation once more.

Duhring.
Harry Gillilan, Pigeon's most enterprising merchant, was a business caller in our town Saturday.

Mr. Barnes, the tobacco agent of Erie, made his usual visit to our town Wednesday last week.

Mr. Kinney spent Sunday at his home in Sheffield.

M. Dalton was a business caller in Marienville and Tionesta last week. Mr. Stover of Sheffield made a hurried visit to town Saturday.

Mr. Dixon of Lynch returned to our town Sunday.

Messrs. Lockwood and Miller, of Russell City, were guests at M. Dalton's Sunday.

Raleigh and Frank Sweet spent Saturday at Marienville.

The attendances at school was quite small last week, many of the children not yet being vaccinated. DAILY.

Prompt Payment.

TIONESTA, PA., Nov. 13, 1905.
Received of O. F. Miles, R. K. of Tionesta Tent, No. 164, K. O. T. M. O. T. W., draft of $100.00, same being in full payment for life benefit policy of my husband, W. A. Grove, who was a charter member of above named tent. I feel very grateful to the tent and the association they represent for their prompt attention and payment of this claim.

Mrs. W. A. GROVE.

—My wife stepped on a rusty nail and ran it into her foot. The foot swelled and pained her so that she could not put it to the floor. Sau-Cura Ointment drew out a poisonous brown pus and she is now perfectly well. Eugene McKenzie, Plum, Pa. Druggists, 25c and 60c. If

RECENT DEATHS.

MEALY.
Mrs. Mealy, widow of the late John Mealy, died at the home of her son, Joseph, who lives on the old homestead, a short distance from Johnstown, Clarion county, Thursday morning, Nov. 9, 1905, aged upward of 90 years. Catherine (Kinsley) Mealy was the daughter of John and Catherine Kinsley, and was born in Bedford county, Pa., July 14, 1815, where she grew to young womanhood. March 17, 1836, at Hollidaysburg, she was united in marriage with John Mealy, and six years later, in 1842, they came to Clarion county and settled on a piece of land which they cleared and ever after made their home, and where both passed their last hours upon earth, the husband passing away nearly 20 years ago. Seven boys and four girls were born to them, of whom seven still survive, as follows: Mrs. Samuel Whitton of Newmansville, Mrs. C. Zuendel of Ross Run, J. K. Mealy of Tionesta, Moses M., of Newmansville, Aaron, of Tionesta, Elijah, of Youngsville, and Joseph, on the old homestead. They were among the earliest settlers of the section to which they came, and the country was scarcely more than a wilderness, with neighbors few and far between, but they toiled together through it all, overcoming hardships with cheerful hearts that would be considered too great for the present generation to endure. Mother Mealy united early in life with the German Reformed church, afterwards transferring her membership to the Lutheran church owing to the absence of facilities for attending the church of her first choice. She was a true Christian mother and reared her children "in the faith." She retained her mental faculties to the last, and a few minutes before she closed her eyes in death, sang with a clear voice her favorite hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." She is also survived by one brother, one sister, 32 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Lutheran church at Newmansville, on Saturday last, conducted by Rev. R. A. Zahnsier of Tionesta, and the interment was made in the cemetery adjoining, six of her grandsons acting as pall bearers.

One of the Funny Items.
Newspaper reports say that the people of Forest county are considering the propriety of attaching themselves to some other county and thereby wiping themselves off the map as a political and geographical division. The county had a population of only 11,639 at the last census and the burden of maintaining a county government naturally falls heavily upon each taxpayer. We assume that this is all talk from irresponsible outside sources as Forest has the territory and resources to make a great county some day. All that is necessary is to saw wood and be patient. Besides, in a county where there are so few people, nearly every male citizen has a chance to become an office-holder some time during his life and thus get even. But if "Jake" Wenk and "Billy" Crossman, and the rest of the boys up there are really tired, and want to quit, we hereby extend to them a cordial invitation to annex to Jefferson county.—Punxsy Spirit.

What would be the matter with Elk annexing both Forest and Cameron counties. We would cordially welcome either or both of them.—Ridgeway Advocate.

Now, friends, you've both been so loving and lovable to us, that were we Forestians ever to consider the proposition of "throwing up the sponge" we'd scarcely know which of "yees" to embrace first. But since there are at least three other counties smaller than we in population, several smaller in area, and the further fact that both Jefferson and Elk slopped clear over and went "hell bent" for Berry, while Forest county stayed by the old flag at the recent election, if there's any annexing business on he tapis it will have to come our way, and you fellows must come to us.

Horses for Sale.
One carload will be at American House barn, Brookville, Pa., beginning Nov. 7th, and will stay for two weeks only. Come quick and get your choice. This will be the last chance of the season. The horses are now here and I will stay one week longer only, to close out.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.
The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for thirty-five years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by Dunn & Patton.

Men's Overcoats

Many a man refuses to do a thing he wants to simply because some other man tells him to do it. The weather reminds you of the need of an Overcoat. Economy will dictate that you should look carefully before you buy. The first is a health proposition—the second a money saving one.

Men's Overcoats $10, $12, $15, $18 to $25.

All Overcoats look alike to you from the outside or through the show windows; but the best way to test the truth is to examine carefully every detail that goes toward the getting up of good clothing.

LAMMERS' CLOTHING IS GOOD CLOTHING—has stood the test for years, and to day stands first in quality, first in style, first in fit, first in value—and your money back if you're not satisfied.

Do You Have a Raincoat?

If you don't, you ought to for your health's sake. Our Rain Coats not only afford perfect protection from the elements, but are so fashionable that they are an ideal topcoat for clear weather. Our Rain Coats are built with broad, shapely shoulders, cut long and loose-fitting and made of excellent Cravenette fabrics in handsome weaves and colorings. $10.00 to $25.00
