

From South Africa.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—Many times I have planned to write to your very interesting paper that makes its most welcome visits to South Africa and every time I have failed to find the time. I will try to do so now, going back some time to begin.

You have all been interested more or less in the visit of Rev. and Mrs. Sellow to South Africa, and their visit has been to us a very great pleasure indeed, for we don't have many such pleasures. They arrived in May and we were in Natal then to a preliminary Conference in which many matters were discussed and given into the hands of committees to investigate and report at the Conference in October. This would be a great help as many things peculiar to a foreign missionary conference would come up for decision.

The last day of August Rev. Sellow and wife came to us at Germiston, remaining three weeks. How we enjoyed having them in our home you cannot know until you have spent nearly four years on a foreign field. They were made a great blessing to us and to the work we represented.

October 5th we left Germiston for Natal, the "Garden Colony" of South Africa, to attend the first South African Conference of the Free Methodist church. In the Transvaal from March until October or November no rains fall and everything is dry and brown, and the dust storms are often terrible. Starting in the morning all day we traveled over the open treeless veldt, which has such a desolate appearance this time of year, until night closed upon us shutting out all views interesting or uninteresting. You who have traveled in England know that each car is divided into compartments, each having two long seats running across the car and facing each other and serving at night for beds. It is the same here, so with nightfall we prepared our beds and slept as much as we could. In the morning what a different view met our eyes—hills and mountains, rivers and trees, and green foliage everywhere. We were in Natal and the scenery was simply beautiful all the remaining distance to Durban, which we reached about one p. m. We did some "shopping" and then spent the night at the mission house of the South African General Mission. This missionary body has at its head the Rev. Andrew Murray. The next morning we started by train down the coast to Fair View, about sixty miles from Durban. All along the way were beautiful flowers growing wild, roses, calla lilies and various other kinds, while only a few rods from us and in full view were the waves breaking on the rocks and sand, the waves of the Indian Ocean. We crossed nearly thirty streams flowing into the ocean and at these places we went up the river a short distance to a narrow place, where we cross the river and go back down and skirt the coast, arriving Saturday noon at Fair View Mission.

On the Sabbath we had the privilege of attending the dedication of a native chapel about five miles away. It was a very neat brick building with thatched roof and was built entirely by the natives. Brick is cheaper in this country than wood, as the brick is made here while all lumber must be imported, as the trees of this country are not used for making it. At the service we attended they gave about twenty-five dollars, a large sum for one native congregation to give, as their wages do not even compare with that of a white man.

The conference was new to the natives but they were much interested and their questions and discussions on matters of vital importance to them showed they were thinking and were mentally capable of grasping things above that for which many people give them credit. Some of the subjects causing most discussion were libel (polygamy), course of study for native evangelists, dress, and various other matters. I might explain that libel is the paying of cattle for a wife. But it is a big enough subject for a separate article, so I will not try to discuss its various phases in this letter. The conference was a very profitable meeting and much of God's presence was felt especially in the meetings on the Sabbath. Mr. A. E. Haley was ordained to deacon's orders, and J. W. Haley and Mr. Smith were ordained both deacons and elders. As the business could not be finished on Saturday we had another session on Monday which closed with the reading of the appointments. The preachers will not be changed here as at home, every two or three years, but only when the work or the health of the missionaries demands it. At this conference only three changes were made, namely: J. W. Haley and wife from Pondoland to Fair View; Jules Hyff and wife from Fair View to Germiston, Transvaal, and us from Germiston to Pondoland. We were delighted with our change. I remarked that if the committee had asked me to choose my place I would very likely have chosen the one they gave us. At Germiston our work was entirely among the men and boys who come there to work in the mines, kitchens, etc., while here we have the men, women and children in their homes. There is here much more mission work for a woman to do. The conference over we immediately returned to Germiston to pack up and in two weeks were back at Fair View, a distance of nearly six hundred miles, where we would start by ox cart for our new station about sixty miles away. Much of our furniture we had sold at quite a sacrifice as freight would cost to Fair View two dollars or more a hundred, but we kept some of the necessary furniture, dishes, etc.

As it is now bed time and I must do some other writing as foreign post goes tomorrow, I will save our trip by ox wagon for a future letter. God's blessing is upon us on our new and most interesting station and I have much to tell you about it when I can find the time. One heathen girl arose last Sabbath and publicly chose the Lord and we are looking for many of these precious jewels to be won for Jesus. "Not by might or by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord." Our present address is, Greenwell M. S., Imbuzini Post, via Port Shepstone, Natal, S. Africa, care of Mr. J. S. Clark, Braemar.

Yours for the Master's Service, ROSA HUNTER SMITH.

New Officials Inaugurated.

Monday of this week, the first of the new year, was inauguration day at the court house, all the new officials being sworn into office on that day, at the same time the old set stepped down and out. The changes, with a couple of exceptions were complete, beginning with the new Associate Judge, Perry C. Hill, who assumes the place held by Judge Dotterer for the past five years, and who retires with a clean record left behind. J. C. Geist was again inducted into the office of Prothonotary, Register, &c., a position which he has very ably and acceptably filled for the past three years. A. W. Stroup took the keys to the Sheriff's office, succeeding Geo. W. Nobilt, who has very creditably conducted the office for the past term, and who retires with the good opinion and well wishes of a host of friends. In the County Commissioners' office the new board consists of Leonard Agnew, Andrew Wolf and Philip Emerit, who take the places of Conrad Burdenn, A. K. Shippe and Henry Winegard. The retiring board has accomplished much that will be for the permanent good of the county, and in doing so have, as a matter of course, encountered criticism, but as time goes on and their acts are calmly viewed, it will be seen that they have performed their duties conscientiously and well, and have administered the trying duties of their office with more than average skill and perfection. The new board of County Auditors is composed of W. H. Stiles, Charles F. Kilmestiver and Sam. T. Carson, Mr. Stiles being a re-elected member. The duties will not be entirely new to the new auditors, all of whom have had experience in that line of business, and are fit successors to the worthy gentlemen who retire, Geo. Holeman and B. A. McClosky. J. B. Eden and J. P. Castner are the new Jury Commissioners, succeeding Ernest Sibbie and Lewis Wagner.

To both the new and the retiring officials we extend the compliments of the season, wishing all a happy and prosperous future.

The board of County Commissioners organized by electing Mr. Agnew President of the board, and then made the following appointments: Clerk, J. T. Dale; County Solicitors, Kitchey & Carringer; Janitor, Chas. Hunter; Steward of the County Home, Mrs. F. Wenk; County Physician, Dr. W. G. Morrow.

The County Auditors met on Monday and organized by electing James D. Davis as their clerk. They will begin the annual audit of the county accounts on Monday next.

The Jury Commissioners are engaged in filling the wheel for the ensuing year, with J. D. Davis as their clerk.

RECENT DEATHS.

WHITING.

Mrs. Whiting, relict of the late Emanuel Whiting, died after a very brief illness lasting but three days at her home in Marienville, on Dec. 25th, last. She was aged about 65 years and is survived by four daughters and two sons. Deceased was a lady universally respected in the community in which she had lived for several years, and her death is lamented by all who knew her.

SMILEY.

Frank D. Smiley, a newspaper man of long standing in Franklin, died suddenly of apoplexy at his home in that city last Thursday. He was one of the best all-round newspaper men in his city, having at times held important positions in the offices of all the leading papers, besides representing a number of the leading dailies of the state. He leaves his wife and two sons, besides a host of friends to mourn his death. He was a brother of the late Edwin W. Smiley, and the third brother of the family to die within the past 18 months.

SIMON.

Jacob Simon, one of Oil City's prominent and most popular citizens, died at his home after a brief illness of pneumonia on Dec. 28th, and was buried in Titusville on Saturday last. Mr. Simon had been engaged in mercantile tailoring in Oil City for upwards of 30 years, and had a host of friends and customers in Tionesta and vicinity, who regret his demise exceedingly. As a mark of respect, never before accorded a private citizen in that city, every store in Oil City was closed during the funeral hour Saturday. The death of no citizen, no matter how prominent, could give greater or more sincere sorrow to the populace than that of Mr. Simon.

GROVES.

Many Forest county friends will learn with sorrow of the death of N. Ramsey Groves, which occurred on Sunday morning last, Dec. 31, at his home in Salisbury, Md., where he had recently located. Mr. Groves spent many years of his life in Oil City, where he was engaged with G. W. Milford, a leading dry goods merchant in that city in the early 80's. He was afterward engaged in lumbering for a brief period on Tionesta Creek, in company with his father-in-law, William Gibson. The deceased was a man of excellent talents, a polished and refined gentleman, and his services were sought by many important industries as manager and accountant. In early life Mr. Groves was united in marriage with Miss Annie Gibson, a talented young lady residing at that time with her parents at Balltown, this county. She survives him together with six sons and two daughters. Deceased was aged 67 years.

EHLERS.

Mrs. Ehlers, relict of the late Henry Ehlers, whose residence was near Starr postoffice, in Kingsley township, died on December 24, 1905, after an illness extending over several months. She leaves one son, William, her husband and eight children having preceded her to the grave several years ago. Mrs. Mary Ehlers, nee Suppe, was born in Strohn, Hanover, Germany, March 23d, 1838. She came to America in 1850 and was married in 1858 to Henry Ehlers. She had spent the most of her life on the farm on which she died, having moved there with her husband from Allegheny nearly forty years ago. Baptized in infancy she was a life long member of the Evangelical Lutheran church. She was aged 67 years, nine months and one day.

Funeral services were held at Mt. Zion Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Paul D. Schlinger. The deceased was a woman highly respected in the community in which she had passed so many years.

MINER.

John Franklin Miner, a resident for many years of New Brighton, Pa., died at his home in that city, on the 21st of December just past, it being his 88th birthday. Mr. Miner's active business interests in his locality made him one of the most prominent figures in the section where he spent his life. Many Forest county people will learn of his demise with sorrow, he having quite an extensive acquaintanceship in Jenks and Howe townships of this county. He was the senior member of the firm of Miner, Green & Co., who lumbered extensively at Byromtown for several years. He is survived by the widow and three children, one of whom is John Read Miner, well and favorably known by many of our readers and who looked after his father's interests at Byromtown during their lumbering operations at that place. The deceased was one of the most popular and well beloved citizens of his community.

Suicided at Brookville.

The Brookville Republican tells of the suicide, on the 20th ult., of Joseph Montgomery, who has made his home for some time at Clarington, this county, and was well known to most of the residents of Barnett township. He was a former resident of Armstrong county, where his parents reside.

Joe Montgomery, who was for a number of years in charge of the stage route between this place and Clarington, committed suicide at the Union Hotel, where he had been boarding for the past week, at about 10:30 o'clock Tuesday night, shooting himself through the head with a 32 calibre revolver, his death resulting at about 1:00 o'clock. Mr. Montgomery had been in town for several days, and had been drinking heavily and seemed despondent, but he had given no indications of an intention to commit suicide. Coming into the hotel about fifteen minutes before the commission of the rash act he went to his room. Here he removed his coat and vest, and seating himself on the edge of the bed, pressed the revolver to his head and fired. His aim was true, and although he continued to breathe for some time, Drs. A. F. Balmer and H. P. Thompson, who were hurriedly summoned, were unable to do anything for him, and he died as stated. The deceased was about 35 years of age and unmarried, and in the days before his besetting sin had laid his hand upon his faculties he was successful in his business affairs. He was a genial, kind hearted fellow, gifted with the faculty of making friends, and was his own worst enemy.

Dangers of a Cold and How to Avoid Them. More fatalities have their origin in or result from a cold than from any other cause. This fact alone should make us people more careful as there is no danger whatever from a cold when it is properly treated in the beginning. For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been recognized as the most prompt and effectual medicine in use for this disease. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by Dunn & Fulton.

The Grip.

"Before we can sympathize with others we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy, not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach. The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Dear Sir:—I had been afflicted with rheumatism for 15 years and had tried every known remedy, but without any success, until I got a 50c bottle of Crocker's Rheumatic Remedy and only needed half a bottle and have not felt or suffered any pain since. Would not take one hundred dollars for the other half of the bottle if I could not get any more. It will cure. If you are suffering get a bottle at once. M. L. AMANN, Merchant Tailor. It burns soft coal, lignite coal, coke, hard coal, wood or any fuel without any change in the stove. You only need one stove for the entire year. Spring, Fall or dead of Winter. Strikers or coal combines cease to be a terror if you have a Cole's Hot Blast.

Fire Never Out. It is the only stove that keeps the house warm all night and gives the family a warm breakfast room in the morning without kindling a new fire. Guaranteed to hold fire from Saturday night to Monday morning.

Saves the Dollars. If you feel poor it saves half your fuel bill, while giving the above beautiful results. It will even make a ton of cheap slack soft coal do more work and hold fire better than your neighbor gets out of a ton of hard coal in his $50.00 stove.

Scientific and Air-tight construction throughout. A patented steel collar connects the elbow draft to the stove body and cannot open by action of the fiercest heat. The patented compound hinge on the lower draft cannot warp and the draft door closes air-tight by its own weight. The guaranteed smoke-proof feed door prevents smoke, dust or gas escaping when fuel is put in the stove. Perfect results, therefore, from any fuel. The heavy fire box protects the points where other stoves burn out first, and insures great durability.

Ask to see the patented dustless ash cover for removing ashes. Our method is the only clean way. Cole's Hot Blast makes $5.00 worth of fuel give more heat than $10.00. Sold on a positive guarantee. Investigate today.
