J. and Orion Siggius, of West revolutionize the method of selecting road supervisors, the levying and collecting of taxes, repairing and maintaining of roads, etc., in every township in the county.

The new law provides for the election on the third Tuesday of February, A. D. 1906, of three Supervisors; one for one year, one for two years and one for three years and annually thereafter, one for three years. Supervisors shall meet the first Monday of March, 1906, and yearly thereafter. They shall employ a roadmaster in each district, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. FOOTWEAR

For Dress Occasions.

Through close business counections with some of the cleverest shoe designers in the country-and because also of our own knowledge and experience in this direction-it has been possible to assemble here not only a very wide stock of Dress Footwear, but many styles entirely exclusive.

The prices are splendidly fair and in most instances lower than the prices of such footwear anywhere outside of this store.

Men's Overcoats

Many a man refuses to do a thing he wants to simply because some other man tells him to do it. The weather reminds you of the need of an Overcoat. Economy will dictate that you should look carefully before you buy. The first is a health proposition—the second a money saving one.

Men's Overcoats $10, $12, $15, $18 to $25.

All Overcoats look alike to you from the outside or through the show windows; but the best way to test the truth is to examine carefully every detail that goes toward the getting up of good clothing. Lammers' Clothing is good clothing-has stood the test for years, and to-day stands first in quality, first in style, first in value-and your money back if you're not satisfied.
