FORMER Representative Charles W. Stone, of Warren, was in Washington on Friday, and was on the floor of the paint. They ask: "What'll you paint House, where he talked with several of my house for?" the Pennsylvania members, says Col. Henry Hall in the Pittsburg Times. "While Mr. Stone is not an announced candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, he is considered as being in a receptive mood, and some believe he would be very strong before the people. It is conceded that he would have been the nominee in 1898 had not the late Senator M. S. Quay placed the 'mailed hand' on the State convention and forced the selection of William A. Stone."

AT a meeting of the county committee of Crawford county last week the Republicans of that county showed their fealty and regard for their favorite son, Hon, Wesley R. Andrews, in a strong endorsement for the nomination for Governor by unanimously passing the following reso- paint. lution:

"The Republicans of Crawford county renew their acknowledgments to their fellow citizen, Hon. W. R. Andrews for 87 his unwearied devotion to the interests of the Republican party in county, state and nation. The best years of his life have been spent in advocating its principles and promoting its welfare. We commend him to the Republicans of Pennsylvania as one whose industry, patience and courage, high character and great execu-tive ability, and loyalty to Republican principles, together with an unequalled acquaintance with the people of the commonwsaith and their vast and varied industries, richly merit for him the high honor of a nomination for governor by the coming Republican state convention, which we most cordially recommend."
