RECENT DEATHS. Mrs. Emma J. Scott, relict of the late Winfield Scott, was born Nov. 18, 1846, at Wesleyville, Erie county, Pa., where she lived until about 18 years of age, when her father, Jonh Kirkpatrick, moved to Tidioute.

She was married to Winfield Scott, of Aberdeen, Wash., and Mildred Scott, who died in 1889. Two sisters also sur-Ohio, and Mrs. John Shaw, of Pleasant-

The deceased made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Evans, at Endeavor, where she had a host of friends who will miss ber very much indeed. She lived in her own quiet way, making friends everywhere. The secret of her vast number of friends was that she never made any enemies. She was a true and loving mother, and her whole aim in life was to be doing something for her children, Mrs. Scott will long be remembered by those who knew her best for her many graces of character and kindly affectionate nature toward all. She had only been sick about two weeks of pneumonia and heart trouble. during which she was most tenderly cared for by her devoted daughter, and the end came March 8, 1906. The funeral was held from the home on Saturday last and the remains were conveyed to the Neilltown cemetery and interred beside those of her husband, Rev. Mr. Scherer, of the Endeavor Presbyterian church,

SPENCER.

Margaret Nora Spencer, died at her home at Mr. N. W. Brewster's, on Fleming Hill, March 5, 1906, after an illness of but 6 days, of pneumonfa. When the new church at West Hickory was dedicated July 31, 1905, she with a number of others was baptized by Bishop McCabe. On Feb. 22, just two weeks before she died, she was taken into full membership in the M. E. church at Fagurdus by her pastor, Rev. E. D. Mowrey, who also preached her funeral sermon. Miss Spencer at the age of nine years came to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Brewster and for eight years had been to them a loved daughter, being everything one could wish or hope for in a daughter. Her mother died when she was quite young, her father lives in Washington, and two sisters in Warren county. Had she lived until July 14, she would have had won many friends, Mr. and Mrs. Brewster in their sorrow have the heartfelt sympathy of all their friends and neighbors.
