The Great Democratic Question: What is the feeling of Bryan, Hearst and Tom Johnson toward each other?

LIFE insurance people are finding it a hard matter to go against a legislature without an educational fund.

SOME men are born grafters, some acquire the art after hard practice, and some are elected to the U. S. Senate.

It will take more than thirty years to complete the Panama canal if all of the work has to be done in Washington.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT was glad to see his Standard Oil callers but he had the presence of mind to keep his "fingers crossed" while talking to Mr. Rogers.

ABOUT the best that can be said for the Senate just now, is that it is putting up some splendid arguments in favor of the election of Senators by popular vote.

JUDGE PARKER says he is convinced that President Roosevelt will ask for another nomination. Let's see—who is Judge Parker?—Oil City Blizzards.

Who was Judge Parker?

Of course the coal operators resent the interference of President Roosevelt. Still they do not like to say much as the President already is much too popular to suit them.

PUBLIC interest in his case has modified some since the cable assures us that Mrs. De Castellano even if she is divorced will allow Boni a sufficient allowance for corsets and shoulder pads for the balance of his life.

THE Mississippi legislature has considered a bill to abolish bridge whist, euchre and other card games, and now a law-maker proposes to legalize lynchings. The Mississippi taste for amusement is evidently peculiar.

THE Franklin News learns that "A Massachusetts Yankee has patented a device to make tombstones out of concrete. Happy thought! Any man who can buy a barrel of cement and a load of sand, can get some wooden letters and fix his own tombstone to suit himself. The date of death need not matter; how care whether the departed died at one time or another. From the way some grave-stones misrepresent the facts, it would also be a good idea to make concrete from tombstones."

BEARING on the need of drastic legislation against discriminations and rebates to favored shippers, the New York Evening Post says: After the solemn assurance we have had that the railways had voluntarily stopped rebating, it is surprising—yet not so very surprising—to read Saturday's testimony by the general freight agent of the Big Four. He admitted that both coal and steel had been carried by his road at less than scheduled rates, the difference being paid back to certain shippers in cash. This was done, it is true, "last year," but the law was explicit and was shamelessly violated, and the coming to light of the facts at this juncture cannot fail to influence legislation at Washington. Senator Tillman will be upheld in calling for an amendment to the Hepburn bill which will "put stripes" on any convicted rebater. And, although such rebates have no logical or legal connection with the rate making clauses, their disclosure now will undoubtedly add those who would pass it in a sweeping and dangerous form. For this, the lawless railroad officials have only themselves to thank. They are the rivals of agitators and anarchists in inviting attacks upon property.

ANDREW CARNEGIE is willing to invest a few of his loose millions in the great cause of spelling reform. Will he please start the good work by spelling his name just as he would have it pronounced as no two persons appear to agree on that important matter?

WHEN Speaker Cannon sat down at his desk at the capitol the other day he found a slip of paper on it, asking him to call up on the telephone "East 1428." The speaker went to the telephone, asked for the number and when an answer came, said: "Do you want me?" "I don't know," came back the answer. "Well, I haven't time to be fooling around here; do you want me?" insisted the speaker. "Who are you, anyway?" This is the government hospital for the insane," came back the answer. "If you think you ought to be here, why come along." It was all the speaker said, as he sat down and realized that some one had been playing a joke on him.

That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. Protect Proprietary Medicines.

Did it ever occur to you that proprietary medicines are a blessing to mankind generally? The good ones have long continued sale; the poor ones have short life and soon leave the market.

If we had to depend entirely upon physicians and druggists it would be expensive and very inconvenient at times, especially in the country and at night when neither could be conveniently reached. For nearly forty years Roscoe's German Syrup has been used in many families, and thousands of lives of adults and children have been saved by its use when it was impossible to reach a physician. German Syrup is the best household remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung trouble. It quickly relieves the backing cough, loosens the phlegm, and brings sound and refreshing sleep. Twenty-five and seventy-five cents. Get a copy of Green's Prize Almanac. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Crocker's Rheumatic Cure
Is for sale in this community by Dunn & Fulton at 50c the bottle. It's made in Warren, Pa., by a reliable company of business men who are convinced of its merits.
