STORES.

SPLENDID

In Spite of the Weather

We cannot help but feel gratified with the reception given us. Were these immense stores twice as large they would still have been too small to accommodate the crowds properly. We continue the display. You are more than welcome to come in and spend as much time as you like. Many pretty things to look at and you'll not be importuned to buy.

SPRING MILLINERY

Whether you come with preconceived notions as to the sort of hat you want or are fancy free you are sure to find exactly the right thing here.

In view of the rapid strides made by our Millinery Department within the past five years, it's a fair assumption that there's no very radical difference of taste, so far as headgear is concerned, between our buyer and the well dressed women of this community, and judging by the flattering comments made by visitors, it seems that, this season, such agreement will be more pronounced than ever.

Authoritative examples of the smartest productions

In Coats, Suits and Costumes.

This season we secured local control of the latest conceptions of some of the most celebrated designers in this country. They are exclusive.

Marriage by Proxy.

In Holland, says a Scotch paper, marriage by proxy is allowed. This is the so called "marriage by the glove" and is usually put in practice by a Dutchman who is sojourning abroad and, wanting a wife, is too poor or too far off to return home for one. In such a case he writes home to a lawyer, who selects one conformable to the requirements of his client. If the gentleman approves he next sends the lawyer a soiled left hand glove and a power of attorney, which settles the business. A friend marries the woman by proxy, and she is thereafter promptly shipped off to her new home.

What a "Hurricane" Is.

"Hurricane" is the old Spanish name for a West Indies cyclone, but it is used by modern meteorologists to designate a long continued wind of extreme violence. In Beaumont's scale the different winds are classed as "light," "gentle," "fresh" and "strong" breezes. The next is a "stiff" breeze, then a "strong" wind and then we strike the "gales." The "gales" run through three or four classes, the last merging into the "hurricane."

To the People

Rich's Famous All Wool Sock has fallen into competition with a very inferior article. The imitation is so perfect that only an expert is able to detect the counterfeit with its cotton and shoddy mixtures, until the sock is put into service. Unscrupulous competitors are representing the sock as Rich's All Wool, thus deceiving the customer and injuring our reputation.

To protect ourselves and the trade in the future Rich's Socks will bear a Red Seal Trade Mark printed in white, a fac simile of which is shown above.

Respectfully,

John Rich & Bros.,
Woolrich, Pa.

The Enlarged Cloak Room

Increased the floor space of this department almost 100 per cent; feel now as though we had room to do justice to the great "ready to wear" business we enjoy. Business has been steadily increasing, but we have been unable until now to give the department the room it really deserved. Cloak and Suit Room now second to none between Buffalo and Pittsburg.

And if ever an assembly of merchandise merited adequate show room, this here does. A handsome exhibition of correct fashions conceived and executed by some of America's best tailors.

The Millinery

We had our exhibition and display last week and now we are settled down to business. If you want a hat for Easter, and that's just two weeks off, if we can please you we shall be glad to have your order early, so as not to disappoint you at the last moment.
