Republican Ticket.

County, Congress, Hon. N. P. Wheeler, Assembly, T. D. Collins, District Attorney, A. C. Brown, Coroner, Dr. C. Y. Detar.

A Mighty Poor Prophet.

Who is the rattle pated Franklin scribbler that is sending political forecasts to the Pittsburgh Gazette Times and other 'easy' sheets? There seems to be no one missing from the Polk institution, and yet some of the stuff sent out from the 'Nursery' would seem almost to necessitate a roll call among the feeble-minded to ascertain if all are present and accounted for.

Persons who claim to be 'on the inside' assert that the contest for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Twenty-eighth district has narrowed itself down to a fight between H. H. Cummings of Warren county and Gen. John A. Wiley of Venango county.

Just how this expert managed to get the 'insiders' of this matter would be mighty interesting to know. And just how he is going to bowl out three of the five counties comprising the district, all of them with equal representation in the conference, and give the thing over, body and breeches, to Warren and Venango, will be another mighty startling piece of 'news'—when it happens?

Persons who claim to be 'on the inside' assert that the contest for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Twenty-eighth district has narrowed itself down to a fight between H. H. Cummings of Warren county and Gen. John A. Wiley of Venango county.

At the Republican State Convention, which meets today in Harrisburg, it looks as though the ticket would be: Governor, ex-Mayor Edwin S. Stuart, of Philadelphia.

Secretary of Internal Affairs, Henry Honck, of Lebanon, deputy superintendent of public instruction.

The sentiment for this ticket has been spontaneous and has grown wonderfully in the last two days, and if nominated it will make a strong ticket. Of course, those with gubernatorial ambitions will be somewhat disappointed, but as all can not be nominated the disappointment of those left out would come just the same.

The Lincoln party, made up mainly of soreheads and chronic kickers, who never had enough Republican blood in their veins to induce them to vote the ticket, met last week in Philadelphia and named a ticket with which only a small percentage of their own followers even now are satisfied, being composed of Lewis Emery Jr., of Bradford, for Governor, who, a few years ago, made such a great (?) run for Congress on the Democratic ticket against Mr. Sibley, who very nearly placed the dilette Mr. Emery on the list of 'also rans.' For Lieutenant Governor the self-appointed delegates nominated Rudolph Blankenburg, of Philadelphia, who is still fighting the late Senator Quay with all the vigor of a billy-goat butting a stone wall.

For Auditor General one George W. Merrick, a Tioga county 'reformer' is named. E. A. Coray, the Luzerne county leather-weight kicker, brings up the rear as Secretary of Internal Affairs, but, with his usual propensity for dyspeptical knocking, threatens to kick over the traces and refuse to act as tender to such a combination. Should Mr. Emery get generous, as he used to be, the approaching campaign may develop some interest and 'make times good.'

If your stomach troubles you do not conclude that there is no cure, for a great many have been permanently cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Get a free sample at Dunn & Fulton's drug store and give them a trial. They also cure constipation and biliousness.

In these days civility must wear a tag or it will not be recognized.

WOMAN SHOTS AT BURGLARS.

Sends Five Bullets After Fleeing Thieves Who Had Called Twice in a Week.

Philadelphia, June 2.—When burglars for the second time within a week tried last night to enter the home of Mrs. Ethel Abercrombie Pell they found her ready for them. Five times did Mrs. Pell pull the trigger. Three bullets ploughed holes in the wainscoting of her room, and two went through the window. The burglars fled.

There were no marks of blood to attest the accuracy of Mrs. Pell's aim, but in their haste to get away the burglars tore up two flower beds and smashed a section of grape arbor. The police found a door nearly pried from its hinges. Mrs. Pell was formerly the wife of Robert Gratz Pell of Red Oaks, and now lives in West Coulter street, Germantown.

MILKMEN DEMAND DAMAGES.

Say They Were Imprisoned in Filthy Cells—West Brownsville Feud.

Washington, Pa., June 2.—Incident to a feud between country milkmen and the authorities of West Brownsville an assault and battery suit was filed by Constable George Marker against Winfield King.

Archibald Watkins, Winfield King, William Breaton and James Kinder, milkmen, were arrested a few days ago for driving upon the sidewalks of West Brownsville and were placed in the borough lockup. King is alleged to have assaulted Constable Marker while the latter was eating his breakfast.

King and his friends have instituted suit against the West Brownsville authorities for cruelly on the charge that they were imprisoned in filthy cells.

Gaiikwar Sees High Society.

Philadelphia, June 2.—The Gaiikwar of Baroda and his wife, the maharani, were taken into the bosom of the original American 400 at a dinner given in their honor at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel by Mrs. George Law, who is here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt. The dinner followed an afternoon spent by the party at the horse show and was somewhat upon oriental lines. Eighteen plates were laid. Some one apparently made a wild guess in announcing in dispatches sent out from here recently that it would be a $50,000 dinner. The affair probably did not cost more than $300.

Ohio Pursues Bridge Company.

Columbus, O., June 4.—Attorney General Ellis has ordered on proceedings to be begun against the Indianapolis Bridge company at Indianapolis, Ind., for failure to comply with the laws of Ohio while doing business in the state. While it is not officially admitted at the statehouse, it is known that this is the first step of the attorney general to move against the foreign members of the alleged combine doing business in this state.

Cassatt Not Going to Resign.

New York, June 2.—The Associated Press has received the following telegram from the steamer Amerika by wireless from President A. J. Cassatt of the Pennsylvania Railway company: 'No truth in the rumor referred to in your Marconigram that I intend resigning presidency of Pennsylvania company.' Cassatt.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, in the good providence of our kind Heavenly Father, and through the kindly thoughtfulness of this church and the people of Kelleetville, we have been privileged to meet and hold this the eleventh session of our Forest County Sabbath School Association under such favorable auspices and with so much pleasure and profit to the delegates, therefore be it resolved that we hereby

1st. Devoutly thanksgiving to Almighty God for His manifold mercies and His good providence over us.

2d. That we tender our sincere and hearty thanks to the officers and members of Kelleetville M. E. church for the use of their beautiful and commodious church for our convention.

3d. To the good people of Kelleetville for the hearty welcome they have accorded and for the excellent and beautiful entertainment so cheerfully accorded.

4th. To the choir for the excellent and appropriate music furnished.

5th. To Mrs. W. A. Shewman for the excellent readings given.

6th. To Rev. C. F. Irwin, Miss Lincoln and Mr. Brown for the interesting and profitable presentation of the various subjects discussed by them and the many helpful hints given.

7th. To the President, Secretary, and other officers of the convention for the able and efficient manner in which they have discharged the duties of their respective offices.

L. W. WATSON, Sec'y.

Mrs. W. F. JONES, Committee.

Unknown Friends.

There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication? These people, however, are none the less friends of this remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word by their personal recommendations to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and is widely known for its cures of diarrhoea and all forms of bowel trouble. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

—Unless a man is willing to take chances he never takes anything else that happens to be lying around loose.
