—Hurd Berlin a prominent resident of East Bradford, and Burgess of Pithole when that place was in its prime as an oil town, committed suicide by hanging himself with a hitching strap in the barn at the rear of his home on Saturday morning. The dead body was found by a son.

—Treasurer Harrison's sale of lands for delinquent taxes drew a large number of visitors to the court house Monday afternoon. The bidding was spirited and 99 tracts were disposed of. The sale was postponed to Friday, June 29th, at 1 o'clock p. m., when the balance, about 40 tracts, will be sold.

—Children's Day was observed last Sunday evening in the M. E. church and an audience was present that taxed the capacity of the building. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers. A specially prepared program of songs and recitations was finely rendered by the children and those who had the celebration in charge are to be congratulated on the success which attended their efforts. Special music by the choir and the solos by Miss Goettel added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion. A good collection was taken at the close.

PERSONAL.

—The Democrats of Forest county held their primaries Saturday and their convention in Tionesta Tuesday, the following candidates being nominated: Congress, J. J. Landers, of Tionesta; State Senate, Hon. J. K. P. Hall, of Elk county; Assembly, W. D. Shields, of Clarrington; District Attorney, T. F. Ritehey, of Tionesta; Coroner, J. C. Hoover, of Tionesta township, Frank H. Young, of Nebraska, is the Delegate to the State Convention.

—Paste this in your hat: Hereafter the "opened by mistake" excuse will be a mistake that will cost $200. The postoffice department has ruled that mail must be looked over before leaving the office, and that any letter put in your box by mistake must be returned before leaving the office, under a penalty of $200 for failure to do so. No excuse will be considered sufficient to remit the penalty. And it is suggested that the postmaster have the post office boxes plainly labeled, and that the clerks be more careful and if necessary take more time to distribute and make no mistakes.

—R. O. Whitton, of East Hickory, Pa., expediting to remove from that place soon, will offer his entire personal property at public sale on Saturday next, June 16, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. Mr. Whitton has a fine livery consisting of horses, buggies, hacks, surreys, sledges, harness, ribbons, blankets, whips, etc., all of which will be sold to the highest bidder. A yearling colt sired by "King Burdo," good Jersey cow, and all his household goods will also be offered for sale. The sale will be held at his residence, and reasonable time, with approved security, will be given on all sums over $10.

—Reports come to us that last Thursday night, while James Holden and Ralph McIntyre were going up Swager Run to go on tour, a panther or some other wild varmint, got on their trail, and the men not having their artillery with them, they went on to Fagundus. Perhaps here is a chance for some of our valiant hunters and dogs. However, we guess the most of our dogs are chicken or scrap meat dogs.—Tidoute News. This is probably the same animal that was seen on Jamieson and Hunter Runs last winter. At any rate the beast seems to have disappeared from this neck of the woods.

—Charles Whitlock, a former resident of Marienville, but now of Hendricks, W. Va., where he conducts a hotel, passed through Tionesta Saturday evening, having in charge the corpse of his young brother, George Briggs, aged about 16 years, who was drowned in a mill-pond at Hendricks on Thursday last. The boy was playing on the logs about the pond when he fell into the water, and although men were at work near by he was drowned before they could reach him. The lad's folks live near Musette, on the road to Marienville, to which place the body was conveyed Saturday evening by undertaker James Haslet, and the burial took place at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

—An old ordinance that has been a "dead letter" since it was passed in 1893, providing for the muzzling of dogs in the borough from June 1st to October 1st, and which the burgess and high constable insisted should be enforced, was repealed by a unanimous vote of the borough council on Friday evening last. The borough dads acted promptly in the matter in deference to the wishes of a large majority of the citizens who had petitioned for the repeal, and who, with the council, looked upon the humane side of the question. It would seem that if there were anything that would have a tendency to drive a poor dog mad it would be to muzzle him in the hottest months of the year.

—The faculty of Washington and Jefferson college have awarded the first honors (Magna cum laude) of the class '06 to Francis Huntington Irwin, son of H. M. Irwin, of Franklin, and Isaac Walter Sharp, of Washington, Pa., splitting the award between them. As the Franklin boy took the two leading prizes (oration and classical essay) in his junior year, 1905, and as he is named one of the class orators on commencement day, he would seem to have the best of the deal in the final distribution of honors. The class of '06, consisting of 30 young men, will graduate on Wednesday, June 20, the 16th commencement of the college.

—Chas. E. Gessin and J. M. Church, of Franklin cor, Derrick. The young man above referred to is a nephew of our townsman, S. D. Irwin.

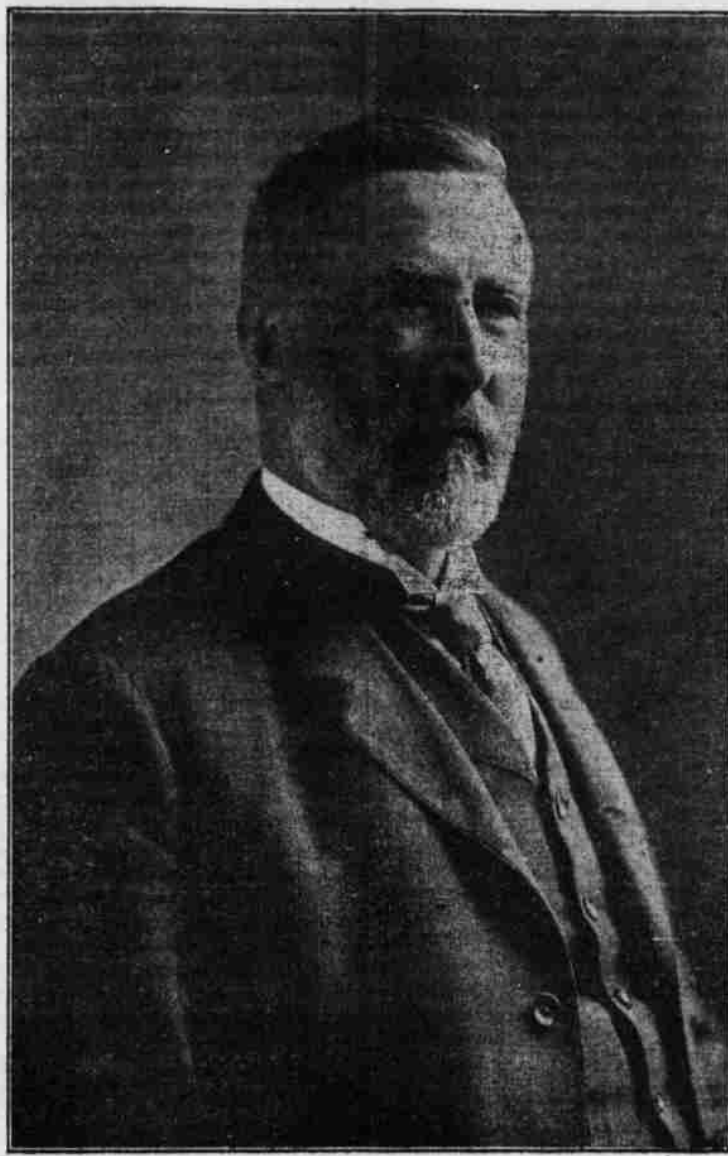

—Tionesta organizations of the Grand Army again fared well at the hands of the State departments which met in Altoona last week. Mrs. Sule May Sharpe, of Capt. Geo. Stow Relief Corps, was honored by election as Department President, and Mrs. Jennie E. Agnew, of the same Corps, was made chairman of the State executive board. George W. Robinson, of Capt. Stow Post, was for the fourth time elected delegate to the national encampment of the G. A. R., which will be held at Minneapolis this year. The election of Mrs. Sharpe is particularly gratifying to her many friends both in and out of the organization and is an honor worthily bestowed upon one who is in every way fitted for the high position. She was elected without opposition.

—Lewis Andrew, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Mohney, of Mayburg, Pa., was taken sick with pneumonia, May 31, 1906, and passed away the following Monday morning, aged 1 year, 4 months and 24 days. All aid and care were given to restore the little one to health, but to no avail. God had called the little one to Himself, and to be a beacon for father and mother to a home beyond the river. He also leaves two brothers, Harold and Charles. A short service was held at the house Tuesday morning, June 5th, at 7:30. Mr. Brown showed great respect in not starting up the mill until after the service, and many of the friends of Mayburg gathered to show their heartfelt sympathy for the bereaved ones. The remains were taken to Mr. Lewis Mohney's, Brynstown, Pa., the child's grandfather, where many of the near relatives gathered. The services were held in the M. E. church nearby, conducted by Rev. F. W. Parks, of Mayburg. The interment was in the cemetery near Pigeon.

The Very Best Remedy for Bowel Trouble.
Mr. M. F. Borroughs, an old and well-known resident of Bluffton, Ind., says: "I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as the very best remedy for bowel trouble. I make this statement after having used the remedy in my family for several years. I am never without it." This remedy is almost sure to be needed before the summer is over. Why not buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency? For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

THE NOMINEE FOR CONGRESS.

Mr. Wheeler Wins the Republican Nomination in This District.

HON. NELSON P. WHEELER

The nomination of Hon. Nelson P. Wheeler, of Endeavor, Pa., as the Republican candidate for Congress from the Twenty-eighth District of Pennsylvania, gives to the Republicans of Forest county the first candidate it has ever had for that important office. To say that her citizens, irrespective of party, are gratified at the honor bestowed on Mr. Wheeler and the county, is expressing it very mildly. That the Congressional Conference made a wise choice in nominating him is evidenced by the wave of enthusiasm which swept over the district when the result became known. A man of stainless character, strictest honesty, broad education and ripe experience in business and public affairs, Mr. Wheeler is an ideal candidate and in every way well qualified to represent the people at Washington. He is worthy of the honor that has come to him and will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

Bad Fire Near Lickingville.

John and Jacob Groner, who owned a planing mill, blacksmith shop and hardware store combined on the Fryburg road, about a half mile from Lickingville, Clarion county, suffered a severe loss on Monday afternoon, when their establishment was completely destroyed by fire. The building caught fire on the roof from a spark from the boiler, about two o'clock, and when discovered was under such headway that nothing could be done to check it. It was only by the hard work of the neighbors from Lickingville that the flames were kept from spreading to the house, barn and other buildings which stood near. The burned structure was a substantial two-story frame building with a boiler house attached, and contained under the one roof complete outfits for a planing mill, shingle mill and blacksmith shop, besides a stock of general hardware. All this was destroyed. The loss to the Groner brothers is placed at about $7,000, upon which we understand there was no insurance. In addition to their loss, some of their neighbors lost about $1,000 worth of lumber and shingles which went up in smoke with the mill.

The little boy was taken suddenly sick three weeks ago with acute indigestion and the doctors gave them no hope from the first. He lingered until last Saturday, when he passed away. The burial was at Mt. Tabor cemetery, near Sigel, Sunday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Humbert conducting the services at the grave.

RECENT DEATHS.

MISS MAUD OVERLANDER.
Maud Belle Overlander was born in Kingsley township, Dec. 22, 1857, and died at the home of her father, Jesse S. Overlander, in Tionesta, Pa., June 11, 1906. For the past two years she has been in poor health, and about a year ago it became evident that she was the victim of that dreaded disease, tuberculosis. She met the knowledge of her condition with remarkable fortitude for one so young in years, and put forth every effort to regain her lost health. With this hope she was taken to the Grand View Sanitarium in Oil City, and for a time it seemed as if she might recover. But suffering a relapse, at her request, she was removed to her home at this place. The change was beneficial and she grew stronger and was able to be about the house until her death. Monday morning she suffered a severe hemorrhage and lived but a few minutes, passing away as peacefully as a child closing its eyes in sleep. Maud was a young woman possessing many admirable qualities. Kind and affectionate in the home, cheerful and unselfish with her companions, she was loved by all who knew her. During her long sickness she often spoke of the fatal termination of her disease and expressed her hope in Christ as a personal Savior. She is survived by her father and three sisters: Mrs. W. H. Hood, Mrs. Horace Walters, of Tionesta, and Miss Mildred, who resides at home. The funeral occurred at the house on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, Revs. W. O. Calhoun and R. A. Zahniser conducting the services, and the body was laid to rest in Riverside Cemetery.

Mayburg.

According to our prediction of last week Mayburg is already winning laurels as a famous ball team. Cherry Grove sent over a good team but they went down to certain defeat. The chief cause of their defeat was the excellent pitching of F. S. Richards. For three innings neither side scored, but our boys got down to real ball playing in the fourth, making two scores. After that our boys had an easy victory. The game was well attended by the Cherry Grove sports, and our own home folks. Everybody was delighted with the pluck and skill displayed on both sides. Our boys are only waiting for a chance to repeat the affair. F. K. Brown showed his real generosity by furnishing a free supper at the Mayburg Hotel. The score by innings:
Mayburg0 0 0 2 2 1 0 6-5
Cherry Grove.....0 0 0 2 2 0 0-4
