Shirts, collars, cuffs and ties, all the latest styles, at Hopkins' store. It sometimes a man calls a woman an angel—but what man ever saw an angel?

Everything in gents' furnishings for the Fourth. Come in and get fitted out. Hopkins.

A large consignment of oil well casing is being hauled out to the Kelly lease, Tionesta township, this week.

Kelleitville is preparing to celebrate the Fourth in regal style and invites the whole world to come and partake in the festivities.

A new pair of Oxfords, cool and comfortable for the feet, is what you ought to have before the Fourth. We have them for a little money. Hopkins.

Rev. Dr. Sionaker's subjects for next Sabbath at the Presbyterian church are: Morning—"Is this a Protestant Christian Nation? A Fourth of July Sermon." Evening—"The Lamb of God."

All the best makes of shoes on the market are kept here—the Douglas, Richardson, Selz, Stroomman, Royal Blue and Queen Quality. None finer or better. Hopkins.

The longest day of the year is passed again and we are now approaching the shortest once more, and although it is six months off it will seem like no time till we have to "light up" in order to get in a full day.

If you haven't yet taken on that Fourth of July outfit come here and let us fit you out in a new suit complete from head to foot. We have the goods, and will make you very pleasing prices on them. Hopkins.

FOR SALE.—Two houses and lots, one located on Bridge street and partially finished, the other is a finished house located on Smith street. Both properties have good lots and will be sold at reasonable figures and on easy terms. Inquire at this office.

The members of the Alumni Association can procure their tickets for the reception next Friday night, at Dunn & Fulton's store. They are requested to pay their dues to Miss Edna Agnew or Miss Isabel Joyce. Coleman's orchestra will furnish the music.

The Tionesta ball team goes to Pleasantville next Saturday for a game. But the best game of all will be that of next Friday afternoon, when the Yanigans, a local team, will go up against the regulars. Don't miss the fun. Batteries—Regulars, Bankhead and Lawrence; Yanigans, Stroup and Foreman.

A bush meeting will be held under the auspices of the Free Methodist church at Town Line, Kingsley township, about a mile from Whig Hill. The meeting will begin on Saturday evening of this week and continue over the Fourth of July. Rev. J. S. Metcalf, presiding elder, and other prominent ministers, will be in attendance.

If you know or hear of an interesting item in the community, make it a point to see that it finds a place in your local paper. We should much appreciate your effort and will send our reporter to ascertain and verify any lacking points. Anything which tends to better or brighten the news service of a paper makes it of much more value to the community, and the subscribers are the ones mostly benefited thereby.

The finest strawberries that have yet reached this market are of the home grown variety. Charley Bovard's crop is exceptionally fine, and Jacob Wagner, whose farm is located over in Harmony township, has been bringing in some of the largest and most luscious berries that have been seen hereabouts in many seasons. Jacob is an adept in the culture of berries, and generally has the best market affords.

McClure's Magazine prints in the July number the latest photograph of Carl Schurz. Taken late last October by Enrique Muller, it shows Mr. Schurz in the library of his home in Ninety-fourth Street, New York, surrounded by his favorite books and pictures—a hale, hearty old man with intellectual brow, strong eyes and clean-cut nose, who shows not the slightest trace of feebleness but is rather a picture of the strength of old age.

The Pennsylvania railroad it is said on high authority has decided to accede to the demands of the merchants and traveling men of the state for the abolition of the 50 cent excess mileage book. In response to the persistent agitation of the druggists of Pennsylvania, which has gone so far as to include a suit in the name of the commonwealth and a campaign for legislation fixing the maximum rate of fare on steam railroads throughout Pennsylvania at 2 cents a mile, the company, it has been learned, intends to sell books good for 1,000 miles at $20 flat. Just when the new book will be issued has not yet been decided, as quite a number of details must be arranged first and sufficient notice given the traveling public.

No Paper Next Week.

The REPUBLICAN will celebrate the Fourth next week in the usual felicitous style by failing to make its appearance, thus contributing its share towards the general joy of the occasion. But while no paper will be issued the office will be opened all week for the transaction of any other business that may happen along, especially the receipting for any funds due the institution, so don't hang back thinking you cannot be accommodated. Our next issue will appear on July 11th, meantime we hope all our friends will have a happy time on the ever glorious.

The Forest County Veterans' Association will hold its annual reunion at Marienville sometime in September, exact date not yet decided upon. It will be two years since this association has held a meeting, and it is expected to make this event a notable one. The present officers are, President, J. J. Young, Marienville; Vice President, F. X. Kreiter, Nebraska; Secretary, C. H. Wilton, Marienville.

Mrs. A. B. Kelly and Mrs. Suie M. Sharpe gave a reception to a large number of their lady friends at the home of the former on Friday afternoon last, honoring their guest, Mrs. Charles Bonner, of Chicago. Out-of-town guests present were, Mrs. Orion Siggins and Misses Frances, Jennie and Justina Siggins, of West Hickory; Mrs. Fred Slocum and Mrs. W. A. Shewman, of Kelleitville; Mrs. Lynn Cook and Mrs. George Matha, of Nebraska.

Tionesta's two justices of the peace, S. J. Setley and S. S. Canfield, are both seriously ill, so much so that friends are greatly concerned as to the ultimate outcome of their troubles. Squire Setley has been in ill health for nearly a year past, but until within the past month or two has been able to be up and about. Squire Canfield has been confined to the house for the past two weeks or more with bowel trouble. His physicians think he will come out all right with absolute rest and good care, which he is getting.

Francis H. Irwin, nephew of our townsman Judge Irwin, who recently graduated from Washington and Jefferson college, taking first honors in a very large class, several special prizes, and in fact about everything but the college charter, has been selected as inspector and supervisor of the new macadam road that is being constructed between Tylersburg and Leeper, under the authority of the State Highway Department. The road will be a mile and a half in length, and Mr. Irwin will be engaged several months.

The biggest trout story of the year was going the rounds yesterday. It is asserted that William Antill, an Oil Creek township boy, Saturday caught a trout in Bog Run which measured nineteen inches in length and weighed four pounds. He did not use any fancy brand of flies nor approach the stream with all the scientific precautions usually adopted by persons claiming to be real piscatorial artists. It is said he just saw the trout and angled for it with a hook and line baited with a frog. The four pound fish was the result.

We learn with a good deal of pleasure from the Warren Mail that our friend Andrew J. Fleming, of Grunderville, has taken unto himself a wife in the person of Miss Nettie Brogan, of Ackley, Warren county. The ceremony took place in Warren on Thursday, June 7th, 1906. The bride is one of Warren county's successful school teachers. The groom's many Forest county friends will join the REPUBLICAN in extending very best wishes for a long and happy life to him and his fair bride. They have gone to housekeeping at Grunderville.

The elections of teachers for Forest county schools will be held as follows: Jenks twp., June 29, A. H. Sigworth, secretary, Marienville; Howe twp., June 30, W. H. Jackson, secretary, McCray; Kingsley twp., July 2, Leon Watson, secretary, Kelleitville; Hickory twp., July 5, T. B. Leubenthal, secretary, Endeavor; Harmony twp., July 6, no secretary elected yet; Tionesta twp., July 7, Mrs. Pauline Smearbaugh, secretary, Tionesta; Green twp., July 9, Fred Klimesiver, secretary, Nebraska; Barnett twp., July 10, J. H. Barton, secretary, Redclyffe.

Mrs. H. H. Cummings, Regent of the Tionesta Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, gave a reception to Mrs. Donald McLean, of New York, President-General of the Society, at her hospitable home in Tidouate, on the 19th inst. There were upward of a hundred present, among those from out of town being Mrs. N. P. Wheeler, of Endeavor, and Mrs. W. O. Fuellhart, of Endeavor; Mrs. Suie May Sharpe, Tionesta; Mrs. J. F. Sheasley, Kittanning; Mrs. Orion Siggins, Miss Justina Siggins, Mrs. Sumner Vail, Miss Alice Siggins, Mrs. J. A. Turner and Miss Turner, West Hickory.

Swanson-Arner. Although somewhat quiet in its details, one of the most interesting weddings of the month of June was that of Miss Alice Arner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin M. Arner, of Tionesta, who became the bride of Mr. Louis Elmer Swanson, of Jamestown, N. Y., at an early hour this morning, June 27th. The Rev. Dr. Paul J. Sionaker, pastor of the bride, officiated. The bride looked beautiful in a gown of blue net over white silk, and was unattended. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns. After a dainty wedding breakfast was served Mr. and Mrs. Swanson left for their future home in Jamestown, N. Y. The bride has been a life long resident of Tionesta where she is conspicuous in social circles and in church work. She is an accomplished young lady of genial disposition, well known and highly respected, one of the popular girls of the town. She leaves behind her a host of friends, but takes with her their best wishes for her future. Mr. Swanson is no stranger in Tionesta, having lived here some years and is remembered by many friends, who wish him all prosperity in life. Mr. and Mrs. Swanson will be at home at 419 West Third Street, Jamestown, N. Y., after July first.

If you know the value of Chamberlain's Salve you would never wish to be without it. Here are some of the diseases for which it is especially valuable: sore nipples, chapped hands, burns, frost bites, chilblains, chronic sore eyes, itching piles, tetter, salt rheum and eczema. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Miss Georgetta Nicholson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nicholson, of Oil City, was married on the 29th inst. at her home, to Mr. Albert M. Porterfield. The bride is well and favorably remembered by many of Tionesta's young society people, she having frequently visited here. Mr. and Mrs. Porterfield will reside at Lexington, Ky., where the groom has a lucrative position.

County Superintendent D. W. Morrison and family came home Saturday from the Clarion Normal. Prof. Morrison was the recipient of a handsome testimonial from the special class he was teaching there, it being a handsome open face gold watch. The case is beautifully chased and engraved with the following inscription: "D. W. M., Clarion, 1906." It is a gift which he prizes very highly.

Miss Helen Smearbaugh gave a miscellaneous shower party in honor of Miss Alice Arner, on Friday afternoon last. Very many useful and pretty articles were left as reminders of the esteem in which Miss Alice is held by her young lady chums. The young folks also gave a dancing party in honor of Miss Arner and Mr. Swanson, Tuesday evening, in Bovard's hall, which was a very enjoyable event.

J. D. Hulings Wins Brother's Estate.

Since the death some months ago of W. W. Hulings, well known to our older citizens, a former resident of Louisville, but for several years interested in Colorado gold mining enterprises, where he had made his home of late years, there has been a contest as to who should inherit his estate. John D. Hulings, the only surviving brother of the deceased, and a former well known and popular citizen of Tionesta, has been adjudged the rightful heir according to the following account of the contest taken from the Boulder, Colorado, Tribune: "County Judge Junius Henderson decided the issues in favor of John Hulings, brother of the late W. W. Hulings, of Ward, and against his sister-in-law, Mrs. Scott Saxton, of Denver. The property is chiefly mining interests at Ward, worth approximately $25,000. By his will of 1897 Mr. Hulings made Mrs. Saxton his heir. It was admitted by the beneficiary of that will that there were no interdependent relations. They were more those of sister and brother. She felt that she was entitled to be his heir because of their long association in his relation and felt, furthermore, that Mr. Hulings would have made her his heir had his mind been firm to the last. Mr. R. R. Gibbon, of Ward, Gibbon & Rowland, Boulder attorneys, and others showed to the court's satisfaction that Mr. Hulings, who died in a Boulder sanitarium, was sane to the last and uninfluenced by anybody. The court regretted that the parties did not agree upon a division of the estate but felt compelled by the testimony to decide that the will made a few days before his death was Mr. Hulings' real testamentary wish. When, acting on the initiative of Mr. Gibbon, who was with Mr. Hulings at Ward before he was brought to Boulder Mr. Gibbon drew a rough draft of a will in favor of Mrs. Ward, a niece, he said: "No, that's not it. I want to leave my property to my brother—wouldn't you?"

RECEPTION.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable events that Kelleitville has ever known took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Johnson, in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Luella, to Mr. Joseph Patrick Cunningham, which took place Wednesday, June 13th. The bride and groom having returned from their wedding tour, embracing Olean, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and other large cities, their many friends took this opportunity to extend to them their hearty congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy life. About two hundred and fifty of them gathered at the pleasant home of Mr. Johnson on the evening of June 20th, the evening being an ideal one for the occasion. The guests were seated on the enclosed veranda which extended on three sides of the house, while the Kelleitville Concert Band rendered several selections which added very much to the occasion, after which, the bride and groom having been stationed under the wedding arch, the guests were formed in line and passed before them, each one offering his hearty congratulations. Then they passed around to their original seats where they were served with delicious refreshments by a corps of beautiful young ladies, under the direction of Mrs. Harkison and Kate Shaw, caterers. The refreshments consisted of seven courses, including all the delicacies of the season. During the evening the bride and groom were the recipients of several valuable presents. The hour of midnight having arrived, the guests, after bidding Mr. and Mrs. Johnson good night and wishing the bride and groom God speed on their journey through life, took their departure, each one feeling in his heart that it was the most enjoyable occasion of his life. A GUEST.

Base Ball.

Tionesta 12, Tidouate 4. Tidouate, our old rival, sent down a team Saturday, accompanied by a goodly number of loyal supporters. A good game resulted in spite of the large number of errors on both sides. Tionesta had two bad innings and practically gave the visitors all their scores at the beginning of the game. After that they could not bunt any hits on Bankhead's good pitching, although there were several chances to score. The visitors' errors were costly and these, coupled with some good hitting, enabled the home team to roll up a rather one sided score. Our boys got eight hits off Hallowick in four innings, and two off Proper in the next four. There were three fast double plays in the game. The score:

Table with columns: TIONESTA, AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows: Weaver, 2d; Lawrence, c; Haslet, s; Arner, lf; Hagerty, 1st; Stroup, rf; Bankhead, j, 3d; Foreman, m; Foreman, m, p.

West Hickory.

Rev. H. B. Potter, a former pastor of this place, but at present a student at Boston, was calling on his many old friends a part of last week. Sunday evening Rev. Mowrey called upon him to preach. His address was an eloquent one and was delivered to a full house. Miss Hulda McCrea was a guest of Mrs. Orion Siggins the past week.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Conners, of New Kensington, are guests of their cousins Mr. Clint, Bryan and family.—Mrs. E. D. Mowrey has returned from a visit with her mother at Meadville.—Miss Fuellhart, of Tidouate, started a nice music class here today.—The Misses Sutley are returning to their home at Oil City tonight.—Mrs. J. G. Carson entertained her Sunday school class Monday afternoon.—Miss Cloe Green is home from Clarion Normal.

Hurrah for the 4th, It's Coming.

East Hickory has settled down to an old fashioned celebration on the glorious Fourth of July. Whig Hill, Endeavor, and West Hickory are invited to join in the festivities. Bring your basket for yourself and cousin. Good speakers will entertain you in the grove in rear of the M. E. church. The hoodlums will parade at 9:30 a. m. Then the Sunday Schools will be entertained in the grove at 2 p. m. Races of various kinds will be encouraged. In fact a day of innocent pleasure will take place only known and enjoyed by those country loving people whose lot has fallen under the Stars and Stripes. Come one, come all, and make a happy day happier by your presence.

Fourth of July Specials.

The Monarch Clothing Co., of Oil City, offer phenomenal values for their closing days in their Great June Sale. Elegant Skirts, Waists and Dresses for the Ladies and Misses and grey beauties in Men's and Young Men's Suits will keep their clerks very busy and make their customers feel happy at such low prices for new and very desirable goods.

Clarington.

S. H. Shields and family have returned to their home in Fort Morgan, Colorado.—Mrs. J. R. Pearsall, of Greenville, Pa., made our town a short visit.—The singing school closed last Thursday night and those that attended were so well pleased with the instructor that they have asked him to come back next winter.—J. R. Landis was at Tionesta last week.—Geo. Thrush is smiling on account of a new girl at his house.—Gill Mays is visiting his grandmother Mrs. E. C. Mays.—A. R. Braden was at Indiana last week on business.—Harry Coon is home from the Clarion Normal.—W. D. Shields, Guy VanHorn, Van Shields and F. A. Heasley are fishing up in the Adirondack mountains.—P. T. Hotel has resigned his position with Meckling, London & Braden to accept a similar one with J. W. Daniels near Halifax.—R. W. Greenhill and family have moved to Millstone. Sorry to lose any of our number, especially such good citizens.

RECENT DEATHS.

MRS. GEORGE SLIKER. Nancy Jane (Hepler) Sliker was born in Butler county, Pa., August 4, 1845, and died at her home near Johnstown, Clarion county, June 19, 1906. When a child five years of age, in company with her parents, she came to Clarion county, where the family settled on a farm near Newmansville, and in this vicinity she continued to reside until her death. In May, 1864, she was united in marriage to George Sliker, who with their children mourn the death of a devoted wife and mother.

In early life Mrs. Sliker united with the Lutheran church, but during the pastorate of Rev. E. R. Knapp transferred her membership to the M. E. church. Her christian life was humble and devout and the end found her waiting the summons of the Master.

Ten weeks ago she suffered a stroke of apoplexy. From this she partially recovered and was able to be about the house, when she was again stricken and was confined to her bed until death gave her a blessed release from suffering.

The deceased is survived by her husband and seven children: William H. of Newmansville; Mrs. Albert Strickenberg, of Tionesta township; Samuel and Mrs. G. M. Alexander, of Johnstown; John, Moses and Charles at home. Also three brothers and three sisters: Solomon Hepler, of Oregon; Moses Hepler, of Tionesta; Isaac Hepler, of Strobleton; Mrs. Amos Kinch, of Lickingville; Mrs. Joseph Swartzfager, of Elk county, and Mrs. Fred Stitzinger, Strobleton. There are also twenty-four grand children.

The funeral services were largely attended, being held in the Washington M. E. church, Rev. W. O. Calhoun officiating in the absence of the pastor.

MRS. ROBERT M. WHITCOMB. Mrs. Anna Whitcomb, in her 53d year, wife of Rev. Robert M. Whitcomb, well known to many of our readers, died at her home at Pleasantville shortly after 5 o'clock on Sunday morning from a complication of diseases, after an illness of over five months' duration. She leaves surviving her husband and three children, Fred, of Titusville, and Mrs. Florence Walbridge and Sidmore Whitcomb, of Pleasantville. Funeral services were conducted at the home at noon on Tuesday and on Tuesday afternoon the body was taken to Barnes, Pa., for burial.
