

Published every Wednesday by J. E. WENK. Office in Smearbaugh & Wenk Building, ELIM STREET, TIONESTA, PA.

FOREST REPUBLICAN

VOL. XXXIX. NO. 18.

TIONESTA, PA., WEDNESDAY, JULY 11, 1906.

$1.00. PER ANNUM.

RATES OF ADVERTISING: One Square, one inch, one week... $ 1 00 One Square, one inch, one month... 3 00 One Square, one inch, 3 months... 10 00

BOROUGH OFFICERS.

Burgess—J. T. Carson. Justices of the Peace—S. S. Canfield, S. J. Solley. Constables—J. B. Muse, J. W. Landers, C. A. Lanson, Geo. H. H. W. Landers, Wm. Smearbaugh, E. W. Bowman.

FOREST COUNTY OFFICERS.

Member of Congress—Joseph C. Sibley. Member of Senate—J. K. P. Hall. Assembly—J. H. Robertson. President Judge—W. M. Landy. Associate Judges—F. X. Kretzler, P. C. Hill.

Regular Terms of Court.

Fourth Monday of February. Third Monday of May. Fourth Monday of September. Third Monday of November.

Church and Sabbath School.

Presbyterian Sabbath School at 9:45 a. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10:00 a. m. Preaching in M. E. Church every Sabbath evening by Rev. W. O. Calhoun.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

TIONESTA LODGE, No. 369, I. O. O. F. Meets every Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows' Hall, Partridge building. CAPT. GEORGE STOW POST, No. 274 G. A. R. Meets 1st and 3d Monday evening in each month.

FIVE COACHES HELD UP

By a Lone Highwayman in the Yosemite National Park.

The Oil Lease Controversy—Runaway Car Killed 13 Miners—To Protect American Interests—Scientist Killed by an Automobile—Convicted of Giving Rebates.

Five Yosemite valley stage coaches were held up Saturday evening near the entrance to the national park in California by a lone highwayman who obtained a considerable amount of money and jewelry.

The stages Saturday were traveling sufficiently far apart to avoid each other's dust, and when the first vehicle reached the turn in the road the highwayman, whose features were hidden by a duster thrown over his head, stepped out, pointed a gun at the driver and commanded him to halt.

Two Destructive Pests. State Entomologist E. P. Felt has mailed a placard to the postmasters of the state of New York illustrating the destructive gipsy and browntail moths in their various stages and in connection therewith he has issued the following circular:

Wire-Tappers Changed Result of Race. A gang of wire-tappers cut in on the Windsor race track wire on Thursday at Windsor, Ont., and intercepted and changed the result of the second race. Confederates in Cincinnati, Chicago, Louisville and other cities all over the country won large sums of money on the horse sent over the wires as the winner of the race.

Contest of James A. Bailey's Will. In the contest over the will of the late James A. Bailey by relatives in Detroit, Mich., surrogate Silberman at White Plains, N. Y., appointed Mrs. Ruth L. Bailey, widow of the deceased circuit court judge, temporary administratrix of the estate, under a bond of $1,000,000.

The Oil Lease Controversy. Gov. Higgins explained his part in the controversy over the oil leases in Indiana and Oklahoma territories, which has become a public question through the investigation made by Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock.

Runaway Car Killed 13 Miners. A runaway car, flying like the wind down a mine branch track that runs between Puritan and Portage, Pa., at midnight Tuesday, jumped the track a short distance west of Portage and crashed into a party of 20 foreigners who were holding a celebration along the track.

Chicago-Mackinac Yacht Race. On Saturday probably 20 yachts of various sizes will leave Chicago on a race to Mackinac, under the auspices of the Chicago Yacht club. Boats from Toronto, Toledo and Detroit are expected to compete for the prize, the Chicago Yacht club Mackinac cup.

Haywood Heads Socialist Ticket. The Socialist party of Colorado held a convention in Denver on the fourth of July and nominated a full state ticket, headed by William D. Haywood, secretary and treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, now in prison in Idaho, for governor.

Mayflower has been ordered to San Domingo, where she will be joined by the Dixie with marines aboard and later on by the Tacoma. The result will be that an American man-of-war will be in every harbor of Santo Domingo where there is a custom house with an American collector installed.

Eminent Naturalist Killed by Auto. Professor Henry A. Ward, the naturalist, was struck by an automobile at Buffalo Wednesday and died two hours afterward. He lived at 620 Division avenue, Chicago. His son, C. H. Ward, lives at 327 West avenue, Rochester, N. Y.

Hope was suave in his manner and plausible with his credentials. The result was that he succeeded in swindling the men who rule Utah's dominant church for sums of money that ran into many thousands of dollars.

Convicted of Giving Rebates. The Chicago and Alton railroad and John N. Faithhorn and Frederick A. Wann, former officials of the road, were convicted in United States district court at Chicago of illegally granting rebates to the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger packing company.

War on Dogs and Cats. Washington, Pa., July 10.—The day of the dog and cat is nearly over in East Washington, where Washington's aristocracy lives. A movement for the chasing of all dogs from this fashionable suburb is meeting success.

Her Dream Came True. Dunbar, July 10.—Mrs. Mary Busieth of Mt. Braddock dreamed last Friday night that her death was near at hand. Sunday evening, as her husband stepped from the house for a few minutes, she remarked: "You had better not go away, for I am not going to live long."

Death of Work Seeker. Bellefontaine, O., July 10.—Just as an unknown man stepped into the Union Portland cement plant and asked John Scott for work a coal grading machine exploded, killing Scott and the unknown man and fatally burning M. D. Thomas, another workman.

Philadelphia Cricketers Ahead. Philadelphia, July 10.—In the first day's play in the annual cricket match between the Canadian and all-Philadelphia elevens here the home club scored 274 runs in their first inning and the visitors made 31 for five wickets when play was stopped for the day.

Opening of Congressional Campaign. Greensboro, N. C., July 10.—Secretary of War Taft last night before a meeting of North Carolina Republicans, on the eve of their state convention, delivered a speech that was generally anticipated as the opening gun of the congressional campaign of 1906.

Hen's Scratch Is Serious. Washington, O., July 10.—Mrs. Hannah Mankey of Deer Lick, Greene county, has undergone amputation of her right arm following blood poisoning resulting from the scratch of a hen which she attempted to lift from a nest.

Farmers File Claims For Damages. Bellefontaine, O., July 10.—Farmers of Stoke township, this county, have filed claims amounting to about $20,000 against the state for damages to their farms from the overflow of the Lewistown reservoir.

PREY OF A BOGUS LORD.

Heads of Mormon Church Taken In by Plausible Englishman.

Bereford Hope Came to Utah to Represent the "British-American Securities Company, Limited, London." Imposing List of Directors—Company Since Discovered to Be Fictitious.

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 10.—Of details high in the Mormon church here would be very glad to hear some sort of explanation from a man calling himself Bereford Hope, who represented himself to be an English nobleman and who, by presenting credentials which looked good on their face, succeeded in "promoting" several schemes in which they are financially interested.

Hope was suave in his manner and plausible with his credentials. The result was that he succeeded in swindling the men who rule Utah's dominant church for sums of money that ran into many thousands of dollars.

Convicted of Giving Rebates. The Chicago and Alton railroad and John N. Faithhorn and Frederick A. Wann, former officials of the road, were convicted in United States district court at Chicago of illegally granting rebates to the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger packing company.

War on Dogs and Cats. Washington, Pa., July 10.—The day of the dog and cat is nearly over in East Washington, where Washington's aristocracy lives. A movement for the chasing of all dogs from this fashionable suburb is meeting success.

Her Dream Came True. Dunbar, July 10.—Mrs. Mary Busieth of Mt. Braddock dreamed last Friday night that her death was near at hand. Sunday evening, as her husband stepped from the house for a few minutes, she remarked: "You had better not go away, for I am not going to live long."

Death of Work Seeker. Bellefontaine, O., July 10.—Just as an unknown man stepped into the Union Portland cement plant and asked John Scott for work a coal grading machine exploded, killing Scott and the unknown man and fatally burning M. D. Thomas, another workman.

Philadelphia Cricketers Ahead. Philadelphia, July 10.—In the first day's play in the annual cricket match between the Canadian and all-Philadelphia elevens here the home club scored 274 runs in their first inning and the visitors made 31 for five wickets when play was stopped for the day.

Opening of Congressional Campaign. Greensboro, N. C., July 10.—Secretary of War Taft last night before a meeting of North Carolina Republicans, on the eve of their state convention, delivered a speech that was generally anticipated as the opening gun of the congressional campaign of 1906.

Hen's Scratch Is Serious. Washington, O., July 10.—Mrs. Hannah Mankey of Deer Lick, Greene county, has undergone amputation of her right arm following blood poisoning resulting from the scratch of a hen which she attempted to lift from a nest.

Farmers File Claims For Damages. Bellefontaine, O., July 10.—Farmers of Stoke township, this county, have filed claims amounting to about $20,000 against the state for damages to their farms from the overflow of the Lewistown reservoir.

PIQUE DROVE HER FROM HOME.

Girl Failing to Win School Prize Don't Boy's Clothes and Joins a Street Show.

Connellsville, July 10.—Mary Sheedy worked hard all last term to win the medal for best scholarship at St. Joseph's Academy, Greensburg, and failed. When her failure was announced she disappeared and all efforts of her friends to locate her were in vain, although they offered a reward of $100 for information concerning her.

Saturday she was picked up here loitering about the streets with a carnival company showing in this city. She was attired in boy's clothing, which was much too tight for her plump frame and her dress had attracted a crowd of boys who drew the attention of the police to her.

WRECKS FAMOUS INDIAN RELIC. Owner Destroyed "Painted Rock" to Be Rid of Crowds It Drew. Washington, Pa., July 10.—"Painted Rock," a historical boulder which stood on the top of a hill overlooking the Monongahela river, near Millsboro, was blown up recently by dynamite by Joseph Horner, upon whose farm the stone was located.

Boy Shoots His Brother. Greensburg, July 10.—White hunting rats about a chicken coop at their home at Penn Monday morning Daniel L. Nesbitt, 11 years old, was shot and killed by his brother, 9 years old. The older brother carried a revolver and the younger boy, Dewey, a shotgun.

War on Dogs and Cats. Washington, Pa., July 10.—The day of the dog and cat is nearly over in East Washington, where Washington's aristocracy lives. A movement for the chasing of all dogs from this fashionable suburb is meeting success.

Her Dream Came True. Dunbar, July 10.—Mrs. Mary Busieth of Mt. Braddock dreamed last Friday night that her death was near at hand. Sunday evening, as her husband stepped from the house for a few minutes, she remarked: "You had better not go away, for I am not going to live long."

Death of Work Seeker. Bellefontaine, O., July 10.—Just as an unknown man stepped into the Union Portland cement plant and asked John Scott for work a coal grading machine exploded, killing Scott and the unknown man and fatally burning M. D. Thomas, another workman.

Philadelphia Cricketers Ahead. Philadelphia, July 10.—In the first day's play in the annual cricket match between the Canadian and all-Philadelphia elevens here the home club scored 274 runs in their first inning and the visitors made 31 for five wickets when play was stopped for the day.

Opening of Congressional Campaign. Greensboro, N. C., July 10.—Secretary of War Taft last night before a meeting of North Carolina Republicans, on the eve of their state convention, delivered a speech that was generally anticipated as the opening gun of the congressional campaign of 1906.

Hen's Scratch Is Serious. Washington, O., July 10.—Mrs. Hannah Mankey of Deer Lick, Greene county, has undergone amputation of her right arm following blood poisoning resulting from the scratch of a hen which she attempted to lift from a nest.

Farmers File Claims For Damages. Bellefontaine, O., July 10.—Farmers of Stoke township, this county, have filed claims amounting to about $20,000 against the state for damages to their farms from the overflow of the Lewistown reservoir.

SUMMARY OF THE NEWS.

Short Items From Various Parts of the World.

Record of Many Happenings Condensed and Put in Small Space and Arranged With Special Regard For the Convenience of the Reader Who Has Little Time to Spare.

Wednesday. The Chicago and Alton railroad and two of its former officials are put on trial on charges of giving rebates to packers.

Thursday. Harry Thaw's lawyers and friends admitted he had no immediate motive for the killing of Stanford White.

Friday. Henry Watterson said that Bryan and Roosevelt will be candidates for the presidency in 1908 and that Bryan will win on the third term issue.

Saturday. Ten warships and 1,000 marines are watching Santo Domingo in the interest of the United States.

Sunday. Warrants were issued in Pittsburgh charging Augustus Hartje and two others of conspiracy in the Hartje divorce suit, in obtaining perjured testimony by bribery.

Monday. A handwriting expert declared the famous letters in the Hartje divorce case, alleged to implicate Mrs. Hartje and her coachman, were forgeries.

Tuesday. In every city of New Jersey, except Atlantic City, saloon keepers observed the new law forbidding liquor sales on Sunday.

Wednesday. Fresh air camp for sick babies, the gift of John D. Rockefeller, to be opened in New York, is to be followed by others if it proves a success.

Thursday. Mrs. Christine F. MacKinnon and her two daughters lost their lives in a fire on the third floor of the Delahunt flats at 14th and Rhode Island streets, Buffalo.

Friday. The American Line express, wrecked a week ago with terrible results, passed over the Salisbury curve at greatly reduced speed last Sunday.

Saturday. The Pennsylvania Railroad company house cleaning committee recommends the return by officers and employes of all gifts of coal stock.

Sunday. Indiana officials raided the French Lick Springs hotel, of which Thomas Taggart of the Democratic national committee is head, charging that gambling was permitted there.

Monday. William J. Bryan, who has arrived in London, says that a reception to him upon his arrival here must not be regarded in the light of an endorsement for the presidential nomination.

Tuesday. Henry Watterson declared his belief that if Theodore Roosevelt runs for a third term he surely will lose Massachusetts.

Wednesday. The American Line express, wrecked a week ago with terrible results, passed over the Salisbury curve at greatly reduced speed last Sunday.

WITNESSES IN THAW CASE.

Woman Said to Have Heard Threats. Another Thaw Valet.

New York, July 10.—A witness whose testimony may be of considerable importance in connection with the Thaw case was found in the person of Warren Hammond, who at one time was employed by Thaw as a valet.

Among the persons questioned by Assistant District Attorney Garvan was Charles Hartnett, who was employed by Stanford White as a secretary. While Mr. Garvan refused to say what the examination disclosed, it is understood that Mr. Hartnett's testimony tended to contradict the current reports of much that was disseminated in Mr. White's private life.

Chamberlain's Political Retrospect. Birmingham, July 10.—The celebration in honor of Joseph Chamberlain's attainment of 70 years was continued last night when 10,000 persons assembled in Bingley hall to witness the presentation of 120 addresses of appreciation of Mr. Chamberlain's political services.

Independent Refiners Subpoenaed. Pittsburg, July 10.—It was learned that subpoenas have been served upon Lewis Emery, Jr., Democratic and Lincoln party candidate for governor; J. P. Brockway of Warren, Pa., and W. P. Westlake of Titusville, in one of the Standard Oil investigations by the interstate commerce commission.

Bulgarian Bands Annihilated. Saloniki, July 10.—In the Konopishta district yesterday, Turkish troops annihilated three Bulgarian bands which had concentrated, killing 92 of them. The Turks lost 20 killed.

MARKET REPORT. New York Provision Market. WHEAT—No. 2 red, 85 1/2c f. o. b. aboot; No. 1 northern Duluth, 88 1/2c.

Buffalo Provision Market. WHEAT—No. 1 northern, carloads in store, 83c; No. 2 red, 82c.

East Buffalo Live Stock Market. CATTLE—Choice export steers, $2.50 @ $5.85; good to choice butcher steers, $4.50 @ $4.75.

Utica Dairy Market. Utica, July 9.—Sales on the Utica dairy market today were: Large white, 5 lots of 325 boxes at 10 1/2c.