A Rapid Growth

One of the notable examples of the progress of business education in this country is furnished by the rapid growth of the Meadville Commercial College, of Meadville, Pa.

This school was organized in 1887. Miss S. L. Boyd, the present principal and proprietor, and the success of the school has been phenomenal. Starting with one small room and three students of short-hand the school has grown until it now occupies eleven rooms, has a faculty of ten teachers and numbers students by the hundreds. One of the important reasons for this rapid growth has been the policy pursued by the school. The best teachers have been employed, the best courses of study installed, and good positions furnished for students after they have completed their work. The name "The school that gets results" is well merited, and prospective pupils should send for catalogue and literature.

D. S. KNOX, P. M.

—The semi-annual sale of the Monarch Clothing Company, of Oil City, begins Wednesday, July 15, for a ten days' run. Big values are offered and a visit to their store will no doubt repay the purchaser.

—We believe in giving our customers the advantage of low prices while the season is still on, so we've cut the price on all sorts of ladies' and gentlemen's summer wearables to ridiculously low figures. Hopkins.

—All indications point to an abundant crop of chestnuts this fall. The trees never showed a finer display of rich blossoms, and with favorable weather from this on the yield will be such as to delight the tree-climbing youngster.

—Dr. J. C. Dunn has purchased the homestead of W. W. Grove, next his own residence, and after giving the property a pretty good overhauling will occupy it with his family. The lot is a large one and will give the doctor lots of elbow room.

—FOR SALE.—Two houses and lots, one located on Bridge street and partially finished, the other is a finished house located on Smith street. Both properties have good lots and will be sold at reasonable figures and on easy terms. Inquire at this office.

—The County Commissioners yesterday appointed H. E. Moody assessor of Tionesta borough, vice A. T. Brookhouser, who resigned last week. The appointment of Mr. Moody will be very acceptable to the property owners of the borough generally.

—Trout fishermen have a little less than two weeks more to pursue the sport. Many have the impression that the season closed on the 15th inst., but that is a mistake, as it extends to the 31st of July. But the weather is too hot and the danger from snakes too great to afford much sport now.

—Typhoid fever seems to be having an epidemic of typhoid fever. Up to last Thursday there had been twelve cases in the village, the majority of the sufferers being children. There have been no deaths and while some of the patients have been and are very ill, it is thought that all will recover.

—Last Monday C. W. Amisler began operations in the construction of a garage on the rear end of his lot for storing his automobile. It will have all of the modern improvements of such institutions.—Clarion Democrat. Bring the "hose" over some day, Colonel, and give us a spin down the pike in it.

—A dozen or more of the young folk of this town have pitched tents at a pleasant spot on the banks of Tionesta creek at the upper end of the Gaston pond, and will enjoy camping life for a couple of weeks. Their mammas will take "turn-about" in chaperoning the "youngsters," and they expect to have the best time ever.

—S. S. Sigworth, of Leeper, Pa., has purchased the hardware store of F. R. Lanson here and is conducting it under the name of The Tionesta Hardware. Mr. Sigworth has also purchased the store and lot on Elm street between the Presbyterian church and Wm. Smearbaugh's, and will probably build there in the future.

—Little five-year-old Edwin Fries, whose parents live in Buffalo, but have their summer home at a cottage near George Huddleston's place at the mouth of Little Hickory creek, fell off the porch on Saturday evening last and sustained a dislocation of the right elbow and a fracture of the same arm just above the elbow. Dr. Bovard attended the lad's injuries.

—G. W. Osgood, who is engaged in peeling bark on a tract near Henry's Bend, on the Allegheny river, took the "hunks" off a monster hemlock there last week. The tree measured four feet across the stump, and was remarkably straight, carrying its size well toward the top. He took 20 rings of bark, four feet long, off the tree. Such fine trees are not often encountered any more in this section of country.

—M. Harkenbush, whose home is in Forest county about midway between Venus and Tionesta, was dangerously wounded by a silver from a tree which he felled late Friday afternoon. When the tree struck the ground a large section was splintered from a limb and driven into his abdomen and one bowel was perforated. Drs. O'Day and Mintz were called from here to attend the injured man.—Derrick, Saturday.

—There's been too much dry weather in these parts for crops of all kinds. Corn is standing it all right and looks fine, but the hay crop, which is now pretty well harvested, is considerably below the average, while oats are about what might be termed a failure. Potatoes are badly in need of good soaking rains else they will be a very short crop in most places. In many fields the stalks are wilted and dead with the tubers only about half grown.

—James E. Girt, of Max, Dundey county, Nebraska, whom many of our citizens will remember as a visitor to friends in this vicinity about a year ago, and who owns and controls several large bodies of land in his section, would like to correspond with some oil well contractors with a view to having some test wells drilled in that section. He would want the contractor to be prepared to drill to a depth of 2500 to 3000 feet. Contractors who would like to try that country would do well to address Mr. Girt as above.

—The Franklin Indicator is in possession of a copy of the Advocate and Journal, published in that town fifty-four years ago, being dated May 5, 1852, before a whole lot of us were born. Among the professional cards published in the paper at that time, the following names appear: Dr. N. D. Snowden, of Franklin; Dr. Fielding Donaldson, of Wallaceville; Dr. W. F. Hunter, of Tionesta; Dr. J. W. Dille, of Cooperstown; Dr. M. H. Bowser, of Deupenytown, and Dr. Wm. B. Shugert, of Cherrytree. All of these have passed from earth.

—The Grove City Bible Conference began Thursday evening, August 2nd, and closing Sabbath evening, August the 12th, will be the finest Bible Conference ever held at Grove City. The program is composed of some of the most distinguished Bible teachers and Christian workers on both sides of the Atlantic. Last year there were ministers and laymen from almost every state in the Union in attendance. Rooms and boarding can be had at very low rates. For all information address the president, Isaac C. Ketter, Grove City, Pa.

—It was only a few drops of rain that fell here on Sunday, but that may be enough, for it was St. Switlin's day, and may bring about the much desired result. The rhyme is an old one but will bear repeating in the light of the fact that nearly every one is praying for rain, and it seems that forty days of it would not be too much to slake the thirst of parched Mother Earth:

"St. Switlin's day, if thou dost rain
For forty days it will remain;
St. Switlin's day, if thou be fair
For forty days 'twill rain nae mair."

—It is not easy to learn to keep a household account book all at once. A young husband gave his wife a neat little account book prettily bound and designed to be inviting in appearance. He also gave her fifty dollars, and said: "I want you to put down what I give you on this side, and on the other write down the way it goes, and in two weeks I will give you another supply." Two weeks later he asked for the book. "Oh, I have kept that account," said the young matron; "here it is." And on one page was inscribed: "Received from Fred fifty dollars," and on the opposite was this summary: "Spent it all."

—The annual Methodist campmeeting will be held in the grove at Whig Hill, this county, beginning Thursday, July 26th, at 8 o'clock p. m., and closing Sunday evening, August 5th, 1906. The campmeeting will be under the direction of Rev. A. R. Rich, D. D., presiding elder of the Clarion District, who will also be assisted by Rev. D. A. Platt, D. D., presiding elder of the Franklin District. Rev. A. S. M. Hopkins, Conference Evangelist, assisted by his wife, will have charge of the evangelistic services. Other ministers will also be present and there will be no lack of good sermons. Boarding can be had by the meal, day or week at reasonable rates. Horses will be cared for when desired. Tents of all sizes can be rented at reasonable terms. No gate fees charged. Carriages can be had from Kribbs & Ray's livery at Kelleysville on notice by phone. Make up your mind to attend this campmeeting and write or phone Rev. F. M. Small, at Kelleysville, for particulars.

—Tionesta has two good ball games scheduled here during the coming week, Franklin (Rocky Grove) next Saturday afternoon, and the Troquois team of Buffalo next Monday afternoon. Manager Landers has to give good guarantees to secure these teams and there should be a large attendance. Our people have very pleasant recollections of the Troquois team, who were here last year. They were a fine lot of players and will be warmly greeted.

—Joseph W. Hunter, State Highway Commissioner, advertises in this issue of the REPUBLICAN for bids for the construction of the macadam road in Tionesta township, extending from the borough limits at Tubbs run to the Hickory township line. This looks like business, and although it will be late to begin a work of this magnitude, sufficient start will be made to give the new road a good lead for an early start next spring. We do not know what the State's methods are in such matters but presume the other portion of the road applied for by the township, extending up Tionesta creek, will also soon be taken up.

—One of the best known and successful physicians and surgeons of Philadelphia said recently that the biting of finger nails is the chief cause of the majority of cases of appendicitis that are operated on daily at the various hospitals. Nothing is more likely to cause the appendix to become inflamed and subsequently perforated than the hard pieces of nails bitten off the ends of fingers and swallowed. In one hospital in Philadelphia last week there were nine persons operated upon for appendicitis, and seven were caused by biting of the finger nails.—Ex. One often sees a person biting his or her finger nails, but who ever heard of the nasty habit of swallowing the bits.

—Wm. McKee, whose farm is located on the hill two miles west of Tionesta, in the township, was severely injured in a fall from the hay loft in his barn Friday afternoon last. They were taking in hay at the time, unloading with a hay fork and as he was releasing the fork from a bunch that had been put into the mow he became overbalanced and fell backward to the barn floor. In his fall he struck the back of his neck against a beam which evidently threw him forward and he struck upon his chest, bruising him severely. Dr. Dunn attended him and found him in a serious condition, but at present thinks he will recover, although the process may be slow. The doctor thinks there have been no internal injuries sustained.

—A blacksnake fully eight feet long, and some conservative snake estimators figure it as being at least 10 feet, was killed at Baum's station by Engineer Al. Sittig on Thursday afternoon. The slaughter was entirely impromptu on his part. He was in charge of the engine drawing the local freight when he saw the snake on the rails in front of him and thought it was the limb of a tree. The rear end front ends of the snake were concealed in the underbrush at each side of the right-of-way and the main portion of the reptile's body was between the two rails. Before it could escape the engine ran it down and owing to the mangling received it was impossible to secure a correct measurement. Engineer Sittig was not called upon to put in a "C. T. 75" report to headquarters when he brought in his engine.—Derrick, 14th.

Fire at West Hickory.

Monday at midnight fire broke out in the grocery store of Isaac Siggins at West Hickory and it was destroyed completely, together with about all of the merchandise. A butcher shop adjoining, and a dwelling house owned by Wm. Elder, of Warren, but occupied by James Bingham and family, were also burned to the ground. The fire seems to have caught in the rear of the store building from some unknown cause, and before the people were aroused the whole inside was a blazing mass. The town is equipped with a force pump which takes water from the river, but in this case there was not sufficient hose to reach the fire. Mr. Wheeler, at Endeavor, sent a train over with a string of hose, which aided materially in saving adjoining buildings.

Mr. Siggins had an insurance of $1,500 on his buildings and goods, which will not cover his loss by several hundred dollars. Mr. Bingham's loss was not large as about all of his household goods were saved. Mr. Elder had a small insurance on the dwelling, but hardly sufficient to cover his loss.

It is suspected that the fire was started by burglars, as people living near declared they heard footsteps in the store shortly before it was discovered.

Fell Nearly Forty Feet.

Fred. Blum, son of our townsman, Wm. F. Blum, met with an accident Friday last, at Kelleysville, which, though severe enough as it is, might easily have resulted in instant death. He has been employed with a force of men under Patrick Joyce in the construction of the stone abutments of the new county bridge building at that place, and had gone to the top of a crane used in the work, about 30 feet in height, when the whole derrick-like apparatus toppled over. Fred alighted first on the top of the abutment and from there was thrown to the creek bottom, some eight or ten feet farther, where he was picked up more dead than alive and conveyed to his boarding house, and Dr. Detar summoned. He found a large gash extending from the top of Fred's right shoulder diagonally across his chest and ending down at his left side, cut through the flesh to the ribs. His left wrist was severely sprained and he had received a bad bump over the left eye, rendering him a pretty sore boy, but from which he is recovering rapidly. The accident was a hair-raising sight to those who witnessed it, and after all the young man escaped luckily.

Saved His Comrade's Life.

"While retreating from the Grand Army Encampment at Washington City, a comrade from Elgin, Ill., was taken with cholera morbus and was in a critical condition," says Mr. J. E. Houghland, of Eldon, Iowa, "I gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and believe saved his life. I have been engaged for ten years in immigration work and conducted many parties to the south and west. I always carry this remedy and have used it successfully on many occasions." Sold by Dunn & Fulton.

He is considering the call and will doubtless make his people here aware of his intentions before long. Clarence has been unfortunate within the past two years in having the third stroke of paralysis, so that he is able to walk only with the greatest difficulty. When leaving home he told his wife he dreaded the sidewalks which he would encounter in Tionesta, but was agreeably surprised to find that the town of his boyhood could boast of the best walks to be found in the State, size of the place considered.

RECENT DEATHS.

S. J. SETLEY.

Sylvester James Setley was born near Cooperstown, Pa., February 25th, 1841, and died at his home in Tionesta, July 14th, 1906. In 1852 his father, George Setley, came with his family to Forest county and purchased a farm on Hunter Run, near Tionesta. Here at seventeen years of age he responded to the call of President Lincoln and was enrolled October 19th, 1861, as a private in Co. F, 58th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. He participated in several expeditions; took part in three raids, was in several skirmishes, and near Newbern, North Carolina, April 17th, 1873, he was wounded by a minie ball through the ankle joint, resulting in the amputation of the leg below the knee. As a soldier he was brave and faithful, as many of his comrades can testify.

On May 23, 1875, he was united in marriage with Miss Helena Thompson. Two children blessed this union, Irene, who died in infancy, and Zeta, who died ten years ago, so that his widow, who for several years has been in frail health, is left alone in this hour of sorrow. Mr. Setley was a member of Forest Lodge, No. 184, A. O. U. W., also of Capt. Geo. Stow Post G. A. R. For five years he held the office of County Treasurer, had been a Justice of the Peace for twenty-one years and deputy Prothonotary for sixteen years.

During the pastorate of the Rev. Alva Wilder he united with the M. E. church and was a member of the official board at the time of his death. His illness lasted for more than a year. The past five weeks he was confined to his bed and suffered continuously. The nature of the disease, which at the first was somewhat obscure, developed into tuberculosis of the bowels, and in spite of the physicians' skill steadily progressed until death gave him blessed relief from pain. In his death we have another soldier grave to deck with flowers, another mound to remind us that the brave and noble men who rallied around the flag and preserved to us the Union, are rapidly responding to the final roll call. May their last days be full of peace and prosperity.

Beside his widow, Mr. Setley is survived by one brother, Winfield S. Setley, of Newtown Mills, this county, and two sisters, Mrs. E. A. McIntyre, of Meadville, Pa., and Mrs. John Godfrey, West Middleburg, Pa.

Funeral services were held at the late home of the deceased on Sabbath afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. O. Calhoun, the remains being laid to rest in Riverside cemetery. A very large concourse of friends in Tionesta and vicinity attended the obsequies, conspicuous among the number being a goodly turnout of comrades of the G. A. R.

The ball bearers were taken from from among the comrades of the deceased, as follows: G. W. Robinson, S. D. Irwin, J. C. Hoover, Peter Lindel, W. W. Walford, L. Agnew.

WITHEBRALL.

After a painful illness of three weeks, Ellen Withelred died at her home at Endeavor, Pa., June 28, 1906. She was born in the town of Brindleville, Pa., Feb. 14, 1849, and came to Forest county in 1866, and has lived in the county since that time. She was married to W. E. Withersall Aug. 6, 1865, and this union was blessed with seven children, who, with the husband, are all living but the oldest, William Egbert, who was killed by the cars July 28, 1888; Minnie Smith, William, W. Va.; Mary Emily Bemis, Ashtolia, Pa.; Franklin, Oil City, Pa.; George Warden, Ashtolia; Millard Henry, and Gus Bennington, Endeavor.

She was a good mother and companion, ready to help in every time of need, as all her neighbors are ready to testify.

The funeral services were conducted in the Presbyterian church, Endeavor, of which church she was a member at the time of her death. Beautiful floral tributes were presented by the trainmen of Oil City, also the W. C. T. U. and W. R. C., of which organizations the deceased was a member.

A Benefactor.

Clarion State Normal counts herself fortunate indeed in the honor bestowed upon her by a philanthropic citizen of Forest county who made twelve scholarships available within her halls. Even more fortunate are the boys and girls of the public schools of Forest county. To them this offer brings opportunities such as rarely come to elementary schools in town or country. The bestowal of these honors ought to serve as a great incentive to regular attendance and a closer application on the part of pupils to the daily work of the school. It will surely stimulate a healthy interest in the school activities of that county.

We regret that the benefactor is unwilling to permit his name to be made public. This very fact, however, emphasizes the unselfishness of the giver and shows the spirit which underlies true giving. All honor to him who makes opportunities for the youth of our country to secure the advantages of an education. His patriotic spirit should be emulated by all those who are in a position to aid in the work of training for American citizenship.—Clarion Republican.

Marienville Swamped.

REDCLYFFE, PA., July 14, 1906.

The Marienville rooters swallowed a bitter dose today when the Redclyffe ball tossers went over and walked all around the team there, the score standing 13 to 7 at the end of the seventh inning. In the first half of the eighth Redclyffe scored four more runs. In Marienville's half, Keller, the scorer, doctored the batting list and opened up with the heavy hitters. Redclyffe protested, while the umpire, Reyer, refused to investigate and called the game. Haught, for Redclyffe, was very effective and kept the hits scattered, striking out thirteen. McMaisters and Keating for Marienville were hit hard and freely by our boys, as the score shows. Features of the game were running catches by Braden and Hoce, and Hillard's back-handed sacrifice.

What Is An Ad?

The reputation of a business house is at stake every time it utters an advertisement. The assertions contained in its published announcements are direct promises to "deliver the goods" along the lines described and in accord with the letter and spirit thereof. Failure to do this is a breach of faith, a breach of confidence, a breach of contract. We desire that all our advertisements shall be considered as definite, specific promises—contracts which it shall be our pleasure to fulfill upon demand or request.

We don't pose as perfect, for as human beings we are not above making mistakes now and then. But to offset such mistakes, we hold ourselves in readiness to fully correct and remedy any that may inadvertently creep into our published announcements, as readily as we correct any mistake that might occur in our store.
