

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN.

J. E. WENK, - EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1906.

Republican Ticket.

STATE.

Governor, EDWIN S. STUART. Lieutenant Governor, ROBERT S. MURPHY.

COUNTY.

Congress, Hon. N. P. WHEELER. Assembly, T. D. COLLINS. District Attorney, A. C. BROWN.

TO REPUBLICANS.

We are anxious to have every Republican in close touch, and working in harmony with the Republican National Congressional Committee in favor of the election of a Republican Congress.

The Congressional campaign must be based on the administrative and legislative record of the party, and that being so, Theodore Roosevelt's personality must be a central thought in the campaign.

We desire to maintain the work of this campaign with popular subscriptions of One Dollar each from Republicans. To each subscriber we will send the Republican National Campaign Text Book and all documents issued by the Committee.

Help us achieve a great victory. JAMES S. SHERMAN, Chairman, P. O. Box 2063, New York.

Important to Republicans.

The duplicate copy of registry list of voters is now hanging up, or should be at the voting place in each election district ready for inspection. Each voter who is twenty-one years of age or over should examine the registry list and see if his name is on the registry and if not to see the assessor at once and have it put on before September 6th.

All voters twenty-two years of age or over who have not paid a state or county tax within two years, which tax has been assessed at least sixty (60) days and paid at least thirty (30) days before election, November 6th, cannot vote. September 6th is the last day to be assessed and October 6th the last day to pay taxes and vote November 6th, 1906.

MR. BRYAN prefers two legs to finance, and also two to politics, one conservative and one radical.

SURELY a man who has no better discretion than to write such a blundering letter as did candidate Emery in reply to Dr. Swallow, would make a mighty bad Governor.

GOV. VARDAMAN of Mississippi, who is a candidate for the Senate, rejoices that Bryan is "the same old radical who more so." The conservative game will not be attempted in Mississippi.

ACCORDING to Mr. Emery, a brewery in a town is as worthy of financial support as a church, hospital or school. From the standpoint of a sagacious investor he probably knows what he is talking about.—Blizzard.

A MAN who would get so tangled and twisted in his efforts to pull himself out of a disagreeable dilemma as did candidate Emery in trying to answer Dr. Swallow's interrogatories, can hardly be relied upon to make a safe governor. What a mess he might make of it.

The startling statement is made by the Department of Commerce and Labor that more money is being taken South for investment in factories than to the New England States. Four times as much capital has been invested in the Southern States since 1900 as in New England.

MR. EMERY drops to rather a low political level for a professed reformer when he, of his own accord, seeks to carry the idea that churches and breweries are of such a kindred nature that one ought to be supported just as much as the other. We do not believe that any such position will appeal to the thoughtful, sober sense of any citizen. Surely not.

HERE is the dilemma which the Prohibitionists are facing: "Shall they unite for the promotion of prohibition, or shall they get together for promotion of the Democratic party, whose candidates stand upon a platform which has no mention of Prohibition principles in it? It is merely a question of holding to or cutting loose from principle, that's all.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

WHEN candidate Emery put the churches, the hospitals and the breweries in the same category, expressing an impartial willingness to help one and all, he exhibited a cosmopolitan spirit, certainly. But he no less surely displayed a lack of moral discrimination which will cost him the votes of some thousands of good people who were only the other day disposed to support him.—Altoona Tribune.

SAYS Dr. Swallow to Mr. Emery, "I am as much opposed to the Standard Oil Company's methods as you are, and wish to assure you that in fighting them I have never and never will build a succession of oil refineries and sell them out to the Standard at ten times their value and fight them only when they refused to buy another." The Philadelphia Inquirer wonders what Dr. Swallow could possibly mean by this.

Some of the leading newspapers of New York and Philadelphia have been engaged for the past two weeks in discussing the very momentous and absolutely pertinent question "Can a chipmunk climb a tree?" Hundreds of persons, including some eminent zoologists, have given their views on the subject, and the consensus of opinion is that a chipmunk can climb a tree if it wants to, but has no particular yearning for the arboreal life. All of which is very gratifying.—Punchy Spirit. Likewise ponderously important.

JULIUS SIMMS, once a trusted clerk of Abraham Lincoln, pleaded with Justice O'Neal the other day not to be sent to the workhouse as a habitual drunkard. Simms, who is seventy years old, once associated on terms of mutual respect with many of the nation's greatest men. On the very morning of Lincoln's assassination he dictated several letters to Simms. Judge O'Neal sentenced the man to two weeks' imprisonment but recommended that he be given hospital treatment in view of the fact that Simms was on the verge of delirium tremens.

THE gall of that man Emery is something awful. In his letter of acceptance he attempts to throw a little sop to decent Republicans by the expression "Theodore Roosevelt, the incarnation of moral backbone, leads the way," a fact which every honest American citizen is aware of, and yet this demagogue candidate accepts a nomination by a party which declares in its platform "that the only prominence which the present Republican administration has attained has been achieved by a feeble and pretended application of the principles enunciated by Hon. William Jennings Bryan, the great Democratic commoner, who is now regarded as the certain successor of Theodore Roosevelt to the presidency." Is it possible that any man who is an admirer of the President can cast a vote for such a demagogue?

Fusion Is Dangerous. The Lincolnite Philadelphia Press objects to fusion on congressional candidates. On the subject it says:

That there is certain to be some falling off in the Republican vote this year is all the more reason why there should be unity and hearty co-operation among Republicans in the election of congressmen. It is there that the issues which distinguish the national parties are vital. Those who believe in protection to home industries and who wish to sustain President Roosevelt in his energetic reforming administration, and believe in the policies that the Republican party stands for, will vote for Republican congressmen in November, however they divide on the issues and candidates of county and state.

The Scranton Tribune believes that the above is pleasing evidence that the Press is beginning to realize the gravity of the situation in Pennsylvania. Last fall, when many good Republicans were falling into line to assist in the aggrandizement of "Liddifer" Berry, the tools of Democracy loudly proclaimed upon every occasion that the movement would have no effect on national politics. That the only object of the people interested in the success of Berry was the purification of Pennsylvania politics and the rescue of the state treasury, which, according to allegations of the reformers, had been turned over to looters.

The well known fact that Berry found the state treasury full of money and everything about the department in condition that made criticism of Republican management impossible, has proved that the object of the Democrats who had succeeded in hoodwinking so many Republican voters was not the purification of Pennsylvania. It is now plain to many who could not see it last November that the goal of the free traders was, and still is, the national government.

With the success of Berry as the entering wedge, followed up by the capture of the gubernatorial chair of Pennsylvania, the Democratic leaders hope to elect a president in 1908 and secure control of the house of representatives.

It will be noted that the wily captains of calamity are seeking fusion only on the head of the ticket. It has been announced that the Lincoln and Democratic state committee have "decided not to fuse on Congressmen." The Democratic leaders well know that the fate of any political ticket generally depends upon the success of the head. They know that if they can defeat the Republican candidate for governor they are almost certain to capture the Pennsylvania congressional delegation.

In view of these facts, it seems strange that any Republican can be persuaded to take the chance of casting a politically mixed ballot.

Let those who believe in the policies the Republican party stands for, vote the straight ticket from top to bottom.

Sigol Oil Field Booming.

The operators in the Sigol oil field met with very good success during the past week. The South Penn Oil Company brought in another producing well on the Mary Ellen Caldwell farm that is reported to be a hummer, having a daily production of about sixty barrels of oil. The Winlock Oil Co. also brought in another good well on the Winlock farm, the daily output of which is placed at forty barrels. The Jefferson Gas Co., reported in this paper recently as having obtained a good show of oil in their well on the Charles Songer lease, but were going to drill deeper and test the lower sand, struck the sand the latter part of last week and brought in a gas producing well with a daily capacity of over one million feet. Quite a number of additional wells are going down in various sections of the field, and the prospects are quite good for extending the producing territory much beyond its present limits.—Brookville Republican.

There is more Calarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven otherwise to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Calarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Such a man will appreciate any kind of home cooking. -The intense itching characteristic of salt rheum and eczema is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve. As a cure for skin diseases this salve is unequaled. For sale by Dunn & Fulton. -Some women look upon husbands as a money-earning convenience rather than as a domestic necessity. -San-Cura Ointment is perfectly harmless and is a great aid in preventing scabs. San-Cura Ointment cures cuts, burns, bruises, boils, carbuncles, piles, old sores, pimples and eczema. 25c and 50c at Dunn & Fulton's.

"Make Hay While the Sun Shines." There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are liable to follow. So it should be with every household, dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

An Ohio Lady Pleased. A prominent lady of Geneva, Ohio, says Crocker's Rheumatic Cure is all right. Under date of Jan. 5, 1906, she says: "This is to certify that I have had rheumatism more or less all my life, and have taken only one and a half 50 cent bottles of Crocker's Rheumatic Cure and have been very much benefited by it. Mrs. ORA PATCH. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Summer Diarrhoea in Children. During the hot weather of the summer months the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention, so as to check the disease before it becomes serious. All that is necessary is a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by a dose of castor oil to cleanse the system. Rev. M. O. Stockland, Pastor of the First M. E. Church, Little Falls, Minn., writes: "We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years and find it a very valuable remedy, especially for summer diarrhoea in children." Sold by Dunn & Fulton.

Siam's Royal City. Perhaps the queerest city in the world is that of Nang Harm, the home of the royal family of Siam. This city's peculiarity lies in the fact that it is composed of women and children alone. It is in the center of Bangkok, has high walls around it, and in its population of 9,000 there is not a single man, though the king occasionally pays a visit. The name "Nang Harm" means "reiled woman." There are shops, markets, temples, theaters, streets and avenues, parks, lakes, trees and flower gardens, a hall of justice, judges, executioner, police, generals and soldiers, all the positions, official and otherwise, being filled by women. The only man in all Siam who can enter this city is the king. It is the home of his family and of the family of the king before him. The ruler of Siam may have as many wives as he pleases. Each wife has her own children and slaves—therefore a small city is needed to provide accommodation for them all.
