Randazzo Says Three Men Entered His Saloon While He Was Alone and Demanded Money-He Secured His Revolver and Fired Straight at One of Them-The Others Fled.

Rochester, Aug. 14.—Three unknown men entered the saloon of Frank Randazzo, State and Smith streets, and de manded $250. They drew guns to emphasize their demand, but Randazzo fired first, killing one of the robbers. The other two fled.

According to the statement made to the police by Randazzo three men en tered the saloon while he was alone One of them stepped up to the bar and demanded $250 in cash at once, under penalty of death by the Black Hand.

Randazzo said he opened the money drawer, but instead of taking out any money he secured his revolver and fired straight at the man who had made the demand. The man was killed instantly, the bullet taking effect in the heart. The other two men ran out of the place and escaped.

It was found that the dead man was Lelajoyine D'Come of this city. Randazzo was taken into custody by the

REWARD FOR STENSLAND.

The Falled Chicago Bank Now Has Two Receivers

Chicago, Aug. 14.-Banks of the Chicago Clearing House association have offered a reward of $5,000 for the ap prehension of Paul C. Stensland, fugitive president of the Milwankee Avenue bank. Vice President Theodore Stensland of the failed bank said he believed that his father was dead.

The failed bank now has two re ceivers. Judge Gibbons in the circuit court yesterday appointed the Chicago Title and Trust company receiver on petition of a creditor.

A demand was then made on John C. Fetzer, who was appointed receiver of the bank by Judge Brentano, in the superior court last week, that he turn over all books and papers to the new receiver. Attorneys for Receiver Fetzer advised him to refuse the request and a contest may follow.

Stepped In Front of a Freight Train.

Schenectady, Aug. 14.-C. E. Willlams of Utica, foreman of the signal corps at Tower No. 9 on the New York Central railroad in Glenville, was hit and instantly killed near his post by a freight engine running at a high rate of speed. Williams stepped out of the way of a passenger train directly in front of a freight coming behind him. Coroner Dettbarn was notified and the body brought to this city, where it was taken charge of by the dead man's mother and sister, who came here from Utica for the body.
