ASSASSINATED BY REDS.

General Min, Tyrant of Moscow, Shot by a Young Girl.

Thirty-Two Deaths From Bomb Explosion at Premier's House—The Cuban Rebellion—New York Wheat Crop.

General Min, commander of the Seminovsky Guard regiment, who suppressed the riots at Moscow last December, was assassinated at Peterhof Sunday night.

General Min was at the railway station with his family when he was killed. The deed was committed by a young girl, who fired five shots from a revolver into his back, killing him instantly.

Madame Min seized the assassin by the hand and held her until the police arrived. After her arrest the girl showed the police a bomb lying in the station, telling them to beware.

To the police the girl acknowledged that she had done the deed, saying that she had executed the sentence of the fighting organization of the Social revolutionists, but she refused to give her name.

The young daughter of Premier Stolypin who was injured by the bomb explosion in the premier's summer home at Peterhof Saturday and who was erroneously reported to have died, is still alive and passed a quiet night under the effects of an opiate.

The premier's son, who also was hurt, is better today.

Two more persons injured by the explosion died during the night, bringing the total number of deaths up to 32.

One of the most painful features of the tragedy was the delay in securing medical aid for the injured, as over an hour elapsed before an ambulance arrived.

M. Stolypin's one thought was for his daughter, and he kept exclaiming, "For God's sake, fetch a doctor. Oh, my poor girl."

It was fully half an hour before the beginning was made to systematically clear the wreckage, during which the injured suffered agonies. At dusk torches were lighted and by the fitful light from these the work was continued and the walls were shored up with strong beams.

Insurgent Forces Well Supplied. The town of San Juan de Martinez in Cuba, which on Thursday was occupied by a band of insurgents under the command of Pino Guerra, again is in possession of the constituted forces of the republic.

At 5:30 o'clock Friday evening the troops under command of Colonel Baccalao and Avalo arrived there from Pinar del Rio, but news of their coming and preceded them by several hours and by noon the last of Guerra's men had left, taking with them all the horses they could gather.

Unofficial advice received at Havana from the western part of the province of Pinar del Rio are to the effect that the insurgent forces now concentrating west of San Juan de Martinez are far more formidable than had been supposed and also are better supplied for camping and a long campaign.

STANDARD OIL INDICTED

Federal Grand Jury at Chicago Returns 10 Indictments.

District Attorney Says Penalty For Each Offense Alleged is a Fine of Not Less Than $1,000 Nor More Than $20,000—There Are 6,428 Counts in the 10 Indictments.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—The first and second federal grand juries returned 10 indictments against the Standard Oil company before Judge Bethes in the United States circuit court. The indictments which contain 6,428 counts are all in connection with the granting of rebates.

Each of the 6,428 counts in the 10 indictments covers an alleged offense and is based on a tank car shipment of petroleum products from the refineries at Whiting, Ind.

These shipments, it is stated, were carried by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, Chicago & Alton, Chicago & Eastern Illinois, Evansville & Terre Haute, Illinois Central, Southern and Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railroads.

According to a statement by the district attorney the Burlington & Alton roads "had published lawful rates of 18 cents per 100 pounds to East St. Louis from Whiting and 19 1/2 cents to St. Louis, but carried oil for the Standard Oil company on a secret unpublished rate at 6 and 7 1/2 cents to those points respectively."

The statement then continues: "On shipments to points in the South beyond Grand Junction the Standard Oil company should have paid the different lawful rates for the different points of destination, but was given concessions which averaged about 27 1/2 per cent of the published rate. The same is true of shipments handled by the Chicago & Eastern Illinois and Evansville & Terre Haute to Evansville, Ind., and points beyond."

"The concessions given to Standard Oil company by the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern road were in the shape of cancellations of storage charges at Chicago of 5 cents per ton per day on all oil delayed in delivery. Other oil shippers were compelled to pay the storage charges."

"The charges against the Illinois Central and Southern railroads are the same as those in relation to the shipments made to points beyond Grand Junction."

It was declared by the district attorney's office that the penalty for each offense alleged in the indictments is a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $20,000. It is believed by the government attorneys that the lawyers for the Standard Oil company will enter the appearance of the corporation in court as soon as they have examined the indictments. There is no authority at present allowing the arrest of the officers of a corporation against which indictments have been found.

NEW CONTROVERSY STIRS ARMY. Greely-Funston Dispute Rival For the Sampson-Schley Mix-Up.

Los Angeles, Aug. 28.—Another Sampson-Schley controversy is likely to grow out of the criticisms by Major General Funston, growing out of the conflict in orders during the days following the earthquake in San Francisco. Lieutenant General Adna R. Chaffee, who lives here, gave out the following interview: "Fortunately there are few officers with General Greely's propensity for fingering into matters that would better be left alone. When I mapped out the present scheme of military divisions and departments in 1905 it was at Secretary Root's request and the result met his approval."

"There is not the slightest reason why there should be an embarrassing conflict of duties, unless one or the other has a tendency to mix in business his own. In the San Francisco disaster the respective duties of Generals Funston and Greely were clear. As General Greely was absent when the trouble occurred, Funston was, of course, in supreme command. And I know that he was quite competent to carry that responsibility."

TO UNVEIL M'KINLEY SHAFT.

Congressman Longworth Denies His Wife is to Assist Him in Canvass For Re-Election.

Cincinnati, Aug. 24.—"Yes, Mrs. Longworth will unveil the Ohio monument to William McKinley at Columbus Sept. 14 next," said Congressman Nicholas Longworth. "I thought it eminently appropriate for her to do so, considering the association of President McKinley and her father and in view of the manner of her father's succession to the presidency."

"What part will Mrs. Longworth take in your campaign for re-election to congress?" was asked. "She will not take part. That is settled absolutely," Mr. Longworth began.

"But for a noble, wife woman, a Roosevelt, to remain inactive—the correspondent ventured. "Far from being displeased Mr. Longworth smiled and said: "The story that I have engaged rooms for my wife, myself and many friends at the state convention in Dayton is not true. I do not think I shall attend, and certainly Mrs. Longworth will not."

"Regarding the so-called Cleveland picnic, at which it has been stated Mrs. Longworth is to start her campaigning for me, she was not even invited to be there. I was asked to attend and speak at the reunion of the Cuyahoga county Republican clubs, but found that I could not do so because other matters intervene. So I have declined the invitation."

So it is determined that Mrs. Longworth will not follow the example of many American women in England who welcomed her recently and who take a most active part in politics and campaign for their husbands.

Sold Lawn Mower For 30 Cents. Pittsburg, Aug. 24.—Thomas Conroy, well known about the East End, made a $14 lawn mower look like 30 cents. At least that is what he realized from the sale of it to a second hand dealer on Frankstown avenue, and as a result he is locked up in the East End police station.

The mower belongs to Charles Barberi of Torrance street, who is a landscaper gardener. He had left the machine on the sidewalk in front of a Frankstown avenue store while he made some purchases. On returning his mower was gone.

Officer William Jones located and arrested Conroy. He acknowledged selling the mower for the amount, and said he needed a drink.

Fears Son Will Whip Spouse. Cleveland, Aug. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Letzkowicz began their married life with a shadow threatening their future happiness. The bride, who was Mrs. Lias, visited the probation officer yesterday and said: "You remember my boy Charley, him you sent to Lancaster?" "Oh, the little fellow, 16 years old. Not in trouble again?" "No; not yet, anyway," said the woman; "but he's likely to be. So I want him enjoined. I want him enjoined from whipping my husband." The bride was referred to the court of common pleas.

Teacher Died of Fright. Zanesville, O., Aug. 27.—After escaping unhurt from a runaway Mass May Pollock, a high school teacher of New Concord, died from the effects of the fright. She was driving with Miss Mary Moore when the horse ran away. Miss Pollock jumped out and did not receive a scratch. A moment later she saw the vehicle dash against a wagon at the foot of the hill. She fell in a swoon and died three hours later. Miss Moore was unhurt.

Decline $100 Reward. West Newton, Pa., Aug. 25.—George Sherrow and Harry Rhoades, who recovered the body of little Clarence Howell of Greensburg from Big Sewickley creek, have generously refused to accept the reward of $100 offered by the parents. Howell is by no means in affluent circumstances, and the men preferred their important service to be considered as evidence of sympathy with the father.

Hazing Makes Soldier Insane. Canal Dover, O., Aug. 25.—As the result of hazing by several of his comrades during the Ohio National Guard maneuvers last week, George Grover of the Second regiment became demented and was found yesterday in the woods near Massillon. He was nearly exhausted from hunger and exposure, having wandered 20 miles from where he disappeared last Monday.

Canvilleville, Aug. 24.—Brooks, 11 years old, and Eunice, 8 years old, children of John Sutter of Lower Tyrone township, were savagely attacked by the family dog and severely bitten. The brute had gone mad. The children were sent to Pittsburg to receive Pasteur treatment.

JOHN KING FOR THE SIMPLE LIFE.

Less Strenuous Existence.

Cleveland, Aug. 28.—John D. Rockefeller has come out as an exponent of the simple life. In a 20-minute conversation Sunday with a newspaper correspondent he discussed a variety of topics, among them being newspapers and the mode of living, and joked about the heat.

Although the morning was one of the hottest of the season, Mr. Rockefeller did not show any effects from the heat. Daily practice on his golf links has hardened him, and he can endure the sun as well as a man many years his junior. He chatted freely with the reporter, delaying the Sunday school and detaining a room full of people waiting to shake his hand.

"This is really one of the warmest days of the year, isn't it?" he remarked. "I shall have to put more tubing in the upper end of my thermometer at Forest Hill. I suppose the heat of today will be reflected in the headlines of the papers on the morrow," and his smile broadened as he chuckled over his little joke.

His conversation showed that he is familiar with the newspapers of New York. He inquired as to their stand on the personality of their editors and discussed their policies. He said that the rapid life the Americans are leading was reflected in the New York papers.

"We are leading an awfully fast life in this country. It is simply rash, rush along. The newspapers for the most part keep abreast of the times. They show the life of their readers. People live too fast. Their life is accelerated by the headlines, the concentrated excitement all bound up in a few words. People see the big lines, rush to read the paper, rush off again to read some other paper as they rush to a fire. It is rush, rush all the time."

Mr. Rockefeller made it plain that his ideas regarding newspapers did not run toward the big headlines.

Confessed Murder of Her Daughter. Binghamton, Aug. 28.—Nine years ago Mrs. John Coleman, so she claims, murdered her 2-year-old daughter in Towanda, Pa. For nine years she kept the secret to herself. She has been a wanderer and an outcast, pursued wherever she went by the thought of her crime. Two months ago she was sent to the Penticostal Rescue mission by Recorder Roberts. Last Thursday during the revival camp meeting at Fort Dickinson she made a public confession of her alleged crime. The local authorities have notified the Towanda police.

Instituted a drum head court martial, put to death three revolutionists and flogged many peasants with whips. A fine of $1,500 was imposed on the two communes involved.
