ROOSEVELT IS ALERT

President Keenly Interested in Political Situation in Pennsylvania.

WANTS BIG REPUBLICAN VICTORY

His Visit to the York County Fair Will Not Be Simply to See the Prize Cattle.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, Aug. 28.

"President Roosevelt is not going to the York county fair simply to see the prize bulls, you can depend upon that," remarked a well-informed Washington correspondent a few days ago in discussing the president's anticipated visit to Pennsylvania next month. This newspaper man is in touch with members of the cabinet and other leading officials of the national administration, and he knows the keen interest the president and all of those associated with him are manifesting in the coming election.

While it is possible that at the dedication of the new capitol building here the president may not touch upon politics, there is reason to believe that in his remarks subsequently at the York county fair he will make clear his desire for the election of a Republican congress.

It is known that the president has made a number of inquiries regarding political conditions in Pennsylvania, and he has on more than one occasion expressed an earnest wish for the success of the Republican party in this state this fall.

President Roosevelt has taken advantage of several opportunities recently to arouse interest in the Republican cause.

Mr. Roosevelt's Dollar.

Anent his subscription to the Republican congressional committee's campaign fund, Editor Earle C. Tuten, of the Bellefonte Republican, has this to say about "Mr. Roosevelt's dollar":

"One of the first to heed the call of the chairman of the Republican campaign committee for one dollar contributions to the campaign fund is President Roosevelt. The president believes in the virtue of example and gives his dollar early with an implied injunction to all Republicans who share with him a true spirit of loyalty to party principle to go and do likewise. Undoubtedly the president's example will bear fruit. Its special value consists in the fact that every public act of the chief executive of the nation commands the attention of the whole people, and that accordingly his recognition of the dollar a head idea will bring the merit thereof home to hundreds of thousands of citizens who otherwise might let it pass unnoticed."

He Leads the Way.

"Naturally this simple device commends itself to the president because of the conditions which have made it necessary. In former times the great corporations were the chief donors of campaign funds, and very little money was obtained from the privates in the ranks of the political parties. Largely through Mr. Roosevelt's instrumentality, a death blow has been dealt to the practice of collecting funds from such sources.

"Henceforward, therefore, the campaign committee of all parties must look to individuals for the wherewithal to meet the heavy cost of campaigning. There should be no difficulty on this head if it is only possible to enlist individual attention and to inspire generally an adequate sense of partisan obligation. It is this that Mr. Roosevelt has in mind, and he has taken the one method of emphasizing his views where good results are sure to be achieved."

A State Dollar Fund.

Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, of the Republican state committee, has followed the lead of Chairman Sherman, of the congressional committee, and is soliciting one dollar subscriptions to the state campaign fund. The radical anti-corporation declarations made in the Republican platform in Pennsylvania, coupled with the knowledge that Edwin S. Stuart as governor will see that all the party pledges are carried out, will without doubt deter many capitalists from contributing to the Pennsylvania Republican state committee this year.

But this is to be "a people's battle," and the dollars of the people will bring returns in a triumphant Republican victory.

Fortunately, the Republican party has cleaned its household and has placed itself in the van of reform legislation, thus giving no valid excuse for any Republican to desert the Republican ranks. If Emery stands for a principle, Stuart likewise stands for it, and Stuart, furthermore, has the advantage of representing the Republicanism of Theodore Roosevelt.

Common sense is going to win the coming battle in Pennsylvania, not hysteria, and when the people begin to see, as they will, that Stuart is a Republican who owes allegiance only to that which is best in Republicanism and not to individuals, that he is a Republican who stands shoulder to shoulder with Roosevelt for the Square Deal, they will discover only danger in the movement for Emery.

Each side of the house is subject to peculiar weather conditions of its own.

But no matter how trying the north winds of winter or the summer sun on the south side, all sides are equally protected if painted with Lucas Paints—they cover so thoroughly and last so long.

Many letters come to us like this: "One reason we are giving you this order is that the writer painted his residence with your paint 25 years ago, and it is better preserved than a good many houses in the neighborhood that were painted much later."
