Republican Ticket.

- STATE: Governor, EDWIN S. STUART; Lieutenant Governor, ROBERT S. MURPHY; Auditor General, ROBERT K. YOUNG; Secretary of Internal Affairs, HENRY HOUCK. COUNTY: Congress, Hon. N. P. WHEELER; Assembly, T. D. COLLINS; District Attorney, A. C. BROWN; Coroner, DR. C. Y. DETAR.

Hon. Nelson P. Wheeler. Of this excellent candidate the Sharon Telegraph makes the following truthful comment editorially:

"In this edition of the Telegraph appears an excellent picture of Nelson P. Wheeler, of Endeavor, Pa., the Republican candidate for congressman in this district, who will undoubtedly be elected at the November election. Mr. Wheeler is a lumberman in business and has really built the little town of Endeavor, for it is mostly populated by his workmen, and they enjoy many benefits through his benevolence. He has erected a church, engaged a preacher, whom he pays his salary out of his own pocket, while Mrs. Wheeler manages a free kindergarten for the children of the workmen. It is needless to say that his men idolize him, and the people of his county, Forest, all respect him. He is an independent man, and is bound by no clique in a political way, and made no promises, neither does he expect to in regard to his course in congress, excepting the one that he has made to the people of this district to give them a representation in congress to the best of his ability. The people of the entire district will take pleasure in voting for him, and it is believed that he will secure a very large majority. There is no reason whatever why every Republican in the district should not vote for him, and although there was some little talk about a fusion candidate it is believed that the people are satisfied with Mr. Wheeler, and that no such movement will be made. At least there should be none."

A vote for Emery is just as much an endorsement of his brewery ideas as for his church and school notions. If you want the mixture give Lew a boost.

WHAT wouldn't the fusionists give to be able to recall the Likins letter? The point where their candidate hit the toboggan slide is pretty well marked by the date of its publication.

Once again Mr. "Lidifter" Berry—what did you find under that state treasury lid? You fooled the people once and got into a nice fat office. Do you think you can do as much for your friend Emery?

In view of the terrible affair at Florence mine, near Punxsutawney, on Sunday evening last, in which three members of the State constabulary were foully murdered by a gang of Italian rioters, what will candidate Emery have to say of the platform upon which he asks the voters to elect him as a reform governor, and which condemns the act establishing a state police department and promises its repeal if placed in power? Does Mr. Emery endorse that platform or does he endorse the murder of these officials while in the discharge of their duties, by lawless foreigners and Black Hand fiends? Speak out Mr. Emery. Where do you stand on this question?

Of the notification blowout at Pittsburg last week the Dispatch of that city, which has strong independent leaning, and has heretofore given the state fusion arrangement its support says: "Mr. Emery's attitude in opposition to pipe line and railroad control in Pennsylvania is to be commended, also the fact that he is an exponent of the policy of government regulation of corporations and their abuse. Regret must, however, be expressed that he failed to put himself on record as to the Bryan and State police planks in the Democratic platform. The public expected him to make his position clear on these issues, and for that reason his speech will be disappointing and unsatisfactory to many. In this campaign the candidates must come out and meet all issues fairly and squarely."

A MAN who professes belief in the reform movement in Pennsylvania; who occupies large space in denouncing the operations of "the gang" who issues a clarion call to the good and the upright of this commonwealth to go forth and battle "for their rights," and then announces that personally he would support churches, schools and breweries with equal fervor, is not possessed of the qualities that would make a good governor. Pennsylvania reform, now well under way as the result of work done by the special session of the legislature, includes personal, private and public morality. It will severely appeal to the average man of a home and family that Mr. Emery's announced support of the liquor interests is in the line of reform. The church going people of Pennsylvania will defeat Mr. Emery at the polls in November. If they do not it will be a sad commentary upon their common sense and their profession.—Titusville Herald.

Emery Under Hot Fire.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, September 4. At the very outset of his campaign Lewis Emery, Jr., the Democratic-Lincolnton candidate for governor, has been put upon the defensive.

He has been subjected to a fierce fire from the batteries of the Prohibitionists, who twice turned him down when he sought the nomination of their party for governor.

Homer L. Castle, who was ultimately named for governor by the Prohibitionists, and Dr. Silas C. Swallow, the Prohibition state leader, have each made damaging and serious charges against Emery, to which he must make reply.

In his speech of acceptance in Pittsburgh, Mr. Castle, in referring to Emery, among other things said:

"It was utterly impossible for us to support Senator Emery for at least the following reasons:

"He is merely the representative of one discredited Republican machine which is seeking to overthrow another Republican machine, and so far as I can see the one machine is as bad as the other, either way you take it.

"In the courts of Philadelphia county, confirmed by the supreme court, Lewis Emery, Jr., trading as the Lewis Emery Oil company, has been found guilty of practicing such frauds in the stamping of oils, both on state officers and the public, as would shatter any man's faith in his business integrity.

"He has never in all his life, until now, exhibited any antagonism to trusts and combines, except as a business rival, and upon the contrary, by his own admission, he is a member of the Brewery trust, which is worse than the Beef or Oil trust, and he is the head of an oil trust which, if possible, is worse in character, which lacks only opportunity to be as bad in practice as the Standard Oil company.

"He is affiliated in a business way with Durham-McNichol & Mack, whom he assumes to fight, and we have never yet been shown where these men paid one dollar for their stock or been told what was the consideration which passed them, in 1901, these political manipulators, then in the height of power, became interested in the Pure Oil company. And we want to be told what relation this stock had to the New Jersey pipe line bill and the withdrawal of Standard Oil opposition.

"He has insulted the church. He has shown that he has no higher regard for her than he has for a brewery."

Called a Fake Reformer. In addressing the Grangers at their Williams Grove picnic last week, Dr. Swallow gave a review of the proceedings before the common pleas and supreme courts in the case against the Emery Oil company, and made these declarations:

"The contention of the Prohibitionists in this campaign is that having fought the Republican Machine for many years, and being still in the fight against it we are unwilling that there should be foisted onto the people of Pennsylvania as governor a fake reformer; a counterfeiter; one whose reform is only to the furtherance of his own business interests; one who employs in his oil business the very methods he is condemning in the Standard Oil company; one who, if the testimony of nearly a dozen responsible men and the decision of two courts is accepted as evidence, is president of a company bearing his name, which has been guilty of forgery, fraud and perjury.

"The election of such a reformer would be a step backward and would retard for a decade the movements inaugurated by the Prohibition party, and by it partially carried to a successful consummation. We are unwilling as a party to have our work for reform thus sidetracked and despoiled by a pretender and hence our protest."

Base Ball.

YANIGANS 7, WARREN Y. M. C. A. 3. The Yanigans, Tionesta's second team, took the Warren Y. M. C. A. team into camp here last Wednesday afternoon in a game that was rather loosely played on both sides. Both teams were weak at the last. The home boys started out as though they would present the visitors the game on misplays, but they took a brace and won out handily. Both pitchers did good work. Score by innings:

R H E Tionesta.....1 0 3 0 0 2 0 1 * - 7 4 3 Warren.....0 0 2 0 0 1 0 0 - 3 7 3 Batteries—Stroup and Foreman, Klepfer and Eysinger. Earned run, Tionesta 1; struck out, by Stroup 9, by Klepfer 17; base on balls, off Stroup 2, off Klepfer 6. Umpire, E. W. Bowman.

YANIGANS 2, VENUS 1.

On Thursday the Yanigans went out to attend the second annual picnic of the Venus Harvest Home Association and while there defeated the team representing that place in a fast and exciting game. About 1,000 people were on the grounds. The boys report that they were treated royally. This makes four victories for the Yanigans and no defeats. Score by innings:

R H E Tionesta.....0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 - 2 9 3 Venus.....0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 - 1 4 5 Batteries—Hastel, Stroup and Foreman, Ditz and Ditz. Umpire, Green.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best. —The great claim for that splendid remedy, Thompson's Barosma, Kidney, Liver and Bladder Cure is that it makes a decided and lasting cure and is perfectly harmless. 50c and $1.00. A Peculiar Cattle Disease.

Charles Birtzell, a prominent farmer and oil producer of Pithole, was in Oil City Saturday to consult with local veterinarians regarding a peculiar fatality that has attacked his cattle, and which caused death in an hour after the first symptoms were noted. Mr. Birtzell lost six head of valuable cows in that many days, two deaths occurring in one day. The disease attacked the throat, the inside of which turned black, the throat became greatly inflamed and swollen, and the cows drooled and frothed at the mouth.

A Titusville veterinarian, who was first consulted, stated that unless the disease was hydrophobia he could not tell what it was. The repugnance to water, frothing at the mouth, and other symptoms of the rabies were present in the cases of the cattle affected, but there was an absence of the mad rage and desire to attack that are so characteristic of clearly defined cases of hydrophobia. Dr. Johnson, of Franklin, state veterinarian, has been notified and will make a careful personal examination of the dead bodies and attempt to diagnose the disease.

Pain from a Burn Promptly Relieved by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

A little child of Michael Strauss, of Verona, Conn., was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold application only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to Mr. James N. THE PARLIAMENTARY WHIP.

It is an Important Official and Gets a Good Salary.

When private affairs or other matters make it impossible for our lawmakers to attend to their duties in house or senate a "pair" is made out with a member of the opposition and filed with the clerk. This acts to preserve the balance of the majority, since one vote from each side is taken away. The matter is entirely one of personal arrangement, and the clerk's only duty is to record the fact.

In parliament there is an official to prepare these pairs and to act as "whip" for his party, the place carrying with it a salary of $10,000 as parliamentary secretary.

The parliamentary whip is something more than an arranger of pairs, however, for his chief duty lies in seeing that all members of his party are present when there is likely to be a need of their vote, and for this purpose he sends out through his assistants notices in which the importance of the events to come is shown by the number of the underscored lines used.

A one line whip, wherein the subject of the debate and other information are underscored but once, is not regarded as being particularly pressing, but a two line whip commands attention, and a three line whip means that the recipient who absents himself is liable to find himself in disfavor with his party. Four lines are used only in announcing great events, and no one who receives the occasional five line whip would think of remaining away unless ill in bed.

In parliament pairing is a matter arranged by the whips of the opposing parties and not by those who seek to escape their duties. At times there are humorous mistakes made as each seeks to pair off some one who would in any event remain away. The most notable case was one wherein a man abed with a broken leg was paired with a member who had just died, each whip gloating over his cleverness until the facts came to light.

WINDS AND DRAFTS.

The Former Are Beneficial, but the Latter Are Dangerous.

By a draft is meant the currents of air in an inclosed space. Our forefathers attributed nearly all the evils that beget them to drafts, and they would not have slept in uncurtained beds for anything. Of course their windows and doors were shaky, and houses stood far apart, so drafts were nearly inevitable. But the modern scientific world tries to deny drafts altogether and calls them winds, which are harmless and even healthy to a certain degree.

Any one who cares to find out the difference between a wind and a draft can do so in any apartment which has windows on different sides of the house. Let him open a window on a windy day on the side of the house toward which the wind blows. The air which comes in is quite harmless if the person exposed to it is dressed in warm clothes, and little children may take the air in a room thus ventilated. But let him open a window past which the wind blows, and it will be found that the air in the room is moved by a number of currents, all of which strive to reach the opening. It is the passing wind which sucks up the air in the room and draws it out, and this causes the room to have what is called a draft.

The effect upon sensitive persons is immediately felt like the forerunner of pain to come. A draft will always be felt as colder than the wind. Very dangerous drafts are those that are produced in railway cars by the rapid motion of the train. It is not wind that gets into the carriages, but the air of the car which is sucked out. A lighted match held to the chink of the window will prove this, as the flame will be drawn toward the window, not blown from it.
