REFORMERS NO MORE

Men Who Wanted Berry Elected to "Lift the Lid" Now Under Cover.

JAIL GATES AJAR FOR SOME

Emercy Gubernatorial Movement Loses Some "Heavy Contributors" and Hot Campaign Orators.

[Special Correspondence.] Philadelphia, September 11.

A severe blow was given to the men engaged in the campaign of false pretense which has been waged against the Republican party in Pennsylvania for the last few years by the revelations growing out of the disastrous failure of the Real Estate Trust company of this city.

It has developed that some of the heaviest contributors to the campaign funds that have been used to defeat Republican nominees and to promote the so-called cause of "civic righteousness" have been criminally responsible for the failure of this trust company, some of them have actually looted the institution, and there is reason to believe that part of the funds belonging to the depositors which were thus stolen were turned over as subscriptions to the Lincoln and the City Party treasurers.

During the recent political revolution in this city, members of the board of directors of this trust company were the most blatant orators among the "reformers."

They misrepresented the condition of the state treasury and would have every one believe that the commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the city of Philadelphia were being robbed right and left, that the taxpayers' money was being squandered, and that "the lid" must be lifted at Harrisburg so that all the rascality which they alleged existed in the management of the state treasury could be exposed forthwith.

And Berry "Lifted the Lid."

They demanded the election of William H. Berry, a Democrat, to the state treasury, just as prior to the closing of the trust company, they were insisting upon the election of Lewis Emery, Jr., to the governorship, along with his three Bryanite Democratic colleagues, who make up the state ticket.

These "reform" leaders believed that they could continue to fool the people despite the fact that Berry was elected state treasurer and Berry had "lifted the lid" at Harrisburg.

In the lifting of "the lid" Berry showed that the so-called reformers lied when they said the state treasury had been mismanaged and that the funds of the people had not been safeguarded under Republican rule.

Berry has been in office since the first Monday in May last, and his official reports as to what he discovered regarding the finances of the state are the best testimonials that can be presented regarding the Republican administration of the affairs of the state treasury.

When Mr. Berry took the oath of office he recited for the money in the treasury and he made public the fact that he found on hand $1,000,000.

Every penny of the people's money was found and accounted for in the state treasury, and Berry and his co-campaigners in the recent political battles in this state have been silenced upon that issue.

At no time within the history of the commonwealth have the finances of the state been in such good shape. At the end of the fiscal year, November 30, 1905, there was a balance in the sinking fund of $3,600,575.60, and in the general fund $8,927,950.79, making a total of $12,528,526.39. The total outstanding indebtedness on that date was $1,131,567.02. Deducting from this the assets of the sinking fund, the net state debt is found to be $122,958.09, considerably less than two cents per capita.

No other state in the union can make such a splendid showing.

But the Real Estate Trust company's directors, who so loudly demanded the election of Berry as state treasurer and who, until the cash came, were just as insistent upon the election of Emery to the governorship, have been removed from the political arena.

One of them, the president of the company, a pronounced Lincoln party man, blew out his brains when he found that discovery of his hypocrisy and iniquity was inevitable.

Others of his board of directors have been summoned to reveal the details of a damnable conspiracy through which the trust company was looted of over $7,000,000.

Some of them may yet find themselves before the criminal courts to answer to a outraged people.

John H. Converse, upon whose name so many depositors banked so largely owing his connections with religious and reform organizations, has disclaimed any knowledge of the criminal conduct of officials of the trust company. He has not, however, succeeded in satisfying the people who lost their money that he was loyal to their interests. Instead of protecting their deposits, he was engaged in promoting so-called reform campaigns, espousing the cause of men like Berry and Emery, serving on the "advisory board" of Mayor Weaver, sending big checks to the City Party campaign, big checks to his meetings, denouncing public officials and invariably making Republicans the objects of his attacks.

Another of these directors of this trust company, J. Bayard Henry, has been a conspicuous member of the Lincoln party. He was proposed for the nomination of lieutenant governor, but
