Pumpkins, too, are not a bad crop this year, and the reason we know is that Jacob Bush, of German Hill, delivered a fine one at the editor's domicile last week, for which he has the family thanks all right. This means pie at our house in due season.

Two new typhoid fever cases have developed in one household at Tylersburg within the past ten days. The patients were doing fairly well at last accounts and it is hoped these will be the last to come down with the disease, which seems to be on the wane.

Eugene Mullin, Esq., of Bradford, one of the best known criminal lawyers in northwestern Pennsylvania, died in the court house at Smethport, Pa., Saturday afternoon. He had just finished an address to a jury and was seized with an attack of heart trouble from which he died in a short time. He was 67 years of age.

Sup't. Cottle of the Forest telephone company has been in this latitude for some time overhauling and repairing lines and putting things in order for the approaching winter. A new line has been put in between here and Nebraska for the accommodation of several new patrons, who will be "rugged up" from the Tionesta central office.

While camping with a party of friends in the big woods up in the edge of Warren county recently, Frank Withersal amused himself in hunting bee trees a part of the time. He found several, but one of the trees took up by the busy little workers. It contained twelve feet of comb, all of which was well filled with honey.

PERSONAL.

—Daniel O'Day, vice president of the National Transit Company, and one of the leading men of the Standard Oil Co., died Thursday in the south of France, where he had been with his family for some time to recuperate his health. He was 62 years of age. The estate which Mr. O'Day leaves is estimated at $40,000,000. He is survived by his second wife and 12 children.

—A correspondent of Atkins Corners, near Emulston, writes under date of Sept. 17: E. E. Norton was here last week on business. Messrs. Norton & Caldwell have a saw mill on the Williams farm. Seth Norton attends the levers, and A. M. Albaugh and W. N. Emerit cut the logs. Shine Galbraith, of East Hickory, is working on the Sutton mill for Norton & Young.

—Frosts are reported in some sections back from the river Friday and Saturday nights, but no material damage was done to crops, most of which are out of the way and will not be affected from this on. Taken as a whole the past season has been wonderful for all kinds of crops, and the harvest yet to be gathered will be one of which the most pessimistic can find little to complain about.

—As expressive of the state of things about the erstwhile busy lumbering hamlet of Grunderville, where the Warren Lumber Company is winding up business, a friend thus speaks in a private letter: "Very quiet here; sort of a melancholy air about the place. Seems with every one like 'leaving home.' There are sixteen families here yet. Railroad nearly all torn up, boat scaffold partly dismantled, and already the town has a deserted appearance."

—Tionesta's excellent baseball team will leave this morning for Tidoute, where a game will be played today against "Cy" Hallock's nine. The Forest county boys are among the best amateur teams that have appeared in Titusville this season. In yesterday's game every player was a native product of Tionesta. There are few towns of the size which can produce so good a team. Bankhead and Lawrence, the battery, are good enough to break into faster company and the same might be said of several others of the team.—Titusville Herald, 15th.

—The dead body of Philip Dean, a resident of Marienville, was found hanging from the limb of a tree in a deep forest near Morriwell, W. Va., on Thursday, Sept. 6th. Mr. Dean was a millwright by trade, and went to West Virginia early in the summer to work. On August 6th he suddenly disappeared and no trace of him could be found until the dead body was discovered as above stated. He had written one or two letters to his wife, in which he complained of severe pains in his head, and the supposition is that while laboring under this pain he committed suicide.

—Rev. N. L. Rockey, of Lucknow, India, who is to spend a few days at the M. E. parsonage, has kindly consented to give several addresses while in this vicinity. He will lecture on India and his work there, in the M. E. church at Nebraska, Saturday at 8 p. m. Will also preach Sunday at 11 a. m. He will lecture at Tionesta Sunday evening, and preach Monday at 7:30 p. m. On Tuesday, at 7:30 p. m., he will speak in the M. E. church at West Hickory. All are cordially invited. Dr. Rockey is a very interesting speaker, and those who fail to hear him will deny themselves a genuine treat. Admission free.

—The postoffice department is about to ignore a rule recently established, and issue two new special exemption postage stamps of denominations of one and two cents each, account of the Jamestown exposition next year. Tentative designs have been submitted by the Jamestown exposition company. One of these is based on the saving of Captain John Smith by the Indian princess Pocahontas, the other represents the landing of Captain Smith at Jamestown. The latter picture portrays a sturdy band of pioneers advancing led by the dauntless Smith followed by Rev. Robert Hunt, his brave clergyman, carrying a huge cross.

—An explosion of oil and gas on the Kies, Crittenton & Windsor lease at Tidoute Thursday destroyed a Star drilling rig belonging to Contractor G. H. Dewalt and several men had narrow escapes from being burned. The well had been finished and shot. The oil that came out with the shot was ignited from cinders that had been smoldering under the boiler and the explosion followed. Mr. Dewalt, who recently moved from West Hickory to Titusville, was painfully burned about the hands and wrists and the clothing of several of the men was slightly burned. The rig was destroyed and the loss will be in the neighborhood of $300.

—The new piece of road at the mouth of Tubbs run, leading up to Cropp hill, is finished and will be taken off the contractor's hands shortly. When this road was under discussion the question of cost figured largely in the deal, and T. D. Collins, Esq., told the road commissioners of Tionesta township that he would stand all the cost over $6.00 a rod, and so they awarded him the contract. Mr. Collins put Sheriff Stroup in charge of its construction and made his word good by giving the township a splendid piece of road, but like the late lamented Edwin Clapp, Mr. Collins went into his own pocket to a considerable extent in order that the road should be a first class one.

—On Thursday last, Bertha, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rudolph, met with a very painful and distressing accident in the loss of her right eye. She was seated on the wagon which her father was driving with a load of household furniture which was being taken to her new home at Whig Hill, when Mr. Rudolph struck one of the horses with the whip, the end of the lash or "cracker" flying off and striking the little girl on the eye ball cutting it open and allowing the liquid of the eye to run out. The child was at once taken to Oil City where a specialist removed the eye ball, thus avoiding any effect the wound might have upon the other eye. At last accounts the little patient was getting along very well.

Thompson's Barossa can be taken by all ages and has cured many children of Non-retention or bed-wetting. 50c and $1.00. Dunn & Fulton.

Crushed Beneath Car Wheels.

A shocking accident, by which Ivan James McCullough, 16-year-old son of J. M. McCullough, of Nebraska, was instantly killed on the S. & T. railroad near Hastings occurred about 11 o'clock on Friday morning. The young man had taken the place of the regular baggage-man, A. H. Hunter, who was acting as conductor during the illness of Conductor Holmes. On the return trip from Sheffield to Kelleysville, and when the train had passed Hastings station, the baggage car gave a sudden lurch sidewise throwing the young man backward out of the side door, which stood open, against a steep embankment which in turn threw him forward and directly under the wheels, which passed over his head, crushing it in a shocking manner. Conductor Hunter, who was in the car, but not close enough to catch and save the boy from falling out, stopped the train at once, and the body was taken to his home at Nebraska.

The community was greatly stirred over this distressing accident, for the young man was a general favorite among the people. He was born at Nebraska, June 14, 1889, and had resided there all his life. Impressive funeral services were held at the Nebraska M. E. church on Sabbath, conducted by Rev. W. O. Calloway, and the interment was made in Riverside cemetery, this place, being attended by an immense concourse of neighbors and friends of the family. Beautiful floral offerings were sent by the managers of the Sheffield & Tionesta railroad and Nebraska Hive of the K. O. T. M. Surviving the young man are his father, one sister and one brother.

—Mrs. W. S. Peirce, of Warren, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Davis during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Withersal, of Endeavor, spent the Sabbath at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Butler.

—Rev. and Mrs. V. O. Calloway drove up and spent Thursday very pleasantly with Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Catlin at Whig Hill.

—W. S. Fitzgerald, of Kelleysville, called at this office yesterday, and will read the REPUBLICAN for the next year to come.

—Mrs. David Edwards and daughter, of Sharon, and Mrs. Chas. Hinkle, of Erie, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Clark.

—Editor Muse goes to Ridgway tomorrow as one of Forest county's senatorial conferees to help re-nominate Senator Hall in this district.

—Mrs. E. W. Bowman and Mrs. Geo. H. Killmer have issued invitations to their lady friends for Friday of this week, at one o'clock. Luncheon.

—Mrs. W. E. Darts, who spent the past two weeks visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. Korb, of the Township, returned to her home in Warren Saturday.

—Tionesta friends of Miss Daisy Pearl Graybill have received cards announcing her marriage to Mr. Ben Harrod, at her home at Independence, Kansas, Aug. 29.

—Mrs. L. E. Swanson, of Jamestown, N. Y., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Arner the past week. Mr. Swanson came down and remained over Sunday.

—Miss Emma Salsgivar, a student nurse at the State hospital at North Warren, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Randall, at the Rural House, her former home, over the Sabbath.

—Mrs. Frances Secor, who makes her home with her son, H. J. Secor, in this place, left at noon today for Nebraska, Forest county, to visit with a son who lives at that place.—Ridgway Advocate.

—Miss Belle Anderson, who came home two weeks ago from Leeper suffering from an attack of typhoid fever, was progressing nicely at last accounts, her case being of a mild type, many friends will be pleased to know.

—Mrs. C. F. Weaver, accompanied by her sons Lester and Cletus, and her sister Mrs. Gertrude Hahnrahn, of Maunington, W. Va., went to Cleveland, Ohio, last Wednesday for a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Gust Horn.

—George W. Walters, of Albany, Ind., who has been visiting eastern friends for the past few weeks, is circulating among Tionesta friends at present. Mr. Walters reports his son Will and family well and prospering.

—Mrs. A. B. Kelly leaves for Cincinnati tomorrow, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Rogers. Before returning to Tionesta she will visit Chicago, where, some time during next month she will witness the marriage of her son Benjamin.

—Will H. May, of Louisville, Ky., visited over the Sabbath at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. B. Kelly, while en route to the eastern cities on a business trip. Mr. May, as a native Tionesta boy, always finds a warm welcome among our people, who would be gratified if he made his visits more frequent.

—The members of the Epworth League and church choir, at Kelleysville, were entertained Friday evening by Mrs. F. J. Henderson, in honor of Miss Frances Small, who is soon to leave for her new home at Ferdinand, Pa. In token of their regard, and appreciation of her helpfulness and many kindnesses extended, they presented her with a valuable bracelet as a parting gift. Her many friends wish her a full measure of success and happiness in her new home.

—Ed. Withersal, of Hickory township, was a business visitor in Tionesta Thursday, and surprised his many friends by his robust appearance. Mr. Withersal has been in precarious health for more than a year and physicians were inclined to give him up six or more months ago, but he beat them all out by returning to his farm out on Kelly hill and harvesting a good crop of hay, oats, potatoes, corn and the like during the past summer, and bids fair to live and enjoy the fruits of his labor this winter.

—Mrs. Mary (Vessel) Bruce, relief of the late John Bruce, a veteran of the civil war, died at her home in this place on Monday of this week. She was born April 25, 1825, near Leechburg, Pa., and in 1853 was united in marriage, her husband dying shortly after the close of the war, leaving her with a family of six children, four of whom survive her, as follows: D. P. Bruce, Leechburg; Mrs. W. M. Wolcott, East Hickory; Thomas J., Titusville, and Mrs. A. C. Stafford, Edinboro. She resided many years with her family on Whig Hill, but some years ago removed to Tionesta. She was a member of the Lutheran church from early life, and died in the faith. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. W. O. Calloway, were held in the M. E. church this morning. Interment in Riverside cemetery.

But Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"When my boy was two years old he had a very severe attack of bowel complaint, but by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy we brought him out all right," says Maggie Hickox, of Midland, Mich. This Remedy can be depended upon in the most severe cases. Even cholera infantum is cured by it. Follow the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Paris Letter.

17 RUE BOISSONNADE, PARIS, September 1, 1906.
EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—The weather since the first of August has been unusually warm for Paris and our party has been very quiet. The French people have not the art of making themselves comfortable in hot weather, so that what Americans consider a moderately high temperature is difficult to endure. The nights are always cool and we have found blankets a necessity almost every night. I wish your readers might all have seen a Fete of the French Provinces given last month under the auspices of a society for the study and preservation of provincial arts and customs, in the Tuilleries gardens. Some 250 peasants from Brittany, Provence, Alsace, Nivernais, Picardy and other districts, in the full holiday costumes of their provinces, took part, giving the ancient folksongs, poems, music and dances. It was a beautiful and interesting spectacle with its setting of the great trees, fountains, flowers and marbles of the gardens of the Tuilleries.

Discussion of the Dreyfus affair has subsided, but the Pope's encyclical, the separation of the church and state, and the "repose hebdomadaire," a law recently enacted, requiring the giving of a day of rest each week to all employes, furnish plenty of material for hot and angry argument. For the French journals, instead of editorials as in our papers, literary men write long articles upon any subject of public interest, signing their names in full.

My daughter and I having decided to stay in Paris for some time, we have been apartment hunting recently, and it is an interesting experience. Paying the small rent is only a beginning. The doors, windows and chimneys must be paid for in addition, also a variety of city taxes, the carpet on the stairs of the public halls, and the concierge, especially the last, for on him all comfort depends. One does not insure one's furniture, but that of the tenant on the next floor above.

What happens to the occupant of the "sky parlor"? I do not know. The fire department belongs to the army, and the firemen being drawn from the army never become proficient, but as there is seldom a fire in Paris it seems to matter very little. I went last week to engage a gas stove and gas for the kitchen, and it required just half an hour. Five men wrote up my case in five great books, I signed six official looking documents, petitioned the "Prefect of Police and the Commissary of the city, whatever he may be, for the privilege of using gas, paid seventy-two cents for stamps for the papers, and if all goes well in three weeks the gas will be ready for use. KATE C. DUNN.

Eighty-third Regimental Reunion.
The annual reunion of the 83d Pa. Volunteers was held at Waterford, Erie county, Pa., Sept. 11th, 1906. The day was fine and the attendance unusually large, fully 100 of the members of that once famous old regiment being present and answering to "roll call." D. W. Clark and S. C. Johnston represented this section at the meeting. The association was presided over by Charles Himrod of Co. I, late Sergeant Major of the regiment, Comrade Himrod resides in Waterford and gave his old comrades a welcome reception, furnishing lodging and dinner to the entire association free of charge, also a free ride in his automobile to all the old boys, out through the country a distance of five miles and return. The business part of the association was then disposed of and the next place of meeting was unanimously voted Tionesta, and the date fixed for Tuesday, Sept. 10, 1907. Comrade D. W. Clark, of Tionesta, was unanimously elected President of the association for the ensuing year, and Comrade D. B. Foste, the present Secretary was re-elected to serve another term. When we take one look over the remnants of that once heroic body of men who went forth at their country's call in 1861-2—young, spry, brave and full of life, alas, can we draw the line, so great the contrast? See the bent form, the tottering limbs, the empty sleeve, the absent foot, the wooden leg, the wrinkled brow. We are reminded that soon they must all attend the last "roll call."

Death of Mrs. Hugh Miles.
Funeral services in memory of Mrs. Hugh Miles were held at the home near Fagundus at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon, in charge of the Rev. S. F. Marks, of Tidoute. Interment was made in the Tidoute cemetery. Mrs. Miles was 82 years of age and her funeral occurred upon the 35th birthday of her husband. She died on Wednesday last of the infirmities of age. Mrs. Miles was an aunt of our former townspeople, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Miles.

The death of this excellent lady recalls the notorious robbery still fresh in the memory of the people of this section. It was four years last Saturday that the aged couple figured in this sensational affair at their home near Fagundus. Mr. Miles was in the barn milking, when he was surprised by a gang of thugs, headed by the notorious Tom McMahon and Tom Gallagher, brothers-in-law. He was taken into the house and he and his wife were securely tied while the safe which they kept in their living room was opened and ransacked. Bedding was torn open and a thorough search of the premises was made, under the supposition that the old people had considerable hidden wealth. The robbers secured less than $100 in money, together with some watches and an old army revolver. The latter was their undoing. They were tracked along the line of the Pennsylvania railroad to Oil City, where McMahon was arrested. The others escaped. Gallagher was later shot and badly wounded in the attempted robbery of the aged Leach brothers, cattle drovers of Elyria, Ohio. He was captured and sentenced to the Columbus penitentiary for life. He broke jail and is still at liberty, one of the most dangerous men of his class. McMahon is serving a seven-year sentence in the Western penitentiary.

Pain from a Burn Promptly Relieved by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

A little child of Michael Strauss, of Vernon, Conn., was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold application only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to Mr. James N. Nichols, a local merchant, for something to give him to use. Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application drew out the inflammation and gave immediate relief. I have used this liniment myself and recommend it very often for cuts, burns, strains and lacerations, and have never known it to disappoint." For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Don't Be a Skeptic.
Seeing is believing. You can believe what most people say. H. G. Byrd, of Sunbury, Pa., under date of September 25th, says: "I have been troubled with rheumatism for five months; I have used one 50c bottle of Crocker's Rheumatic Cure and have benefited more by it than all other medicine I have ever used." For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Resignation of Rev. Dr. Stonaker.

At the close of the services at the Presbyterian church on Sabbath morning Rev. Dr. Stonaker read his formal resignation as pastor of the church, the same to take effect the last Sunday in October, 24th prox. It has been known for some time that the pastor contemplated this course, and that a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church of Brockwayville Jefferson county, had been extended to him. In his remarks on the subject Dr. Stonaker spoke feelingly of the pleasant relations that had existed between himself and his congregation during his pastorate of a year and a half, and he gave as the only reason for asking his release the conviction that he could be of greater use in his new field of labor. His reference to the uniform kindness of his people toward himself and his family touched the hearts of all, the breathless silence which pervaded the church as the able minister touched upon these matters evidencing that both pastor and people were moved alike by the prospective "parting of the ways." Dr. Stonaker is without doubt one of the ablest ministers in the Clarion Presbytery, and while his people part with him with much reluctance they at the same time extend congratulations to the congregation to which he goes upon securing such an able divine as his future spiritual shepherd. Mrs. Stonaker, who has ingratiated herself in the hearts of all our people during the family's residence in Tionesta, will be greatly missed by the ladies of our town generally, and by those connected with the church societies in particular. May their new home and field of labor prove a pleasant one—may the lines fall unto them in pleasant places.

At the congregational meeting Monday evening, called for the purpose, the congregation unanimously voted to join with Dr. Stonaker in asking Presbytery to officially dissolve the pastoral relations existing since February, 1905. Services will be continued as heretofore either by the present pastor or supply until the 25th of next month.

Letter to Silas Shriver,
Tionesta, Pa.

DEAR SIR:—We shall feel obliged if you will write us how you came-out on your first few jobs Devos, as to gallons expected and used.

Take Job A. You made your price, expecting to use 25 gallons Devos, and used 15. Job B. You expected to use 15 and used 10. And tell us what paint you used before. Of course, you judge Devos by what you have used before.

Here's how a few came-out.
M. A. Thomas, painter, Lynchburg, Va., writes: My first job with Devos, I estimated 37 gallons; it took 25. Since then I have used nothing else.

C. B. Edwards, Raleigh, N. C., had used 30 gallons paste paint on his house, and bought 30 gallons Devos; A. E. Glenn, his painter, said it wouldn't be enough. Had 16 gallons left.

Mayor W. W. Carroll, Monticello, Florida, writes: Painter estimated 35 gallons for my house; took 20 gallons Devos.

Glimore & Davis Co., contractors and painters, Tallahassee, Florida, say 2 gallons Devos spreads as far as 3 of any other paint they know, and covers better.

S. A. Bullard, painter, Sanford, Florida, estimated 60 gallons for Odd Fellows and Masonic Halls; they took 20 Devos.

Jones & Rogers, Merkel, Texas, estimated 10 gallons Devos for Mr. Pratt's house and bought 5 gallons for first coat; it painted two coats.

Erb-Springall Co., San Antonio, Texas, painted two houses same size for D. J. Woodward, one lead-and-ool, the other Devos. Devos cost $12 less for paint and labor.

Tom Massey's painter, Walnut Springs, Texas, estimated for his house 10 gallons Devos; he had 4 left.

You see how it goes. Even the best painters can't guess little enough at first. Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOS & CO.,

Good Clothes? What a question! The man who does not is either a pessimist, crank, miser or brute, and the world does not trot in that class. Clothes do not make the man—no, nor does a fine house make a good home, but the world judges from the exterior—the interior belongs to the individual, where he must build his own salvation. Men are too often judged by appearances; it is wrong, but who can change the custom? Young men should therefore see to it that their outward appearance is in accordance with the demands of the times. There is no excuse for any one wearing ill fitting clothes in these days.

Take for instance our $10 and $12 Suits, have more style and fit better, nine times out of ten, than any of the so-called "tailor-made" suits that are made out of town at $15, $18 or $20, and we know the cloth and trimming is as good in every instance, so why pay for something you don't get? And who can't afford a $10 or $12 suit once a year at least?
