STORES.

New Fall Suits

How gratifying it is to be first to appear in clothes of distinctively new fashion.

Thus it is that one becomes noted for having a hand in setting the style.

This proud privilege we now help our customers to enjoy. There are many new, distinctive, elegant, smart varieties here today. They are the styles that will be prime favorites a month from now and right along after that through the season. Leaders of fashion may make their selections now and be right for weeks to come in the enjoyment of exclusive apparel.

The Natty Tailor-Made Suits,

22-inch and 24-inch lengths,

Peplum Suits and Blouse Eton Suits

are most enthusiastically endorsed by high authorities. They are here in the new fancy plaids. Plain blacks and plain colors in broadcloths such as smoke, wine, green, brown, navy blue and such others as destined to become popular within the next few weeks.

New Fall Waists.

White and blace lace net, black taffeta and lingerie waists. The daintiest of materials fresh from the looms and beautifully made up into the most fascinating of styles, trimmed and finished in highest class.

STUART AND HIS TOUR

Schedule For the First Two Weeks of the Republican Spellbinders.

SHEPP TO DIRECT THE ORATORS

"Uncle Joe" Cannon and Others of National Prominence to Speak in Pennsylvania.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, September 18.

Edwin S. Stuart, the Republican nominee for governor, and his colleagues on the Republican state ticket, will start out this week upon their tour of the state, and will make their initial speeches of the trip at Centre Hall, Centre county, on Thursday, September 20, at a farmer's picnic. They are scheduled to go to Bellefonte the same day and address the voters of that borough.

On Friday, September 21, they will address a meeting in the evening at Clearfield, and there will be an afternoon meeting the following day, Saturday, September 22, at Lock Haven, Clinton county, and in the evening they will speak at Williamsport, Lycoming county.

A meeting in the afternoon at Selinsgrove, Snyder county, will open the week, beginning Monday, September 24, and on the evening of the same day the governor-to-be and his colleagues will address a meeting in Shamokin, Northumberland county.

On Tuesday, September 25, they will be in Mahanoy City in the afternoon, and in Pottsville in the evening.

There will be a meeting in Wellsboro, Tioga county, on the evening of Wednesday, September 26, and on Thursday, September 27, the candidates will speak in the afternoon at McSmethport, McKean county, and in the evening at Bradford, McKean county.

Tionesta, Forest county, will be visited on the afternoon of Friday, September 28, and on the evening of the same day the spellbinders will address a meeting in Warren county.

An afternoon meeting in Corry, Erie county, will be held on Saturday, September 29, and on the evening of the same day there will be a grand rally in Erie.

Great Demand For Stuart.

There was a great demand upon Chairman Andrews, of the Republican state committee, for meetings to be addressed by Candidate Stuart, and as far as possible an effort was made to meet every reasonable request for such meetings.

Colonel Andrews has announced the appointment of Colonel Daniel B. Shepp, a member of Governor Pennypacker's staff, to be chief of the bureau of speakers for the Republican state committee. Colonel Shepp has many friends throughout the state, and it is predicted that he will enlist many of the best orators of the Republican party in this and other states in the cause of Republicanism in Pennsylvania.

Uncle "Joe" Cannon is among others that Colonel Shepp is confident he will have to speak for the whole Republican ticket in this state this fall.

Colonel Shepp has been in communication with Chairman Sherman, of the Republican National Congressional Committee, and has been advised that a number of national celebrities will be assigned to speak in this state. Republicans realize that the skirmish of the next presidential campaign is now going on.

The loyalty of Republicans everywhere must be appealed to, that they shall not be misled by the cry for fusion candidates, with the declarations that there is no national significance to the canvass in this state this fall. Emery and his supporters are busy with arguments that this is simply a local fight, but when the Garmans, the Guffeys, the Donnellys and the Ryans et al. go over to New York and tell Bryan what they are really doing in Pennsylvania it is time that Republicans all along the line should awaken to the true situation and rally around the banner of Edwin S. Stuart, their nominee for governor, and have Pennsylvania give a ringing answer to the Bryan presidential boomers with a tremendous Republican and Roosevelt majority in November.

Good Listeners.

In conversing with one's friends nothing is so chilling as an apparent lack of attention and sympathy. It might be added that nothing is more vulgar were not the listener's indifference common to the majority of our most cultured people. If when one is addressed she will remember to incline the body slightly forward an attitude of rapt attention will soon be unconsciously assumed and, whether really worthy of it or not, new recruits gained for the always popular, as rare, class known as "good listeners."

A Work of Art.

Miss Knox—There goes Bess Mugley. Miss Bright—Yes, she played the part of the heroine in the private theatricals at the church. Miss Knox—Gracious! Did she have the face to play the heroine? Miss Bright—No, but the costumer fixed one up for her.—Philadelphia Press.

Obedient.

"Now, Tommy," said the mother of a small boy as she paused in the disciplinary slipper exercise, "what made you eat the whole of that pie?"

"'Cause," sobbed Tommy, "you t-told me to n-never do t-things by h-halves."—Chicago News.

SIBERIAN HOSPITALITY

A Charming Visit, With a Somewhat Terrifying Climax.

Detained at the Siberian village of Krivochokovo, M. Jules Legras remembered that he had a letter to a notable of the place and hastened to present it. M. Gautier in his book on Russia describes in M. Legras' own words the cordial hospitality with which he was received and also tells of the difficulty which concluded his charming visit.

"They had detained me till 10 o'clock in the evening," he writes, "by repeating, 'Why are you in a hurry?' and I was on the point of making my departure when I heard the mistress of the house say in a low voice to her husband, 'Shall I send for the carriage?' To which he replied, 'No.' At this word a shiver passed over me. Doubtless this host, who had made me send away the coachman, was unaware of what his refusal meant, else he would have said to me, 'Here is a sofa; sleep here.'

"My situation was perilous, but what could I do? At the end of a few moments I rose to take my leave, and, having asked if I could get a cab, was met with the reply that at this hour none could be obtained.

"Krivochokovo is a village whose population constitutes the very flotsam and jetsam of Siberian civilization. The village has neither streets nor lights nor police. It is considered a cutthroat spot, where honest people shut themselves tight at night.

"I had neither stick nor revolver, and I had on me a large sum of money. Finally, I was ignorant of the exact position of my inn, situated over a mile away. First of all, dogs threw themselves upon me. I shook them off and started as best I could.

"The night was inky black. Amid the irregular clusters of houses there was no regular street by which to guide myself. As I hesitated I heard a 'Who is that?' It was a watchman of a pile of wood who hailed me. He directed me, and, giving me a large branch that would do as a stick, he said: 'You are wrong, barine, to go about this way without a revolver. The place is not safe. May God protect you!'

"As I approached another cluster of houses a watchman sounded his rattle menacingly and dogs flew at me savagely. When this watchman approached I induced him to accompany me. He informed me that the evening before a traveler who was staying at my hotel, having started early to catch a train, had been assassinated about ten paces from there. Finally we reached the inn. It took a long time to make them open the door, but I finally got inside and reached my room, trembling with fever and fatigue, and fell down helplessly, only conscious of having passed an hour and a half whose remembrance will remain with me long. As for my so amiable host, whose hospitality might have cost me my life, he will doubtless never know of this adventure."

Macedonia.

Macedonia, the land of the three streams, Vardar, Struma and Vistritsa, is hemmed in by lofty mountains, of which the best known or the highest are Olympus, Shardagh and Rhodope, the last named rising to between 8,000 and 9,000 feet above the level of the sea. It is among the most picturesque countries of Europe, abounding in magnificent forests, which climb hills, fringe rivers and cover islands; in wild mountain scenes, wonderful waterfalls, silent, soilless lakes—an appropriate setting for gems of emerald islets, deep gorges, dizzy mountain paths, smiling plains and desolate passes, which ought to prove an irresistible attraction to the traveler who regards genuine danger and real discomfort as the appropriate condiment of pleasure.

The Shaving Brush.

It is likely that the best shaving brush ever made sheds more or less hairs. To prevent this take an elastic band, neither too heavy nor too light; cut it once (not in two), and, holding one end firmly on the handle, wind the rubber around the bristles as close up to the handle as you can, stretching taut as you wind. When you come to the end tie a simple flat knot (not a granny knot) or else lose the end. By careful winding a very neat job can be done, and the bristles can be worn down to the socket without losing a hair.

Strangers.

Mrs. de Fashion (at a children's party)—Marie! Nursegirl—Yes, ma'am. Mrs. de Fashion—It's time for us to go home. Which of these children is mine?—Home Chat.

DR. KENNEDY'S

FAVORITE REMEDY

Breaks no Hearts, Excuses no Crimes.

Dr. David Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY is not a disguised enemy of the human race; where it cannot help, it does not harm. It is composed of vegetable ingredients and does not heat or inflame the blood but cools and purifies it. In all cases of Kidney troubles, Liver complaints, Constipation of the Bowels, and the delicate derangements which afflict women, the action of Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY is beyond praise. Thousands of grateful people voluntarily testify to this, in letters to Dr. Kennedy; and with a warmth and fullness of words which mere business certificates never possess. It makes no drunkards—excuses no crimes—breaks no hearts. In its coming there is hope, and in its wings there is healing. We challenge a trial and are confident of the result. Your druggist has it. ONE DOLLAR a Bottle. Bear in mind the name and address: Dr. David KENNEDY, Rondout, New York.
