A RACE WAR IN ATLANTA.

At Least 10 Lives Sacrificed and 40 People Injured.

Two Party Conventions—Intervention Seems Inevitable—Kick Against New Spelling—Explosion of Car of Dynamite—Jones' Advice to Bryan.

Twenty-four hours have passed since a race war of no mean proportions began in Atlanta. In that period at least 10 lives were sacrificed. The number of injured will be just 40, several of whom cannot recover. This condition came as the result of numerous and repeated assaults or attempted assaults upon white women by negroes. A list of an even dozen such assaults, within the limits of Fulton county, within the last nine weeks, came Saturday when four attempts at assault were reported.

About 10 o'clock a negro man shoved a white woman from the sidewalk on Whitehall street, in the center of town. Almost simultaneously a negro woman made an insulting remark to a white man on an adjoining street and he administered what he considered due punishment.

From this start the mob began its work of destruction. Five thousand men and boys thronged the downtown streets looking for negroes. News that a riot had started brought thousands more from their homes in the suburbs and residence districts, until fully 10,000 men thronged the downtown sections.

The trolleys were pulled from the wires and in the semi-darkness of the unlighted cars negroes were beaten, cut and stamped upon in an unreasoned, mad frenzy. If a negro ventured resistance or remonstrated it meant practically sure death. A car, half filled with negroes, approached from an outside run. The mob dashed for the car. Resistance was made by the negroes, who had not been apprised of trouble. Three negroes lay dead on the floor of the car when it was permitted to move on, and two more were beaten unconscious.

The city is now controlled by the police aided by nearly 1,000 of the state militia. Every part of the town is patrolled by soldiers and the authorities seem to have the situation well in hand. Governor Terrell stands ready to declare the city under martial law if the scenes of Saturday night are repeated.

Two Party Conventions.

Two exciting contests for party control were formally opened this week when the state conventions of the Democrats at Buffalo and the Republicans at Saratoga met Tuesday. Interest in the Democratic gathering is centered in the movement on the part of a number of delegates to demand the nomination of William R. Hearst for governor.

So far it is not known what the New York county delegation, 105 strong, will do in this respect. Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall having declined to indicate whether he favors the Hearst endorsement. State Senator Patrick H. McCarren, Democratic leader in Brooklyn, has come out for Supreme Court Justice Gaynor and Congressman Timothy D. Sullivan of Tammany has declared for Congressman Sulzer.

There is also a strong movement for the nomination of Mayor Adam of Buffalo. In the Republican ranks the main question is whether Governor Higgins desires a renomination. It is generally believed since last Tuesday's primaries, in which former Governor Odell lost control of the party, that Governor Higgins can have a renomination if he wants it. He is expected to make a statement of his position on the subject today. Following the convention a state chairman will be selected to succeed Mr. Odell.

Peace for Cuba, unless accomplished through American intervention, seems to be further away than when Secretary of War Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon began negotiations to harmonize the opposing factions. The arrival of three of the largest United States battleships and two cruisers besides those already in Havana has had little effect on the insurgents in the field, and when the leaders of the revolution were apprised of the big squadron now in Cuban waters they greeted the information with Spanish expressions to the effect that "they cannot come to the bush."

Secretary Taft has cabled to President Roosevelt regarding the gravity of the situation and Mr. Roosevelt is expected to dictate the future program of his commissioners. Warships Ready to Land Men. Although the situation in Cuba has not improved since the arrival of Secretary Taft and has, if anything, become more serious, the secretary has not given up hope that a peaceable settlement may be found without disturbing Cuban independence. The secretary, however, has not so far announced his plans and the action he will take probably depends on the attitude of the Moderate and Liberal leaders within the next few days.

Pending a settlement of the insurrection, the American warships in Havana harbor are ready to land men, in addition to those now on shore, up to the number of 4,000 if necessary, to protect American lives and property.

Kicks Against New Spelling.

William Barrett Ridgely, comptroller of the currency, is the first government officer at Washington to take a firm stand against the president's new order for simplified spelling. Mr. Ridgely can afford to be independent, even if he were not naturally so. He was reappointed a few days ago for a term of five years, and under the statute he cannot be removed. He will outline to the present administration officially by nearly three years.

Mr. Ridgely received a consignment of printed matter in which his official title had been modified from "Comptroller" to "Controller." To conform to the new rule of simplified spelling, he refused to accept the revision and, armed with a copy of the revised statutes, called on Acting Secretary of the Treasury, Keok, to demand that the law creating his office ought to be the highest authority as to the proper spelling. Later Robert J. Tracewell, comptroller of the treasury, took the same view and insisted that his own official title should not be "simplified."

The Interstate commerce commission adopted the new order without exception. Twelve deaths, the injuring of scores of other persons and $500,000 damage to property were caused at Jellico, Tenn., on Friday when a carload of dynamite standing on a track near the Southern railway depot exploded with a report that was heard for 20 miles. Buildings were shattered in the business section and nearly every piece of glass within a radius of one mile was broken.

Two causes are assigned for the explosion. One is that three parties were shooting at a mark on the car and that a bullet entered the car and caused the explosion. The other is that while the car was standing on a side track a carload of pig iron was switched against it and that the impact caused the explosion.

Broom County Centennial. Rain badly interfered with what would have been the greatest parade in the history of Binghamton on Thursday. This was to be the principal feature of the Broom county centennial and carnival. As it was one of the best parades ever formed there, although the line of march was greatly curtailed. The grand display of fireworks that was to have been given was postponed until Saturday night. One of the largest crowds ever in the city assembled in spite of the rain, all incoming trains on all roads were crowded. The centennial except for the postponed fireworks closed with the Mardi Gras parade and the carnival ball Thursday evening.

Gibson and Jackson Get Five Years. Byron D. Gibson and William B. Jackson, former supervisors of Erie county, who were convicted at Warsaw, N. Y., on Friday night on a charge of bribery in connection with the North street cemetery scandal, were Saturday sentenced by Justice Lambert to five years each in Auburn prison. A stay was granted until a week from today in order to give the attorneys for the defense an opportunity to draw up the necessary papers for an application for a certificate of reasonable doubt. Just what justice the application will be made before has not been decided upon.

Jones' Advice to Bryan. Ex-Senator James K. Jones of Arkansas, who was twice chairman of the national Democratic committee and manager of both the campaigns for the presidency of William Jennings Bryan, has written to Mr. Bryan advising him strongly to drop the subject of government ownership of railroads and to take a firm stand in favor of an enforcement of the law that is now on the statute books.

Bids For Chinese Labor. Four bids were received at the Isthmian canal commission in Washington for supplying Chinese labor. The American-China Contracting company of Englewood, N. J., offered to supply common labor at 10c per hour and Joel Julian Ruben of Washington, who bid 11 cents for the same, offered to reduce it to 9 cents if 15,000 men were called for. No award has been made.

Five Prisoners Escaped. Keepers and guards of the Onondaga county penitentiary, located at Jamesville, five miles from Syracuse, are scouring the country between that place and Cortland in search of five prisoners who made a successful dash for freedom while at work in the penitentiary stone quarries late Saturday afternoon.

Gets 50 Years and a Whipping. Charles Conley, the negro who attacked and seriously injured Mrs. Beatrice Frankish and her daughter, Miss Gussie Letch, on a public road 10 days ago, near Wilmington, Del., was sentenced to 50 years' imprisonment and to receive 30 lashes at the whipping post. The prisoner will be whipped next Saturday.

Jockey Killed in Gravesend Race. Jockey Bertrand Froisbon was instantly killed and Jockey C. Ross sustained a fracture of the skull as a result of an accident in the fifth race at Gravesend Friday. Little G. Burns, who also fell, escaped injury.

Largest Court House in the World. Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks on Friday laid the corner stone of Chicago's new county building, which is to be the largest court house in the world.

THE GOVERNOR REFUSES

Not Many Candidates For Republican Nomination.

HUGHES AND BRUCE PROMINENT.

State Senator Edgar T. Brackett Active—Hughes is Backed Especially by Congressman Parsons, Who Last Week Won a Notable Victory in the New York Primaries.

Saratoga, Sept. 25.—"Up in the air" is the answer most frequently given to questions concerning the gubernatorial nomination of the Republican state convention. The refusal of Governor Higgins to accept a renomination has unsettled things and now all efforts are being put forth by the leaders to form new lines, to make readjustments and to secure a ticket which can be nominated by acclamation. Harmony is being preached and harmony means a "slate" without a disturbance in the convention, such as would be created by several ballots for governor.

And yet there are not many announced candidates. Lieutenant Governor M. Linn Bruce is here and an active candidate. His chief competitor is Charles E. Hughes, but he is not here and is not an avowed candidate. State Senator Edgar T. Brackett of Saratoga has the most pronounced evidences of candidacy in sight, with lithographs, placards, portrait buttons and badges.

There are several in the "mentioned" class, among these being former Lieutenant Governor Timothy L. Woodruff, Elibu Root, United States secretary of state; former Governor Frank S. Black, Congressman Herbert Parsons, who last week won a victory in the New York county primaries; Andrew S. Draper of Albany, state commissioner of education; Mayor Cutler of Rochester and Judge Hiscock of the court of appeals.

The contest, if there is a contest, is between Bruce and Hughes. Both are from New York county but the strong support of Bruce comes from up-state leaders, from the men who rallied around Governor Higgins and made possible the defeat of ex-Governor Odell.

Among these men there is an opposition to Hughes which seriously impairs his chances of receiving the nomination. They are the men who do not know what would happen if a man like Hughes should be nominated. He has not been so long in the political field that the politicians can take his measure. They say he is not known up the state, however strong he may be in New York city. The country delegates may not all think this, but the delegates are often persuaded to take the judgment of the leaders in these matters.

Hughes is backed especially by Parsons and it is his strongest asset. Parsons is not only fresh from a dazzling victory in New York but more recently from a visit to Oyster Bay and it is believed that he would hardly be pushing the Hughes boom unless it was agreeable to the national administration.

The Odell delegates in the New York delegation will be likely to vote for him, as he was at one time considered Odell's choice and possibly the Odell delegates up-state would be for him.

The mention of Parsons as a candidate may be made in this connection and can be traced to some of his enthusiastic admirers, who, having recently fought beside him in New York, believe that he could duplicate his great victory throughout the state in the fall elections if he were at the head of the ticket. But Mr. Parsons disposes of the matter by saying that he is not a candidate and that talk of him is inadvisable.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION

Lewis Nixon, Former Leader of Tammany Hall, Temporary Chairman. Buffalo, Sept. 25.—Lewis Nixon of New York city, a former leader of Tammany Hall, was last night chosen as temporary chairman of the Democratic state convention, the first session of which will be called to order here at noon today. Mr. Nixon was chosen without opposition at a meeting of the Democratic state committee. He is a delegate to the convention from the district of Charles F. Murphy, the present leader of the Tammany Hall organization.

Mr. Nixon was agreed upon as temporary chairman at a conference held late yesterday at which were present representatives of most of the warring factions in the state Democracy, and his selection by the state committee was in the nature of a ratification of the conference decision.

The naming of Mr. Nixon as temporary chairman is regarded as clarifying the situation to some extent, though none of the factions will admit that his selection means even a temporary setback to their cause. The former Tammany leader is claimed by the advocates of William Randolph Hearst to be friendly to their candidate for the governorship.

The temporary chairman, has, however, made no public declaration of his position. In his speech to the convention he undoubtedly will make a plea for harmony and there were evidences that every effort is to be made to have harmony and there is a spirit of give and take in the air. How far some of the more radical elements will go in this direction remains to be seen.

FOUR DEAD IN COLLISION.

Express and Baggage Car Telescoped Into the Smoker.

Minneapolis, Sept. 25.—Four are dead and 15 or more are injured as a result of a rear-end collision of a passenger train and a switch engine in the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad yards at New Prague, Minn., 40 miles south of Minneapolis, yesterday.

The dead: D. D. Demaris, Minneapolis, salesman; F. E. Brown, St. Paul, salesman; George E. Klunkerfuss, St. Paul, salesman; Frank Wrabeck, New Prague.

The most seriously hurt are: David Green, residence unknown, reported dying; Thomas McDonald, Minneapolis, engineer on switch engine, hurt internally and cut on head; C. L. Klaine, Minneapolis, lineman, hurt internally.

The accident is said to have been caused by a switching engine in the yards running onto the main track on the time of the passenger train, which was about 15 minutes late.

Both engineers jumped when they saw that the crash was inevitable. One engineer escaped and the other broke his collar bone.

All the express and mail messengers escaped unhurt. Apparently the passengers in the smoking car were the only ones hurt. The express and baggage car telescoped into the smoker and practically every person in the car received some injury.

Miss Myrtle Winton of Minneapolis and Miss Goldie Borrell of Marshalltown, Ia., did splendid work in caring for the injured.

They were passengers on the train and when the crash came at once set about work. They tore their skirts into strips for use as bandages and seemed to be everywhere that aid was needed.

Seeks Champion of All Hens.

Washington, Sept. 25.—Who owns the champion egg-layer of all hens? This question is raised by the Agricultural department through the temporary awarding of the prize to a fowl possessed by a worthy citizen of Alexandria, Va. The award is subject to revision and later returns may deprive the proud Alexandria of his laurels. The Virginia champion has since October 5, 1905, 291 eggs to her credit and before the close of the year will cross the 300 mark. Exclusive of the moulting season the hen has laid an egg every twenty-five hours.

Bailey's Foes Cannot Agree.

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 25.—The opponents of United States Senator Bailey have so far been unable to settle upon any candidate to put against him before the legislature in January next. Former Attorney General M. M. Crane of Dallas, former United States Senator Horace Chilton, also of Dallas, and Railroad Commissioner O. B. Colquitt of Terrell are mentioned. None of these has indicated a willingness to contest with Bailey. Mr. Colquitt last night said: "I am not running."

DANCE HALL SURRENDERS.

Cleveland, Sept. 22.—Suits for $500 damages were filed yesterday against the Humphrey company, proprietor of Euclid Beach, by two sailors, Redford Stouffer and John C. Southmeier of the United States training ship Wolverine, who were ordered from the dancing floor last week because they did not wear white shirts or collars with their uniforms.

The park management volunteered to amend its white collar rule so as to allow enlisted men of the army and navy to enter its dance hall, and by way of graceful amendment offered to give a grand ball for the sailors. This suggestion was declined by Captain Morrell.

The railroad people have taken an appeal in his case and will make a test. Superintendent Long of the Pittsburg division says no attention will be paid to Wilkensburg, and that if every petty borough official were listened to all the roads of the country would be tied up.
