In Philadelphia there is again the deuce

to pay in politics. This time the trouble is in the camp of the righteous (?), right ir the inner circles of the holy ones of quakerdom. Good gracious! Who'd have thought it? Bribery in the ranks of the reformers; and that on the very doorsteps of the ne plus ultra of reform, the City Party, which has battled long and valiantly for "civic righteousness," purity in politics, etcetera, etcetera. That party held a convention last week for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for district attorney along with other county officers. The fight was between one Gibboney and one Shoyer, with the "reformers" for the former, and

Mayor Weaver for the latter. Gibboney wins and the Mayor charges bribery against the Gibboney followers, and then has the audacity to prove his charges to the satisfaction of the successful candidate, who promptly declines to accept the "tainted" nomination, while district attorney Bell talks of putting the guilty ones in jail. And thus it goes, the very ones that have been crying aloud against machine corruption can't keep out of the ticket. It's a case of reformers failing out and honest men getting their dues.

It was claimed the nomination of Gibbo-ney would add 50,000 votes to the Emery outfit. Now it is verily believed the fifty

There he met hundreds of the leading citizens of the county, many of them Democrats, and as a result of his trip he made a host of warm friends. THE fusion platform bait ought to catch something, baving narrowed down to Lew Emery, Bryanism, Standard Oil and the Little Red Brewery.

THE Republican conferees of the 27th Congressional district have finally succeeded in naming a candidate in the person of Major Joseph G. Beale, of Armstrong county. Major Beale is very popular with the people and his election is a foregone conclusion.

WHY does Emery persist in closing his eyes and mouth to the real issues of the campaign while giving so much time and space to woman's suffrage? Why not answer some of brother Castle's damaging charges? The Oil City Blizzard thinks Emery might about as well denounce

Now that the Pennsylvania railroad is supporting Emery, according to Emery's own boast, we suppose the brewery-loving candidate will lop off one of the main reasons for asking the support of the "dear people." Next thing we know he'll be saying nice things about the Standard, probably.

AT the meeting of the Republican cons, with, Senatorial district, held at Johnsonburg on Monday afternoon, John K. Wilson, son of W. The district is composed of the counties of Clinton, Cameron, Clarion, Elk and Forest, and each county was represented, W. G. Morrow, of West | many bad breaks, is making them every Hickory, being the regularly accredited day, but as to the country editors, who conferee from Forest. Mr. Wilson is a young and energetic Republican, who own living to make, and a thousand times stands high in the estimation of his people, and if elected would be an honor to city editor, whose opinions are usually the district.

THE control of the next House at Washington will be decided five weeks from next Tuesday. The current and tide of political affairs set lowards Republican victory on national issues. As the weeks pass they bring a rising Re-publican tide.—Phila, Press.

This is a wholesome admission coming from a paper which has hitherto been lending aid and comfort to the Democratic ticket. The Press, like most other astute ones, sees the handwriting on the wall. The Emery bubble is "busted," His harangues are growing more tiresome every day. From this on the "frosts" will be more frequent and more killing. Pull him off.

HOME pride means a vote this fall for N. P. Wheeler for Congress: Forest county may well be proud of this honor that has been given them—the chance of voting for a candidate for Congress from this county. Let us make it unanimous. Democrats feel this way, why should not every Republican?—Marienville Express.

Good words fitly spoken. Mr. Wheeler's home county should make his vote well nigh unanimous, for a cleaner, abler man is not found within our borders, one whose every act in life is like an open book and will bear the closest inspection. An honor to any people and one of the kind of men President Roosevelt would desire to have sent to Congress.

THE following resolution passed by the Erie M. E. conference, which closed its the right kind of a man isn't to be bought, sessions in Meadville two weeks ago, is quite to the point:

"Resolved, That we denounce any party or man who places the brewery, church and school in the same category."

For some time after the publication of the resolution-about three minntes, perhaps—there was considerable speculation as to whom the resolution was directed at, until the following declaration by Lewis Emery, Jr., Democratic candidate for the exalted position of Governor of ported to have been uttered are totally this great Commonwealth, to Mr. Likins, was unearthed:

"However, had I been at home I would not have withheld my donation from that brewery, no more than I would from the churches, schools and hospitals. I should have been derelict if I had not come forward and done my part."

Is there a man in all this broad state who professes the least leaning toward christianity or moral living that could support a candidate who would utter such a brutal sentiment as that? professional politician, and his manner and bearing, cordial and free, but dignified, are sure to inspire confidence among the voters wherever he goes. That he has the desire, if elected, to serve the people of every county in the district to the best of his ability, and that he will make an excellent Congressman can not be doubted; and it is practically certain. As has already been announced the candidates on the Republican State Ticket will meet the people of Forest County at Tionesta next Friday afternoon, September 28th, and a rousing meeting will be held at the Court House. In the party will be ex-Mayor Edwin S. Stuart, candidate for Governor; Robert S. Murphy, candidate for Lieutenant Governor; Hon. Robert K. Young, candidate for Auditor General; Prof. Henry Houck, candidate for Secretary of Internal Affairs. Our local candidates, Hon, N. P. Wheeler, for Congress, and Truman D. Collins, for Assembly, will also be present on this occasion. The State candidates will be in charge of Col. Lewis E. Beitler, Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth, who is a close per sonal friend and neighbor of Mr. Stuart, the nominee for Governor. Major Alex. McDowell, one of best known and pleasantest speakers in the State, will also be member of the party.

a splendid likeness of Mr. Wheeler, says in connection therewith:

Hon. Nelson P. Wheeler, of Endeavor, Forest county, was here last Friday, getting acquainted with his prospective constituents. Mr. Wheeler is a fine looking man, with a pleasant manner that impresses all who meet him with his honesty and intelligence. * * It is needless to say that his men idolize him, and the people of his county, Forest, all respect him. He is an independent man, and is bound by no clique in a political way, and made ro promises, neither does he expect to in regard to his course in Congress, excepting the one that he has made to the people of this district, to give them a representation in Congress to the best of his ability. The people of the entire district will take pleasure in voting for him, and it is believed that he will secure a very large majority. There is no reason whatever why every Republican in the district should not vote for him. Lay aside the cares of life for one day and make it a point to be present on this casion, probably your last opportunity to meet the next Governor of Pennsylvania. Candidate Stuart is neither a scold nor a slanderer. His speeches are pleasant and convincing. They have the true ring of sincerity. No Republican need fear to tie to his candidate for Governor this year. He is a man of high principle, unsullied private life and spotless official record. Forest County Republicans we know will welcome their standard bearer upon the occasion of his visit to this county with enthusiasm and in large numbers.

Kellettyille's fine cornet band will turnish the musical inspiration, and a real gala day may be looked for.

One Way to Get a Persian Carpet. A woman who accompanied her hus band up the Khyber pass in Afghanistan tells how she saw a fine Persian carpet and coveted it. An assistant to their host went out and returning said "My head man says the owner of the carpet is a wicked old man, who will not sell his carpet at any price, but he has gone for the night to sleep in a little village close by, which is beyond British boundary. He wants to know if he shall make a hole in the wall of the mud but and steal it while the old sinner sleeps. Shall he walk in at once and kill him and take it? He will do whichever memsahib likes." Memsahib, however, discovered that she could live without the carpet after all.
