the evening, but the loss was not discovered until the next morning when the men came to work.

—The local base ball season will close next Friday afternoon with All-Titusville on the Tionesta grounds. Tionesta has been treated to some fine base ball this year and in this closing effort the boys should be given a rousing reception. The game will start about 3:30, or immediately after the close of the Republican rally. Don't forget the time and be on hand to see the fun.

—The much criticized verdict of "not guilty but pay the costs," finds a defender in Judge Criswell, of Venango county, who declares it to be entirely proper where the guilt of the defendant has not been proven, but it was shown nevertheless that he was at fault. "This verdict is based on the general law of the state," says Judge Criswell, "and persons who criticise it show ignorance of the law."

—The Presbyterian of Clarion at its meeting at Clarion last week dissolved the pastoral relation existing between Rev. Paul J. Slonaker and the Presbyterian church of Tionesta, resignation to take effect October 28th. The Presbytery also authorized Rev. Mr. Slonaker to declare the pulpit vacant on the above date, and Rev. John F. Scherer, of Endeavor, was appointed moderator of the session.

—Every male citizen twenty-one years and over should see to it that he qualifies himself for voting this fall. No one should neglect the important privilege and duty of exercising the elective franchise. Our state and national governments are built upon the will of the electors as expressed by the ballot, and it is important that all who can do so should qualify for voting. The most important duty just now is the payment of your taxes.

—The family of David Platner, residing about a mile above Endeavor, has been afflicted with typhoid fever for some time past, but the father and son Edward are about well from an attack.
Claude, another son, is down with the disease but is getting along well. Miss Nellie Platner, who came home from North Warren to assist in nursing the family, was taken down shortly after returning to Warren, but was doing well when last heard from.

—Following is the list of letters lying uncalled for in the Tionesta, Pa., postoffice for week ending Sept. 26, 1906:
Mr. E. D. McCollum, Miss Iola Mateer, card. D. S. Knox, P. M.

—Rev. Dr. James Conway, for many years pastor of the Brookville Presbyterian church, and a favorite with Tionesta congregations to whom he has frequently preached, has presented his resignation, which has been accepted. Dr.
Conway's health has been impaired and a rest, which he is now taking in his native home, Scotland, is essential to his recovery.

—The Punxsutawney Spirit, easily the leading country weekly of the State, began the issue of an evening edition on Monday last week which bids fair to take first rank among the inland dailies.
It has a lively telegraphic service, an excellent advertising patronage, and with Editor W. O. Smith at the helm is bound to meet with success in the journalistic field. Good luck to the new one. May its shadow ever spread.

—A. W. Cook started for Alaska a few weeks ago, but didn't get there. He went as far as Portland, Oregon, where he engaged passage for Alaska on the steamer Oregon. For some reason he concluded not to go, and returned to his home here.
He learned afterward that the vessel after sailing north from Portland ran on the rocks somewhere, and was reported sunk, or sinking. He was fortunate in not being on her.—Brookville Democrat.

—The citizens of Tionesta and community are favored in having a popular lecture course for the season of 1906-07.
The first attraction will be the DeKoven Male Quartette. This is a strong company. In the six years of their concert work they have never had an adverse criticism. They know how to entertain and please. The entertainments are for the benefit of the public and all are invited to attend the first attraction, October 17th.

—Ruby, the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Taft, of Endeavor, died on Thursday, after an illness of several weeks, from heart failure super-induced by hip joint disease as the result of an injury sustained some time ago.
She was a bright, winsome little miss, and her death comes as a great shock to the fond parents. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. F. Scherer, were held on Saturday, and were very largely attended.

—This is the time of year when one is justified in going daffy over the weather in this part of the country, thinks the Oil City Blizzard. We are now experiencing the gradual transition from the golden haze of September to the bracing crystalline freshness of early October. Here and there on our rock-ribbed hillsides a branch or bush turned crimson or yellow heralds the approaching carnival of gorgeous colors. Everything is ripe and nature is taking a breathing spell of contemplation and repose from her manifold activities. It is the season of seasons for enjoyment, and people in general are gradually coming to realize the fact.
Aye, glorious autumn.

—Citizens of Erie are taking the right course on the vaccination question. They are organizing and will petition the legislature to abolish the objectionable law.
The movement now under way in nearly all districts of this state will culminate next January in such a storm of indignation and protest that the legislature will be obliged to act. The law might be a good one if properly enforced through right channels. But in its present form it is an abomination and an outrage, which no people of independence and spirit could be expected to countenance.— Titusville Herald. Right you are. This obnoxious piece of legislation has done more to cause friction and demoralize the public schools than all other nuisances put together.

C. M. Arner Hurt By Fall.
Ex-Prothonotary Calvin M. Arner was painfully injured by a fall yesterday about noon. He was assisting Prothonotary Geist at court and in descending the main staircase stepped a moment near the top to converse with a friend when one of his crutches slipped from under him and he fell headlong over the banister to the floor below, a distance of fully 14 feet.
He received a bad cut over the right eye, his wrist was badly wrenched and the ackle of his only leg severely bruised, the latter hurt being the most painful. No bones were broken but his whole body was badly shaken up, and he feels pretty sore all over and will be laid up for several days. It was a narrow escape from very serious injury, and Mr. Arner considers himself fortunate in escaping as well as he did.

ship's staunch Republicans, was a business visitor in town Monday.

—Judge Sigins, of Tidoute, attending to business in Tionesta Saturday, gave us a pleasant call while in town.

—J. J. Jones, of Endeavor, who was drawn on the jury, but excused from service, gave us a pleasant call Monday.

—Lester A. Holeman came down from Erie Sunday for a short visit with his home folk and other friends, returning Monday.

—W. D. Shields, of Clarington, Democratic candidate for Assembly, was a pleasant caller at the REPUBLICAN office yesterday.

—Harry P. Bankhead went to Ridgway, Pa., the first of the week, where he will be employed in a wood-working establishment.

—Harry Harp and T. J. Reyer, Mari-enville jurymen attending court this week, paid the REPUBLICAN a visit Monday morning.

—Mrs. Maria Andrews and Mrs. Leon Watson, of Kellettsville, gave a luncheon party to a large number of their lady friends to-morrow.

—Miss Minnie Diehl, of Sheffield, Pa., and Misses Ethel and Hazel Wyler, of Warren, Pa., spent Sunday with their cousins, Mrs. Isaac McCoy.

—The Misses Martha and Elizabeth Stewart, Wilkinsburg, and Miss Jeannette Howe, of Sheffield, were guests of Mrs.
S. M. Henry over the Sabbath.

—T. D. Collins, Esq., of Nebraska, the Republican candidate for Assembly, was mingling with his many friends who were attending court this week.

—Among the REPUBLICAN'S welcome callers this week were J. B. Maze and W. A. Royer, of Barnett township, and constable James Grove of Kellettsville.

—Mrs. J. C. Sverling, of Liberty street, entertained Thursday, Sept. 13, in honor of her friends, Mrs. J. T. Carson, of Tionesta, and Miss Maude Over, of Mt. Zion, this county.—Clarion Democrat.

—F. R. Lanson and Allan Gordon are at Great Belt, Green county, Pa., where they recently bought the stock of a store which they will dispose of at retail, expecting to be engaged a month or six six weeks at the job.

—Miss Florence Klinefelter, of Warren, took advantage of the excursion to visit friends here over Sunday. She went to Nebraska to see her father, George Klinefelter, who has been in precarious health for some weeks past.

—William Wilkinson, well remembered by many of our people as a lumberman in this vicinity twenty-five or more years ago, is serving as a juror at court from Marienville this week, and is a guest of the editor's family while here.

—Misses Ora Stahlman, Stella Pierce

—Mary, aged about 15 years, daughter of Dr. A. E. Stonecipher, formerly of Marienville, this county, died on Sunday, 16th inst., at the family home in South Bend, Ind. The dispatch announcing her death to friends at their old home gave no particulars as to cause.
Many friends of the parents in this county will be sorry to learn of this bereavement.

—M. E. Abbott moved his household goods, which he had stored here, to East Hickory during the past week, and will occupy the house lately occupied by E.
E. Norton. We understand Mr. Norton has purchased a property in Titusville and last week removed his family to that place. East Hickory loses a good citizen in Mr. Norton and gains a good one in Mr. Abbott.

Marion, Ind., Mrs. Charles Hinkle, of Erie, Mrs. M. E. Abbott, of East Hickory, Miss Jennie Brown, of Brookville.
Altogether there were fifty guests who attended the pretty function.

Horse Thieves Are Busy.

A team of valuable horses was stolen Monday night from the barn of Amos Shotts, who resides on his farm at the Hagen church, Farmington township, Clarion county, about a mile from Tylersburg. The thieves got many hours start, as Mr. Shotts did not discover his loss until about five o'clock Tuesday morning when he went to do the chores.
A son of Daniel Brewster, a mile or more this side of the Shotts farm, saw the team being driven by their home in the direction of Tionesta shortly after midnight, but thinking it was Mr. Shotts did not give the alarm. The thieves also took a fine new top buggy with black box and rod running gear, valued at $85, and a good set of light driving harness. The horses were well matched pair of four-year-old mares, steel gray in color, the lead horse being a trifle darker than the other. They would weigh about 1,200 pounds each, were very lively and good roadsters. Mr. Shotts and Mr. Brewster traced the rig clear to Tionesta by the manner in which one of the horses was shod. Between two and three o'clock Tuesday morning several parties saw the rig being driven rapidly through town in charge of two men and heard them cross the river bridge. The last trace of them was at "Squire J. C. Hoover's, a mile and a half up Hunter run, who saw them pass his place going at a lively clip. All these parties could describe the horses and buggy, but attached no significance to the fast driving. Sheriff Stroup and Mr. Shotts went over into Crawford county Tuesday morning to see if they could find any trace of the thieves or the horses. Should they succeed in getting away it will be a big loss to Mr.
Shotts, as he refused $450 for the bare horses last week. Mr. Brewster's stable was also tampered with, as he found all the doors standing wide open in the morning.

Later news is to the effect that the thieves doubled on their tracks and crossed back to this side of the river, as a team and rig answering this description, in charge of two men, crossed on the ferry at President at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Court Minutes.

The regular September term of court convened here at the appointed hour on Monday forenoon. The constables' returns were received, after which the Grand Jurors were called and sworn and Edwin Goodwin, of Nebraska, appointed foreman. There were four criminal cases to be brought before the Grand Jury, and all the cases on the civil list were either continued or settled with the exception of that of George M. Miller vs.
J. M. Bemis & Son. This case was tried at a previous term of court, resulting for the plaintiff. A new trial was secured by the defendants, and the case will again go to a jury at the present term of court.
An extension of time to the November term was granted the viewers for viewing a proposed public road leading from Whig Hill to connect with the Newtown road.

A rule was granted to allow some 62 additional names to be added to the list of defendants in the case of T. D. Collins vs. the South Penn Oil Company.

A motion was made to dissolve what is known as the Independent School District in Green township. This independent school district, which comprised that part of the township lying in the vicinity of Gollinza, was organized in the year 1877. A majority of the families having moved away, the directors desire the district to be dissolved, and an order was made directing that notice be given the school directors proper of the township at least ten days prior to argument court, which convenes on the third Thursday in October, when the case will be disposed of.

On motion of Hon. J. H. Osmer, of Franklin, permission was given to amend the record in the case of A. B. Heath vs.
Harriet Russell.

The widow's inventory and appraisement was allowed in the case of John Charleston, deceased.

Permission was granted to sell real estate in the estate of Lewis Weingard, late of Harmony township, deceased.

L. J. Hopkins was appointed administrator of the estate of Mary Bruce, deceased.

The Court, in rather a lengthy opinion, discharged the rule to take off the non-suit in the case of J. M. Church vs. The Grandin Lumber Company.

The last case on the criminal list was disposed of yesterday.

Commonwealth vs. George Young, charge, statutory rape, was continued to next session of court on account of absence of alleged important witnesses.

Com. vs. J. W. Jones, charged with house breaking, jury returned verdict of guilty, and the court suspended sentence until next term of court, the defendant giving bail for his appearance at that time.

Com. vs. Saul Silvis, selling liquor without license, guilty.

Com. vs. Myron Daugherty, charge, assault, Geo. Huddleson, prosecutor.
Jury found defendant not guilty but to pay costs of suit.

The civil suit of Miller vs. Bemis is now on trial, this being the last on the list, the balance of the jurors were discharged.

Pain from a Burn Promptly Relieved by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.
A little child of Michael Strauss, of Vernon, Conn., was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold application only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to Mr. James N. Nichols, a local merchant, for something to stop the pain. Mr. Nichols says: "I advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application drew out the inflammation and gave immediate relief. I have used this ointment myself and recommend it very often for cuts, burns, strains and lame back, and have never known it to disappoint." For sale

A Grand Old Man Passes Away.

From the Palo, Mich., Post we learn of the passing away on the 24th of September of a citizen once an honored member of this community, Mr. Jabez Chapman Percival, whose memory is still revered by many of our older residents. Mr.
Percival was born at Greenbush, Rensselaer county, N. Y., Jan. 21, 1816, and at the time of his death was therefore in the 91st year of his age. In 1840 he was married to Polly Canfield Brooks, of Olean, N. Y. As a result of this union six sons were born, four of whom survive. In 1857 the family moved from Olean to Newtown Mills, Forest county, where they remained until 1868, when they removed to Palo, Mich., where the aged couple continued to reside until called to a blessed reward beyond the grave, the faithful, loving helpmate preceding him to "that bourne" but a few short years. Mr. Percival was carpenter by trade, and as a matter of choice he continued to follow that avocation to within a short time of his demise, retaining his physical vigor and mental facilities in a remarkable degree to the end. He loved to commune with nature, and while he resided in this community found much time to indulge in the pleasurable pursuit of the wild deer and other game which abounded in those days, a pastime we understand he found much pleasure and recreation in after he had reached the great age of 80 years.

It was in the church where the character of this venerable patriarch shone brightest, and where his work of more than seventy years told most for the cause of christianity. At the age of sixteen years he united with the Methodist Episcopal church, and ever afterward he was faithful, loyal and energetic in the Master's cause. In his daily walk and conversation he was upright and honorable, having the profound respect of young and old alike,—a grand old man whom everybody loved and revered. At his funeral his four surviving sons, James, Charles and Will, his grandson Fred H. Percival, and Ira S. Jeffers, a friend of many years' standing, acted as pall-bearers, and his body was laid to rest beside that of his beloved wife.

The Game Laws.

We are frequently asked about the lawful open season for game peculiar to this section, and so give below a comprehensive synopsis of the same, which we would advise each hunter to clip out and paste in his hunting hat.
Deer and fawn—Only one may be killed in one season. Open season, from November 15 to December 1.
Ruffed grouse or pheasant—Five may be killed in one day, 20 in one week and 50 in one season, which is from October 15 to December 1.
Hare or rabbit—Number unlimited.
Can be killed in November only.
Quail—Ten may be killed in one day, 40 in one week and 75 in one season. Can be killed only in November.
Web-footed wild fowl, swan, geese, or brant—Two in one day, 10 in one season. Can only be killed from September 1 to January 1 and the first 15 days of April.

Web-footed wild fowl, ducks of all kinds—Ten in one day and 100 in one season, September 1 to January 1, and the first 15 days of April.

Woodcock—Ten in one day, 20 in one week and 50 in one season. Can only be killed from October 1 to December 1.

Squirrel—fox, black or grey—Six of combined kinds in one day. Season, October 1 to December 1.

The above information is official and from a digest of the game laws issued by the state game commission.

Letter to C. A. Randall.

Tionesta, Pa.

DEAR SIR:—Our agent ought to sell nine-tenths of the paint of his town and region; no use to try for the other tenth.
The proportion of men, who won't take good advice, and use the least-gallons paint, is about one in ten among even owners of houses and stores and shops and barns and fences.

One man in ten will buy a gold brick or green goods, if he has the money and gets a good chance.

Devote at $1.75 a gallon is better than gold; adulterated and short-measure paints are green goods and gold bricks.

Devote saves half, more or less, of the labor and wages of painting; it is all paint; full strength and full measure.
There is no other such paint within ten per cent. Ten per cent of labor and paint is worth saving; and ten is the least.
There are scores of paints that throwaway half of both gallons and labor on whiting, china-clay, ground stone, barytes, benzine, water—all they are good for is to make gallons of nothing and look like paint in the can; more gallons to buy and more gallons to pay for putting—gold bricks and green goods. Here's how they work.

Judge L. D. Fairchild owns two houses exactly alike in Lufkin, Texas. J. H.
Torrence painted both houses; one Devoe, 15½ gallons; the other with another paint sold at same price; 25 gallons.
That 25 gallon paint is weak and 15 per cent whiting; that's why it took 9½ gallons more.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.,
New York.
