On account of previous engagement of hall the W. R. C., of East Hickory, has changed the time of the Hallow-e'en party to Saturday evening, Oct. 27.

We can fit the oldest and the youngest, the fattest and the leanest, in a ready-to-wear suit, and prices are made so your pocket book will easily stand the strain. Hopkins. It

S. M. Henry got a four-foot rattlesnake Monday while hunting on the hill across the river. Sam was sitting on a rock sunning himself, when he happened to look around and saw the snake lying near him. He says he jumped a rod more or less but took time to put a load of shot into the snake.

E. W. Bowman's cow died rather mysteriously in the pasture field last Thursday, so an investigation was made to reveal the cause. John Hood and James Johnston found thirty-two good sized wood-screws in the animal's stomach, and it's no wonder she died. Just how bossy absorbed so much hardware is pretty hard to explain. The cow was a very good one.

On Friday evening, October 26, the Hon. George B. Alden, of New York, will give his lecture, in the court house, on "Wit and Humor of Bench and Bar." The general admission is 50 cents, school children 20 cents. Judge Alden is a flowery, fluent, eloquent and humorous speaker. He has a vast field of anecdote from which to draw. To hear him will be an evening well spent.

In the November number of The Ladies' World, which handsome periodical grows handsomer every month, is begun a new serial by Julia Tritt Bishop, entitled "A Sister of Charity," a charming story. Next month some new characters will be introduced who will add much to its life and charm. The magazine throughout is clearly in the lead of all publications for ladies. S. H. Moore Co., New York, are the publishers.

The fleet of barges and flat boats which left Grundeville recently is the last of a series of fleets to start for Pittsburgh. The fleet contained 21 barges and 15 flat boats. The Warren Lumber Company has manufactured 20 barges and 230 flat boats in the past six years. The barges sell for $1,000 and the flats for $350, making the sum total of the boat business over $400,000. As the timber has all been cleared from the tract, the mill has been dismantled and will be removed.—Warren Times.

Mr. Wheeler, the Republican candidate for Congress, has been attending almost every meeting during the past three weeks in all parts of the district, and has developed into a very good talker before an audience. His receptions are of the most cordial sort, his mingling with the people, his honest, frank and pleasing manners, gaining him friends wherever he goes. Mr. Wheeler is made of the kind of material that wears well and grows in popularity with intimate acquaintance.

Clyde Foreman, who is inspecting engineer for the State on the new river road and who sees that it's properly done, thinks the contractor will be able to finish about three thousand feet before winter weather sets in. The foundation stone has been laid on a stretch covering several hundred yards so far and from this on the progress will be much more rapid. The width of the bed is 12 feet, which may seem narrow at first thought, but when you take a look at it the width appears ample for all practical purposes, and pretty well covers the average country road.

Arthur Blinn, son of H. F. Blinn, of Newtown, accidentally shot himself in the right foot on Monday last week. He had gone out to shoot a cat, when in some manner the gun he was carrying fell and was discharged, the load of shot entering his foot at the great toe and coming out at the instep. The foot was badly lacerated, but Drs. Detar and Seriff, of Kellestville, who were called to attend him, succeeded in saving it and he is recovering nicely. Mr. Blinn is having more than one man's share of misfortune, as in June last he was accidentally cut in the side by an axe in the hands of a fellow workman in the woods. Two ribs were severed and the lungs were penetrated and for a time his life was despaired of. He had just recovered from that injury when misfortune again overtook him.

PERSONAL

—Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kelly returned from Chicago Tuesday afternoon.

—Miss Bertha Lawrence was home from Buffalo Monday and Tuesday.

—Lester Holeman was home from Erie and remained over the Sabbath with his mother.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dove, of Warren, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Butler.

—W. C. Silze, of Kellestville, was a pleasant caller at the REPUBLICAN office last Friday.

—Mrs. Charles Pope and Mrs. M. F. Catlin, of Kellestville, were Tionesta visitors Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Haslet returned Tuesday evening from a week's visit in Pittsburgh.

—Miss Anna McCalmont, of President, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. W. F. Killmer, over Sunday.

—Mrs. George Holeman is paying a two weeks' visit to her daughter, Mrs. Merton Mealy, at Oil City.

—Z. T. Shiriver returned Sunday from Belmont, N. Y., where he was drilling in a well for a Jamestown company.

—Charles A. Hill Jr. came home Tuesday from Niagara Falls, where he has been employed for the past ten months.

—Miss Fern Bowman, a student at Clarion Normal, came home Saturday evening to spend the Sabbath with her parents.

—Stephen E. West, of Kellestville, and Chloe M. Reese, of Sheffield, were granted a marriage license in Clarion last week.

—Miss Mary Joyce, accompanied by Mrs. Ray, of Bradford, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Joyce, over Sunday.

—Mrs. Agnew, of Tionesta, was in the city Wednesday afternoon and inspected the Woman's Relief Corps. The occasion was a very enjoyable one.—Emlenton News.

A. J. Puffenburg, of Wilkesburg, who was called here to attend the funeral of his step-mother last Friday, remained over a day and met many of his old Forest county friends.

—Mrs. Charles Kepple, of Nebraska, left Tuesday to join her husband at Gale, Upshur county, W. Va., where he has charge of the log loader for the lumbering firm of Kepple & Moore.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Noxon, of Bradford, took advantage of the excursion Sunday to pay a visit to Tionesta friends, being guests at the home of J. C. Scowden till Monday afternoon. Mrs. Noxon and Mrs. Scowden are cousins.

—Mrs. W. E. Darts, of Warren, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Korb, of the Township, for a few days. She will go from here to Marion, Indiana, where her husband is engaged in oil operations, and where they will take up their residence for the future.

For the first time since his fall over the railing of the stairs at the court house, during the September court, Calvin M. Arner was able to come down town to his office Tuesday, making the journey in a wheeled chair. He is feeling pretty good again but cannot yet bear his weight on his injured ankle.

J. N. Sandrock and family have moved from Marienville and are now regular residents of our town, occupying the Friedman building, opposite the REPUBLICAN office, where Mrs. Sandrock conducts an up-to-date millinery establishment. Good citizens like these are always welcomed to the prettiest town between Pittsburgh and Warren.

One of the most notable social events that has taken place in Clarion for many years, was the marriage, on Wednesday last, of Mr. Frederick Bertrand Calvin and Miss Nellie Marie Neal, both of Clarion. The groom is a former Forest county boy, son of Mrs. Ida M. Calvin, and the late Samuel W. Calvin, once a prominent attorney of this county, with residence at Cooksburg. Clarion papers give glowing accounts of the happy affair.

—James G. Irwin, painter and paper hanger, who has spent the past two years in Tionesta, expects to leave for San Francisco, California, the last of this week, and will be accompanied by Benjamin Charleston, who goes to take up the painting trade with Mr. Irwin. Benjamin's place at the Club Rooms, where he has officiated as janitor for the past year and a half, will be filled by W. E. Morgan. Our best wishes go with the tourists and may they strike it rich at the "golden gate."

—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Turner, of West Hickory, received a telegram last week conveying the startling news of the serious illness of their son Harry, his disease being typhoid fever. Harry has been absent from home for more than two years with a railroad surveying party in British Columbia, the dispatch being sent from Kereoms, in that province, but it is altogether probable that he is some distance from the town. The parents started at once to go to the young man's bedside, calculating it would take seven or eight days to reach him.

Clarington. Gill Maze, of Butler, is visiting his grand-mother, Mrs. E. C. Maze, and between showers hunting some.

W. E. Slauchenhaupt was home over Sabbath.

G. W. VanHorn was a visitor to Ridgeway last week.

Mrs. Flora Clarke has returned to her home in Chicago.

RECENT DEATHS.

JOHN M. CLAPP. Captain John M. Clapp, in his 72d year, died at his summer home in Lakewood, N. Y., at 10:10 o'clock on Wednesday morning, Oct. 17, 1906, after an illness of several weeks. He was one of the best known figures of the Pennsylvania oil fields and one of the most successful business men in western Pennsylvania. He was a son of the late Rev. Ralph Clapp, one of the pioneers of this section and in 1840 founder of President, Venango county, his death occurring at that place in 1855. He was a brother of the late Edwin E. Clapp, at whose death, July 2, 1897, he succeeded to the large Clapp estate at President. Capt. Clapp was a veteran of the civil war, having recruited a company, at the call of President Lincoln, of which he became captain, and which was a part of the 121st Pa. Regt. Captain Clapp early became an extensive and successful oil operator. He secured the Jason farm on Triumph Hill, which was one of the best in that district. He was partner with E. R. and J. L. Grandin, of 4,000 acres of oil land in the Ballowtown district; 7,000 acres known as the Cook estate lease, and 7,000 acres on Salmon Creek. These properties were located in Forest county, and covered a belt which, drilling by the owners demonstrated, was seven miles in length. He also operated with the Grandins, the Henry lands in Warren county, comprising 4,000 acres, and in company with the Grandins and W. T. Scheide, of Titusville, the Westmore property in McKean county, comprising 14,000 acres, most of it good. Also 3,500 acres in the Tionesta field. Captain Clapp was, individually, the owner of a large lease in the Custer City development, which was the best paying proposition in his career as an oil operator. Locally, he was active as an operator on part of the property of his brother, E. E. Clapp, in President and Pinegrove townships, Venango county, drilling 250 wells there, and in the gray sand in Cranberry township, at East Sandy and Maple Shade. He was also a large owner of oil lands in the California field. He has many other extensive investments, among them banking and resident properties in Washington, D. C. Captain Clapp is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. R. C. Hall, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Alice Clapp, and one son, John H. Clapp, at home. Also by one sister, Mrs. C. C. McAllister, of Seattle, Wash. Captain Clapp was a noble, upright citizen, greatly revered for his many good qualities of mind and heart, and his death is a sad loss to the community in which his active life was centered. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon at New Castle, where his remains were interred.

MARVIN DALE. Marvin Webster Dale, who died at his home at Brown's Valley, Minn., on Oct. 6, 1906, was the youngest son of Jesse and Nancy L. Dale, pioneers, who settled at an early day on the banks of the Allegheny River, in Tionesta township, then Venango county, Pa., where Marvin was born Dec. 6, 1833. The family consisted of ten children, all of whom have passed over excepting Margery Walters, of Bel-denville, Wis. The subject of our sketch was twice married and leaves to survive him eight children. He left Forest county soon after the close of the war, going to Ash-tabula, Ohio, where he lived for several years, from whence he went to the State of Michigan, where he engaged in lumbering for some time, removing thence to Brown's Valley, Minn., where he passed the balance of his days, and where he had a fine farm and was engaged largely in stock raising, being quite successful in business. His relatives in western Pennsylvania are numerous, who will mourn his loss, being mostly located in Venango, Forest and Clarion counties, to whom it will be a cheerful thought as well to them as his surviving old friends, that he often thought and spoke of them in the latter days of his life, being by all regarded as an industrious, wide awake and cheerful man, whose life was full of sunshine. Without an element of gloom in his disposition he was best appreciated by those who knew him best.

MRS. WM. PUFFENBURG. Mrs. Elizabeth Merriam Puffenburg, relict of the late William Puffenburg, died at her home at Kellestville, Pa., Oct. 18, 1906, after an illness of about a month, of liver and heart trouble. The deceased was born in Peterboro, Canada, about 72 years ago, and on April 6, 1873, at the M. E. parsonage at South Oil City, she was united in marriage with William Puffenburg, with whom she lived happily until his death about 10 years ago. She was his second wife. No children were born of this union. "Auntie" Puffenburg, as she was affectionately known to all her friends, was a kind-hearted woman who was ever ready to do a kind deed for a neighbor or friend, or lend a helping hand to those in distress, and she will be much missed in the community where much of her life was spent. The funeral was held on Friday, conducted by Rev. R. J. Montgomery, and the remains were laid to rest in Riverside cemetery beside those of her husband. The pall-bearers were W. C. Silze, Geo. Zuendel, J. C. Miller, Richard Fair, J. F. Ray and James Bittenbender, all of Kellestville.
