Mr. Collins Thanks His Friends. To the many warm supporters of my candidacy for the Legislature I desire to express my sincere and heartfelt thanks. While unsuccessful in the contest I do not forget the brave fight made in my behalf by the Republicans of Forest county. and I shall ever hold them in grateful remembrance for their earnest and loyal support. I want all who gave me their support to feel that I appreciate their efforts as thoroughly as though we had

Mr. Wheeler's Magnificent Endorsement.

Following is the semi-official vote on Congress in this district:

2,841	1,0
3 1,803	1,3
1,879

10,461 8.590 Wheeler's plurality over Beshlin, 6,191. Wheeler's majority over all, 2,601.

When Nelson P. Wheeler's friends in Forest county urged him to allow his name to be used as a candidate for the Congressional nomination in this district they did so with the knowledge that in him they would have a good piece of timber with which to go before the people for their support. When the conference met in Franklin in June for the purpose of placing a candidate in the field, Mr. Wheeler's friends presented his name in the full confidence that they had the argument largely on their side-the plausible candidate. The magnificent vote of confidence which has been accorded him in the district is evidence their present membership, five of these conclusive that his friends were sure of being in Pennsylvania. Three of these their ground and that the voters throughout the district would learn to trust in two years ago from Democratic districts his honesty and sterling qualities as a and it is not strange that the districts man as readily as did his home people who had known him for more than forty eight makes a very comfortable majority years. Congratulations, both personal and by letter have come to Mr. Wheeler from all quarters since the election, all of which he thoroughly appreciates, and which he will endeavor to marit by his cast to secure an election to any candifuture course as the representative of the date-which means that he must have more than two hundred thousand people

THE official plurality in Pennsylvania for Mr. Stuart will be between lifty and sixty thousand. Large enough at least to indicate that he is thoroughly elected in every respect. It is likely that the balance of the Republican state candidates will have somewhat larger pluralities, possibly running up close to 75,000.

THE fur has been flying since the election in Democratic and Lincoln fusion circles, Each party charges the other with treachery and political treason, and both say it's the last mixup they will ever enter into with each other. To an outsider it looks as though both sides are correct in the charges and that neither did nor intended to play fair when the unholy alliance was formed.

WITH a little extra effort the Republicans of this district might have elected their candidate for State Senator, the indications being that Senator Hall's majority was cut down from the normal 2500, to less than 600. His brother, Harry Alvin Hall, was elected president judge of the Elk-Cameron-Clinton district by less than 200 majority. The district is normally Democratic by about 2,000,

So FAR as can be ascertained at the present time the Republicans will have a majority of fifty-eight in the next Congress, the Republicans having elected 221 and the Democrats 163 members, the latter party having made a gain of 26 over came in on the Roosevelt landslide of were re-captured by the enemy. It was kept in a separate receptacle, and I managed to get away with ster, was on a visit when it was brought out for his inspection. He was then very old and had some reputation as a man of science, and the scientific spirit moved him to wet his finger and rub it on the heart. He put the finger to his month after that, and before he could be stopped he put the heart into his mouth and swallowed it, whether by accident or design will never be known. Very shortly afterward he died and was buried in Westminster abbey, It is impossible he could ever have digested the thing. Consequently the heart of Louis XIV, must now be re-

HEART OF LOUIS XIV. How It Came to Be Burled In West-master Abbey. in the 28th district. We would like to his opponents. Under this law, it apre-produce all the nice things said of our pears that Charles M. Floyd, the Repubfellow citizen by the press of this dis- lican candidate, lacks only ten votes to trict did space permit. A few extracts will suffice:

Hon. Nelson P. Wheeler, of Forest county, a fine christian gentleman, is chosen to represent this district in the halls of Congress. He is no politician, but a plain, unassuming business man, who may be expected to do his whole duty as he sees it. He belongs to no

"To Uncle Joe Sibley: Uncle Nels Wheeler gives all indications of being a worthy successor to yourself, when it comes to outfooting the other fellow." "Mr. Wheeler's candidacy seemed to be a popular affair."--Franklin News,

Wheeler also ran. In the five counties comprising the Congressional district his plurality was 6,182. And he made no promises nor pledges to anybody. It is some lines mighty convenient to have a reputation for honesty .- Oil City Blizzard. Wheeler ought to be good to Venango county. He got more plurality than either of his opponents got votes.-Ve-nango Vindicator, Prohibition.

Mr. Wheeler is a practical lumberman, and it was even declared after his nomination had been won that his success was due very largely to the enthusiastic support given him by the "bark peelers" of Forest and Elk counties. 'Certain it was that some bark peelers had the balance of power in the district conference and they threw their strength to Mr. Wheeler with enthusiasm and admiration. Mr. Wheel-er is not a politician and he went before the people simply as an honest and patriotic business man who had a pure pur-pose to do good for his fellow men if elected to the office to which he had been called almost without lifting his own hand in favor of securing his nomination.

He had friends who were so sure of his fitness and ability and so enthusiastic in his support that the very air seemed to take on their enthusiasm when they chanted the praises of their ideal candidate for Congress. The conference to the district conference caught this fever and gave Mr. Wheeler the nomination and made it unanimous. The people all over manner of man this new Republican can-didate from the forests of Forest county was and when they read of his good qualities and fitness for the office, they too got enthusiastic and almost made the on unanimous too. We are glad to ble to print below Mr. Wheeler's big vote. His plurality is almost three big vote. His plurality is almost three times as large as the plurality of the vic-torious candidate for governor in this district. Isn't that truly great? That is not a plurality wrung from the people. but a booming vote given by the people to an honest man who does not know how to play political tricks, and who is too honorable to do anything tricky to win votes. A curious custom was at one time in igue at Gioucoster, Mass., which iljustrates the sacredness which seems to surround a fish net and the protection which the law affords that class of property. Whenever it became necessary to quarantine a house because of smallpox or other contagious disease the quarantine was effected by stringing nets about the building on the outside. The penalty for disturbing a net was so great that no one dared to meddle with the barrier.

A Girl's Revolt Against an Award of

Valedletory Honors,

"I think the greatest shock I ever experienced and the biggest revolt against my discipline occurred when I was teaching in a country high school," said the schoolteacher. "It was in a school where the valedictory honor was awarded by popular vote of the school, a most unjust method, by the way, but one to which I was forced to succumb. The girl who received the most votes was by no means the best scholar, and the pupil who ranked highest in scholarship was plainly indignant. "Every boy and girl in the class was obliged to write and read a graduation essay, and it was my task to look these essays over and aid in the rewriting of them. The pupil who ranked the highest in the class handed in her essay to me with some defiance, and in it I found some reference to the valedletory honor being rightly hers. I cut it out and told her plainly that nothing of that sort should go into her paper. She agreed to leave it out.

"The graduation exercises were pass ing off splendidly when it came her turn to read her essay. She had a facile way of writing, and I was proud of her, but when she reached what I knew was the conclusion she stepped forward a little and proceeded to deliver two pages of regulation valedictory. She bade farewell to the class, the school and the teachers, and of course we could not stop her. It took all the sails out of the chosen valedictorian, who followed, and after the exercises there was much walling and hot words. We couldn't do a thing, as the sinner was now a graduate of the school, and we had no right to punish her, but it took me all summer to get over the effect of such a stunning performance."-New
