Goods are going some at the Hopkins store these days. Those post-inventory bargains are striking the public about right, we should say. Don't fail to get your share.
 Bradford has 47 fraternal societies. One of them, a colored organization, is called the "Light of Bradford." Funny, isn't it?—Blizzard. Not so very funny after all. Bradford may be a very dark place.
 This looks a trifle more like winter, but that's the way it looked a week ago, since which we have had all kinds of spring and summer climate. This morning is a stinger, with the thermometers ranging from 10° to 12° below zero.

A glance at the advertisement of the Oil City Trust Company, published elsewhere in this issue, furnishes a good idea of the various branches of their business, as well as attracting attention to the fact that they pay Four Per Cent. on time deposits.
 It cost Amos Shotts $365.00 to recover his gray team of horses stolen from his barn last September by Charles Thomas and Tallman. Thomas is now serving a long sentence in the "pen," while Tallman was held at Erie on another charge of stealing.

On behalf of the relatives of the late James K. Green, of West Hickory, the REPUBLICAN is requested to tender their grateful thanks to the many kind friends who assisted, sympathized with and comforted them in their recent sorrow and bereavement.
 Blaine Seator, the 17-year-old son of ex-Treasurer Harry Seator, of Indiana, strangely disappeared from his parents' home in Indiana on Friday morning, January 11th. He stands 5 feet 10 inches high and has light hair and fair complexion. He is also left handed, except when writing.

The national guard of this state will have new equipments this season, there being several changes in the uniform now worn. In place of the present cap an entirely new style will be used, as will also belts and cartridge holders. They will be ready for delivery to the various companies before the annual inspection.

The following "special" under date of January 15, from Elkins, W. Va., is of interest locally, Mr. Bell being a former resident of Marienville, this county: "A deal has just been consummated here involving over $150,000 in the sale of the timber land of J. Scott Bell at Moore, Tucker county. The purchaser was John G. Rouse, of Baltimore. There is said to be about 4,000 acres in the tract."
 A year ago about now, or to be accurate, on the 21st of January, 1905, thermometers were registering a temperature all the way from 70 to 80 degrees, Fahrenheit, in this latitude, depending upon the position of the instrument. It was different this year, Monday, the 21st, being one of the sunniest days of the new year, and the best the thermometer could do was to show up about 10 degrees above the zero mark.

County Commissioners Agnew, Wolf and Emert started Monday morning to make the rounds of the county and hear appeals from the triennial assessment. Monday they were at Kellestville, yesterday at Piceon, and today they will be at Marienville. Clarington, Barnett township will be their stopping place tomorrow, which will finish the eastern portion of the county. The last appeal day will be on the 31st, in Tionesta borough.

Saturday while playfully working with the family sewing machine, the seven-year-old daughter of Wm. McKee, whose home is on the river hill road in Tionesta township, ran the needle through the forefinger of her left hand. Finding herself thus pinned to the machine she turned the wheel back and pulled the needle out. The wound was very painful, but the child is getting along as though no evil results would follow the accident.

Railroad men will appreciate the following story told in the Youth's Companion: One of the suburbs of Chicago is the site of a well-known school of theology, from which go out each week end many members of the senior class to try their voices as "supplies." A passenger on a Monday morning train was surprised at the number of them who got off at the station. "What are all these chaps getting off here?" he asked a brakeman. "Them?" asked the brakeman. "Oh, they're returned empties from the college."

Sabbath School Conference.
 BROCKWAYVILLE, PA., Jan. 17, 1907.
 DEAR MR. EDITOR:—Will you please allow me to send a letter to the Sabbath schools of Forest county through the columns of your paper. I send a letter, not to talk shop, but to invite representatives of Sabbath schools of all denominations in Forest county to Tionesta on February 6th, 1907, to attend a Sabbath School Conference in the M. E. church, beginning at 1:30 p. m. Rev. Charles F. Irwin, of Pittsburg, Field Worker of Pennsylvania's State Sabbath School Association, and one other State officer will be present. The object is business throughout and to get the Forest County Association on a sound working basis for 1907. Forest county opens wide to us the door of opportunity. Let us enter it together and together plan to be mutually helpful to each other for His sake, and let us pray for each other, "for we are laborers together with God," and for God. Let just as many as possibly can from every Sabbath school in the county come. Remember, you are invited, officers, teachers and pupils. Sincerely,
 Your President and Co-worker,
 PAUL J. SLOKAKER.

Aged Man Found Dead.
 Grannison Grove, aged 81 years, formerly a prominent resident of Chapmanville and vicinity, was found dead in the woods about a mile south of Chapmanville, Vanango county, on the Diamond and Sunville road, about 6 o'clock Sunday evening, by his wife. He had gone to the barn shortly after 5 o'clock, to look after his usual chores, and when he did not return as early as generally, his wife, searching for the cause of the unaccounted delay, found his dead body in a cow stall. Neighbors assisted Mrs. Grove in carrying the body into the house and Dr. Richey, of Chapmanville, was called. He could not learn the cause of the aged man's sudden demise, but it is the general supposition that it was brought about by heart failure or apoplexy.

The deceased was well known to many Tionesta people, having been a frequent visitor here. He was a brother of Mrs. Eliza Paup of Tionesta, and the late Mrs. J. A. Proper. Besides his widow, one son, David Grove, survives.

Porkey Items.

Mrs. Murphy returned home Monday after a few days' visit with her parents. Miss Tonia Zuendel, of Ross Run, is visiting her sister, Mrs. B. J. Weller.
 The Donaldson moving picture entertainment, which was held in the school house last Wednesday evening was quite largely attended.
 Mr. Fairweather returned to his work here after spending Sunday with his family at Kane. Mr. Fairweather and son have the job of stocking A. L. Weller's mill up Porkey Run.
 Frank Littlefield, of Russell City, spent last Sunday in town visiting his parents.
 Mrs. Luella Cunningham, of Kellestville, and Miss Mary Cunningham, of Oil City, visited Mrs. H. E. Gillespie last Wednesday.
 Mrs. Daniel Downey, and Mrs. Earl Downey and two children spent a part of last week visiting the former's son and family at Henry's Mills.
 Arthur Stroup, of Tionesta, the line walker for the Wilburne Oil Co., passed through town last Tuesday evening on his weekly round.
 Geo. Matha, of Nebraska, paid his brother, Archie Matha, a visit last week, previous to his departure for Washington State.
 Jacob Swartzlager returned home Friday evening, after spending the week at the mouth of Pitlake Creek, where he has the contract for a lumber job.
 Mrs. B. J. Weller was called to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Zuendel, of Ross Run, Friday, on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Alonzo Graham, who is suffering from cancer.
 Mrs. H. E. Gillespie and Miss Kittie Hepler called on friends at Trueman's Saturday afternoon.
 Mr. Brown, of Mayburg, ran a special train from Mayburg to Bluejay and return, to accommodate those who wished to attend the home talent play, which was given in the opera house at Mayburg Saturday evening. Quite a number of our people attended.
 O. E. Rupert and Homer Burdick attended the union Sabbath school at Mayburg Sunday.
 There will be quarterly meeting services held at Minister next Sabbath, Jan. 27th, Preaching service Thursday evening, Jan. 24th, and again on the following Sabbath. Presiding Elder Rich will be present.

Olive Branch Mission.

I feel sure the many friends in Forest county of Miss Mary J. Eyerhart, will be glad to hear something of her work in Olive Branch Mission, 35 S. Desplains St., Chicago. Thirteen years ago I visited the mission for the first time and all these years I have read with much interest the vivid pictures Miss Eyerhart has given in her paper. Yet I had no idea the conditions were as bad as they are.
 One would have to come and stay some time to really know all sides of their work. But you would not have to stay long to be fully convinced that the only reason why she and her faithful band of workers are there is for the love of Christ and lost souls. There is not one redeeming feature to it all until you pass into that dingy old hall and see the glad, happy faces of those workers, and hear one after another of those men tell what they have been and see how clean and decent they are now. You would say at once, "Truly, God has done this." They pick up men who have been well raised, college men, doctors, lawyers, etc., in fact men of nearly every profession, who have gotten down through drink or misfortune of some kind, but when brought to see that there is pardon for such as they, accept it with all their hearts. When they come back again, cleaned up and their faces bright with a new light, how it makes one's heart rejoice. Then the spirit that exists in the mission and home is all that the most critical person could ask of any Christians. For instance, one Sabbath afternoon at the converts' meeting, an aged gentleman got up and pointing to a man a few seats back, said: "Brother, you are all wrong; you are trying to fight the devil in your own strength and if you don't stop it and let God do that for you, you will fail." Knowing the characters some of these men have been I naturally looked for trouble. I glanced at the leader, Miss Winn, and as I did so she coolly said "Amen." After ten or fifteen minutes had passed, the man thus addressed arose and reaching for the other fellow's hand, said: "Brother, I thank you. I believe you are right and by the grace of God I'll take your advice." Again, in the Rescue Home they have a Catholic girl who has been there about four months. Said she, "I have never seen such folks as these. They are always happy and they treat me just as if I were one of them. I expected at Thanksgiving and the holiday time to be very lonely, but some way I forgot to be. When everything goes wrong Miss Eyerhart says, 'Praise the Lord.' In fact," said she, "I came near saying it myself the other day when something happened in the kitchen." Della is a noble girl and no one could be more kind and respectful than she is for all the kindnesses that have been shown her. A friend and I went slumming with some of the workers one Sabbath morning. At the police station lodging houses and saloons a hush would settle over the room as soon as they entered, and those men would listen with much interest to the prayers, exhortations and songs. Then they gave each a tract or paper and invited them to come to the mission. Many of these men and women are not only dirty and filthy but are covered with vermin, yet those girls kneel beside them anywhere in the hall they can get one to pray and plead with God to save them as if they were the most respectable. I think if they show any partiality it is for the "Old Bum."

When the roll is called in heaven and all those who have been brought from darkness into His marvelous light answer to their names, then and only then will we know the good that has been accomplished through the prayers and self-denial of this noble woman and her band of consecrated workers. We esteem it a great privilege to live near enough to Chicago to occasionally visit this part of the master's vineyard. While all can not have this opportunity, all can help them to carry on this grand work by your prayers and means.

Cordially Yours,
 HATTIE G. LITTLE,
 Oak Park, Illinois.

Child Fatally Scalded.

Raymond, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cunningham, of Eagle Rock, was so badly scalded at their home last Saturday morning that his death ensued Tuesday, Jan. 22d, at 12:15 p. m. Between nine and ten o'clock on Saturday morning the father and a neighbor had butchered a pig and had it scalded and cleaned ready to hang up. The little boy who was playing about the place, got upon the platform where the cleaning was done and in some manner slipped and fell backwards into the scalding-barrel. He was quickly rescued from his perilous position, but not before he had been badly scalded by the hot water, the whole upper portion of the body, with the exception of the face and left arm, being affected. Dr. F. J. Boyd, of this place, was summoned and soon relieved the suffering of the little patient, but could not hold out much hope of his ultimate recovery. He continued to sink until death claimed him at the time above noted. He was conscious until a brave few hours of the end and made a brave fight for life.
 William Raymond Cunningham was aged 6 years and 2 months. He was a bright and interesting child and his tragic death was a shock to the community. The grief-stricken parents have the sympathy of all in their hour of sorrow. Besides the parents, a sister and brother, Helen and Hugh, are left to mourn. The funeral services will be held to-morrow, Thursday morning, and the remains will be interred in St. Joseph's cemetery, Oil City.

F. A. Hoff sold the mail route to Geo. Huff.
 Union meetings have been going on for two weeks and will continue this week. Rev. Showers, of Punxsutawney, was here for ten days and Rev. Riley, of Callensburg, for one week. Quite an interest is shown and the meetings are well attended.
 John Coon and wife spent a few days visiting in Brookville.
 A. R. Braden purchased a fine team from Robert Simpson, of Scotch Hill.
 Local institute was held at Cooksburg Saturday. Our teachers and young people attended and took part. Messrs. Hill, Hotel and Greenhill were the characters in a negro dialogue.
 Running lumber, trapping, and going to cut pit posts seems to be all the talk at present.
 C. H. Shawkey was at home a few days with rheumatism.
 W. W. Callen made a flying business trip to Warren, Jamestown, and Kane last week.
 H. W. Breneman had a narrow escape from being killed in the woods. He was cutting down a tree and in falling it struck another one and while trying to get away it caught him by the legs. No bones were broken but he has some bad bruises. He is using crutches and it will be some time before he is able to work.
 J. R. Landis, who is spending the winter at Loleta, was down a few days last week.
 Frank Cassatt has been laid up a few days with rheumatism.
 Mrs. Hilda Grady, of Fisher, is visiting in town.
 Mr. Robison and family of Pittsburg, were visiting L. C. Frantz.
 W. D. Shields has returned to his duties at Hartsburg.
 W. J. Mays lost a good dog last week.

and Silver Plated Ware.

In 1906 Bar Silver advanced 40 per cent., reaching the highest point in ten years. Last October all the manufacturers of Silver Wares advanced prices, but we sold our goods at the old rate. Having received notice of another 10 per cent. advance we are compelled to raise our prices, which we will do on January 15th. Save money by buying now.

HOPKINS' STORE.

The Annual Inventory Just Taken

Has unearthed quite a lot of good seasonal goods that must be disposed of.

We have too many Heavy Working Coats.

We have too many Leather Coats.

We have too many Overcoats.

We have too much Winter Underwear.

We have too many Hats and Caps.

In Order to Reduce Those Lines

To where they belong, we will make reductions that will move the goods right along. Sizes are somewhat broken. The longer you wait the worse it will be. Come early and get your choice.

DO YOU WANT SATISFACTION?

Try Our Torpedo Service.

We have demonstrated to a large number of Oil Operators since we began manufacturing Nitro-Glycerine, a month ago, that we can shoot oil wells, and do it proper.

Our Glycerine Speaks for Itself.

It is always new, fresh stock, made from the best material obtainable, and brings results that are highly satisfactory.
