Pottstown, Feb. 12, -- Charles M. Schwab, representing the Bethiehem Steel company, has purchased the mines of the Boyertown Ore company for a consideration said to be between $400,000 and $500,000. The rights obtained by the Bethlehem company cover mineral privileges on 300 acres of land. The mines, which are near Bovertown, are said to be the largest of their kind in Penusylvania, the deposits being of Bessemer-magnetic ore.
