It appears that the report of the destruction by fire of the McCrea house, at Eagle Rock, mentioned in the papers last week, was erroneous to some extent. The house was on fire, and the second story badly damaged, but it did not burn down.

The river closed with ice at this point on Monday night, the first time this winter. It is frozen over between here and Oil City, and for many miles above, probably to its source. From appearances at this writing there is no immediate prospect of the ice breaking up, either.

A new swindler is traveling through the country, selling barbed wire fence stretcher machines. The salesman leaves the machine and four rods of good fence for trial, requiring the farmer to sign for the return for the stretcher. The farmer signs for $3 and invariably it turns out to be $300.

We are informed that Messrs. Shields & Long drilled in on the Winlock lands last week an oil well which flowed sixty barrels on two occasions and on the third flow found the tanks full as a result of the cold weather and flowed some fifty or sixty barrels out on the snow.—Brookville Republican.

The ice harvest hereabouts is about over with, a good quality 6 to 8 inches in thickness having been garnered by our citizens and business men. Thus is one more famine specter brushed aside, and lemons, soda water, and other summer liquid concomitants will be kept at a temperature to tickle the palates of the epicures.

While February is the shortest month it is the longest on holidays. Yesterday was Lincoln's birthday, next comes election day, 19th, then Washington's birthday, 22d. Now if groundhog and St. Valentine's days were included there wouldn't be much left of the little month that usually makes the gas meter hump themselves.

According to the Warren Times, a clairvoyant of that place, declares that Gust Bengtson, who so mysteriously disappeared from the Eagles' club rooms some weeks ago, is alive, but does not divulge his whereabouts. That's the trouble with clairvoyants. What you really want to know is just what they don't tell you.

Supt. W. L. MacGowan, of Warren, Pa., has been selected to give his illustrated lecture on Yellowstone National Park and Wonderful Alaska, in the court house here, on the evening of Feb. 22d, in the interests of the Summer School. Supt. MacGowan has a great collection of views, the result of his personally conducted tour of these places, which are thrown on the screen and in his lecture he gives a fine account of the places. This is an entertainment which will be of great interest and the purpose is worthy of support. A small admission fee will be charged.

The Warren National Bank, which is one of the REPUBLICAN'S new advertisers, has advanced the interest rate on time deposits, upon which four per cent. per annum will be paid, the same to be credited and compounded semi-annually. The Warren National is one of the substantial institutions of the country, and its patrons fully appreciate its method of doing business.

Mrs. J. Y. Siggins, of Pleasantville, died at her home Wednesday, Feb. 6th, after a month's illness of pneumonia and pleurisy, aged 55 years. She is survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. W. B. Britton, Indiana, Pa.; Mary Siggins, Pittsburg; Charles Siggins, Montpelier, Indiana; Grace Siggins, Sharrow; Willis Siggins, Canada; Mrs. W. J. Arnold and Donald Siggins, Pleasantville; also by two sisters, Mrs. W. J. Byers and Miss Hattie McCullough, of Pleasantville. The funeral was held Friday.

Squire S. S. Canfield, who was nominated at the recent Republican caucus in the borough for the office of justice of the peace, has withdrawn from the canvass on account of impaired health, feeling that he might not be able to attend to the duties of the office were he to be elected. The genial Squire feels very grateful to his friends for the honor conferred upon him by the caucus and for the cordial assurances of support, and is sorry that the precarious state of his health is such that he cannot accept the honor. He hopes that his withdrawal will be received in the same good faith in which it is made.

The grip is not simply a bad cold, as any one will tell you that has had a dose of it, and the fact is worth knowing. It resembles a cold in some respects, and colds are often wrongly diagnosed by victims as grip. The grip is a malady which has laws of its own, both as to origin and progress after development. According to the doctors it must run its course—"there is no special remedy that can directly destroy the infection, no drug that can kill the bacillus or neutralize its toxin." This also is worth knowing. The main thing is to nurse with care and give the system the best possible aid in its efforts to throw off the poison.

RECENT DEATHS.

JOHN M'INTYRE.
John McIntyre, one of Forest county's oldest citizens, and a resident of Harmony township for more than a half century, died at the home of his son, the old homestead, on Saturday, Feb. 9, 1907, at 10 o'clock a. m., after an illness lasting about one week. Mr. McIntyre was born in county Donegal, Ireland, April 24, 1813, and would have reached the ripe old age of 94 years had he lived a few weeks longer. This is a remarkable age, and is attained by but few people in this day. When a lad of 16 years he went to Scotland where he grew to manhood, and where, in 1854, he was united in marriage with Elizabeth Elliott, who preceded him to the grave eight years ago last November. This union was blessed with the birth of seven children, all but one of whom survive, as follows: James, of Bolivar, N. Y.; Robert, of Salem, W. Va.; Elizabeth, wife of Alex. Neely, of Pleasantville; Joseph, of Neilltown; Matthew, at the old homestead; and Florence, wife of Ed. Landers, of Littleton, W. Va. Twenty-one grandchildren and two great grandchildren also survive.

Fifty-two years ago Mr. McIntyre emigrated with his wife to America, and after about a year's residence on what was once the Cassel Jamieson farm, and three years on the J. I. Range farm, he bought and cleared up the place where he spent the remainder of his life, 48 years. He was one of the most genial of men, kind and generous, a loyal friend, and a good neighbor, honest and upright in all his transactions, and beloved by all who knew him. He died a faithful member of the Wesleyan Methodist church, with which he united fifteen years ago. The funeral was held at the White church yesterday at 11 o'clock, Rev. L. W. Strong officiating, and the remains were laid to rest beside those of his wife in the Concord cemetery at the Bean Farm.

MRS. ANN E. OVER.

Mrs. Ann E. Over, whose maiden name was Packer, was born in Center county, Pa., June 14, 1818, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Glensing, Morgantown, W. Va., February 8, 1907, being then nearly 91 years of age. Mrs. Over had been blessed with remarkably good health, notwithstanding her great age, until in June of last year, when she sustained a slight stroke of paralysis, and from that time until her death was unable to leave her bed. She endured her suffering without a murmur, exemplifying to the last the peaceful, sweet and contented spirit which had characterized the whole of her long life. It is more than 40 years ago that she came to Tionesta with her family, residing here a number of years, and then went to live with her daughters at Tidioute, Marienville, and lastly at Morgantown. She is best remembered here as having lived with her daughter, now deceased, Mrs. Myra, wife of P. M. Clark. Two daughters, Mrs. Rowland Cobb, of Clarksburg, W. Va., and Mrs. Glensing, are the only surviving members of the family. They arrived here Monday with the remains of their mother, whose wish it was to be buried here, and short services were conducted at 2 o'clock in the M. E. church, by the pastor, Rev. W. O. Calhoun, and the interment was made in Riverside cemetery. A nephew of the deceased, Mr. David Whitehill, of N. Clarendon, Pa., also attended the funeral. Mrs. Over had been a consistent member of the M. E. church for a great many years, and died in that faith.

I. L. SHIMP.

Isaac L. Shimp, a former well known citizen of this place, died at Dayton, Ohio, where he was making his home with his daughter, Jan. 16, 1907. He was aged 64 years and 4 months, and leaves surviving him one daughter, Mrs. Virginia Hardin, and two sons, Frank and Cessie, all of Dayton, and one step-son, George Miller, Mr. Shimp's wife, who was a daughter of Adam Emert, of German Hill, died several years ago, and is buried in Tionesta. A daughter, Myrtle, who died about four years ago is also buried here. The remains of the deceased were buried in Clifton cemetery, near his home at Dayton. Mr. Shimp was a man of genial and good-natured disposition and had many friends wherever he was known, who will regret to learn of his death.

C. M. ARNER & SON,

Tionesta, Pa.

DEAR SIR:—Some people get disappointed in painting; it doesn't come out as they thought it would.

C. B. Edwards, of Edwards & Broughton, printers, Raleigh, N. C., painted his house Devos three years ago; he had used 30 gallons paste paint before and bought 30 gallons Devos. Had 16 left. Paste paint is extra-thick—with white-wash.

Mayor W. W. Carroll, Monticello, Florida, says: My painter said it would take 35 gallons to paint my house; he took 29 gallons Devos. His house is the best painted job in town; and he says Devos is the whitest white of all white paints.

Jones & Rodgers bought 5 gallons Devos to prime Mr. Pratt's house at Merkel, Texas. It painted two coats.

The reason for nobody guessing little-enough Devos is: they learned in a bad school; other paints.

Tionesta's Buildings Since 1880.

Our townsman, George B. Armstrong, who came to Tionesta in the year 1880, some 27 years ago, has been thinking up a little on the growth of the borough and furnishes us the data of building operations that have taken place since that date. It is quite a task, but we guess George has got a pretty complete list of all dwellings and business houses that have been erected, together with those that have been remodeled within the borough limits, the count making the number 200. What It Will Cost.

It will cost $48.00 for board, laundry, lighted, heated and furnished room at the Claron State Normal for the fourteen weeks of the spring term. Write for catalogue and illustrated matter to J. George Becht, Principal, Claron, Pa.

I had been sick for two years with backache and kidney trouble. With great effort or pain could I get out of a chair or bed. I tried all the leading kidney cures, and doctored with one doctor all winter, but got very little relief. After taking three bottles of Thompson's Barosma I was entirely cured, and have been for three years. My wife also had been troubled with her back but one bottle of Barosma cured her. P. M. Smith, Plum, Venango county, Pa. Dunn & Taiton.

Neighborhood Notes.

Butler has 46 applications for liquor licenses, wholesale and retail, an increase over any previous year.

The first train to pass over the new railroad bridge across the river at East Sandy was sent across that fine structure at 10:30 o'clock on the morning of the 5th inst. It was composed of the locomotive and four cars.

The P. R. R. will change the name of Rockwood station, Oil City's favorite up-river resort, to Rockmere. This action is taken to eliminate the confusion caused in railroad circles by having two stations of that name. The other Rockwood is in Somerset county.—Blizzard.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Watson, of Spring Creek, have been awarded damages of $1,000 and costs, against the Pennsylvania railroad company, by an Erie county jury. The couple sued to recover as judgment for the death of their 7-year-old son, who was run down by a company engine, at Spring Creek, last fall.

A peculiar complication has developed in connection with the voting at the recent primaries for candidates for local offices in Bradford, Pa. It appears that J. S. Fisher, Democratic candidate for city assessor, received as many Republican votes as did E. Wallace Mullin, the Republican candidate. A tie has resulted and just how it is to be settled has not yet been announced.

There were 42 cases of typhoid fever in Kittanning during January and the water being used there has been condemned as being dangerous by the board of health and an expert retained to analyze it. Health Officer Reid, who is paid $5 per month, has resigned on account of the large amount of work the epidemic has entailed, but the quarantine regulations will be maintained. At Warren, Pa., the water supply is under suspicion and the borough has about made up its mind to follow the example of Oil City and drill wells to the rock strata at the edges of the river to secure naturally filtered and pure water.

Muzette.

A sled load of young people from Guiltonville enjoyed a sleigh ride to our town Saturday evening and were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shoup.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Waterson and daughter Mary spent Sunday with their son John, who resides at Scotch Hill.

A very important business transaction took place in our town last Friday when Milton Eikenburg and Wm. Shoup traded dogs. Each fellow had the best dog and both got beat.

Squire Zuende, of Kellettsville, spent Thursday night with his son Howard, at this place.

Miss Ida Eikenburg, after a four weeks' stay in Claron, has returned to our town. Charlie McElravy is busy hauling fence posts to Marienville.

Mrs. Eliza Irwin is on the sick list but is improving.

Dr. S. G. Beatty of Leeper, while passing through our town last Wednesday stopped and took dinner with Wm. Shoup.

Wm. Shoup took a load of hay to Fox Creek last Friday.

The Proper Oil Co. moved their drilling rig to this place and will commence operations soon.

A darkey gentleman passed through our town Sunday and gave Mrs. Shoup a call for bread and butter. SNOW BALL.
