ANNOUNCEMENTS.

TERMS.—County Treasurer, $10. State Legate, $5. Strictly in advance.

COUNTY TREASURER.

We are authorized to announce ROBERT H. HOLMAN, of Tionesta, as a Republican candidate for County Treasurer, at the ensuing primary election, Saturday, June 1st.

We are authorized to announce JOSEPH W. HICKORY, of Hickory township, as a Republican candidate for County Treasurer, at the ensuing primary election, Saturday, June 1st.

We are authorized to announce WADE I. BRAZEE, of Kingsley township, as a Republican candidate for County Treasurer, at the ensuing primary election, Saturday, June 1st.

We are authorized to announce JOHN S. GILBERTSON, of Howe township, as a Republican candidate for County Treasurer, at the ensuing primary election, Saturday, June 1st.

An observant exchange remarks that John D. Rockefeller says he is opposed to overcapitalization. It was an Indian who said, "Too much is too much, but too much whisky is just enough."

HERE is a tough crack for some one from the PUNNY SPIRIT: "If the anti-pass clause has as favorable effect on the judiciary as it has had on Legislatures, government ownership of railroads may not be necessary."

THE bill increasing the liquor license tax of retail dealers in townships, $25, and $50 in boroughs and cities of the third class, and $100 in cities of the first and second class, has been signed by Governor Stuart. This additional tax is for the use of the State, the municipalities getting none of the funds provided by the increase.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S Cabinet at the present time is made up as follows: Secretary of State, Elihu Root, New York; Treasury, George B. Cortelyou, New York; War, William Taft, Ohio; Attorney General, Charles J. Bonaparte, Maryland; Postoffice, George Von L. Meyer, Massachusetts; Navy, Victor B. Metcalf, California; Interior, James R. Garfield, Ohio; Agriculture, James Wilson, Iowa; Commerce and Labor, Oscar S. Straus, New York.

IT is a gratification to know that Governor Stuart is vigorously fulfilling his pre-election pledges, and the probe is being sunk deep into the capitol scandal by the legislative committee having the investigation in charge. There is every evidence that the inquiry is to be thorough with no whitewashing. Let no guilty man escape. If collusion to defraud the state is shown, put the colluders where they belong no matter how high up in life's station they may be. Give grafters to understand that a Republican administration will tolerate no kind of crookedness in the public service.

A PROMINENT horseman states that horses do not often fear to pass an automobile if the driver of the machine dismounts and stands beside his car. When the chauffeur sits in his seat the horse sees nothing between himself and danger and makes trouble. But when man, his friend and master, is seen to stand between him and trouble he takes new courage and passes the fearful thing. This horseman says that if drivers of automobiles, when they see a frightened horse, would dismount the danger of the reinsman would be greatly lessened. It is an interesting statement and a highly useful one.

THE Wilkesbarre Times argues against the proposed constitutional amendment to abolish the February election because it keeps the municipal election should be kept free from partisan issues that are inevitable at the November elections. And perhaps the point is well taken.—Blizzard. There's no doubt about the point being well taken. Who would want the petty township and borough elections to interfere with a warm political scrimmage in November? What good could come from such a mix-up? Township and borough officials are often selected with a view to their peculiar fitness for the office, regardless of political affiliations, a thing which could not well be done at a general election in the fall without many vexatious complications. The February election is all right and should stand just as it is.

By the death of Galusha A. Grow, which occurred at his home at Glenwood, Susquehanna county, Pa., Sunday, there passed away one of the last of the notable political figures of ante-bellum days. He entered Congress in 1851 and remained a member of that body till almost the close of the war, being elected speaker of the house in 1861, which position he retained until his retirement in 1863. In 1864 he came within one vote of being nominated vice president instead of Andrew Johnson, who became president on the death of Abraham Lincoln. Mr. Grow's greatest public service was as the "father" of the homestead act, an act which has been credited with doing more than any other one thing for the development of the great west. He again entered congress 14 years ago as a member from this state, and served for a number of years never married.

Muzette.

Spring is here and housecleaning is all the go.—The Proper drilling crew are still at work. We expect gas soon.—Mr. Gremont, of Gilfoyle, was supplying the drillers with wood a few days.—Wm. and Chas. Dotterer, of Guitonville, passed through our town on their way to the Clarion Normal last Monday.—Ira B. Shoup, of Nebraska, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents at this place.—Some of the people of this place attended church at Guitonville Sunday evening.—Roy Atkin and Miss Katie Eikenburg, of Guitonville, were callers at the Shoup house Sunday evening. SNOW BALL.

Kelletrville.

The concert Wednesday night was well attended.—Claire Catlin and family, of Six Mile, visited the former's parents last week.—Mrs. Frank Henderson and son Rex visited at Nebraska over Sunday.—A. A. Ludwig, who has been salesman at the clothing store of W. W. Kribbs for the past eight months, is going to Titusville. We are very sorry to have him leave our town.—Mildred Catlin, who is teaching school in Warren, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Catlin.—Jake Ray is improving rapidly.—John Wolfe, who was taken from this place to the Emergency hospital at Warren to be treated for appendicitis, was at last reports getting better.

Clarington.

Prof. Dunkle and Miss Myers closed a very successful term of school last week. Mr. Dunkle is undecided what he will do this summer. Miss Myers has gone to Missouri to teach.—Herman Slangenbaup, Amy Hepler and Ralph Meehling spent their vacation at home and have gone back to school.—Annie Brewer, Gussie Brewer and Hazel Healy went to Clarion to attend the Normal.—Four new wells came in a short time ago out in the Siggel field and all are reported good.—Billy Williams, who has been hauling goods to Clarion for forty years or more, has stepped down and out, sold his team and retired from business. He commenced hauling from Redbank and Tionesta when these places were the nearest railroad points.—Chas. Coon is home from Morrill, W. Va., for a short stay.—Mrs. L. C. Porter and daughter joined Mr. Porter last week and are at home in Mrs. Gray's home.—Some of our people were disappointed that local option lost, but reforms come slow.—There are quite a number of new faces around here: new men coming to take the place of old ones on the Big Four mill.—W. D. Shields spent Sabbath at home.—Boat-building has opened up this spring and loading and running lumber to the city is the order of the day. Mr. Crossman has loaded twelve boats and started to the city. Mr. Braden one raft and four boats. W. E. Moore and Dan Jones, up in Elk county, have 400,000 feet of square timber. They are rafting and have a good part of it run.

Porkey Items.

The frogs have been making plenty of music in and around our town since the spring weather has arrived.—Jacob Swartz, who has a timber job at Eagle Rock, was at home with his family over Sunday.—Miss Myrtle Durnall returned home last Wednesday evening, after a six weeks' visit with her uncle at Franklin, Pa.—Miss Jessie Burdick visited friends at Saybrook, visited at the home of O. E. Rupert over Sunday.—Wm. Barney, of Saybrook, visited at the home of R. W. Burdick over Friday night.—The Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. R. W. Burdick last Friday and did some lively hustling in the way of sewing carpet rags. There were thirteen ladies present, who did justice to the chicken dinner as well as the carpet rags.—Claude Littlefield was home over Sunday from Chaffee, where he is employed at rig building.—The preaching service at Minister on Sunday was quite largely attended. We were without services the last preaching Sabbath, on account of illness of the pastor.—Mrs. D. W. Downey, Mrs. John Littlefield and Mrs. Frank Littlefield were at Weller's Saturday afternoon shopping at the new store.—Mrs. H. E. Gillespie, Misses Kittie Hepler and Goldie Swartz, were Sheffield visitors Saturday afternoon.—Mrs. Wm. Slocum visited her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Highgate, at Hastings, last week.—B. J. Weller is moving his family back to their farm at Starr P. O. and is to be succeeded in the boarding house by P. Nelson and family of Kelletrville.—Mr. Fairweather of Kane, who has a timber job up Porkey Run, was at Kane with his family over Sunday.—George Blum, A. L. Weller, Wm. Slocum, Ben. Kinney and Wesley Durnall have quite an extensive timber job on the flats at the mouth of Logan Run, which will require some time to complete. They expect to raft the logs to the lower markets while the creek is at rafting stage.—Mrs. Jas. McMichael and sister Miss Lois Welsh, of Sheffield, visited their grandparents at Kelletrville and parents at Balltown during the past week.—Mrs. Jas. Welsh returned to her home Saturday evening, after spending a few days with her brother, John Wolfe, at the Warren hospital, where he has had an operation for appendicitis. His many friends wish for him a speedy recovery.—Mrs. Oscar Fairweather returned last week from Lamont, where she was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellithrope.

EUREKA!
Yes, I have Found It at Last.
Found what? Why that Chamberlain's Salve cures eczema and all manner of itching of the skin. I have been afflicted for many years with skin disease. I had to get up three or four times every night and wash with cold water to allay the terrible itching, but since using this salve in December, 1905, the itching has stopped and has not troubled me.—Elder John T. Ongley, Kootoville, Pa. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Letter to D. S. Knox,
Tionesta, Pa.
DEAR SIR—Here's honesty for you! North Dakota has a pure paint law. Prof. Ladd, the state chemist, analyzes a certain paint labeled "contains only lead and zinc and is strictly pure," and finds it no lead at all, a resinous oil, and benzine. It is, however, full-measure and contains no water.
That's like the man on trial for killing his grandmother; proved that he didn't set fire to the house.
No lead, but zinc and barytes, resinous oil, and benzine—"strictly pure lead and zinc paint!"
Pure paint is lead-zinc-and-oil; but that isn't all; there is such a thing as proportion and make. The strongest paint is Devco.
North Dakota is doing a handsome thing in holding these confidence-people up to scorn. She gives their names as well as their works.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.,
New York.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.
I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes the rest and sleep possible. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

A THRILLING TALE OF LOVE AND WAR
A Great Novel by the Author of "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush."
The man who fought more duels with fortune and suffered more variously and cruelly at the hands of destiny than any other of his time and nation is the famous John Graham, of Claverhouse, Scotland.
Never a woman but loved him, and only one in all his wild career who could win from him a single answering throb of affection. In fact, he was one of the most unusual striking characters in history. Perhaps that is why Ian MacIvor has chosen him for the hero of one of the most striking, unusual novels ever written. This novel is "Graham of Claverhouse." It is a story that carries the reader along by its tremendous power and unflagging interest, ever surprising him by a new and unexpected turn of plot, clever word picture or tense situation. Such a romance has not been written before during the present century. The exclusive rights to publish "Graham of Claverhouse" in serial form before its issuance as a book has been secured by The Pittsburgh Dispatch. The first installment will be printed Sunday, April 7th. Order early to avoid disappointment. "Graham of Claverhouse" is twelfth of the famous $150,000 series.
Gentle and Effective.
A well-known Manitoba editor writes: "As an inside worker I find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets invaluable for the touches of biliousness natural to sedentary life, their action being gentle and effective, clearing the digestive tract and the head." Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Dunn & Fulton's.
—The man who prides himself on being a "great observer of little things" can usually be relied upon for a few unpleasant remarks.

Auto Plunges Into River.

Philadelphia, April 2.—A big touring car plunged through the gates of the ferryboat Baltic as she was entering the Camden slip Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock. The car went overboard. It was not until 5 o'clock in the afternoon that the machine was fished up. Three men who were with the machine refused to give their names. When the Baltic had left the slip at Philadelphia the passengers left the automobile to stretch their legs. Near the Camden side the chauffeur got into his seat and in throwing a robe about himself struck a lever and set the machine in motion. The chauffeur jumped to the deck and the car pushed through the iron gates into the river.

Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. Wm. Henry, of Chabotaogga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. "The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. "I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned." It troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.
