SENATOR FORAKER'S grievance is that the president has volunteered to hold Secretary Taft's coat while the fight is on

THE wheat crop in the United States is promising beyond the average. Uncle Sam has the prospect of another year of great baryest.

PROPESSIONAL pickpockets sometimes start a row in a crowd in order to do business in their line. That's just what some of the newspapers of the country are trying to do at present. They are endeavoring to create discord in the Republican party by critcising Roosevelt, hoping thereby to land somebody in the White House who will work in harmony with the Hills, the Harrimans and Morgans in robbing the people.-Blizzard.

It is strongly suspected now by persons who have been doing a good deal of figuring that the conspiracy to rob the State of four or five millions of dellars through the pretext of furnishing the Capitol will involve a number of people whose names have not been mentioned in connection with it save in a whisper. It is scarcely conceivable that Huston and Sanderson would have the nerve to undertake so bold an enterprise without some powerful such let them be brought into the glare lons. of public scorn .- Punxy Spirit,

THE bill which passed the House at Harrisburg, yesterday, compelling vaccination only in case of an epidemic, should become a law. The present law, which requires the immediate vaccination of every child of school age, whenever somebody takes the whim to demand its enforcement, and bringing inconvenience and pain to a multitude where there may not be a known case of small-pox within a thousand miles, has never been heartly approved by the people, and is largely responsible for the growing opposition to an otherwise wholesome provision of law.-Blizzard. Great, good sense, tersely put,

DR. MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH, superintendent of public schools in Philadelphia, has filed with the Appropriation Committee a vigorous statement in support of a the boys, the girls. recommendation that the legislature appropriate not less than $15,000,000 for the schools of the state for the next two years. Even with this amount awarded to schools, according to Dr. Brumbaugh's statement, the rate per pupil will fall below that in the school appropriation of 1895. In his statement to the committee Dr. Brumbaugh furnishes a mass of interesting statistics showing how appropriations for schools have failed to keep pace with the constantly increasing numumber of pupils in attendance. This, it Dunn & Fulton. might be said, is the chief argument of the advocates of a $15,000,000 appropria-

In his letter to the Peace Congress in New York, President Roosevelt earnestly plead that "earnest men, who believe strongly in the cause, but who have not themselves to bear the responsibility of upholding the nation's honor, should not by insisting upon the impossible, put off the day when the possible can be accomplished. Harm and not good would re- that do not gripe or sicken are Dade's sult if the most advanced nations, those in which most freedom for the individual is combined with most efficiency in securing orderly justice, as between individuals, should, by agreement, disarm and place themselves at the mercy of other peoples less advanced,-of other peoples, still in the stage of military barbarism and military despotism. Anything in the nature of general disarmament would do harm and not good if it left the civilized and peace loving peoples, those with the highest standards, of municipal and ininternational obligation and duty, unable to check the other peoples who have no anch standards, who acknowledge no such obligations. Finally, it behoves all of us to remember, and especially those of us who either make or listen to speeches, that there are few more mischlevous things than the custom of uttering or things than the custom of uttering or applauding sentiments which represent mere oratory, and which are not, and cannot be, and have not been translated from words into deeds. An impassioned oration about peace which includes an impassioned demand lor something which the man who makes the demand either man who makes knows or ought to know can not, as a matter of fact, be done, represents not gain, but loss for the cause of peace; for even the nobelest cause is marred by advocacy which is either insincere or fool-

We submit a brief report of the work done by our Union since the convention ast fall:

In October we presented a flag, size 4x8 feet, to the school. Our efforts to teach patriotism were very kindly aided by the teachers, Mr. Shoup and Miss Lura Harding, each having purchased and hung on the walls of their school rooms large portraits of Washington, Lincoln and Roosevelt.

In February a parior meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Longstreth. Also a well attended mothers' meeting at and a very pleasant time enjoyed. A collection was taken for the work.

Fired Five Shots at His Wife.

Rome, N. Y., April 23.-Edward Gowring, an attendant at the Rome State Custodial asylum, attempted last night, it is charged, to shoot his wife, who is also an attendant at the institution. Five shots were fired at her with a revolver, three of which took effect, but it is not believed the wounds will prove fatal. Jealousy is supposed to have prompted the deed. Gowring says his home is in Bridgeport, Conn., and that he was married to the woman in Middletown, Conn., about nine months ago. They have been here only a few weeks. Gowring is under arrest

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic

Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Baim. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon feit like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a timent. A Talk on

Clothing manufacturers have earned how to put quality into their products so that the clothes will retain shape and character and give service Some of them do this while others avoid the issue on account of the increased expense and continue to make clothes as they express it, "To Sell Commercially All Wool, and Tailored With a Hot Iron.'

From your standpoint there is but one way, unless you are a clothes ex-pert. Trade only at a store where you can place your entire confidence without fear of its being abused.
