President Answers Criticism - Few May Day Strikes - Money Needed For Peary's Voyage - Engine and Coach Went Into Creek-David Willcox Shot Himself

President Answers Criticism. In a letter addressed to Honore

Jaxon of Chicago, chairman of the "Cook County Moyer-Haywood conference," President Roosevelt replied to the criticisms of his recent letter in which he referred to Moyer and Haywood, officials of the Western Federation of Miners, charged with implication in the murder of former Governer Steunenberg of Idaho, as "undesirable citizens."

The president says he regrets any body of men should so far forget their duty to their country as to, by formation of societies, and in other ways, endeavor to influence justice and coerce court or jury; that they, not he, are trying to influence justice and he condemns what he calls their flagrant impropriety in the matter.

He says that he indicated no opinion as to their guilt of the Steunenberg murder, but that it was a simple absurdity to suppose that because a man is on trial he is free from criticism as to his manner of life. He said he might as well be accused of trying to influence the suits against Harriman some of whose friends had also criticised him.

He said that Mover and Haywood stand as representatives of those who habitually appear as guilty of incitement to or apology for bloodshed and violence.

He added that he was profoundly indifferent to the condemnation of him for his criticisms of the undesirable types of citizens, regardless of the power of either labor or capital.

Make No Reply to President. Moyer and Haywood, the accused Western Federation men at Boise City, Idaho, on advice of counsel, decline to talk of the president's latest letter declaring them to be "undesirable citizens." The attorneys declare they cannot, in the interests of their clients, permit them to become involved with the president of the United States and his friends in a newspaper controversy. Already, counsel declares, has their case suffered from too much agitation, and they will not, either for themselves or their clients, make any statement regarding the president's utterances.

Good Outlook For Labor. The opening of the out-door construction season finds New York, both city and state, without apprehension of serious labor troubles. In the building trades especially prosperous and reassuring conditions pre-

There is a large and well met de mand for both skilled and unskilled labor, due to the extensive private construction projects now under way, and the tunnels, railway terminals and other undertakings of a public or quasi-public nature. This contentment is generally reflected in the manufacturing and industrial centers and beyond a few localized and sporadic strikes the labor situation is regarded as brighter than for many years. Trouble Over Eight-Hour Day. Labor's New Year's day, May 1, finds San Francisco facing serious labor troubles. Eleven unions, including every branch of the metal trades, have called meetings for between now and next Tuesday night to consider the refusal of employers to grant an eight hour day with nine hours' pay.

A vote will be taken to decide whether the men shall accept the offer of a continuance of the nine-hour day with a 5 per cent increase of wages or strike. About 10,000 men are involved

Money Needed For North Pole Dash. Lack of money-about $60,000-to finance the expedition may mean the abandonment of the dash to the North pole which Commander Robert E. Peary has planned for this summer. The Peary Arctic club, of which Morris K. Jessup is president, is attending largely to refitting the Roosevelt, and it has issued an appeal for contributions from the people of the United States so that a total of $100,-000 may be raised.

To this gigantic task of discovery Commander Peary implicitly believes his fellow countrymen should lend their active interest and support. The vigor of his robust and hardened frame, the determination in his strong face and his absolute confidence that he has been destined to attain the goal, all express his conviction that he will win.

Commander Peary said that if conditions were favorable the objects of the expedition might be accomplished in one season. But he might remain north as long as three years. He was preparing, he said, for a long and stern battle:

Engine and Coach Went Into Creek.

Two trainmen were killed and more han one hundred passengers had a thrilling escape from death in a wreck on the Wabash railroad Sunday when the engine and one passenger coach of westbound train No. 27 left the tracks half a mile west of the Bridgeville station and plunged headlong into Chartiers creek, 40 feet below. Scores of people were saved by a circumstance which is now regarded as providential.

A new schedule went into effect on the road Sunday and to this fact many owe their lives. By the new schedule train No. 27 left this city 45 minutes earlier than formerly and over 50 persons missed the train for this reason. Because the passengers were fewer than ordinary all were placed in the three rear coaches, leaving the front coach unoccupied.

David Willcox Shot Himself.

Mr. Willcox, broken in health, sailed for Europe some time ago and recently, because he had not benefited physically, cabled his resignation of the presidency of the railroad, which was accepted by the directors, who chose as his successor Leonor F. Loree, once president of the Baltimore & Ohio and later of the Rock Island railroad. At the time it was stated that Mr. Willcox's retirement from the presidency of the Delaware & Hudson was prompted solely by ill health.

Free Love Destroys Colony.

The adoption of free love by a portion of the members is given as the cause of the downfall of "Equality," a socialistic colony organized at Bellingham, Wash., in 1897. For years the colony has been pointed to as a successful experiment in collective ownership and production. Judge | railroad employes. Joyner of the Skagit county court has issued an order that its property be sold to pay the debts. The property consists of 600 acres of land, sawmill, printing plant and 20 dwellings. The colony was established by a national organization known as the Brotherhood of the Co-Operative Commonwealth, of which many prominent Socialists were members.

Inventor Sent to Bellevue. James Bartlett Hammond of New York, inventor of the typewriter bearing his name and president of the Hammond Typewriter company, has been committed to the psychopathic ward at Bellevue for observation on complaint of his brother, Thomas F.

Hearing Held by Joint Legislative Committee.

Among Important Changes Is That Modifying Power of Removal and Allowing Railroads to Exchange Passes - Transportation For Newspaper Advertising.

Albany, April 30. - The so-called public utilities bill, in substantially the form in which its introducers, Sen-Motor Page and Assemblyman Merritt, desired it to go before the two houses for final disposition, came from the printer late yesterday afternoon; too late for detailed discussion at the hearing, or conference, on the subject held by the assembly railroads committee in joint session with the senate committee on judiciary.

There was, nevertheless, considerable debate on the bill as originally introduced, though in several instances Chairman Merritt declared that the assembly committee which has worked many hours on the bill, had already made substantially the changes asked for.

Practically no new objections were raised by the representatives of the public service corporations who appeared before the committee, and most of their suggestions were of a technical legal character, relating, for instance, to provisions for the entry of a defense by a corporation against which one of the proposed public service commissions shall have begun summary proceedings to enforce its Pierce Criticises the Bill.

The chief direct criticism of the bill as a whole was made by Henry J. Pierce, chairman of a committee appointed by the trustees of the Buffalo Chamber of Commerce, who presented 11 specific criticisms based on the original bill, three of which it appeared had already been made by the assembly committee. The principal objection was against the absolute power of removal vested in the hands of the Ex-Assemblyman Charles Campbell, who was leader of the Manicipal Ownership delegation in last year's assembly, attacked the bill as unintelligible to a layman, and said it ought to have several months consideration. O. D. Franz of Buffalo, representing a local organization of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors. objected to the bill on the ground that it would inevitably result in injury to

An informal discussion was held with the committee by Charles Matthewson, representing the Consolidated Gas company, William N. Dykeman the Brooklyn Union Gas company and Colonel Timothy P. Williams the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company,

It was announced by Chairman Mer ritt that so far as the assembly committee was concerned there would be no more hearings on the bill, but that anyone who had suggestions to make after study of the amended bill might communicate them to the committee.

Discussed at Public Meeting.

The special committee of the Albany Chamber of Commerce which has been studying the public utilities bill has reported and the trustees of the organization have adopted a recommendation favoring a public meeting to be held here for the discussion of the bill.

As conditions of the meeting it is specified:

That two prominent speakers be in vited to address this meeting, one to favor the measure, the other to oppose it; that the chambers of commerce and boards of trade in the state be invited to send representatives to this conference; that it be understood that this conference is called for the sole purpose of discussing the measure and that no vote is to be taken committing the gathering as standing in favor of or opposing the bill; that the Albany Chamber of Commerce is not to commit itself at the present time as either opposing or favoring the measure."

Among the railroad labor organizations which notified the legislative committees of opposition to the bill are H. G. Brooks Lodge No. 169 of Hornell and Albany City lodge No. 230 of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Fire men and Engineers.

Among the amendments to the hill as originally introduced the most important from the layman's viewpoint is that modifying the power to remove a public service commissioner, proposed by the bill to be given to the governor. In the original bill it was provided that any commissioner might he removed by the governor, "but in case of such removal the governor shall file with the secretary of state a statement of the reasons for such removal and shall report such removal and the reasons to the legislature at its next session." The amended bill provides that:

"The governor may remove any commissioner for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving to him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being publicly heard in person or by counsel in his own defense upon not less than 10 days notice. If such commissioner shall be removed, the governor shall file in the office of the secretary of state a complete statement of all charges made against him and his findings thereon together with a complete record of the proceedings."

The salaries of the commissioners are increased from $10,000 to $15,000. The salaries of the commissioners, secretary and counsel for the first district, which by the first bill were to have been paid by New York city, are now to be paid by the state. The salary of other employes in the first district are to be paid by the city as provided in the first bill. By the original bill all fees collected by the two commissions were to go to the state. By this bill all fees collected in the first district are to go to New York city. As to free transportation the bill is also added: "Nor shall anything in this act prevent the issuance of passenger transportation in exchange for advertising space in newspapers at full rates."

UNREASONABLE RESTRICTION Francis Lynde Stetson Criticises the Public Utilities Bill.

Ningara Falls N. Y., April 30,-Senator P H. McCarren of Brooklyn and Francis Lynde Stetson of New York were the principal speakers at the Board of Trade banquet last night. Mr. Stetson paid particular attention to the public utilities bill now before the legislature. "At present," said he, "and in quarters where we might expect a more genial view of mankind at work, it seems to have become easy to assume that the winning workers are no more than lucky gamesters, conducting their play under the astute advice of con-scienceless counsellors.' Such a law, continued Mr. Stetson, would have postponed the industrial development of Niagara and it must lead to a check and delay in the investment of new capital. He claimed that the intervention proposed by the bill would place unreasonable restrictions upon established businesses and operate most seriously to the disadvantage of the small investor.

graveyard, two miles from the church, and the procession of mourners in rigs reached from the church to the cemetery. Many people drove all night to be present. The services were conducted by Ray, Lloyd Williams, pastor, who caused a sensation by declaring; "The world is better off without Stanford Whites, Harry Thaws and men of their stamp. Our daughters in their homes are safer without them. May God have mercy on their souls."
