Sudden Death of J. C. Hoover.

Word comes to us just before going to press of the death of Squire J. C. Hoover, which occurred this Wednesday morning at four o'clock, at his home in Tionesta township, after an illness of only a week, of pneumonia. A more extended notice of the deceased will be given next week.

—Rev. W. H. Downing, of Tidoute, will preach in the M. E. church at Nebraska next Sunday at eleven o'clock a. m. Regular services will be held in the Tionesta M. E. church next Sunday evening at eight o'clock.

—The annual Sunday School Convention of Forest county will be held in Tionesta, June 17 and 18. Delegates from every Sunday school in the county are expected. A most interesting and helpful program is already formulated, and it abounds with excellent addresses by entertaining and instructive speakers from various parts of the county and elsewhere. Keep the dates in mind and plan to attend. You will enjoy it.

—Governor Stuart has approved a bill to permit children who reside two miles or more by public road from the nearest school house in their own district to attend any more convenient school in another district without the consent of the directors of either district, and making the district where they reside liable for the cost of tuition to the district where they attend. The new law will end the frequent controversies between school boards over the question.

—Honest workmanship, good material and fair dealing will tell every time, and reputation good or bad, is likely to follow one or extend to great distances. Last week J. C. Snowden shipped one of his superior wagons to Bigheart, Oklahoma, where it will do service in the oil regions of that far-off state. The purchaser was J. W. Taylor, who got his information as to the good qualities of the Snowden wagons from James Hood, a former Tionesta boy. Mr. Snowden may look for more orders from that section after this wagon has been in commission a while.

—Our hill neighbors report a considerable fall of snow at an early hour Monday morning, but no frost. Light frost was reported on the hills yesterday morning, but this, Wednesday, morning it is different, and it is not necessary to go to the hills for freezing news. Here in the valley ice frosts last night all of a quarter inch in thickness, and evidences are not wanting of the destruction wrought to such vegetation and foliage as had sufficiently branched out to get nipped. The frost was a killing one sure, and only the backward condition of vegetation has saved it from damage.

—The legislature has passed a bill fixing the minimum salaries of public school teachers who hold provisional certificates at $40 a month, and $50 where the teacher holds a professional, permanent or normal school certificate, so that after June, 1908, no teacher can be hired for less than $40, and those holding the higher grade certificates must be paid not less than $50. Some of the townships will consider this somewhat of a hardship, and it is probable there will be an increased demand for the "provisional certificate" teachers, as the average township will not feel able to pay the price which the law fixes for those teachers holding the higher grade certificates.

—There seems to be a disposition on the part of the state game commission to do something in the nature of enforcing the law in this section judging from a case which came before Squire Zuendel at Kellestville one day last week. A couple of fish wardens found enough undersized trout in the possession of a young man from Balltown to warrant the Justice in placing a fine of one hundred dollars on the young fisherman. The fine was paid, one-half of which goes to the state and the other half to the informer who secures the conviction. Moral—Take a pocket rule with you when you go trouting, for you never can tell when you'll meet the fish warden.

—The W. R. C., by a special dispensation, held their meeting Friday evening, May 17th, instead of Wednesday, May 22d, in order that our Department President might meet with us before going to the Department Convention at Easton, Pa. After the regular business had been transacted the Junior Vice President, Mrs. Gaston, stepped forward and in a pleasing manner presented our worthy Department President, Sue May Sharpe, with a W. R. C. recognition pin as a token of the love and appreciation of Corps No. 137. Mrs. Sharpe responded in a few well chosen words, thanking the ladies for the gift. Light refreshments were then served and all enjoyed a social time.

—A local physician is authority for the statement that the dandelion is among the most healthful vegetables known to the medical profession, and he advises that all should eat freely of the delicious product of the field and dell. The active principles of dandelion have a hypnotic influence and possess certain medical virtues so that it acts quickly as a spring tonic to the system, enriching and cleansing the blood—which is the wellspring of life—and healing and strengthening the tissues of the kidneys so that one may acquire pure, rich blood and incidentally, a clear complexion, as this "spring tonic" is being offered free by nature, it might be well to give it a thorough trial while the fields abound with it.—Ex.

—The Cochran pension bill provides for the inauguration of the state pension system on Jan. 14, 1908, and the $5,800,000 it carries is figured to be sufficient for five quarterly pension payments before the legislature of 1909 can appropriate more. If the government cuts the present appropriation to $2,000,000 there is a possibility that the fund will be exhausted after two quarterly payments. Some 60,000 veterans will be eligible for pensions, under the act, although its beneficiaries are limited to those men who served in Pennsylvania regiments and are now residents of the state. The schedule of pension allowances is as follows: For men who served in the army less than one year, $5 a month; for those who served more than one year and less than two, $7.50; for men who served more than two years, $10.

—Hopkins' store is the only place in Tionesta where the celebrated Queen Quality shoe can be purchased, and the stock is never allowed to run down. Get a pair.

PERSONAL.

—Lewis Arner was home from Sheffield over Sunday.

—Miss Florence Fulton is visiting friends in Oil City.

—R. J. Flynn, of Newtown Mills, was one of our agreeable callers Monday.

—James T. Brennan Esq., is down from Warren this week attending to legal business.

—Miss Fern Bowman, attending Clarion Normal, was home over Sunday with her parents.

—Mrs. J. H. Derickson is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Wallace, of East Brady, who arrived yesterday.

—Wilbur Ledebur, medical student at the Western Pa. University, Pittsburg, is home for the summer vacation.

—Mrs. J. R. Osgood came home from the Oil City hospital last Wednesday, very much improved in health.

—Mrs. Fred Slocum and daughter Margaret of Kellestville, are guests of the former's mother, Mrs. G. F. Watson.

—Mrs. Mary Gleinig, who has been spending some time with her cousin, Mrs. Benninghoff, in Warren, returned home Friday.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Greaves, of New Alexandria, Pa., are rejoicing over the recent arrival at their home of a splendid little daughter.

—Mrs. M. A. Feit left yesterday for Williamsport to visit her sister, Miss Georgia Watson, who is a student at Dickinson seminary.

—Mrs. Mary A. Rhodes is home with her son, M. L., having spent the winter at Tylersburg at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Rodgers.

—Our old veteran friend, John Dunn, who spent the past year in Erie, is back with Tionesta friends, and will spend the summer with his son, Dr. Dunn.

—Miss Elizabeth P. Davis, of West Chester, Pa., arrived here Monday evening and has charge of the physical training classes of the summer school.

—Mr. A. W. Cook left Tuesday on a business trip to Portland, Oregon. Mrs. Cook accompanied her husband as far as Pittsburg.—Brookville Republican.

—Capt. J. H. Haight, of Cooper Tract, Howe township, was a visitor at the county capital over Sunday, being a guest at the home of Commissioner Agnew.

—Elmer Densmore, who has been employed at Kellestville for several months past, has quit that place and is thinking of going to the Butler county oil field.

—Miss Lulu Carr, who was taken to the hospital three weeks ago for an operation for appendicitis, was removed to her home on 12th street Sunday.—Franklin News.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Witherell, of Endeavor, were visitors in Tionesta Wednesday last, and looking after the finishing of their pretty new Vine street cottage.

—Misses Ellen and Leona Bowman of East Hickory sail for Europe June 8th on the North German Lloyd steamship Barbarossa, expecting to spend three months abroad.—Tidoute News.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Meader and daughter, of Titusville, came over on Saturday to spend the Sabbath with Mrs. Meader's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weingard, on German Hill.

—The REPUBLICAN acknowledges a pleasant call Monday from Charles Jones and Constable Green, of Marienville, and Landlord Barrett, of the Kingsley House, Kellestville.

—Mrs. W. C. Inel went to Tidoute this morning to attend the annual convention of the Northwestern Federation of Pennsylvania Women's Clubs, which meets there today and tomorrow.

—J. A. Adams was at New Castle last week to see his brother-in-law, M. D. Allen, who is sick with typhoid fever. He brought his little nephew, Howard Allen, with him for a few weeks' visit.

—C. R. Bowman, ex-sheriff, who has charge of the Kel-Bow Lumber Co., at Pigeon, Forest county, Pa., spent last Sunday with his family in Clarion. That little baby has quite an attraction for him.—Clarion Democrat.

—M. H. Harriger, of Mayburg, spent a part of the past week in Tionesta and attended the F. M. Holiness Convention. Mr. H. gave the REPUBLICAN a pleasant call, and will read the best paper in the county for the coming year.

—Reports from the bedside of George W. Bovard are very disheartening to his many friends. His strength seems steadily waning, and all efforts to administer nourishment of any kind are unavailing. Friends are hoping for the best, but fearing the worst.

—Charles S. Leech, of Lexington Ky., spent the past week visiting friends and relations in this section. Monday and Tuesday he was a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. E. Wenk. Mr. Leech is engaged in coal mining operations at Barthel, Kentucky.

—Howard Thomson, who is firing on the P. R. R., is spending a two weeks' vacation at his home here. Howard was a running partner with engineer John J. Flaherty, who was killed in the wrecking of the P. R. R. last Friday, and began his vacation the day previous to the accident.

—A. R. Braden, one of Clarion's prominent business citizens, was a juror at court this week, and a pleasant caller at the REPUBLICAN office Monday morning. Mrs. Braden accompanied her husband and they were guests at the home of her brother-in-law, L. Agnew.

—At a party given by Mrs. H. May Irwin yesterday afternoon to a small company of lady friends, the hostess announced the marriage engagement of her son, Arthur May Irwin, of Point Richmond, Cal., and Miss Nella Louise McKean, of this city.—Franklin News, 16th.

—Grace, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas, of the borough, died at 5 o'clock on Friday evening last after an illness extending over a period of several months and much patient suffering. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, Rev. H. D. Call and R. A. Zahniser conducting the services and the interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

—Miss Ida Paup arrived home Friday from Brookville, Pa., where her school closed the week previous. Miss Paup has been re-elected to teach the same room for another year. She remained in Brookville for a week to attend the wedding of a friend, Miss Hattie McAuluch, assistant teacher in the high school, and Rev. Stewart I. Long, of Sullivan, Indiana, which occurred May 16th.

—Mrs. J. D. W. Reck left Saturday to attend the funeral of an old school friend, Miss Agnes Moorhead, who died May 16th, at her home in Fairview, Erie county, Pa., and whose funeral was held Monday. Mrs. Reck will spend this week with her mother, Mrs. J. J. Neal, at Conneaut, Ohio.

—Miss Florence Jensen and Roy Jensen, daughter and son of S. C. Jensen, of Kingsley township, this county, have been honored in being chosen as two of the twelve students who will represent the graduating class of the Clarion Normal in the commencement exercises. The class numbers thirty-nine this year.

—Miss Josephine Smearbaugh is a member of the graduating class of 1907, Washington, Pa., Seminary, the commencement week of which begins on the 1st of June and extends over the 4th. A number of Miss Josephine's friends here have received invitations to attend the event, which is usually one of rare interest.

—Commencement exercises for the classes of '07 will be held at State College on June 10th and 11th, when two of Tionesta's bright young men will graduate from this well known institution, Messrs. John Ritchey and Roy Bovard. They have remembered a number of their friends here with invitations to attend this important occasion.

—Capt. Wm. McCann returned last week from Interlachen, Florida, where he has had charge of a large orange grove for more than a year past. He is very much taken with the delightful climate of that State and expects to return again before another winter sets in. From his robust appearance we should judge life agreed with him in the Everglade State.

—Linus T. Shriver and Miss Alma M. Lohmeyer, two of Tionesta's well known and popular young people, were united in marriage at the M. E. parsonage, Saturday evening, May 16th, 1907, by Rev. W. O. Calhoun. They are at present enjoying a short wedding trip and expect to make their home here on their return. Here's to you, Linus, and your fair bride, and as a brother craftsman we extend our congratulations along with your many friends. May your pathway through life be strewn with roses.

—A party composed of C. W. Amsler wife, and son, Henry, and Charles H. Miller, left yesterday in Mr. Amsler's new auto for Marien, Va. Brookville was their first stopping place. From there they go east to Freeburg, Snyder county, where Mrs. Miller will be picked up. A stop will be made at Harrisburg and Gettysburg. Passing over the Natural Bridge into Virginia they will stop at the Luray Cave, then on to Marien where Mr. Amsler has a large mill. Before returning Mr. Amsler and family expect to visit the Jamestown Exposition. They will return in about two months. Mr. Miller and wife will make Marien their future home. Mr. Miller having accepted a position in the office of the Spruce Lumber Company.—Clarion Republican.

Court Minutes.

The regular term of May court was convened Monday at eleven o'clock with President Judge W. M. Lindsey and Associate Judges F. X. Kretler and P. C. Hill on the bench.

A large number of motions were made and petitions presented as follows:

Howard Kelly and J. R. Clark were appointed appraisers on the application of Mrs. Helena Setley for the widow's exemption of $300 in the estate of S. J. Setley, deceased.

C. H. French was appointed Road Supervisor of Hickory township, in place of C. E. Jewell who was elected and resigned. A charter was granted to the M. E. church of Tionesta.

The bonds of J. M. Zuendel, collector of Kingsley township, in the sum of $4,000, and N. B. Swartzfager, collector of Howe township, in the sum of $10,000, were approved.

J. M. Zuendel was appointed Assistant Assessor of Kingsley township, and M. L. Range was appointed Assistant Assessor of Harmony township.

The widow's exemption of $300 was approved on the application of Mrs. Leatha Neill, in the estate of Josiah Neill, deceased.

George L. King was appointed guardian of Victor L. and Alice Neill, minor children of Josiah Neill, late of Harmony township, deceased.

R. L. Haslet was appointed guardian and E. J. Sanner trustee of Mrs. Deborah Sanner, of Tionesta Boro. In the petition of the trustee for leave to mortgage the premises for the maintenance of Mrs. Sanner, the court took the papers.

The petition signed by 27 citizens of Howe and Kingsley townships for the appointment of viewers to vacate a public road heretofore granted but not yet completed, beginning at or near the Bufam farm in Jenks township and ending at a point at or near Kellestville in Kingsley township, was held over, and the court ordered the petition to be filed and notice given to the supervisors of Howe, Kingsley and Jenks townships, and leave is granted to file additional petitions and remonstrances before next term.

J. E. Mullin, Esq., of Kane, Pa., was admitted to practice in the courts of Forest county.

The cases of the Commonwealth vs. John Sutter, charge of b. and c., and Commonwealth vs. Albert Stahlman, charge a. and b., were not prothon on payment of costs by defendants.

A subpoena in divorce, returnable at next term, was granted in the case of Mrs. Adella Eifer vs. Clement Eifer.

The court then heard the returns of the constables and there being no returns of a criminal nature, Judge Lindsay said that "The citizens of Forest county seem to be enjoying peace and happiness, at least peace, as there is no business for the Grand Jury."

The Grand Jury was discharged at three o'clock Monday without calling the roll or being organized.

The constable of Barnett township reported that "the bridge across Maple creek on old Redclyffe road from Redclyffe to Black's Corners is broken down and should be rebuilt and the road from same points is dangerous to travel, being full of ruts and trees across the same, making the road impassable." The constable of Tionesta Boro reported seeing men of intemperate habits intoxicated, but don't know who furnishes the liquor.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. George Young, charge statutory rape, a jury was called. The prosecturix not appearing, the commonwealth had no evidence to offer and the court directed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty, which was done, and the defendant was discharged.

The case of Catherine Bailey et al. vs. Ida Hammond et al., being a suit to recover on a mortgage, was tried by jury Monday afternoon. Verdict for plaintiff of $1,439.00, with attorney's commission of $32.50.

The case of T. D. Collins et al. vs. L. S. Clough et al. went on trial Tuesday morning and will probably last several days. All jurors other than those called in this case were excused from further service at this term. All the other cases on the trial list were continued by agreement to next term.

The foreign attorneys present at court are Thomas H. Murray, of Clearfield; W. L. McCracken, of Brookville; J. H. Osmer, of Franklin; J. E. Mullin, of Kane; C. M. Shawkey, W. J. Knupp, Wm. H. Allen, W. E. Rice, W. D. Hineckley and D. I. Ball, of Warren; A. L. Cole, of DuBois; C. Z. Gordon, of Brookville.

D. A. R. Delightfully Entertained.

Sunshine and genuine hospitality greeted Tidoute Chapter, D. A. R., as they alighted at West Hickory, where they were met by the hostesses, Mrs. Allan Turner and Miss Turner, who escorted them to their home, where they were welcomed in true and hearty fellowship. The attractive home never looked more cheerful than on the morning of May 16. Many flags and blossoms lent their color and perfume to the occasion.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chapter was to celebrate the settlement of Jamestown, Va., May 13, 1907. The Regent called the meeting to order at 11:30 a. m., and 31 members responded to roll call with an item or fact concerning the Jamestown Exposition, after which business was suspended and the company adjourned to partake of an elaborate luncheon, which was served promptly at noon. Covers were laid for 31 members and 16 guests, who exemplified their appreciation of the good things provided for the inner woman, which followed in course after course until one could only wonder where all the good and toothsome things came from. The feast certainly was par excellence and "fit for a queen."

After luncheon business was resumed, and it was with pleasure and satisfaction that the company listened to Mrs. Eaton, delegate to the Continental Congress, who gave a very full and interesting account of the convention, which was listened to with close attention and endorsed as "well done," and was received with the thanks of the Chapter.

The committee on the annual prize essay reported, the first prize going to Warren, the second to Tidoute. Badges will be awarded this month. A paper on Jamestown was read, after which other business was transacted.

The music and singing of Misses Turner, Hendrick, Harmon, Eschbart and Martin added greatly to the enjoyment of all. Time came too soon for the good-bye, and all started for the train and home with only happy and joyous memories of the full and pleasant day passed.

The next regular meeting will be with Mrs. Schour, at Warren, June 14, 1907.

To Be Well Dressed

Does not necessarily imply being expensively dressed; for it is within the province of every man to wear clothes of character and quality—tailored in the height of fashion—of splendid materials and workmanship, for a sum as modest as any limited purse might necessitate.

Custom clothing—at the best—is a mere luxury. The custom tailor buys a length or two of this pattern and that pattern—and you pay him for his individual services to you. You get no more style or individuality in your clothes—for from whom does he get his designs and ideas, but from the manufacturer whose line is representative—whose styles are authentic and sought after. As an example, select any one of the garments that are here.

A three button sack, for instance, which we show in light and dark worsteds, cassimeres and chevrons in plaids, stripes, checks and mixtures, as well as black and blue undressed worsteds and serges.

Notice first the cut of the coat—the broad shoulders, the wide and shapely lapels, the narrow, curved-in waist and slight flare over hips. The sack has no vent—every detail being finished in accord with the foremost designers of men's fashions. Then the tailoring; note the straightness of the stitching—no wrinkles or cloth cockles—a perfect hanging front, shapely shoulders and sleeves. Could the custom tailor serve you more carefully—could he duplicate any of these ready-to-don garments for anything like the price?—hardly. $10.00, $12.00, $15.00, $16.50, $18.00 to $25.00.

BEAN.

Mrs. Nancy (Whitton) Bean, relict of the late Abraham Bean, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ellen McCree, in East Hickory, Pa., May 18, 1907. She was born in New Jersey, July 27, 1825, and when she was six years of age her parents moved to Helen Furnace, Clarion county, Pa., where she grew to young womanhood. June 28, 1848, she was united in marriage with Abraham Bean, and not many years thereafter they moved to East Hickory, which was their home for many years. The husband died Feb. 3, 1882. Thirteen children were born to them, seven of whom survive, as follows: Mrs. J. C. Clark and Mrs. Ellen McCree, East Hickory; Mrs. G. W. Siggins, Tidoute; Mrs. S. D. Metzgar, Smetport, Pa.; C. L. Bean, Fagundis; Albert and Warren W. Bean, Colville, Wash. Three brothers also survive, namely, Samuel Whitton, of Newmansville, Pa., George, of Pleasantville, and John, of Gultonville, this county, and one sister, Mrs. Lizzie Durnell, of Franklin. Thirty-five years ago Mrs. Bean united with the Free Methodist church, living a consistent Christian life all these years, and dying in the faith of that church, respected and beloved by all who knew her. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Monroe, of Pleasantville, on Monday, and the remains were laid to rest in East Hickory cemetery, beside those of her husband and children.

Presbytery Meets at Tylersburg.

The Presbytery of Clarion met in an adjourned meeting in the Presbyterian church of Tylersburg Wednesday, May 15, 1907. Presbytery convened at 2:30 p. m. with twelve ministers and four elders present. The principal business of the meeting was to examine Licentiate W. C. Ferver for ordination. After his examination, which was sustained by Presbytery, a committee was appointed to install him as pastor at Tylersburg and Scotch Hill Presbyterian churches. The pastoral relationship existing between J. C. McGaughey and the churches of Richland, Rockland and Academia was dissolved, and Rev. McGaughey dismissed to the Presbytery of Erie, where he will take charge of the Rocky Grove Presbyterian Church. On account of failing health Rev. C. J. Marshall requested his release from the pastorate of East Brady church. Presbytery considered his request and Mr. Marshall was released from the pastorate. A call from the Presbyterian church of Brookville was found in order and placed in the hands of Rev. James B. Hill and by him accepted. A committee of Presbytery will install Rev. Hill in June.
