

Calendar for June 1907 with days of the week and dates.

MOON'S PHASES table showing phases like Third Quarter, Full Moon, etc.

Republican Ticket. STATE. State Treasurer, JOHN O. SHEATZ, of Philadelphia.

A LAW passed by the legislature and signed by Governor Stuart provides for a shade tree commission of three freeholders in each city, borough and first class township.

COLONEL Henry Watterson says that nothing short of thirty-cent corn and forty-cent wheat, mixed up with cholera, yellow fever and a few other charming things, as well as a rent in the G. O. P., will give any kind of a show for the Democracy at the next Presidential election.

THE Adams Express Company has declared an extra dividend of about 200 per cent. on its stock. That explains why a reduction of rates to shippers would be practically a confiscation of the express companies' property.

THE Philadelphia Press, which last year and two years ago was booming the Democratic state candidates, is now advising that party to endorse the nomination of Sheatz, the Republican candidate.

THE New York American contemplates the corruption of Pennsylvania with mingled horror and dismay. And yet it is a clear case of the man who lives in a glass house throwing stones.

THE engineer in charge was Charles Braymer, of Cochranton, Crawford county, who sold the machine to Mr. Hackett, and two of his underlings.

Below we give a continuation from last week of the letter written by Miss Ida Schwab, missionary in India, to her uncle, Prothonotary Geist:

We're having strange times in India. There is such a spirit of unrest and dissatisfaction throughout the land. Mobs are rioting in many places, though we haven't heard of any bloodshed yet, but they've attacked missionaries and burned their houses.

Richard Stover, of Kellettsville, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stover, of Minister, Sunday.
