STATE. State Treasurer. JOHN O. SHEATZ, of Philadelphia.

County Treasurer, GEORGE W. HOLEMAN. of Tionesta.

SINCE 1856, in twelve times at bat, the Democratic party has made only two scores, both of which were driven in by Grover Cleveland. The best that Col. Bryan could do was to fan the air.

As THE United States is the most powerful nation abutting on the Pacific Ocean this country will not consider itself as abutting in too much when it sends to those waters as many ships as it thinks advisable.

THE fighting Admirals of Japan and this country, who have been holding "peace conferences" in New York, are invariably pictured at the banquet table, and in all the pictures the glassware assumes a prominence not at all encouraging to the good men who are struggling day by day to do away with the necessity for so many glasses on one table.-Oil City Blizzard.

THE Altoona Tribune says of the Republican standard-bearer in the State campaign this year. "The Republican State convention gave the people of Pennsylvania an ideal candidate for State Treasurer in the person of John O. Sheatz. He is acceptable to the stalwarts because He is acceptable to the independents because his legislative record was all they could desire and proved him a man of original views, who dared to stand alone if necessary. As a result, the party is thoroughly united."

Resolutions

Passed by Eli Berlin Post No. 629, G.A.R., East Hickory, Pa. July 6th 1907.
Resolved—That we as loyal citizens of the U. S. and members of the G. A. R. do emphatically condemn the action of the Governor of Pennsylvania in vetoing the nearer the breast of the dam, and before be could get the engine to working the boat was beyond control. At this point the occupants came to realize their awful premission dollars would be ample to pay in

Governor for his veto, as every G. A. R. Post in our state endorsed the Bill and urged the Governor to approve it. Also did the Dept. Eccampment on June 6th at Easton unanimously adopt a resolution to that effect and the same to the Governor.

Resolved—That the statement made by some, that the number benefited by the act would exceed forty thousand, is not justified as twenty two thousand is the total number entitled under the act, unjust by turning down a class, every one of which is a loyal citizen of our state, and appropriated largely for a class many of which are not citizens of our state.

Resolved: We most emphatically condenin the action of the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee of the House in fixing the appropriation at six million dollars and then also in holding the Bill the body of Mrs. Knox was taken out of water nearly a mile helow the dam. Since then all the bodies have been recovered. against it while undergoing consideration by the Governor.
